(3) Factory overhead costs. Factory overhead costs shall be determined by using the same methods and the same rates that the manufacturer used on December 1, 1941, in determining the factory overhead costs of the rubber drug sundry that he is required by paragraph (b) of this section to use as a basis for determining the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced. It shall include only those costs which the manufacturer on December 1, 1941, used in calculating the factory overhead.

(d) Reports of maximum prices. If a manufacturer produces after January 31, 1943, a rubber drug sundry for which a maximum price must be determined under this section (§ 1315.1754), he shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within five days after a purchaser first agrees to buy such goods, the maximum price as computed by him and his selling prices. The report shall contain a full description of the rubber drug sundry being priced and of any innovation in manufacturing processes involved and a detailed explanation of the computation of factory costs and of the maximum price. It shall also contain a description of the rubber drug sundry used in determining the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced and the maximum price, factory costs and an explanation of the reasons for the selection of that rubber drug sundry. The manufacturer may not accept payment for the rubber drug sundry, mark the maximum retail price on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container, or notify any person of the maximum wholesale or retail price until the price so reported is approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration or fifteen days have elapsed after the mailing of the report. Within this fifteen day period the price so reported shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration. Subsequent to this fifteen day period, such price shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time upon the written order of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1315.1755 Maximum manufacturers' prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, which cannot be priced under §§ 1315.1753 or 1315.1754. The maximum manufacturers' price for any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, which cannot be priced under §§ 1315.1753 or 1315.1754 shall be a price in line with the level of prices established by this regulation determined by the seller after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration. A seller who seeks an authorization to determine a maximum price under the provisions of this section shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., on application setting forth:

(a) A description in detail of the rubber drug sundry for which a maximum price is sought (including the manufacturing process); (b) a statement of the facts which make it impossible for him to use the methods for determining the maximum price set forth in §§ 1315.1753 and 1315.1754; (c) his proposed pricing method; and (d) a statement of the reasons why he believes that the use of this method will result in prices in line with the level of prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300. Such authorization will be in writing prescribing a method of determining the maximum price for some or all of the rubber drug sundries manufactured by the applicant which cannot be priced under §§ 1315.1753 or 1315.1754.

§ 1315.1756 Terms and conditions of sale. (a) The maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit.

(b) No manufacturer shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted, to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery of rubber drug sundries, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during December 1941 on deliveries of the same or similar types of commodities.

§ 1315.1757 Sales for export. The maximum price at which a person may export any rubber drug sundry shall be determined in accordance with the pro-- vision of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

§ 1315.1758 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery or processing of rubber drug sundries imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price: If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1315.1759 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade are sold or otherwise transferred after January 31, 1943, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this regulation.

§ 1315.1760 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1315.1761 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase of or relating to rubber drug sundries, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1315.1762 Records. To aid in the enforcement of this regulation every manufacturer is required to keep certain records for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect. These records are described in three paragraphs as follows:

(a) Records of sales. Every person engaged in the business of selling rubber drug sundries shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration complete and accurate records of every sale of rubber drug sundries, including: (1) the date thereof; (2) the name and address of the buyer; (3) the quantity of each class, kind, type, condition and grade of rubber drug sundries sold; and (4) the price per unit received.

(b) Records of the bases on which maximum prices are determined. Every manufacturer subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, in addition to the records required by paragraph (a) of this section, complete and accurate records of the following:

(1) Published price lists, discount sheets and all other regularly quoted prices in effect on December 1, 1941.

(2) For those rubber drug sundries for which there were no published price lists or other regularly quoted prices in effect on December 1, 1941, the highest price at which he delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered to deliver, each of those rubber drug sundries during the period October 1 to December 1, 1941, inclusive.

(3) Labor rates, materials prices and waste and factory overhead-rates in effect to him on December 1, 1941.

(4) Detailed cost estimate sheets and other data showing the calculations of prices of all rubber drug sundries sold or delivered after January 31, 1943, for which the maximum price must be determined in accordance with the provisions of §§ 1315.1754 or 1315.1755 of this regulation.

(c) Records of notifications of maximum prices given to wholesalers and retailers. Every manufacturer subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, in addition to the records required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, exact copies of all notifications of maximum prices given to wholesalers and retailers.

§ 1315.1763 Reports (a) Every manufacturer subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before March 1, 1943, a report stating the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 for all rubber drug sundies, other than victory line, he was producing on February 1, 1943, the method by which he determined those maximum prices, and the discounts, allowances, and other price differentials in effect therefor on December 1, 1941.

(b) Every manufacturer who produces victory line hot water bottles shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., each brand name which he uses for colored and black victory line hot water bottles, respectively, within fifteen days after he starts production of a bottle bearing that brand name. Colored and black victory line hot water bottles are distinguished in footnotes six and seven to Table II in § 1315.1772.

(c) Every manufacturer subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration in addition to or in place of the reports required in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require or permit.

§ 1315.1764 Notification—(a) Notification of price charged. Every manufacturer shall give each person purchasing rubber drug sundries from him an invoice showing the date of the transaction and the price charged for each type, brand and grade of rubber drug sundries sold.

(b) Notification of maximum retail and wholesale prices of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line—(1) Notification to wholesalers. Before or at the time of the first delivery of any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, to a wholesaler after January 31, 1943, the manufacturer shall notify the wholesaler of the maximum wholesale price of that article. This notification shall include the brand and the type or description of the rubber drug sundry and the maximum wholesale price applicable thereto. For those rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, of a type that are sold at retail this notification shall include also the maximum retail price and a statement that the wholesaler is required by Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 to notify any retailer to whom he sells that rubber drug sundry of that price unless the manufacturer has marked the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container in which it is sold at retail with the maximum retail price.

(i) Method by which the manufacturer calculates the maximum retail and wholesale price for notification to wholesalers. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum retail and wholesale price as follows:

The manufacturer shall first calculate the base price. This price is his maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry in question to that class of wholesalers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. The manufacturer will then calculate the maximum retail and wholesale prices by multiplying the base price by the following percentages which varies with the kind of seller. These percentages are shown in the following table:

Kind of seller:	Percentage by which the manufacturer's base price is to be multiplied—percent
Seller at wholesale, other than a dental, surgical or hospital supply house	133⅓
Dental, surgical or hospital supply house	142
Seller at retail, except a mail order house	233⅓

(2) Notification to retailers, other than mail order houses. Before or at the time of the first delivery of any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line by a manufacturer to a retailer after January 31, 1943, the manufacturer shall notify the retailer of the maximum retail price of that article unless the manufacturer has marked the maximum retail price on the rubber drug sundry or on the unit of sale container in which it is sold at retail. This notification shall include the brand and the type or description of the rubber drug sundry and the maximum retail price applicable thereto.

(i) Method by which the manufacturer calculates the maximum retail price for notification to retailers. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum retail price as follows:

(a) Rubber drug sundries for which the manufacturer can calculate a maximum wholesale price. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum retail prices of those rubber drug sundries for which he can calculate a maximum wholesale price in accordance with the provisions of § 1315.1753 or 1315.1754 of this regulation as follows:

The manufacturer shall first calculate the base price. This price is his maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry in question to that class of wholesalers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. The manufacturer will then calculate the maximum retail price by multiplying the base price by 233⅓ percent.

(b) Rubber drug sundries for which the manufacturer can not calculate a maximum wholesale price. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum retail prices of those rubber drug sundries for which he can not determine a maximum wholesale price in accordance with the provisions of § 1315.1753 or 1315.1754 of this regulation as follows:

The manufacturer shall first calculate the base price. This price is his maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry in question to that class of retailers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. The manufacturer will then calculate the maximum retail price by multiplying the base price by 210 percent.

(3) Rubber drug sundries to which this paragraph is not applicable. Anything in this paragraph (b) to the contrary notwithstanding, this paragraph (b) is not applicable to the types of rubber drug sundries listed in paragraph (h) of Appendix A (§ 1315.1771).

(c) Notification to mail order houses of the price to be used by the mail order house as a basis for determining its maximum prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. This paragraph (c) is applicable to all rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, except those listed in paragraph (h) of Appendix A (§ 1315.1771). Before or at the time of the first delivery after January 31, 1943, of any such rubber drug sundry to a mail order house, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser of the price that the purchaser must use as a basis for determining his maximum price. This figure is the manufacturer's maximum price for a sale of the particular rubber drug sundry to the class of sellers at wholesale which during the calendar year 1942 purchased the largest quantity of rubber drug sundries from the manufacturer. If the manufacturer can not calculate the maximum wholesale price of the rubber drug sundry in question in accordance with the provisions of § 1315.1753 or 1315.1754 of this regulation, the manufacturer shall notify the mail order house of the manufacturer's maximum price to the class of sellers at retail which during the calendar year 1942 purchased the largest quantity of rubber drug sundries from the manufacturer.

§ 1315.1765 Marking of rubber drug sundries by the manufacturer. On or after February 1, 1943, before delivery of any rubber drug sundries the manufacturer shall mark them or have them marked as follows:

(a) Victory line rubber drug sundries sold to any person, except a mail order house. Victory line rubber drug sundries which are sold to any person, except a mail order house, shall be marked as follows:

(1) Victory line rubber drug sundries, other than the hospital grade of hot water bottle. Victory line rubber drug sundries, other than the hospital grade of hot water bottle, shall be marked with the maximum retail price thereof, set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 301. The maximum retail price shall be marked as follows: "Retail Ceiling $------."

(2) Victory line hospital grade of hot water bottles. The hospital grade of victory line hot water bottles shall be marked with the maximum price thereof for sale to a consumer set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 301. This maximum price shall be marked as follows: "Hospital Ceiling $------."

(b) Victory line rubber drug sundries sold to mail order houses. Victory line rubber drug sundries which are sold to mail order houses shall be marked with a "V."

(c) Rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. Rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, shall be marked with either an "R" or the maximum retail price, calculated in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of § 1315.1764 of this regulation.

(d) Method of marking. The marking required by paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section shall be done in a manner so as to make it plainly visible to the purchasing public. The marking shall be placed on the rubber drug sundry itself, on the unit of sale container in which the rubber drug sundry is sold at retail, on a tag which is firmly affixed to the rubber drug sundry or in some other manner approved by the Office of Price Administration in writing.

§ 1315.1766 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to commmunicate with the nearest field, district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1315.1767 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

§ 1315.1768 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, including §§ 1499.11, 1499.12, 1499.13, 1499.14 and 1499.25 thereof, with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

(b) "Victory line rubber drug sundries" means the items listed in Table II, manufactured after January 31, 1943, which can meet the minimum physical specifications set forth in that table.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 301]

RETAIL AND WHOLESALE PRICES FOR RUBBER DRUG SUNDRIES

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of rubber drug sundries have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of rubber drug sundries prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustment for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedure Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1315.1776 to 1315.1796, inclusive, issued pursuant to Pub. Laws 521 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1315.1776 Applicability of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301.—(a) What commodities must be priced under this regulation. This regulation applies to the commodities listed in Appendix A (§ 1315.1795). These commodities will be called "rubber drug sundries" in this regulation. However, this regulation applies to these commodities only if they are produced in the continental United States or the District of Columbia on or after February 1, 1943. This regulation does not apply to rubber drug sundries produced before February 1, 1943, the maximum prices of which are established by the General Maximum Price Regulation. In order that you may know what rubber drug sundries are covered by this regulation all manufacturers of rubber drug sundries are required by Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 to mark the container of a rubber drug sundry produced after January 31, 1943, or the rubber drug sundry itself with either its maximum retail price or an "R" or a "V".

(b) To what types of sellers this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all sellers who sell at retail or at wholesale.

(c) Geographical applicability of this regulation. This regulation applies to the continental United States and the District of Columbia, but not to the territories and possessions of the United States.

(d) Effect of this regulation. This regulation establishes maximum prices for rubber drug sundries produced after January 31, 1943. On and after February 1, 1943, the date this regulation takes effect, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person is permitted to sell or deliver at retail or wholesale any rubber drug sundries produced after January 31, 1943, at a price which is higher than the maximum price fixed by this regulation, and no person is permitted to buy or receive any rubber drug sundries produced after January 31, 1943, in the course of trade or business at a price which is higher than the maximum price.

prices. The maximum prices for sales at wholesale of victory line rubber drug sundries are set forth in Appendix B, incorporated herein as § 1315.1796.

(b) Maximum retail prices. The maximum retail price for a victory line rubber drug sundry is the price placed on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container by the manufacturer. If there is no maximum retail price on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container, the maximum retail price is the price set forth in Appendix B (§ 1315.1796). This price is the same price that the manufacturer is required to place on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container.

(c) Identification of victory line rubber drug sundries. In order that you may know what rubber drug sundries are "victory line rubber drug sundries" they or their unit of sale container will be marked either with the maximum retail price or with a "V".

§ 1315.1778 Maximum prices for sales at wholesale of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. This section is applicable to rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. The maximum price for sales at wholesale of such articles is the maximum price for the particular type of sale, furnished the wholesaler by the manufacturer. This maximum price must be furnished by the manufacturer in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1315.1764 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 300. If the manufacturer has not notified the wholesaler of the maximum price, the wholesaler shall not deliver the article until he has obtained the maximum price from the manufacturer.

§ 1315.1779 Maximum prices for sales at retail of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line—(a) Sales by persons other than mail order houses. This paragraph (a) is applicable to all sales at retail of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, except those made by mail order houses. The maximum price for such sales shall be determined as follows:

(1) Where the maximum retail price has been placed on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container. The maximum retail price shall be the price the manufacturer has placed on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container. This maximum price must be determined by the manufacturer in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 300.

(2) Where the maximum retail price has not been placed on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container. If the manufacturer has not placed the maximum retail price on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container, the maximum retail price of that rubber drug sundry shall be determined as follows: The maximum price shall be the maximum retail price furnished the retailer by the person from whom he purchased the rubber drug sundry. If that person is a wholesaler, he must furnish that maximum price in accordance with the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301. If that person is a manufacturer, he must furnish that maximum price in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 300. If the retailer has not been notified of the maximum retail price, he may not sell the rubber drug sundry until he has obtained the maximum retail price from the person who sold it to him.

(b) Sales by mail order houses of rubber drug sundries purchased from manufacturers. This paragraph (b) is applicable to rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, which have been purchased from a manufacturer. The maximum price for sales by mail order houses of such rubber drug sundries shall be determined as follows: If the mail order house is notified by the manufacturer of the manufacturer's maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry being priced to the class of sellers at wholesale which purchased the largest quantity of rubber drug sundries from the manufacturer during the calendar year 1942, the mail order house shall determine its maximum price by multiplying this figure by 200 percent for sales by mail and by 233⅓ percent for all other sales. If the mail order house is notified by the manufacturer of the manufacturer's maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry being priced to the class of sellers at retail which purchased the largest quantity of rubber drug sundries from the manufacturer during the calendar year 1942, the mail order house shall determine its maximum price by multiplying this figure by 180 percent for sales by mail and by 210 percent for all other sales.

(c) Sales of baby feeding nipples. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section (§ 1315.1779), the maximum price for sales at retail of baby feeding nipples shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this section (§ 1315.1779), but in no case shall that price exceed three for $0.25. However, where the purchaser requests less than three baby feeding nipples that price shall not exceed $0.10 each.

§ 1315.1780 Terms and conditions of sale. (a) The maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit.

(b) No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery of rubber drug sundries, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during December 1941 on deliveries of the same or similar types of commodities.

§ 1315.1781 Sales for export. The maximum price at which a person may export any rubber drug sundry shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

§ 1315.1782 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, or processing of rubber drug sundries imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price: If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1315.1783 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade are sold or otherwise transferred after January 31, 1943, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301.

§ 1315.1784 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1315.1785 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase of or relating to rubber drug sundries, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1315.1786 Records. To aid in the enforcement of this regulation every seller is required to keep certain records for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect. These records are described in three paragraphs as follows:

(a) Records of purchases and sales. The seller must preserve all records showing his purchases and sales of each class, kind, type, condition and brand of rubber drug sundries and all invoices showing purchases of rubber drug sundries after January 31, 1943.

(b) Customary records of prices charged. The seller must continue to keep records of the same kind as he has customarily kept showing the prices actually charged by him after the effective date of this regulation for rubber drug sundries produced after January 31, 1943.

(c) Notifications of maximum prices of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. The seller must preserve all notifications of the maximum prices of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, received by him. These notifications shall be kept for inspection by any person during ordinary business hours.

§ 1315.1787 Notification of maximum prices for sales at retail—(a) Notification of maximum retail price of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, to be given by wholesaler. Before or at the time of the first delivery after January 31, 1943, of any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, by a wholesaler to a retailer, the wholesaler shall notify the retailer of the maximum retail price of that article, unless the maximum retail price has been marked on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container in which it is sold at retail. This notification shall include the brand and the type or description of the rubber drug sundry and the maximum retail price applicable thereto. The wholesaler will be furnished this maximum retail price by the manufacturer in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1315.1764 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 300. If the manufacturer has not notified the wholesaler of the maximum retail price, the wholesaler shall not deliver the article until he has obtained the maximum retail price from the manufacturer.

(b) Marking of maximum retail price by mail order houses. On or after February 1, 1943, before delivery of any victory line rubber drug sundries every mail order house selling any victory line rubber drug sundries at retail shall mark or cause to have marked the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 for the sale of that rubber drug sundry on the rubber drug sundry itself, on the unit of sale container in which the rubber drug sundry is sold at retail, on a tag which is firmly affixed to the rubber drug sundry, or in some other manner approved by the Office of Price Administration in writing. The maximum price shall be marked as follows: "Retail Ceiling $------." The marking shall be large enough to make it plainly visible to the purchasing public.

§ 1315.1788 Sales slips and receipts. Any person who has regularly furnished customers with invoices, sales slips, receipts or similar documents shall continue to do so. Every person shall, regardless of previous custom, upon request of the customer, give such customer a signed receipt showing the date of the transaction, the type, brand and grade of the rubber drug sundries sold and the price charged therefor.

§ 1315.1789 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field, district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1315.1790 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

§ 1315.1791 Licensing: Applicability of the registration and licensing provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 selling rubber drug sundries at wholesale or retail. § 4.115c Inspection for and report of fires. The master of any vessel having on board explosives or other dangerous articles or substances as cargo and about to enter a port of the Canal Zone shall make or cause to be made an inspection prior to entering such port. If the inspection discloses the presence of fire or any other hazardous condition, such condition shall immediately be reported to the Captain of the Port and the master or person in charge of such vessel shall comply with the instructions given by the Captain of the Port as to procedure to be followed in entering port. [Reg. 88. A–13]

§ 4.115d Authorization to load or unload explosives. Shipments of Class A explosives in amount exceeding 500 pounds shall not be loaded on or unloaded from any vessel in Canal Zone ports until authorization for such loading or unloading has been obtained from the Port Captain concerned. [Reg. 88. A–14]

§ 4.115e Loading or unloading explosives at same time as other cargo. Explosives shall not be loaded or unloaded at the same time that other cargo is being loaded or unloaded unless approval is obtained from the Port Captain concerned: Provided, That in no case shall drums or other containers of inflammable liquids classed as Grade "A," "B," or "C" by § 4.116 be loaded or unloaded at the same time that explosives are being loaded or unloaded. [Reg. 88. A–15]

§ 4.115f Preparations before handling, loading or unloading explosives. All decks, gangways and hatches over or through which explosives must be passed or handled in loading or unloading, shall be freed of all loose material and shall be swept broom clean both before and after loading or unloading. The hatches and cargo ports opening into a compartment in which explosives are stowed shall be kept closed at all times, except during loading or unloading of the compartment. When closed the hatches shall be covered with tarpaulins securely battened. [Reg. 88.A–16]

§ 4.115g Manner of handling, loading or unloading explosives. All explosives must be handled carefully. Packages of explosives must not be thrown, dropped, rolled, dragged or slid over each other or over the decks. In transferring explosives to or from a pier or another vessel the packages must be handled by hand or by using a regulation chute and mattress. If the difference in elevation between the vessels or a vessel and the dock, or conditions of weather render it difficult to safely load or unload by hand or chute, mechanical hoist, crates, rope-net slings or basket may be used. The maximum load handled in crates, rope-net slings or baskets per draft shall not exceed 2,400 pounds. No containers of explosives shall be loaded above the side of any crate or basket nor shall rope-net slings be so loaded as to prevent the sling from encompassing the entire load on its top side. Explosives shall not be handled roughly. They must be hoisted and lowered carefully and only deposited or lowered onto a mattress. Blasting caps, detonating fuses, fulminate of mercury and other initiating or priming explosives as defined in these regulations shall be considered as constituting a distinct class of dangerous explosives and because of the hazard involved they shall be handled with extreme care. "Can" hooks shall not be used for raising or lowering barrel, drum, or other container of explosives. Metal bale hooks shall not be used in handling packages of explosives. Transfer trucks equipped with "electric motor" means of propulsion shall not be used in handling any high explosive, low explosive, black powder or smokeless powder. [Reg. 88.A–17]

§ 4.115h Chute used in loading or unloading explosives. The incline of the chute to be used in loading or unloading explosives shall be such that the velocity of the packages sliding will not be great enough to cause violent shock when coming in contact with the other packages, on the chute or when reaching the bottom of chute. If otherwise, men shall be stationed alongside the chute to retard and control the velocity of the packages. Chutes shall be carefully wiped down with waste moistened with machine oil when packages of explosives are being used. [Reg. 88.A–18]

§ 4.115i Equipment for loading or unloading explosives. Before explosives are loaded or unloaded from a vessel the master or other person in charge of the vessel shall be required to ascertain by examination the condition and working of all slings, crates, baskets, boxes, chutes, mattresses, tackle and other equipment to be used in the transfer operation. Any and all equipment which in the judgment of the master or other person in charge of the vessel is not in safe working condition shall be rejected and the master or such other person shall prohibit its use and take such precautions as he may deem necessary to be certain such rejected equipment is not used for the purpose of loading or unloading explosives. The master or other person in charge of the vessel shall keep watch of all equipment used during the transfer of explosives and if any part of the equipment shows any defect or is damaged in use, work shall be stopped and the damage or defective equipment repaired or replaced before permitting the loading or unloading to continue. This inspection of cargo working equipment shall apply to the vessel's equipment and to stevedore or other contractor's equipment. [Reg. 88.A–19]

§ 4.115j Lights, firearms, matches, cigarette lighters, bale hooks, oily rags, metallic tools, footwear. No artificial light except electric lights or electric lamps or flood lights shall be used while loading or unloading explosives. Flash lights of a non-spark type shall be provided by the vessel owner or operator for persons required to enter holds in which explosives are stowed. Members of the crew of the vessel and other persons permitted on board the vessel to aid and assist in loading or unloading explosives shall not be permitted to have or carry on their persons firearms, matches, cigarette lighters, bale hooks, oily rags, or metallic tools. No person engaged in loading or unloading Class A dangerous or Class B less dangerous explosives (except fireworks) shall wear boots or shoes shod or strengthened with iron nails or metal, unless such boots or shoes are covered with rubber, leather, felt or some such nonsparking material. [Reg. 88.A–20]

§ 4.115k Fires on docks, lighters, or vessels. No unnecessary fire shall be permitted on docks, lighters or vessels, while loading or unloading explosives. Fires deemed necessary must be properly safeguarded and left in constant charge of some competent person assigned for that purpose by the master for the entire period of cargo transfer. A line of fire hose of sufficient length to cover the area of loading or unloading operations and connected with an adequate water supply shall be laid ready for use. [Reg. 88.A–21]

§ 4.115l Smoking prohibited. Smoking is prohibited on or near any vessel loading or unloading explosives. "No Smoking" warning signs shall be posted during operations of loading or unloading such cargo. "No Smoking" signs shall be located on the pier at a safe distance from the vessel when such loading or unloading is taking place at a pier [Reg. 88.A–22]

§ 4.115m Persons under influence of liquor or drugs. No person who, in the judgment of the master or other person in charge of the vessel, may be considered as being under the influence of liquor or drugs, shall be permitted on board a vessel while loading or unloading or transporting explosives. [Reg. 88.A–23]

§ 4.115n Damaged or leaking containers of explosives. If upon arrival of a vessel in port it is found that a container of explosives has been damaged or is leaking the master of the vessel shall consult the port authorities and request instructions as to disposition of the insecure container. Any container of explosives showing evidence of damage or leakage of a liquid ingredient shall not be handled with other explosives being loaded or unloaded but shall be segregated and held for inspection and disposition [Reg. 88.A–24]

§ 4.115o Damaged or leaking containers of explosives not to be accepted for transportation. Any container of an explosive when offered for transportation or storage in the Canal Zone showing excessive dampness or escaping nitrous fumes, or which is moldy or shows outward signs of any oil stain or other indication that the absorption of the liquid part of the explosive is not perfect, or that the amount of the liquid part of the explosive is greater than the absorbent can carry, shall not be accepted for transportation. The master or person in charge must substantiate any claim that a stain is due to accidental contact with grease, oil, or similar substance. In case of doubt the container shall be refused. [Docket No. A-78]

TECUMSEH COAL CORP.

MEMORANDUM OPINION, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of Tecumseh Coal Corporation for revision of the effective minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 105, District No. 11, in size groups 17 to 25, inclusive, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Memorandum opinion and order granting motion of District Board No. 11 and notice of and order for hearing.

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition filed pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by Tecumseh Coal Corporation, requesting a revision of the effective minimum prices for the coals of its Tecumseh Mine, Mine Index No. 105, District 11, in Size Groups 17-25, inclusive. Pursuant to appropriate order and after due notice, a hearing was held before H. A. Gray, the then Director of the Division. Thereafter, on November 2, 1942, the undersigned issued an opinion stating that he was not inclined to establish a special minimum price for petitioner's coals for shipment to a single consumer, and an order affording petitioner leave to amend its petition in accordance with the opinion.

On November 16, 1942, petitioner filed its amended petition requesting that the relief requested be made applicable for shipments of coal into Market Areas 21-28, inclusive, and 30-34, inclusive.

On November 27, 1942, District Board No. 11, an intervenor, filed a motion to postpone the reopened hearing for a sufficient length of time to enable the district board to make further investigation of the coals produced by the Tecumseh Mine and by other fifth vein mines in District 11, suggesting that such investigation would require from 60 to 90 days.

Good cause therefor having been shown, the motion of District Board 11 should be granted.

The hearing should be reopened, but at a date approximately sixty (60) days hence.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the hearing in this proceeding be reopened and held, under the applicable provisions of the Act and the rules of the Division, on March 9, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Mitchell or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses, to take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, to consider as part of the record in this matter the transcript of the hearing heretofore held before H. A. Gray, as above mentioned, and to prepare and submit to the Director proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person who has not heretofore filed a petition of intervention in this matter and who desires to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the amended petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before March 1, 1943.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the propriety of a revision of the effective minimum prices, as established in Docket 15-A, for coals in Size Groups 17-25, inclusive, produced by Tecumseh Coal Corporation at its Tecumseh Mine, Mine Index No. 105, in District 11, particularly, but not necessarily exclusively, for shipment to Market Areas 21-28, inclusive, and 30-34, inclusive.

Dated: January 14, 1943.

DISTRICT BOARD 9

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO WITHDRAW PETITION, AND CANCELLING HEARING

In the matter of the Petition of District Board No. 9 requesting reclassification of the coals of the Ashmore & Poe Brothers' Mine, Mine Index No. 860, in District No. 9.

An original petition was filed with the Division by District Board 9 in Docket No. A-1694, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 9 and also requesting the reclassification of the coals of Ashmore & Poe Brothers' Mine (Mine Index No. 860) for rail and truck shipments.

By an order dated December 2, 1942 the portion of Docket No. A-1694 relating to the reclassification of the coals of Mine Index No. 860 was severed from the remainder of Docket No. A-1694 and designated as Docket No. A-1694, Part II; the request for temporary relief in Docket No. A-1694, Part II was denied, and a hearing in the matter was scheduled to be held on January 26, 1943.

On December 31, 1942, District Board 9 filed a motion to withdraw the part of the petition in the above entitled matter which pertains to Ashmore & Poe Brothers' Mine (Mine Index No. 860) on the ground that operation has ceased at Mine Index No. 860, and requested that the hearing in this matter be cancelled.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the motion of District Board 9 to withdraw that part of its petition in the above entitled matter which pertains to Ashmore & Poe Brothers Mine (Mine Index No. 860) be, and it hereby is, granted.

It is further ordered, That the hearing in Docket No. A-1694, Part II, heretofore scheduled to be held on January 26, 1943 be, and it hereby is, cancelled.

[Docket No. B-285]

P. S. NICHOL LUMBER COMPANY

ORDER ADOPTING PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT, ETC.

In the matter of P. S. Nichol, doing business under the name and style of P. S. Nichol Lumber Company, registered distributor, Registration No. 6859.

Order approving and adopting the proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law and recommendation of the examiner, and revoking certificate of registered distributor.

This proceeding was instituted upon a Notice of and Order for Hearing dated July 2, 1942, issued by the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to section 4 II (h) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and § 304.14 of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, to investigate and determine whether P. S. Nichol, an individual doing business under the name and style of P. S. Nichol Lumber Company, a registered distributor, Registration No. 6859, of St. Charles, Illinois, has violated any provision of the Act, the Code, the rules and regulations of the Division, including the Marketing Rules and the Distributors' Rules, or the Agreement executed by said P. S. Nichol as a registered distributor, and whether, if such violation occurred, the registration of respondent should be revoked or suspended or other appropriate orders, should be issued.

Pursuant to Notice of and Order for Hearing, and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on August 5, 1942, before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof at Chicago, Illinois. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. P. S. Nichol, respondent, appeared.

The Examiner made and entered his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation in this matter, dated October 9, 1942, in which he found that P. S. Nichol, an individual doing business under the name and style of P. S. Nichol Lumber Company, a registered distributor, Registration No. 6859, had wilfully violated the Act, the Code, the Rules and Regulations, and the Orders of the Division, as alleged in the Notice of and Order for Hearing, during the period from November 19, 1940, to February 9, 1942, in that he accepted and retained discounts from the West Kentucky Coal Company, a code member, in the sum of $81.25, and from the Old Ben Coal Company, a code member, in the sum of $4.72, to which discounts he was not entitled.

The Examiner recommended that an order be entered cancelling and revoking the registration of said P. S. Nichol as a registered distributor and providing that no petition by said Nichol seeking reinstatement as a registered distributor be entertained within a period of 60 days from the effective date of said revocation, and that any petition for reinstatement presented by P. S. Nichol be supported by his affidavit affirming that during the period in which his registration as a registered distributor was cancelled and revoked he neither directly nor indirectly transacted any business as a registered distributor, nor received, nor was promised any discounts to which distributors are entitled by virtue of their registration, and further affirming that he has returned to the aforementioned code members the discounts unlawfully retained by him, specifying the amounts thereof and the dates when such discounts were returned.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Examiner's report and to file supporting briefs, and no such exceptions or supporting briefs have been filed.

The undersigned has considered the record in this matter and has determined that the Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation of the Examiner should be approved and adopted as his Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner be and the same are hereby approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned.

It is further ordered, That effective fifteen (15) days from the date hereof the registration of P. S. Nichol, an individual doing business under the name and style of P. S. Nichol Lumber Company, a registered distributor, Registration No. 6859, be, and it hereby is, cancelled and revoked.

It is further ordered, That no petition of said P. S. Nichol seeking reinstatement as a registered distributor shall be entertained before a period of 60 days from the effective date of the revocation of his certificate as a registered distributor shall have expired.

It is further ordered, That any petition of said P. S. Nichol for reinstatement as a registered distributor shall be supported by his affidavit which shall affirm that during the period in which his registration was cancelled and revoked he has neither directly nor indirectly transacted any business as a registered distributor, nor received nor was promised any discounts which distributors are entitled to receive by virtue of their registration, and which shall further affirm that he has returned to the code members named all discounts unlawfully retained by him, specifying the amounts so returned and the dates when such discounts were returned.

OROVILLE—TONASKET IRRIGATION DISTRICT, WASHINGTON

CANCELLATION OF ACCRUED CHARGES

Whereas, The Act of Congress approved June 22, 1936 (49 Stat. 1803), authorized and directed the Secretary of the Interior to cause an investigation to be made to determine whether the owners of non-Indian lands within Indian irrigation projects and under projects where the United States has purchased water rights for Indians are unable to pay irrigation charges, and

Whereas, the said Act provides in part as follows:

> Where the Secretary finds that said landowners are unable to make payment due to the existence of such causes, he may adjust, defer, or cancel such charges, in whole or in part, as the facts and conditions warrant. In adjusting or deferring any such charges the Secretary may enter into contracts with said landowners for the payment of past due charges, but such contracts shall not extend the payment of such charges over a period in excess of ten years, and

Whereas, such investigation and report covering the Oroville-Tonasket Irrigation District, Washington, have been completed, showing it to be economically infeasible for many of the owners now in possession of lands formerly in Indian ownership to pay the accrued construction, operation, and maintenance charges against them and that the collection of such charges should be adjusted, canceled in part, and payment of the balance to be made either in cash by the District or in installments by the individual landowners spread over periods of years, and

Whereas, it appears that the United States of America has paid $65,324.59 for the water right and for operation and maintenance for 908.47 acres of land formerly in Indian ownership but now owned by non-Indians, and

Whereas, it appears that $11,963.76 of said amount should be canceled on account of 168.74 acres of land, which it is no longer economically feasible to irrigate, and that further adjustments should be made in the balance of $53,360.83 then remaining chargeable against the balance of the acreage totaling 739.73 acres; and

Whereas, it appears that the sum of $25,315.52 should be spread over 739.73 acres (908.47 acres less 168.74 acres), and that a net credit of $6,778.15 ($8,278.95 gross receipts minus an economic credit of $1,500.80), representing repayments heretofore made by certain landowners should be given for such lands and the balance of $18,537.37 should be collected on account of said lands,

Now, therefore, I, Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, pursuant to authority vested in me by the Act of June 22, 1936, and subject to confirmation by Congress as provided in section 6 of said Act hereby

(1) Cancel $40,009.07 of unpaid charges and adjust and restate the account between the United States of America and individual landowners within the Oroville-Tonasket Irrigation District, as follows:

Paid by the United States of America for water right on 908.47 acres		$61,603.35
Paid by the United States of America for operation and maintenance costs		3,721.24
Total amount paid by the United States		$65,324.59
Cancel on account of 168.74 acres of non-irrigable land	$11,963.76
Cancel for enonomic reasons on condition $18,537.37 is paid	28,045.31
Total cancellations		40,009.07
Balance recommended for collection		25,315.52
Receipts	$8,278.95
Less: Amounts not recommended for refund	1,500.80
Net repayments		6,778.15
Balance due the United States from individual landowners		18,537.37

Provided, That cancellation of $28,045.31 shall become effective upon the repayment, or upon the execution of contracts with individual landowners providing for the repayment in full, of the adjusted balance of $18,537.37, as specified on pages 69, 70, and 71 of the said report: Provided, however, That the District may pay the amount due in one payment, in which event the Government's lien shall be assigned to the District;

(2) Find that liens existing against each allotment of former Indian land affected by this order should be continued in full force and effect until the balance due against lands within such allotment shall have been so paid to the United States;

(3) Find that no landowner should be reimbursed for payments heretofore made by himself or his predecessors to the United States even though such payments exceed the adjusted amounts charged against his land before credit for repayments has been given.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 19th day of May 1942.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

HANDLING OF MILK IN FALL RIVER, MASS., AREA

Notice of report and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to a proposed marketing agreement, as amended, and Amendment 2 to Order 47, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, Marketing Area.

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a), General Regulations, as Amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration with respect to an amended marketing agreement and to Amendment 2 to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to this report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1329, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proceeding was initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Administration as the result of written petitions filed by the Fall River Milk Producers' Association, Inc., and the New England Milk Producers' Association, Inc., for a public hearing to receive evidence on several amendments they proposed. Other amendments were proposed by handlers after all interested parties had been notified by letter of the pending petition. It was concluded from consideration of the various proposed amendments that the hearing should be held and a notice of hearing was accordingly issued on April 18, 1942. The hearing was convened October 1, 1942, at Westport, Massachusetts. The hearing included, in addition to the industry proposals, consideration of proposals for amendments made by the Dairy and Poultry Branch, Agricultural Marketing Administration. The major issues developed at the hearing were concerned with (1) the classification of milk actually lost in handling operations (commonly known as shrinkage) and the classification of buttermilk, (2) the level of prices for Class I milk both inside and outside the marketing area, (3) the Class II skim milk price level, and (4) classification of interhandler transactions, particularly as between Fall River and Boston handlers.

With respect to these issues it is concluded from the record:

(1) The Class I price level should be increased 23 cents per hundredweight.

(2) Actual plant shrinkage should be reclassified from the present arrangement, which requires shrinkage associated with the handling of each class of milk to be in the respective class, to an arrangement whereby all actual shrinkage up to 2 percent of the quantity of milk received by handlers from producers shall be Class II milk.

(3) The Class II skim value should be revised to provide a value for skim milk based on prices published by the United States Department of Agriculture for roller process skim milk powder for both human consumption and animal feed, the yield factor and manufacturing cost factor to be as now provided in milk marketing Order 27 (New York metropolitan marketing area).

(4) The present paragraph in § 947.3 labeled, "Disposition of milk to other markets," should be revised to eliminate a present inconsistency between that provision and part (2) of the next succeeding provision labeled, "Disposition of milk to other markets," with respect to milk sold by a Fall River handler in the Boston marketing area. This revision will allow deletion of § 947.3 (e) (2).

(5) Administrative amendments should be made to revise the definition of the term "Secretary" to include any person who may be authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary, to amplify the powers of the market administrator to disseminate statistics and information concerning the administration of the order, to amplify the provision relating to the responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk, to clarify the powers of the administrator with respect to access to books and records necessary to verify reports of handlers, to reduce the size of the market administrator's cash balance in his producer-settlement fund, which now appears to be larger than necessary, to allow handlers 2 days longer to pay their equalization and administration assessments, and to add a new section entitled "Agents" which will allow the Secretary to designate in writing any officer or employee of the United States or any division of the United States Department of Agriculture to act as his agent in connection with this regulation.

From the evidence in the record it is concluded that other proposals for amendment heard at the hearing should not be adopted. These include reclassification of buttermilk from Class I to Class II and provision for pricing Class I milk sold outside the market area at prevailing prices in such outside markets if they differ from the Fall River prices.

The following proposed amendment prepared by the Administrator pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations, as amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, is recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be carried out. The proposed amended marketing agreement is not included in this report because the provisions thereof will be the same as the provisions of the proposed amendment to the order.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT 2 TO THE ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE FALL RIVER, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held at Westport, Massachusetts, October 1, 1942:

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8c (50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 602, 608c), are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in this amendment to said order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That the order, as amended by this amendment, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to handlers defined in a marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amendment to the order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions of the order, as so amended, tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Provisions

1. Delete § 947.1 (a) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(2) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

2. Add a new subparagraph to § 947.2 (b) as follows:

(4) Prepare and disseminate, for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers, such statistics and information concerning the operation of this order as do not reveal confidential information.

3. Delete § 947.3 (a) (2) (ii) and substitute therefor the following:

(ii) All milk accounted for as actual plant shrinkage not in excess of 2 percent of milk received from producers including milk of the handler's own production.

4. From § 947.4 (a) delete the words "for delivery periods prior to April 1, 1943, and thereafter $3.42 per hundredweight," and delete the present table of prices and substitute therefor the following:

92-score butter, wholesale, at New York average of quotations of the United States Department of Agriculture for 30 days immediately preceding the 25th day of each month (cents per pound).	Class I price for the delivery period following the 25th day of each month
	Dollars per hundredweight
Under 40	4.88
40 or over but under 45	4.11
45 or over	4.44

5. Delete the proviso in § 947.4 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

Provided, That for all delivery periods, except April, May, and June, any plus amount for skim value shall be added which results from the following computation: compute the average for all the dry skim milk powder quotations for carlots for "human food products (roller process) in barrels" and for "animal food products (hot roller) in bags," (using midpoint of any range as one quotation), published during such delivery period by the United States Department of Agriculture for New York City, subtract 4.0 cents, and multiply by 7.5; and that for the delivery periods of April, May, and June, compute any plus amount for skim value which results from the average of the skim value computed above and a value obtained as follows: compute the average of all quotations (using midpoint of any range as one quotation), published during the delivery period in the "Oil, Paint, and Drug Reporter" for domestic 20–30 mesh casein in bags in carlots at New York, subtract 6.6 cents and multiply by 2.2: Provided further, That if either computation results in a minus amount, the other shall be used in lieu of the average.

6. Add a new paragraph to § 947.3 as follows:

(a) Responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk. In establishing the classification of any milk received by a handler from producers, the burden rests upon the handler who receives milk from producers to account for the milk and to prove that such milk should not be classified as Class I milk.

7. Delete § 947.3 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Sales of milk from handlers to other handlers or nonhandlers. Milk disposed of from one handler to another handler, to persons who distribute milk or manufacture milk products, or milk disposed of in other ways outside of the marketing area shall be classified, subject to verification by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) Disposition from a handler to a producer-handler shall be Class I.

(2) Disposition from a handler to another handler or to a plant subject to another order of the Secretary, except as provided in (1) of this paragraph, shall be Class I: Provided, That if such milk or skim milk is reported as having been utilized as Class II by the person who received it or by the disposing handler, it shall be classified accordingly.

(3) Disposition from a handler to persons not handlers or producer-handlers who distribute milk or manufacture milk products, and exclusive of milk disposed of to a plant subject to another order of the Secretary, shall be Class I, not to exceed the total quantity of Class I milk, or skim milk, at such plant.

8. Delete § 947.3 (c) (2).

9. Delete § 947.5 (c) and substitute therefor the following:

(c) Verification of reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made to the market administrator as required by this order or for the purpose of obtaining the information required in any such report where it has been requested and has not been furnished, each handler shall permit the market administrator or his agent, during the usual hours of business to (1) examine such books, papers, records, copies of income tax reports, accounts, correspondence, contracts, documents, and memoranda as the market administrator deems relevant and which are within the control of any such handler from whom such report was requested; or of any person having, either directly or indirectly, actual or legal control of or over such handler; or of any subsidiary of any such handler; (ii) weigh, sample, and test milk; and (iii) make such examination of operations, equipment, and facilities as the market administrator deems necessary.

10. Delete § 947.7 (b) (4) and substitute therefor the following:

(4) Add the cash balance, if any, in his hands from payments made by handlers, during the delivery period next preceding, to meet the obligations arising out of § 947.9 (d).

11. In § 947.9 (c) and § 947.11 (a) delete the words "13th day" and substitute therefor the following: "15th day."

12. In § 947.9 (d) delete the words "15th day" and substitute therefor the following: "16th day."

13. In § 947.10 (a) preface the present language with the words, "On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period," and delete the words "On or before the end of such delivery period."

14. In § 947.10 (b) preface the present language with the words, "On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period," and delete the words "On or before the end of each delivery period."

Listed below are the maximum prices for sales by the manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers. The prices listed below may be charged only if the manufacturer attaches to the grate the written warranty described in paragraph (b). If the manufacturer does not make the warranty, the maximum prices for sales by the manufacturer, wholesalers, and retailers shall be computed by deducting 15% from the prices listed in the table.

The National Tile Co., Inc., Anderson, Ind.	$5.50	$6.05	$7.33	$11.00

If the manufacturer desires to do so, he may add:

This warranty, however, does not protect against rough handling by the consumer.

The warranty shall be attached to the grate by the manufacturer and shall not be detached until after the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(c) Before delivery of a fireplace grate to any purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states the retail ceiling price of the grate. For example, a statement in the following form on a grate sold by The National Tile Company, Incorporated, would be sufficient: "Retail Ceiling Price $11.00." The tag or label shall not be detached until the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(d) At or before the time of first delivery after the effective date of this order, the manufacturer shall notify in writing every person who buys from him of the maximum price set by this Order No. 130 for resales by the purchaser. I. It appearing to the Commission, that said Roland W. Schoettler, E. Foster Brigham and Frank J. Brick, voting trustees, are the issuer of voting trust certificates for preferred and common stocks of Buckeye Union Oil Company, $1.00 par value; and

That said Roland W. Schoettler et al., voting trustees, registered such voting trust certificates on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange by filing with the Exchange and with the Commission on or about August 20, 1935, an application on Form 16, pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule X-12B-1, as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, registration pursuant to such application having become effective September 17, 1935, and remaining in effect to and including the date hereof; and

It further appearing to the Commission, that Rule X-13A-1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That Rule X-13A-2, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 16-K as the annual report form to be used for annual reports relating to voting trust certificates and underlying securities, and that no other form was or is specified for use by Roland W. Schoettler et al., voting trustees for the preferred and common stocks of Buckeye Union Oil Company; and

That said Rule X-13A-1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the instruction book applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 16-K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X-13A-1 the annual report must be filed within such period unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specified date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

That said Roland W. Schoettler et al., voting trustees for the preferred and common stocks of Buckeye Union Oil Company, have a fiscal year ended December 31, 1941; that the annual report for their fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was due to be filed not later than April 30, 1942; that the registrants made no request for extension of time within which to file such report; that the time for filing was not extended by the Commission; that the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was not filed within the time prescribed for filing said report or at any later date;

II. The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that Roland W. Schoettler et al., voting trustees for the preferred and common stocks of Buckeye Union Oil Company have failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A-1 and X-13A-2 promulgated thereunder, in that (1) they have failed to file their annual report for the year ended December 31, 1941, within the date prescribed for filing said report and (2) they have failed to file such annual report at any later date; and

III. It being the opinion of the Commission that the hearing herein ordered to be held is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, pursuant to section 19 (a) (2) of said Act, That a public hearing be held to determine whether Roland W. Schoettler et al., voting trustees for the preferred and common stocks of Buckeye Union Oil Company, have failed to comply with section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules, Regulations and Forms promulgated by the Commission thereunder, in the respects set forth above; and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to withdraw the registration of the voting trust certificates of Roland W. Schoettler et al., voting trustees for the preferred and common stocks of Buckeye Union Oil Company, on said Los Angeles Stock Exchange;

It is further ordered, pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, That for the purpose of such hearing, John G. Clarkson, an officer of the Commission, is hereby designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this hearing begin on the 26th day of January, 1943, at 10:00 A. M. Pacific War Time at the Subregional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California, and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinbefore designated may determine.

(3) "Refiner" means any person in the continental United States who was engaged in the refining of raw sugar during the calendar year 1941.

(4) "Manufacturer" means any person in the continental United States who in 1941 bought or accepted delivery from any source of raw sugar to use it in the manufacture of any product for human consumption, other than direct-consumption sugar.

(2) No refiner shall purchase, import, or accept delivery of raw sugar in excess of any allotment which may be established from time to time for such refiner by the Director of Food Distribution nor in violation of any order or regulation which may from time to time be prescribed by the Director of Food Distribution.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter III—Claims and Accounts

DEATH GRATUITY PAY

Sections 33.1, 33.3, and 33.5 are retained with change in revision of AR 35-1540, December 19, 1942; §§ 33.2 and 33.6 are amended and §§ 33.7 and 33.8 are added as follows:

§ 33.2 Exempt from indebtedness. The amount of the 6 months' pay cannot be used for the debts of the officer or enlisted man, not even for overpayments. (See MS. Comp. Dec., May 14, 1913.) (Secs. 1, 2, 41 Stat. 367, sec. 9, 41 Stat. 766, 42 Stat. 1385; 10 U. S. C. 903) [Par. 4, AR 35-1540, December 19, 1942]

§ 33.6 Payments, general—(a) Beneficiaries. Payments of the 6 months' gratuity pay may be made to beneficiaries in the order indicated below:

(1) If there be a widow, payment will be made to the widow only.

(2) If there be no widow, payment will be made to the child or children, if there are any entitled to payment.

(3) If there be no widow or child, payment will be made to the dependent relative previously designated by the deceased as his beneficiary to whom the gratuity is to be paid.

The classes of relatives who may properly be designated as beneficiaries are stated in § 33.4.

(b) Evidence. (1) The evidence required to establish the right, under the law, of any person to receive payment of the 6 months' gratuity is set forth for the different classes of beneficiaries shown in the following table:

Class of beneficiary	Evidence of—
	Nonexistence of preferred beneficiaries	Relationship	Age	Conjugal condition	A degree of actual dependency	Designation as beneficiary
Widow	Not required	Required	Not required	Not required	Not required	Required.[1]
Unmarried child or children under 21 years of age.	Evidence that there is no widow required.	do	Required	Required	do	Do.[1]
Married child or children, any age.	do	do	do	do	Required	Do.[1]
Child or children over 21 years of age.	do	do	do	do	do	Do.[1]
Other beneficiaries	Evidence that there is no widow or child required	do	Not required	Not required	(See par. (b) (2) below.	Do.[2]

[1] The fact, if it be a fact, that the widow or child (children), as the case may be, was designated as beneficiary will in itself be regarded ordinarily as sufficient to establish the identity of the payee. Where payment is to be made to a widow or child (children) not previously designated as beneficiary, affidavits from two disinterested persons not related by blood, certifying to the length of time they have known the beneficiary and that he or she is the person represented will be obtained and filed with the voucher.

[2] If it be a fact, the last line of paragraph 12, W.D. F.D. Form No. 6, will include "deceased left neither widow nor child (children)."

(2) Hereafter, no affirmative showing of dependency will be required in making payments of 6 months' death gratuity pay authorized by the act of December 17, 1919, as amended, to fathers, mothers, brothers, or sisters, designated as beneficiaries of deceased Army personnel, who had an insurable interest in the life of the deceased by reason of relationship alone, but, as to more distant relatives, more evidence of insurable interest will be required than heretofore. (See 4 Comp. Gen. 554, modified; 22 id. 85.) (Secs. 1, 2, 41 Stat. 367, sec. 9, 41 Stat. 766, 42 Stat. 1385; 10 U.S.C. 903) [Par. 7, AR 35-1540, December 19, 1942]

§ 33.7 Persons missing, or missing in action. Claims of beneficiaries of persons missing or missing in action, are payable upon expiration of 12 months from the date the person is reported as missing, or missing in action. In the absence of an official report of death of the missing person, the Secretary of War will make the finding of death of such person. (See AR 35-1320.[4]) (Secs. 1, 2, 41 Stat. 367, sec. 9, 41 Stat. 766, 42 Stat. 1385; 10 U.S.C. 903) [Par. 9, AR 35-1540, December 19, 1942]

§ 33.8 Settlement of arrears of pay. The accounts of deceased Army personnel are settled by the General Accounting Office, Claims Division, Washington, D. C., to which office any claim for arrears of pay, that is, the pay due the deceased at the time of his death, should be made by the nearest heir, executor, or administrator of the estate. Standard Form No. 1055 will be used for the purpose. For officers and enlisted men on active duty, post adjutants or disbursing officers will forward application to next of kin, without request; for retired officers or enlisted men, next of kin should request form from post adjutant or Chief of Finance. Letters testamentary, if claim is filed by executor or administrator of the estate, and receipted itemized undertaker's bill, if claim is made for reimbursement of funeral expenses, will accompany the claim when forwarded. (Secs. 1, 2, 41 Stat. 367, sec. 9, 41 Stat. 766, 42 Stat. 1385; 10 U.S.C.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

E. C. JOHNSTON

E. C. Johnston, Longview, Tex., is a lessee of oil well properties, an operator of oil wells and a drilling contractor both for himself and others. He is the lessee of certain property in the Tinsley Field, Yazoo County, Mississippi.

On or about April 25, 1942, E. C. Johnston spudded his Well No. 15, located in said field, and thereafter used material to complete the drilling of such well. This well does not conform to a uniform well-spacing pattern of not more than one single well to each 40 surface acres and the use of materials for the drilling of this well constituted a violation of Conservation Order M-68 as amended February 18, 1942. At the time Mr. Johnston drilled this well he was familiar with the restrictions contained in Conservation Order M-68 and acted in reckless disregard of such restrictions.

This violation of Conservation Order M-68 has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.219 Suspension Order S-219. (a) E. C. Johnston, his successors and assigns, shall not order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory or in any other manner, directly or indirectly, secure or use material for the construction, reconstruction, expansion, remodelling, replacement, or improvement of any facilities used in the production of petroleum either for his own account or for the account of others, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) The restrictions of paragraph (a) hereof shall not apply to the drilling of the Hawkins Well, located 660 feet north, 330 feet east of the south and west lines respectively of the SW¼ of the NE¼ of Section 1, T. 9N., R. 3W., Yazoo County, Mississippi.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve E. C. Johnston from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on January 22, 1943, and shall expire on April 22, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 18th day of January 1943.

Director General for Operations.

[Preference Rating Order P–68 as Amended January 19, 1943]

For the purpose of facilitating the acquisition of material for operating supplies and for the maintenance and repair of property and equipment used in the production of iron, steel, blast furnace coke, ferroalloys, and detinned iron and steel scrap, preference ratings are hereby assigned to deliveries of such material on the terms hereinafter set forth. Such terms shall control until such time as the War Production Board certifies specific quantities of such material to which the preference ratings herein assigned may be applied.

§ 1002.1 Preference Rating Order P–68—(a) Definitions. (1) "Producer" means any person operating a plant physically situated within the limits of the United States, its territories, or its possessions, or the Dominion of Canada, and actually engaged in the production of any one or more of the materials or products listed in Schedule A hereto.

(2) "Operating material" means material required by a producer for repair, maintenance or operating supplies used in the production of any one or more of the materials and products listed in Schedule A hereto.

(b) Assignment of preference ratings. Subject to the terms of this Order, a preference rating of AA–1 is hereby assigned to deliveries of operating material to producers, but nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of any other or higher rating to which any person may be entitled by reason of any other preference rating certificate or order.

(c) Other preference ratings assignable. The Director General may also upon written or telegraphic request assign such ratings as may be required to obtain deliveries of operating material to a producer when and only when there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations because of damage, wear and tear, destruction or failure of parts, or the like, and the essential material is not otherwise available. Requests for this rating must describe the material needed and the nature of the emergency.

(d) Application and extension of preference ratings. (1) No producer shall apply any preference rating assigned by or pursuant to this order until it has filed with the Iron and Steel Branch, War Production Board, a statement on form PD–148 and has received a serial number hereunder.

(2) Preference ratings assigned by or pursuant to this order shall be applied by a producer and extended by his suppliers in accordance with the terms of Priorities Regulation No. 3, as from time to time amended. A producer in applying such a preference rating shall also endorse on his contract or purchase order his serial number hereunder.

(e) Restrictions on use of rating—(1) Restrictions on producer. The producer may not apply any rating hereby assigned to obtain delivery of material on earlier dates than required for the operation, maintenance or repair of its property or equipment.

(2) Restrictions on supplier. (i) No supplier may apply the rating to obtain material in greater quantities or on earlier dates than required to enable him to make on schedule a delivery rated hereunder or, within the limitations of (ii) and (iii) below, to replace in his inventory material so delivered. He shall not be deemed to require such material if he can make his rated delivery and still retain a practicable working minimum inventory thereof; and if, in making such delivery, he reduced his inventory below such minimum, he may apply the rating only to the extent necessary to restore his inventory to such minimum.

(ii) A supplier who supplies material which he has in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed may not apply the rating to restore his inventory to a practicable working minimum unless he applies the rating before completing the rated delivery which reduces his inventory below such minimum.

(iii) A supplier who supplies material which he has not in whole or in part manufactured, processed, assembled or otherwise physically changed may defer applications of the rating hereunder to purchase orders or contracts for such material to be placed by him until he can place a purchase order or contract for the minimum quantity procurable on his customary terms: Provided, That he shall not defer the application of any rating for more than three months after he becomes entitled to apply it.

(f) Restrictions of inventory. (1) A producer shall not, during any calendar quarter, accept, and a supplier shall not knowingly make to a producer, deliveries (whether or not rated pursuant to this section) of any material to be used as operating supplies or for maintenance or repair the aggregate dollar volume of which shall exceed 55 percent of the aggregate dollar volume of the withdrawals for such purposes by the producer from stores or inventory during the preceding calendar half-year unless such deliveries shall be specifically authorized in advance by the War Production Board on the producer's application therefor.

(2) A producer shall not at any time accept deliveries (whether or not rated pursuant to this section) of any material to be used as operating supplies or for maintenance or repair until the producer's inventory and stores of such material have been reduced to a reasonable minimum, unless such delivery shall be specifically authorized in advance by the War Production Board on the producer's application therefor. Such reasonable minimum shall in no case exceed 125 percent of the aggregate dollar volume of such material in inventory and stores on the last day of the preceding calendar half-year.

(3) A producer shall not, during any calendar quarter, make withdrawals from stores or inventory of any material to be used as operating supplies or for maintenance or repair the aggregate dollar volume of which shall exceed 55 percent of the aggregate dollar volume of the withdrawals of such material during the preceding calendar half-year, unless such withdrawals shall be specifically authorized in advance by the War Production Board on the producer's application therefor.

(g) Relief. If the sound working condition of a producer is adversely affected by any provision or application of this order or by inability to obtain material essential for repair, maintenance or operating supplies, the producer may apply for relief to the Director General for Operations. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Resale of material prohibited. Except with specific permission of the Director General for Operations, a producer shall not resell any material acquired for repair, maintenance or operating supplies (whether or not obtained pursuant to rating assigned by this section): Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit sale by the producer of used material acquired prior to October 31, 1941.

(i) Conservation and standardization. Every person affected by this order shall use his best efforts to effectuate conservation of materials by elimination, simplification or standardization of types, sizes or forms or otherwise, and shall cooperate in any program developed for such purpose by the War Production Board. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue specific directions as to conservation, elimination, and standardization.

(j) Records, audits and reports. Each producer and each supplier shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of all transactions affected by this order, and shall submit from time to time to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. Each producer and each supplier shall execute and file with the War Production Board, or other designated agency, such reports in such form as the War Production Board shall from time to time require. Until further direction, each producer shall file a quarterly report on form PD–228.

(k) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(l) Revocation or modification. This order may be revoked or modified by the Director General for Operations at any time as to any producer or supplier. In the event of revocation or modification, or upon expiration of this order, deliveries already rated pursuant to this order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless said rating has been specifically revoked or modified with respect thereto. No additional application of said rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by any producer or supplier affected by such revocation, modification or expiration.

(m) Amendment of prior orders. The provisions of Preference Rating Orders P–22 and P–100 shall not apply to deliveries to which a preference rating is assigned by this Order.

§ 1029.10 Limitation Order L–170—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. (1) This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Protection of production schedules. Producers of any items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts under the terms of this order may, notwithstanding the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended, schedule their production of such items as if the orders therefor bore a rating of AA–3.

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person, other than a supplier, engaged in the manufacture of farm machinery and equipment or of repair parts for farm machinery and equipment; Provided, That:

(i) No person who did not manufacture any farm machinery and equipment or repair parts in 1940 or 1941 shall be deemed a "producer", nor shall any such person manufacture any such products of an aggregate value exceeding $2,500 for the period November 1, 1942 to October 31, 1943, inclusive; and

(ii) To Canada a quantity of any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts (as listed in Schedule B–7, attached hereto and made a part hereof, as amended from time to time) in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the quota percentage designated in said Schedule B–7 for such item by the quantity thereof shipped by said producer to Canada during the calendar year 1940;

(iii) To any foreign country (including Canada and territories and possessions of the United States) any farm machinery and equipment requiring rubber tires.

(2) Except as to items destined for Canada (Schedule B–7) and for territories and possessions of the United States (Schedule B–6), no producer shall fabricate or process any material to be physically incorporated into any item of farm machinery and equipment which may be authorized to be manufactured for export by paragraph (d) (1) above, unless and until he has received from the Director General for Operations specific authorization for such fabrication or processing as to any or all such items, application for which may be by letter setting forth the pertinent facts: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph (d) (2) shall be deemed to prevent any such producer from earmarking for export, within his export quota, any items of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts from his inventory, whether or not such items were manufactured specifically for export.

As to any portion of any such producer's export quota, as established by paragraph (d) (1) above, which he may decide not to produce at any time after November 1, 1942, he shall immediately notify the War Production Board, so that appropriate action can be taken to transfer such portion of his export quota.

such increased weight shall not operate to reduce the number of units which he could have otherwise manufactured pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) above. In addition, if any such producer has made, or shows that he can make, in any item or items of his quota as established by paragraphs (c) and (d) hereof, a substitution of any of the materials listed above for more critical materials entering into such item or items, he may apply by letter to the Director General for Operations for reconsideration of his quota, based on such substitution.

(2) Any item of farm machinery and equipment or attachments and repair parts which was manufactured for sale within the continental United States by a producer within his authorized quota under Limitation Order L–26 (including all amendments thereto and appeals granted thereunder), and which is, prior to November 1, 1942, completely manufactured, or completely fabricated and ready for shipment in knock-down form, may be sold on and after such date without reference to the provisions of this order.

(2) On and after November 1, 1942, no distributor shall sell or deliver to a consumer any new repair part which he knows or has reason to know will not be incorporated reasonably promptly into farm machinery and equipment in the possession of such consumer.

(i) Inventory provisions. (1) No distributor shall keep in his inventory, in his possession or under his control, for a period of more than thirty days, any used, traded-in, imperfect or non-usable item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts which cannot be reconditioned, but must dispose of the same through the customary disposal or scrap channels.

(2) Any producer may sell to any other producer any material in his inventory which is in excess of his requirements for the items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts permitted to be manufactured under the provisions of this order. Such sales shall be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation No. 13 as amended.

(j) Standardization, simplification, substitution, and conservation of critical materials. (1) In the manufacture of any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts, no producer shall use any alloy steel, stainless steel, aluminum, magnesium, copper, brass, bronze, zinc, nickel, tin, cadmium or fabricated rubber products for any purpose where the use of other less critical materials will not impair the efficiency of operation of such item.

No materials shall be used which are prohibited by M–Orders or other restrictions on use of critical materials as now or hereafter ordered by the Director General for Operations.

(2) The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue supplementary orders or schedules establishing required specifications with respect to the production of any item or items of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts. "Required specifications" may include requirements to standardize or simplify the types, sizes or models of, or the specifications for, any such item or items; to eliminate, reduce or conserve the use of critical materials in the production thereof; and to substitute less critical for more critical materials in the production thereof. (3) Each producer shall file by the 10th day of each month a report on Form PD–630 of his production during the preceding month, the first report to be made on or before December 10, 1942.

(4) Each producer affected by paragraph (d) hereof shall file by the 10th day of each month a report on Form PD–387 (revised) of his shipments during the preceding month (starting with November, 1942) to all foreign countries (including all countries listed on Schedules B–1, B–2, B–3, B–4, B–5, B–6, and B–7).

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him in comparison with others similarly situated, may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(p) Communications. All communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Farm Machinery and Equipment Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–170.

SCHEDULE A

NOTE: Groups 4, 7, 14, 16, and 19 were suspended January 19, 1943.

SCHEDULE OF QUOTAS COVERING THE DOMESTIC PRODUCTION OF FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR FOR THE PERIOD NOVEMBER 1, 1942, TO OCTOBER 31, 1943

Quotas for repair parts are expressed as a percentage of the average dollar value of all repair parts sold during the years 1940 and 1941. Quotas for new machinery and equipment including attachments are expressed as a percentage of the weight of each item produced during 1940 or 1941, whichever was higher. Producers of these items must use the percentages set forth in the respective columns, depending upon whether they are Class A, Class B, or Class C producers. Production of "bracketed items" may be distributed among all or any one or more items included in the particular bracket so long as the total weight of material used does not exceed that determined by the quota percentage assigned to the particular bracket.

Any item of farm machinery and equipment not provided for in this Schedule A shall not be manufactured, unless specifically exempted by Order L–170.

In order to clarify the classification of producers under paragraphs (b) (3), (4), (5) and (6) of § 1029.10 Limitation Order L–170, resulting from transfers of quotas pursuant to § 944.28 (Interpretation of Limitation and Conservation Orders with respect to the Assignability of Quotas), the following official interpretation is hereby issued with respect to said § 1029.10:

(1) Whenever a producer's total farm equipment business has been or may be sold as a going concern, continuing, in the hands of the purchaser, to make substantially the same product at the same plant and with substantially the same personnel (other than executive officers), the classification of the purchaser shall be based upon his total net sales (including those of affiliates) of all products during 1941, plus total sales of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts by the acquired company during 1941. However, if the purchaser uses the acquired company's 1940 base production under paragraph (b) (12) of Order L–170, then, for purposes of the purchaser's classification, sales of the acquired company during 1940, rather than 1941, must be used.

(2) Any other arrangement whereby a producer purports, or has purported, to assign to another person his quota (or a portion thereof) for the production of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts is invalid, unless specifically authorized for the period covered by Order L–170 by the Director General for Operations pursuant to an appeal, which should be made jointly. If such an appeal is granted, the classification of the assignee, unless otherwise directed, will be based upon his total net sales (including those of affiliates) of all products during 1941, plus the 1941 sales of that portion of the assignor's farm machinery and equipment or repair parts business acquired by the assignee. If the assignee is authorized to use the assignor's 1940 base production of such portion, then, for purposes of the assignee's classification, sales of the assignor during 1940, rather than 1941, must be used.

(3) Assignments of quota specifically authorized by appeal under Limitation Order L–26 for the period ending October 31, 1942, are not recognized for the period covered by Order L–170. Accordingly, a new appeal should be made in each case where the assignee wishes to continue producing pursuant to an assignment of quota authorized under Order L–26. Appeals by any such assignee and his classification are governed by § 944.28 and paragraph (2) above. (Issued December 12, 1942.)

Also, specify in each case whether your customer is Army, Navy, other government agency, Lend-Lease or commercial customer, and give government specification number, if any. Where the Form PD–600 is an application for isopropyl alcohol for resale to others, leave Column 4 blank. Where the Form PD–600 is an application for isopropyl alcohol for inventory, applicant shall specify in Column 4 the amount, if any, considered necessary to bring his inventory to a safe working minimum.

(2) Each producer or distributor seeking authorization to make delivery of isopropyl alcohol during any calendar month, shall file application on or before the 20th day of the month preceding the month for which authorization is requested. PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Restriction Order 1,[1] Amendment 11]

MEAT RESTRICTION

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new paragraph (c) is added to § 1407.904; § 1407.913 (b), (c) and (d) are amended; a new paragraph (k) is added to § 1407.925, to read as set forth below:

§ 1407.904 Deliveries of non-quota slaughterers restricted. • • •

§ 1407.913 Conversion weight factors. • • •

(b) For the purpose of computing the quota base for each quota period, pursuant to § 1407.906, and for the purpose of computing deliveries charged against quota during Quota Period 1, pursuant to § 1407.907, the conversion weight of carcasses, and of cuts and trimmings of controlled meat derived therefrom, and of sausage and canned meat produced therefrom, shall be determined by multiplying the weight thereof by the appropriate conversion factor set forth below:

Type of controlled meat and description of product:	Conversion factor (multiplier)
BEEF
Dressed carcasses and cuts not boned, fresh (chilled) or frozen	1.00
Boned beef and trimmings, fresh (chilled) or frozen	1.41
Cured other than dried	1.00
Dried (including smoked)	2.00
VEAL
Dressed carcasses hide off, and cuts, not boned, fresh (chilled) or frozen	1.00
Dressed carcasses hide on, fresh (chilled) or frozen	.90

Cured	1.00 / 1.10
Smoked	1.10 / 1.20
Cooked	1.20 / 1.35
Trimmings:
Fresh (chilled) or frozen	1.10

The conversion weight of controlled meat of each type used in the preparation of sausage or canned meat shall be computed by determining, on the basis of the manufacturing formula, the net weight of controlled meat of such type used in the processing thereof, and multiplying such net weight by 1.41 in the case of boned beef, veal, lamb and mutton, and 1.10 in the case of pork. The net weight of controlled meat which is cooked and used in the preparation of canned meat shall be the weight thereof before cooking.

(c) For the purpose of computing deliveries charged against quota during quota periods subsequent to Quota Period 1, pursuant to § 1407.907, the conversion weight of carcasses, and of cuts and trimmings of controlled meat derived therefrom, and of sausage and canned meat produced therefrom, shall be determined by multiplying the weight thereof by the appropriate conversion factor set forth below:

The conversion weight of controlled meat of any type used in the preparation of sausage, or in the preparation of canned meat not specified above, shall be computed by determining, on the basis of the manufacturing formula, the net weight of controlled meat of such type used in the processing thereof, and multiplying such net weight by the applicable conversion factor set forth above for such type of controlled meat. (ii) Whose aggregate share of the 1942 acreage of corn on all farms in the county in which he has an interest does not exceed his aggregate share of the permitted corn acreage or the larger of the 1942 corn allotment plus 3 acres, or 103 percent of the corn allotment for such farms.

(iii) Upon whose farm the sum of the 1942 acreages of corn, cotton, wheat, and tobacco on the farm does not exceed the sum of the following:

tion uses as defined in § 701.301 (i) (1) of ACP 1942 as amended, (6 F.R. 5521) or there is an acreage of erosion-resisting crops or land uses equal to 25 percent or more of the crop land, whichever is applicable, or

(iii) In lieu of the provisions in item (ii), 60 percent or more of the soil-building allowance for the farm under the 1942 Agricultural Conservation Program is earned.

(b) Eligible corn. Ear corn, from December 1, 1942, to September 30, 1943, inclusive, and shelled corn from June 1, 1943, to September 30, 1943, inclusive, produced in 1942, shall be eligible in all areas except the area in which corn is subject to Angoumois moth infestation, provided:

(1) The beneficial interest to such corn is and always has been in the eligible producer; or

(2) Such corn was purchased by an eligible producer who will operate a different farm in 1943 (or 1944) from that operated in 1942 (or 1943) from another eligible producer, and the number of bushels placed under loan is not in excess of the number of bushels produced by the borrower on the farm operated by him as an eligible producer in 1942; or

(3) Such corn is merchantable field corn which grades No. 3 or better (except for moisture content, or grading No. 4 on test weight only) as defined in the Official Grain Standards of the United States, and that the moisture content is not in excess of the following:

Ear Corn

	Percent
From Dec. 1, 1942, to Mar. 31, 1943, both inclusive	20.5
From Apr. 1, 1943, to Apr. 30, 1943, both inclusive	17.5
From May 1, 1943, to Sept. 30, 1943, both inclusive	15.5

Shelled Corn

From June 1, 1943, to Sept. 30, 1943, both inclusive	13.5

Where corn is otherwise eligible, but subject to Angoumois moth infestation, eligibility is confined to ear corn pledged for loan between December 1, 1942, and March 31, 1943, both inclusive. The Angoumois moth infestation area shall be designated by the State Agricultural Conservation Committee, subject to approval of the Regional Director, Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

(c) Eligible storage. Eligible storage shall consist of cribs or bins which are of such substantial and permanent construction as to afford protection against rodents, other animals, thieves, and weather, as determined by the county agricultural conservation committee.

(d) Lending agency. Any bank, cooperative marketing association, corporation, partnership, or person, making loans in accordance with these instructions upon C.C.C. Grain Form A (Revised), secured by chattel mortgages on C.C.C. Grain Form AA (Revised), which has executed the Contract to Purchase on 1940 C.C.C. Form E.

(e) Eligible paper. For the purpose of the Contract to Purchase (1940 C.C.C. Form E), eligible paper shall consist of producers' notes (C.C.C. Grain Form A, Revised) which have been approved by a member of the county agricultural conservation committee.

§ 234.2 Corn areas. Commercial and noncommercial corn counties in the various States are listed in § 234.2a (1942 C.C.C. Corn Form 1—Supplement 1).

§ 234.3 Amount. Loans will be made on eligible corn to eligible producers in accordance with the county loan rates as indicated in § 234.2a (1942 C.C.C. Corn Form 1—Supplement 1). The rate for corn classified as "Mixed Corn," shall be 2 cents less per bushel. A bushel of ear corn shall be determined by using not less than 2.5 cubic feet of ear corn testing not more than 15.5 percent in moisture content. An adjustment in the number of bushels of ear corn will be made for moisture content in excess of 15.5 percent in accordance with the following schedule:

Moisture content (percent):	Adjustment factor (percent)
15.6 to 16.5	98
16.6 to 17.5	96
17.6 to 18.5	94
18.6 to 19.5	92
19.6 to 20.5	90
Above 20.5	No loan

A bushel of shelled corn shall be determined by using not less than 1.25 cubic feet of shelled corn.

The loan rate applicable to the corn produced on any farming unit, regardless of where stored, shall be the loan rate established for the county in which such farming unit is listed under the Agricultural Conservation Program. When a producer stores corn for a loan in a county other than the county in which the farm is listed, the committee for the county where the corn is stored must secure a written certification of eligibility from the county committee where the farm is listed before certifying the loan.

§ 234.4 Maturity and interest rate. Loans will be available from December 1, 1942, to September 30, 1943, inclusive, and bear interest at the rate of three percent (3%) per annum. Loans mature on August 1, 1945, unless they are called at an earlier date by Commodity Credit Corporation.

§ 234.5 Farm storage. The county agricultural conservation committees will supervise the inspection of storage structures, measuring, and sealing the corn by an inspector, and will arrange for moisture testing and grading of samples. Chattel mortgages covering the corn must be executed and filed in accordance with the applicable State law. Producers may obtain information and assistance from the county agricultural conservation committee in regard to the execution and filing of such chattel mortgages. Where the borrower is a tenant, the expiration date of the lease must be given in section 1 (e) of the chattel mortgage. If the expiration date of the lease is prior to September 30, 1945, the landlord shall execute the Consent for Storage, section 6 of C.C.C. Grain Form AA (Revised). The consent agreement must also be signed by any other party or parties entitled to possession of the farm prior to September 30, 1945. Although no loan will be approved unless the borrower has control over, or proper consent for, the storage of the corn until September 30, 1945, borrowers completing their loans prior to April 1, 1943, shall be permitted to deliver collateral between August 1, 1943, and October 31, 1943. Delivery will be accepted at a later date provided a justifiable reason has been approved by the county committee, and any borrower who does not wish to continue his loan until August 1, 1945, may deliver the collateral in satisfaction of the loan between August 1, 1944, and October 31, 1944. In any of the foregoing events, borrowers must give their county agricultural conservation committee 30 days' written notice of intention prior to delivery. In the event the note is paid or delivery of the collateral accepted in payment of the note prior to maturity of the loan, it shall be understood that the Consent for Storage agreement is terminated. Producers delivering collateral in satisfaction of loans on or after January 1, 1944, in accordance with the above provisions, will receive a storage allowance as indicated below, less any deficiency due the Corporation.

Storage Allowance

Delivered on or after the following dates:	Amount of credit per bushel (cents)
January 1, 1944	3/4
February 1, 1944	1 1/2
March 1, 1944	2 1/4
April 1, 1944	3
May 1, 1944	3 3/4
June 1, 1944	4 1/2
July 1, 1944	5 1/4
August 1, 1944	6

No storage payment will be made if it is determined that there is fraudulent representation on the part of the borrower in connection with the loan.

§ 234.6 Execution and filing of chattel mortgage. All chattel mortgages will be prepared in quadruplicate, and the original or duplicate copy shall be filed for record in accordance with the respective State laws. The receipt of the recorder, the register of deeds, county clerk, auditor, or similar authorized county official, must be completed and executed on one copy of the mortgage to indicate the date of filing or recordation. Such copy shall be held in the office of the county association. In those instances in which chattel mortgages must be filed in both the county in which the mortgagor resides and in the county in which the corn is stored, the quadruplicate copy of the mortgage must be used for this purpose and an additional receipt from the county official typed or stamped on the copy of the mortgage held in the office of the county association. Except where required for filing, the quadruplicate copy of the mortgage, with the duplicate copy of the note, should be delivered to the mortgagor. In case the quadruplicate copy is used for filing, the mortgagor should be given a copy of the mortgage which may be completed on any copy of the form. A separate mortgage must be completed for corn stored in each quarter section. Triplicate copies of chattel mortgages shall be forwarded to the Chicago office weekly on all indirect loans and should accompany the original note when such note is submitted to the Chicago office as a direct loan.

§ 234.7 Liens. The corn collateral must be free and clear of all liens except in favor of the lienholders listed in the space provided therefor in C.C.C. Grain Form AA (Revised). The names of the holders of all existing liens on the pledged or mortgaged corn, such as landlord, laborers, or mortgagees, must be listed in the space provided therefor in the mortgage. The waiver of priority and consent to pledge or mortgage the corn and the payment of the proceeds of the loan and the proceeds of the sale of the corn solely to the producer, as contained in the mortgage or in C.C.C. Form AB, must be signed personally by all lienholders listed or by their authorized agents; or, if a corporation, by the designated officer thereof customarily authorized to execute such instruments. The producer must direct in his note that the proceeds of the loan be made payable to him and/or such other person or concern as he may direct thereon. Producers should read carefully all real estate or other mortgages previously given by them in order to determine whether crops are covered thereby. Any fraudulent representation made in the execution of the note and mortgage and related forms shall render the producer personally liable for the amount of the loan and subject to the provisions of the United States Criminal Code.

§ 234.8 Insurance. Commodity Credit Corporation will not require producers to insure their 1942 corn placed under loan. In the event a total loss of collateral occurs from an external cause, with the exception of a loss caused by conversion, negligence, or vermin, the Commodity Credit Corporation will mark the note paid and return it to the borrower. In case of a partial loss, from an external cause except conversion, negligence, or vermin, the note will be credited at loan value, plus interest, for the number of bushels on which the loss occurred. If the loss occurs on or after January 1, 1944, the total storage allowance of 6 cents per bushel will be paid the producer for the number of bushels on which the loss occurs. No loss will be assumed if it is determined that there is fraudulent representation on the part of the borrower in connection with the loan.

(a) Loss adjustments. Liability of the Corporation for losses assumed will begin with the date of disbursement of the loan and terminate on the date funds for repayment of the note are delivered to a representative of Commodity, the date such funds are placed in the mail if submitted direct to Commodity by the producer, or the date title to the corn is acquired by the Corporation, whichever is earlier. In case of damage to 100 bushels or less, the county committee shall immediately dispose of the damaged collateral to the highest bidder. If more than 100 bushels are damaged, the county committee shall write, or, in urgent cases, wire the Corporation for instructions. In case of theft, proof of theft must be presented by the producer, and, unless satisfactory evidence can be presented, the producer will be liable for the loss. In the event only part of the collateral is damaged, the undamaged portion may be resealed in eligible farm storage. In case the Corporation requests that the damaged corn be delivered to a designated delivery point or the corn is sold subject to delivery, the producer will be required to deliver or to pay the cost of delivery (including shelling of corn) to the designated delivery point. In case the producer fails to make delivery or to pay the cost of transporting the corn to the designated delivery point, the Corporation shall pay the cost of delivery and file a set-off for such an amount against the producer.

§ 234.9 Producer responsibility. The note and mortgage govern the responsibility of the producer and should be read carefully. In case the producer delivers the corn collateral in payment of his loan, he shall deliver a quantity of shelled corn, grading No. 3 or better (except No. 4 on test weight only), equal to the number of bushels upon which the loan was computed. It is important that the producer place his corn in good storage structures and maintain such structures in good repair and protect the corn collateral against damage from weather, rodents, and insects. In those areas subject to insect infestation, careful supervision must be maintained and infestation reported immediately to the county committee. Producers are responsible for any deterioration in quantity or quality of the collateral due to insect infestation. In the event producers desire to shell the collateral corn and store same in satisfactory storage, they should request the county agricultural conservation committee for authority to do so.

§ 234.10 Approval of 1942 corn loans by a member of the county agricultural conservation committee. C.C.C. Grain Form A (Revised) must be approved by a member of the county committee of the county in which the corn is stored. The date of approval must not be prior to the date of the note, or the date of the chattel mortgage securing such note.

The member of the county agricultural conservation committee signing in the space provided on the grain producer's note (C.C.C. Grain Form A, Revised) certifies for and on behalf of the county committee that the corn securing the note, the storage structure(s) in which such corn is stored, and the class, quality, and quantity of such corn have been inspected, determined, and sealed in accordance with the requirements of the Commodity Credit Corporation and the Secretary of Agriculture; that the representations set forth in the chattel mortgage securing such note are true and correct; that the chattel mortgage has been properly executed and filed for record in accordance with the State's legal requirements; that satisfactory evidence of the authority of all parties executing the note and chattel mortgage, lien waivers, and consents for storage, has been received, and any documentary evidence of authority will be held by the committee; that the original or duplicate copy of said mortgage bearing receipt of the county recording official is held by the committee; that a careful search has been made of lien records and, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the committee, that priority on all existing liens on the corn covered by said mortgage has been duly waived; that consents for storage, where necessary, have been executed.

§ 234.11 Preparation of documents. Loan documents will be prepared by county agricultural conservation committees. All blanks in C C C. Grain Forms A (Revised) and AA (Revised) must be filled in with ink, typewriter, or indelible pencil. Substitutions for these forms will not be acceptable.

§ 234.12 Source of loans. Loans may be obtained from Commodity Credit Corporation or any approved lending agency. Notes representing loans made direct with Commodity Credit Corporation should indicate Commodity Credit Corporation as payee and should be mailed to the Chicago office of the Corporation. Notes representing loans made with other agencies should bear the name and address of the lending agency as payee.

§ 234.13 Purchase of loans. Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase, without recourse, eligible paper as defined in § 234.1 (e) hereof, only from lending agencies which have executed and delivered to the Regional Director of Commodity Credit Corporation serving the area a Contract to Purchase (1940 C.C.C. Form E). Notes held by lending agencies may be tendered to Commodity Credit Corporation, Chicago, Illinois, at any time prior to July 1, 1945, but must be tendered for purchase upon request of the Commodity Credit Corporation and, in no event, later than July 1, 1945. The purchase price to be paid by Commodity Credit Corporation for notes accepted will be the face amount of such notes, plus accrued interest from the respective dates of disbursement to the date of payment of the purchase price at the rate of 1½ percent per annum. Under the terms of the Contract to Purchase, lending agencies are required to report weekly on 1940 C.C.C. Form F all payments or collections on producers' notes held by them, and to remit promptly to Commodity Credit Corporation an amount equivalent to one and one-half percent (1½%) interest per annum on the principal amount collected from the date of disbursement on the note to the date of payment. In connection with the 1942 Corn Loan Program, lending agencies must submit notes and reports to the Regional Director, Commodity Credit Corporation, 208 South La Salle Street, Chicago, Illinois.

§ 234.14 Release of collateral held by Commodity Credit Corporation. A producer may obtain release of the collateral by paying to the lending agency or to Commodity Credit Corporation, whichever holds the note, the principal amount of the note plus interest. If the note is held by an out-of-town lending agency or by Commodity Credit Corporation, the producer may request that the note be forwarded to a local bank for collection. In such case, the local bank should be instructed to return the note to the sender if payment is not effected within 15 days. All charges and expenses of the collecting bank shall be paid by the producer. County agricultural conservation committees will be requested to release the mortgage of record after payment in full either by the filing of an instrument of release or by a margin release on the county records.

If the producer's note is made payable direct to Commodity Credit Corporation, and he desires to obtain the release of collateral upon payment, as aforesaid, he should notify the Chicago office of Commodity Credit Corporation. If his note was made payable to a payee other than Commodity Credit Corporation, the producer should notify the payee named therein.

Producers may obtain release of all or part of the collateral under loan by paying to the holder of the note the loan value, plus accrued interest, for the number of bushels released. Form Commodity Loan 29 must be executed in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency for each partial redemption, and one copy submitted to the Chicago office of Commodity Credit Corporation.

Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase notes on which partial releases have been made by lending agencies, provided the note is credited by the lending agency for the full amount of the loan on the corn released, plus interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum, and 1½ percent interest per annum when such principal amount collected has been submitted to the Regional Director of the Chicago office.

Dated: November 20, 1942.

PART 1206—FERTILIZER

CHEMICAL FERTILIZER

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate production of food to meet war and civilian needs, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1206.1 Chemical fertilizer—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order: (1) "Chemical fertilizer" means any material used as a plant food containing one of more of the following: Nitrogen, phosphorus, or potassium, excluding, however, animal manures and animal, fish, and plant residues, unless mixed with a chemical fertilizer.

(2) "Grade" means the minimum guaranteed plant food content of any fertilizer expressed in percentages of its principal plant food components; namely, nitrogen, available phosphoric acid and water-soluble potash. In expressing grades the percentage of nitrogen content is stated first, the percentage of available phosphoric acid is stated second, and the percentage of water-soluble potash is stated third. For example, 2–12–6 means a fertilizer containing 2 percent nitrogen, 12 percent phosphoric acid, and 6 percent potash; 0–14–7 means a fertilizer containing no nitrogen, 14 percent phosphoric acid, and 7 percent potash.

(3) "Superphosphate" means any plant food product which is obtained by mixing rock phosphate with either or both sulfuric acid and phosphoric acid.

(4) "Potash" means any compound of potassium containing, or capable of releasing in the soil, any water-soluble compound of potassium including, but not limited to, muriate of potash, sulfate of potash, and manure salts.

(5) "Organic nitrogen" means nitrogen derived from any plant or animal organism containing nitrogen, including, but not limited to, animal, fish and other tankages, castor pumace, tobacco stems, cotton seed meal, peanut meal, soy bean meal, sewage sludge, cocoa shell meal, peat, and humus.

(6) "Chemical nitrogen" means any nitrogen, other than organic nitrogen, including, but not limited to, amonium sulfate, sodium nitrate, calcium cyanamid, urea, and nitrogen-bearing solutions.

(7) "Fertilizer manufacturer" means any person who manufactures or mixes chemical fertilizer.

(8) "Dealer" means any person, other than a fertilizer manufacturer, who purchases or has purchased chemical fertilizer for resale.

(9) "Agent" means any person, other than a fertilizer manufacturer, who receives or has received chemical fertilizer on a consignment basis for resale.

(10) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other organized group of "persons," and shall include any agent, agency, or any "person" acting for or on behalf of any of the foregoing. The term "person" shall also include the United States or any agency thereof, and a State or any political subdivision or agency thereof.

(11) "Director" means the Director of Food Production, or, in his absence, the Acting Director of Food Production.

(12) "Group A crop" means any crop listed in Schedule III hereof.

(13) "Group B crop" means any crop not listed in Schedule III. It shall not, however, include any crop to the extent that the use of chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen in the production of such crop is prohibited by the terms of this order.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of fertilizer. (1) On and after January 18, 1943, no fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent, shall, subject to the exemptions provided for in paragraph (c) hereof, deliver, and no person, including fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, and agents, shall use on crops, in any of the states listed in Schedule I attached hereto, any grade of chemical fertilizer other than the grades designated on such schedule as applicable to the respective states listed thereon, and where a particular grade is designated on such schedule as available only for a particular crop, such grade shall be sold or used only for the production of such crop.

(2) In addition to the restrictions provided for in paragraph (b) (1) hereof, but subject to the exemptions provided for in paragraph (c) hereof, on and after January 18, 1943:

(i) No fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent shall deliver any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use on lawns, golf courses, parks, cemeteries, roadsides, or noncommercial plantings of trees, shrubs, or flowers, and no person, including fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, and agents, shall use any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for any of such purposes. The restriction provided for in this paragraph (b) (2) (i) shall apply to the use by any landscape gardener or nurseryman of any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen on lawns, trees, shrubs, or flowers planted on the premises of his customers.

(ii) No fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent shall deliver any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen in packages of less than one hundred (100) pounds: Provided, however, That any fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent holding stocks of chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen in bags of not less than eighty (80) pounds on September 12, 1942, or having stocks of fertilizer bags of not less than eighty (80) pounds capacity on September 12, 1942, shall have the right to deliver chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen in packages of not less than eighty (80) pounds until such time as his existing stock of chemical fertilizer in bags of not less than eighty (80) pounds, and of fertilizer bags of not less than eighty (80) pounds capacity, is exhausted.

(iii) No fertilizer manufacturer shall deliver to any consumer any superphosphate which carries less than 18% available phosphoric acid except as specifically designated on Schedule I hereof.

(3) No person shall accept delivery of any chemical fertilizer which he knows or has reason to believe is delivered in violation of this order.

(c) Exemptions. (1) The restrictions provided for in paragraph (b) (1) hereof, shall not apply to:

(i) Deliveries by dealers or agents of stocks of unapproved grades of chemical fertilizer in their hands on September 12, 1942, or to the use by any person of any chemical fertilizer delivered pursuant to this paragraph (s) (1) (i) or to the use by any person of any chemical fertilizer on hand on September 12, 1942.

(ii) Deliveries by any person of any chemical fertilizer to a fertilizer manufacturer for use in the manufacture of chemical fertilizer.

(iii) Deliveries of any chemical fertilizer containing nitrogen where the entire nitrogen content thereof consists of organic nitrogen, or to the use by any person of any chemical fertilizer delivered pursuant to this paragraph (c) (1) (iii).

(iv) Deliveries by any fertilizer manufacturer of stocks of unapproved grades of chemical fertilizer held on September 12, 1942, in any warehouse located fifty miles or more from his nearest fertilizer plant, or to the use by any person of any chemical fertilizer delivered pursuant to this paragraph (c) (1) (iv); Provided, however, That no fertilizer manufacturer shall make any delivery under this paragraph (c) (1) (iv) unless such manufacturer filed with the War Production Board on or before December 31, 1942, the certificate required by section (c) (1) (iv) of War Production Board Order M-231.[1]

(2) The restrictions provided for in paragraphs (b) (1), (b) (2), and (f) (3) hereof, shall not apply to:

(i) Deliveries by fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, or agents of any chemical fertilizer in their hands, and packaged in packages containing less than eighty (80) pounds, on September 12, 1942, or to the use by any person of any chemical fertilizer delivered pursuant to this paragraph (c) (2) (i).

(ii) Deliveries by fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, or agents of any chemical fertilizer in pressed tablet form in their hands, or manufactured from raw materials in their hands, on September 12, 1942, or to the use by any person of any chemical fertilizer delivered pursuant to this paragraph (c) (2) (ii).

(iii) Deliveries by fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, or agents of any chemical fertilizer prepared exclusively for use in hydroponics, either in the form of a completely soluble powder or in the form of a liquid, in their hands, or manufactured from raw materials in their hands on September 12, 1942, or to the use by any person of any chemical fertilizer delivered pursuant to this paragraph (c) (2) (iii).

(iv) Deliveries by fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, or agents of any chemical fertilizer for use in establishing and maintaining grass and other vegetation at Air Force Stations of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, and at other military installations for establishing and maintaining grass and other vegetation where such is essential for training activities, operations, or health, or to the use by any person of any chemical fertilizer delivered pursuant to this paragraph (c) (2) (iv).

(3) The restrictions provided for in this order shall not apply to deliveries of chemical fertilizer for experimental purposes to educational institutions or publicly owned agricultural institutions, or to the use of chemical fertilizer by such institutions for such purposes.

(d) Directions. (1) Each fertilizer manufacturer shall comply with such directions as may be issued from time to time by the Director with respect to the quantities, grades, and kinds of mixed fertilizer to be manufactured and with respect to the use or delivery of any fertilizer materials including nitrogen-bearing materials.

(2) Each fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, and agent shall comply with such directions as may be issued from time to time by the Director with respect to the delivery and use of chemical fertilizers.

(e) Substitution of grades. (1) Set forth in Schedule II attached hereto is a list of the grades (stated on a nitrogen content basis or on a crop basis) of chemical fertilizer used in each of the states designated on such schedule during the 1940–1941 season (July 1, 1940–June 30, 1941) and a list of the approved grades for each of such states for the 1942–1943 season (July 1, 1942–June 30, 1943). The 1940–1941 grades and the 1942–1943 grades are listed in groups—each group being identified by a group number. The grades listed in a particular 1942–1943 group are the grades approved for substitution during 1942–1943 for the grades of the 1940–1941 group bearing the corresponding group number. Where a grade in one of the 1940–1941 groups was used on a particular crop during the 1940–1941 season, no grade other than a grade appearing in the corresponding 1942–1943 group shall be used on such crop during the 1942–1943 season, except as otherwise provided in this paragraph (e) (1). For example, where a person used a grade carrying 2% nitrogen on a particular crop in Connecticut during the 1940–1941 season, he shall not use any grade other than a 0–14–14, 0–20–20 or a 0–9–27 grade on such crop during the 1942–1943 season. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph (e) (1) or of paragraph (e) (2), grades containing four or less percent nitrogen manufactured, delivered and used in 1940–1941 on crops described as vegetable crops in Schedule III may be replaced by approved grades containing the same percentage of nitrogen as the grade replaced. This paragraph (e) (1) shall not prevent the delivery and use in the 1942–1943 season, at the election of the user, of a grade having a nitrogen content lower than that authorized for use in such 1942–1943 season. In the event that information covering use in the 1940–1941 season is not available, use in the 1942–1943 season may be based on grades used in 1941–1942.

(2) Except as otherwise permitted in paragraph (e) (1) hereof, each fertilizer manufacturer shall, during the 1942–1943 season, manufacture or mix and make available for distribution during the 1942–1943 season in each state supplied by him during the 1940–1941 season, tonnages of each group of the 1942–1943 approved grades containing chemical nitrogen in the same ratio which the tonnages of each group of the 1940–1941 grades containing chemical nitrogen delivered during the 1940–1941 season in the state involved bore to each other. For example, if the amount of chemical fertilizer with a nitrogen content of 5% supplied by a manufacturer for distribution in the State of Tennessee during the 1940–1941 season represented 25% of the total amount of chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen supplied by him in Tennessee during that season, then such fertilizer manufacturer shall manufacture or mix and make available for distribution in Tennessee during the 1942–1943 season such amounts of grades 4–8–8, 4–10–4 and 4–12–4 as shall equal 25% of the amount of all chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen produced by him for distribution in Tennessee during the 1942–1943 season.

(f) Additional restrictions. On and after January 18, 1943:

(1) No fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent shall deliver any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use on melon or cucumber crops except where grown specifically for seed production, or in the case of cucumbers where grown for processing, and no person, including fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, or agents, shall use any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for any purpose restricted by this paragraph (f) (1).

(2) No fertilizer manufacturer, dealer or agent shall deliver any mixed chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use prior to July 1, 1943, on spring-sown small grains to be harvested for grains, and no person, including fertilizer manufacturers, dealers and agents, shall use any mixed chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for such purpose.

(3) No fertilizer manufacturer, dealer or agent shall deliver any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use on victory gardens other than the grade of 3–8–7. Such 3–8–7 grade shall be labeled "Victory Garden Fertilizer—For Food Production Only", and no person including fertilizer manufacturers, dealers and agents, shall use any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen other than a grade so labeled, for such purpose. Notwithstanding any provision in this order to the contrary, victory garden fertilizer may be packaged in packages of 5, 10, 25, 50, and 100 pounds net weight and may be used on victory gardens regardless of the crops raised thereon. The term "victory garden" for the purposes of this paragraph (f) (3) means any garden planted primarily for the non-commercial production of vegetables and small fruits. Nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit any person who purchases chemical fertilizer pursuant to this order for use other than on his victory garden from obtaining and using on his victory garden chemical fertilizer of the grade or grades so purchased.

(g) Restriction on the use of organic nitrogen. On and after January 18, 1943, no person shall deliver any mixed fertilizer, the nitrogen content of which consists entirely of organic nitrogen, unless the nitrogen content thereof is at least three percent and the total nitrogen available phosphoric acid and water-soluble potash content thereof is at least fourteen percent: Provided, however, That the restriction provided for in this paragraph (g) shall not apply to deliveries by any person of any mixed fertilizer on hand on September 12, 1942.

(h) Distribution and delivery. (1) Each fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, and agent shall during the 1942–1943 season make chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen available according to crop requirements in each geographical locality in which such manufacturer, dealer, and agent made chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen available for use in the 1941–1942 season, unless such manufacturer, dealer or agent has adequate proof that the crop requirements for chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen in any such locality are being adequately served by other manufacturers, dealers, or agents.

(2) No fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent shall deliver chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen to any person in excess of such person's requirements, as provided for in paragraph (i) and no person including fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, and agents, shall use any chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen in excess of his requirements as provided for in paragraph (i).

(3) In making deliveries of chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen, fertilizer manufacturers, dealers, and agents shall fill orders for such fertilizer for use on Group A crops before filling orders for such fertilizer for use on Group B crops requiring such fertilizer at the same time or at a later time.

(4) Prior to May 1, 1943, no fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent shall deliver for use, and no person shall accept for use, on field corn or cotton of varieties normally stapling less than one and one-eighth inches, chemical nitrogen as straight material in excess of 75 percent of such person's requirement as provided for in paragraph (i).

(5) Prior to April 1, 1943, no fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent shall deliver for use, and no person shall accept for use, on field corn in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin, mixed chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen in excess of 50 percent of such person's requirement as provided for in paragraph (i).

(6) In accepting orders for, or making deliveries of, chemical nitrogen as straight material no fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent shall discriminate against persons who order such chemical nitrogen for home mixing: Provided, That the amount of such chemical nitrogen as straight material delivered to any person for home mixing shall not exceed the amount of chemical nitrogen which such person would be eligible to purchase in mixed fertilizer pursuant to the provisions of this order.

(i) Requirements.—(1) Group A crops. (i) The requirement of any person for chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use on any Group A crop, other than cotton, soybeans and peanuts, shall be the acreage of the crop to be grown by such person multiplied either by the rate of application per acre recommended by the State Agricultural Experiment Station or by the average rate of application per acre previously used by such person or previously used on the farm for which fertilizer is being requested or by the rate of application per acre customarily used in the area, but in no case to exceed the rate of application per acre recommended by the State Agricultural Experiment Station for the approved grade (straight or mixed) to be used on such crop.

(ii) The requirement of any person for chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use on Group A cotton shall be the acreage of such Group A cotton to be grown by such person multiplied by either the average rate of application per acre previously used by such person or previously used on the farm for which fertilizer is being requested: Provided, That such rate of application per acre shall not exceed the rate of application per acre recommended by the State Agricultural Experiment Station for the approved grade (straight or mixed) to be used on such crop.

(iii) The requirement of any person for chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use on peanuts or soybeans shall be the acreage of the crop to be grown by such person multiplied by the rate of application per acre recommended by the State Agricultural Experiment Station for the approved grade to be used on such crop except that if the State Agricultural Experiment Station has not recommended the use of chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen on peanuts or soybeans the rate of application per acre used in determining the requirement of such person shall not exceed the rate of application per acre previously used by such person on such crop.

(2) Group B crops. The requirement of any person for chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use on any Group B crop shall be the acreage of the crop to be grown for which fertilizer is requested by such person, multiplied by the rate of application per acre used by such person or used on the farm for which fertilizer is being requested, in either the 1940–1941 or 1941–1942 seasons: Provided, however, That if information as to neither of such rates of application per acre is available, then the rate of application per acre shall be the same as that being used to determine the requirements for persons operating comparable farms in the same area growing the same crop: Provided, further, That in no case shall the rate of application per acre exceed the rate of application per acre recommended by the State Agricultural Experiment Station for the approved grade to be used on such Group B crop. No fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent shall deliver and no person shall accept chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen for use on any Group B crop during the 1942–1943 season unless chemical fertilizer containing chemical nitrogen was used, in the 1940–1941 or 1941–1942 seasons, on any Group B crop by such person or on any Group B crop on the farm for which such fertilizer is being requested.

(3) "Rate of application per acre" as used in this order means the pounds of chemical fertilizer applied per acre.

(j) Records. (1) No manufacturer, dealer or agent shall, in the year ending June 30, 1943, deliver to any person other than a manufacturer, dealer or agent chemical fertilizer (except victory garden fertilizer 3–8–7 and any grade of fertilizer the nitrogen content of which consists entirely of organic nitrogen), unless prior to such delivery, he shall have received from the person to whom delivery is to be made for use (hereinafter referred to as the applicant) a written statement containing the following information:

(i) The quantity of fertilizer used during the season July 1, 1940 to June 30, 1941 (or during the season July 1, 1941 to June 30, 1942, if information for the prior season is not available), by quantity, grade or material, crops and acreage of crops fertilized.

(ii) That the applicant is or is not farming the same land in the 1942–1943 season as in the season for which information is given in response to paragraph (j) (1) (i).

(iii) The total fertilizer requirements for the season which began July 1, 1942, by crops, acreage of crops, grades of mixed fertilizer or materials and quantity required.

(iv) The fertilizer, if any, which has been ordered from any other supplier, but which has not been delivered.

(v) The fertilizer which the applicant has used since July 1, 1942, to take care of the above requirements, and also the fertilizer which he has on hand.

(vi) Signature and address of applicant, date of signing statement and the name of the dealer, agent or manufacturer to whom the statement is given.

(2) Each manufacturer shall provide a sufficient quantity of the form of statement provided for by paragraph (j) (1) for his own use and the use of his agents and dealers, such statements to be signed in duplicate, one of the copies to be given to the applicant for his files, and the other to be retained by the manufacturer or his dealer or agent.

(3) No manufacturer, dealer or agent shall use on his own crops any chemical fertilizer (except victory garden fertilizer 3–8–7 and any grade of fertilizer the nitrogen content of which consists entirely of organic nitrogen), unless he has executed the form of statement provided for in paragraph (j) (1).

(4) Each manufacturer, dealer or agent who on or after January 18, 1943, delivers any chemical fertilizer to any person other than a manufacturer, dealer or agent (or uses any chemical fertilizer on his own crops) shall keep a record of each such delivery, showing the person to whom delivery is made, the date of delivery, and the quantity of fertilizer materials or grade of mixed fertilizer (and a similar record of use on his own crops), and each such manufacturer, dealer or agent shall retain for not less than two years records of such delivery (or own use) and all statements received by him pursuant to paragraph (j) (1) hereof.

(5) Each person affected by this order shall furnish such additional information in such form and at such times as may be requested by the Director.

(k) State regulations. Nothing contained in this order shall be construed to permit the delivery or use of any grade of chemical fertilizer in any State where the use or delivery of such grade in such State is specifically prohibited by such State.

(l) Notification of customers. Manufacturers, dealers and agents shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give such notice shall not excuse any person from complying with the terms hereof.

(m) (1) Audits and inspections. Each fertilizer manufacturer, dealer, or agent to whom this order applies shall, upon request, submit his books, records, and accounts for audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Department of Agriculture.

(2) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, or who conspires with another to perform any of such acts, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine and imprisonment. In addition, any such person may by administrative suspension order be prohibited from receiving any deliveries of or selling or otherwise disposing of or using any chemical fertilizer or any other material now or hereafter authorized to be rationed or allocated by, or subject to the priority control of, the Secretary of Agriculture, and may be deprived of any priority assistance. Further, the Director of Food Production may recommend to the Office of Price Administration or to the War Production Board that any person who violates any provision of this order or any amendment or supplement thereto be denied the right to receive, use, sell or otherwise dispose of any other materials which now are or in the future may be under allocation.

(n) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply in writing for relief to the Director, setting forth in such petition all pertinent facts and information. The Director may, upon the basis of such application and other information, take such action as he deems appropriate. The decision of the Director shall be in writing and shall be final and conclusive.

(o) Delegation of authority. The administration of this Food Production Order No. 5 and the powers conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Executive Order No. 9280, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director or in his absence to the Acting Director. The Director of Food Production shall be assisted in the administration of this order by such employees of the Department of Agriculture as he may designate, and such employees are hereby authorized to administer the provisions of this order.

(p) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless instructions to the contrary are issued, be addressed to the United States Department of Agriculture, Food Production Administration, Washington, D. C., Ref. FPA 5.

(q) Effect on War Production Board Order M–231. On and after January 18, 1943, War Production Board Order M–231 is superseded by this Food Production Order No. 5: Provided, however, That War Production Board Order M–231 shall continue to remain in full force and effect for the purpose of allowing or sustaining any suit, action, prosecution, or administrative or other proceeding heretofore or hereafter commenced with respect to any violation committed or right or liability incurred prior to January 18, 1943, under or pursuant to the terms of War Production Board Order M–231.

(r) This order shall become effective 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., January 18, 1943.

RESTRICTIONS ON PRODUCTION OF FROZEN DAIRY FOODS AND MIX

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of dairy products to meet war and essential civilian needs, It is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 1401.31 Frozen dairy foods and mix, limitations with respect to production thereof—(a) Definitions. When used in this regulation, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof:

(1) The term "processor" means any person engaged in the manufacture of frozen dairy foods or mix.

(2) The term "frozen dairy foods" means any frozen or partially frozen food products (including ice cream, French ice cream, ice milks, milk ices, frozen custards, sherbets, and other similar preparations) containing milk solids and sugar together with stabilizers, extracts, fruits, nuts, coloring, or flavoring materials.

(3) The term "mix" means any liquid or dried unfrozen preparation (including ice cream mix, ice cream powders, milk ice mix, ice milk mix, milk shake mix, and other similar preparations), containing milk solids and sugar, that is used directly in the freezing of a frozen dairy food.

(4) The term "ice cream" means any frozen dairy food containing 8 per centum or more (by weight) of milk fat included in 14 per centum or more (by weight) of total milk solids.

(5) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business entity.

(6) The term "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(7) The term "base period" means the period from December 1, 1941, to November 30, 1942, both dates inclusive.

(8) The term "allocation period" means any period, specified by the Director, to which quotas, reports, and other regulations herein provided are applicable.

(b) Restrictions on production of frozen dairy foods and mix. (1) No processor may, during any allocation period specified by the Director pursuant hereto, utilize in the production of frozen dairy foods or mix more than 65 per centum of the total milk solids used by the respective processor in the production of such products, respectively, during the corresponding portion of the base period. The milk solids used in frozen dairy foods or mix manufactured for, delivered to, and for the account of an agency specified in or pursuant to paragraph (c) hereof shall be excluded from the amount of milk solids to which the aforesaid 65 per centum is applicable.

(2) The maximum total milk solids content of frozen dairy foods manufactured, sold, or delivered by any person after January 31, 1943, shall be 22 per centum by weight.

(3) The milk solids-not-fat (sometimes referred to as serum solids) content of ice cream or ice cream mix manufactured, sold, or delivered by any person after January 31, 1943, shall not exceed 80 per centum by weight of the milk fat content of such ice cream and ice cream mix, respectively.

(4) Frozen dairy foods other than ice cream or mixes for ice cream are exempt from the provisions of (b) (3) hereof, but no processor shall, during any allocation period specified by the Director pursuant hereto, use in the production of such products more than 10 per centum (by weight) of the total milk solids available to him under the provisions in (b) (1) hereof or more than 100 per centum (by weight) of the amount of milk solids used by the respective processor for the production of such products in the corresponding portion of the base period. The milk solids used in frozen dairy foods or mix manufactured for, delivered to, and for the account of any agency specified in or pursuant to paragraph (c) hereof shall be excluded from the amount of milk solids to which the aforesaid 100 per centum is applicable.

(c) Military exemption. Frozen dairy foods or mix manufactured for delivered to, and for the account of the Army or Navy, including the U. S. Army Post Exchanges, U. S. Navy Ship's Service Departments, and U. S. Marine Corps Post Exchanges, shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraphs numbered (b) (1) and (b) (4) hereof: Provided, That such Exchanges or Departments shall comply with the requirements prescribed by the Director pursuant hereto, including, but not being limited to the submission of reports with respect to the purchases of frozen dairy foods or mix in each allocation period and with respect to the estimates of prospective purchases in designated allocation periods.

(d) Equitable distribution. Each processor shall make equitable distribution, among those persons supplied by such processor during the base period, of the frozen dairy foods and mix manufactured by such processor.

(e) Option with respect to multiple plant operations. Upon approval by the Director of a written request from a processor having multiple plant operations, such plants shall be considered separately in the application of the provisions hereof.

(h) Territorial scope. Any processor doing business in one or more of the forty-eight States or the District of Columbia is subject to the provisions hereof, but the provisions hereof shall not apply to any processor doing business exclusively in any Territory or Possession of the United States.

(i) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply in writing for relief to the Director, setting forth, in said petition, all pertinent facts and the reasons for such petition being approved. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(j) Communications to Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–8.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control, and may be deprived of priority assistance.

PART 3039—MANUFACTURED GAS

[Limitation Order L–174 as Amended Jan. 20, 1943]

ORDER CURTAILING CONSUMPTION OF MANUFACTURED GAS

Whereas because of increased manufactured gas requirements for war production and civilian uses, because of scarcity of materials for the construction and operation of manufactured gas plants, mains and other facilities, and because of shortages of transportation facilities to haul fuel and materials used in the production of manufactured gas, shortages of manufactured gas have occurred in certain areas of the United States and are threatened in others; and

Whereas during periods of adverse weather conditions, the demand for manufactured gas in many areas may increase beyond the capacity for existing facilities to meet such demand; and

Whereas the limitations upon deliveries of manufactured gas hereinafter ordered are necessary in order to maintain deliveries of manufactured gas to war industries and essential civilian services; Now, therefore, it is ordered:

§ 3039.1 General Limitation Order L–174—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Utility" means any person in the United States engaged in producing, transmitting or supplying manufactured gas directly or indirectly for general use by the public. Any system supplying natural or mixed natural and manufactured gas is not subject to this order but is subject to the provisions of Limitation Order L-31.

(3) "Non-utility producer" means any person who owns or operates any gas production or transmission facilities and who is not included in the definition of "utility" in paragraph (a) (2).

(4) "Consumer" means any ultimate user of manufactured gas produced, transmitted or distributed by any utility or by any non-utility producer which is interconnected with any utility.

(5) "Manufactured gas" means any combustible gas produced by any manufacturing process (other than liquefied petroleum gas unmixed with any gas produced by any other manufacturing process).

(6) "Standby facilities" means equipment designed to use a fuel other than fuel oil to replace manufactured gas, and for the operation of which a supply of such fuel is obtainable.

(7) "Space heating equipment" means equipment used for the purpose of raising atmospheric temperature in any building or portion thereof.

(b) Gas system operations. (1) Each utility shall so operate its gas manufacturing, transmission, storage, distribution, and other facilities, as to achieve so far as practicable the maximum output of gas in any area in which a shortage of manufactured gas exists or is imminent. Where necessary for the above purposes, the Director General for Operations will from time to time issue directions as to the operation of gas manufacturing, transmission, storage, distribution or other facilities, and as to deliveries of gas.

(2) Each utility shall, as soon as practicable, make an investigation of the type, amount, and availability of any manufactured gas production facilities owned or operated by any non-utility producer located in or near its operating area, whether or not interconnected with such utility, and shall make such arrangements (including arrangements for interconnections where feasible) as can be made by means of voluntary agreement among the parties and as may be necessary or advisable to meet or to anticipate shortages of manufactured gas. Where such arrangements require the use of materials in excess of those available under any priority order issued by the Director General for Operations, application for authority to use or to acquire such materials shall be made to the Director General for Operations in accordance with established procedures. In any case in which efforts to complete voluntary arrangements fail, the utility shall report the fact to the Director General for Operations, setting forth all pertinent information. The Director General for Operations will, where necessary to accomplish the purposes of this order, issue specific directions to utilities and non-utility producers as to the integration of manufactured gas facilities.

(3) Upon notice from the Director General for Operations to any non-utility producer that a gas shortage exists or is imminent in any area served by any utility with which such non-utility producer is interconnected, such non-utility producer shall so order its operations as to make available for delivery to such utility all manufactured gas which it is capable of producing or supplying and which is not essential for its own operations, unless the Director General for Operations shall, upon application, determine that such gas, because of differences in heat value or chemical composition, cannot practicably be mixed with the gas supplied by such utility. It shall also make available for delivery to such utility further quantities of gas in accordance with directions of the Director General for Operations.

(c) Limitations on deliveries of manufactured gas. (1) In the event of a gas shortage in any area, each utility supplying such area shall reduce deliveries to consumers in accordance with the following schedule and with such further directions as the Director General for Operations may, from time to time, issue: Provided, That to the extent, if any, required by the emergency nature of the shortage, such utility may in the first instance reduce deliveries without regard to such schedules, but shall as soon as possible thereafter readjust its operations and deliveries to confirm in all respects to such schedule during the continuance of the gas shortage.

(i) First, the utility shall, within the limits of its contractual rights, reduce deliveries to all consumers purchasing manufactured gas under contracts permitting the supplier to interrupt deliveries: Provided, That deliveries of gas necessary for the maintenance of the war production and essential civilian services listed in Exhibit A, as the same may be amended from time to time, shall be reduced only to the extent that the fuel requirements for such production and services can be supplied from the consumer's standby facilities.

(ii) Second, the utility shall without regard to its contractual rights or those of any consumer, reduce deliveries to all consumers who have standby facilities to the extent to which the operation of such facilities can directly or indirectly alleviate the shortage of manufactured gas in the area.

(iii) Third, the utility shall to the extent necessary, reduce deliveries to all commercial and industrial consumers except to the extent that such deliveries are necessary for the maintenance of the war production and essential civilian service listed in Exhibit A or to prevent permanent damage to the production facilities of such consumers. Such reductions shall be made insofar as practicable on a uniform proportionate basis.

(iv) Fourth, if after effectuating the reduction in deliveries of gas required by or pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, it becomes necessary to curtail deliveries of gas for the maintenance of the war production and essential civilian service listed in Exhibit A, the utility shall insofar as practicable reduce such deliveries on a uniform proportionate basis.

(v) Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, if the Director General for Operations, after investigation, shall determine that any consumer having standby facilities has failed to provide himself with an adequate supply of fuel for the operation of such standby facilities despite the availability of such fuel, the Director General for Operations, may prohibit deliveries of gas to, and acceptances of gas by, such consumer to the extent that his requirements of gas could have been decreased through the operation of such standby facilities.

(2) The Director General for Operations may issue such directions with respect to reductions in deliveries to residential consumers as may be necessary to alleviate gas shortages.

(3) The Director General for Operations may require any utility to file a specific curtailment schedule listing consumers proposed to be curtailed and the order of their curtailment during gas shortages and may issue such directions with respect thereto as may be necessary to assure compliance with the provisions of this paragraph (c).

(4) Whenever, pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) or (c) (2) above or any directions issued thereunder, any utility is obliged to reduce deliveries to any consumer, such utility shall so inform each consumer to be curtailed, and each such consumer shall, upon such notification, reduce his acceptance of deliveries of manufactured gas in accordance with such notification.

(5) Whenever any utility finds it necessary to reduce deliveries, pursuant to this paragraph (c), such utility shall immediately notify the Power Division of the War Production Board, Ref.: L-174, of such curtailment by telegram. Following each such curtailment, the utility shall submit to the Power Division a detailed report of the duration of curtailment and the extent to which deliveries to such consumers were curtailed. Such report shall be filed on Form PD-628.

(d) Restrictions upon deliveries to consumers other than domestic consumers. No utility shall deliver manufactured gas to any consumer other than a domestic consumer, and no consumer other than a domestic consumer may accept such deliveries, for the operation of any gas-fired equipment (including space-heating equipment) which was not installed (or if converted from some other fuel, such conversion was not completed) at the same premises prior to September 1, 1942, unless:

(1) Such equipment is non-space heating equipment and has an aggregate input capacity of less than 150 cubic feet per hour.

(2) Such equipment replaces similar type gas-fired equipment of equal or greater capacity previously installed or operated by the same consumer at the same premises for the same purposes, or

(3) Such deliveries are specifically approved in advance by the Director General for Operations. Any consumer or utility which considers that such deliveries are necessary for war production or the operation of an essential civilian service may apply for such approval to the Director General for Operations.

No person shall install gas-fired equipment designed to receive deliveries of manufactured gas from any utility if such deliveries are prohibited by this paragraph.

(e) Restrictions upon deliveries to domestic consumers for space heating. Except where otherwise directed by the Director General for Operations, no utility shall deliver to any domestic consumer and no such consumer shall accept deliveries of manufactured gas for the operation of any space-heating equipment unless such equipment:

(1) Was installed (or if converted from some other fuel to manufactured gas, such conversion was completed) at the same premises prior to September 1, 1942, or

(2) Replaces similar type space-heating equipment of equal or greater capacity previously installed or operated at the same premises whether by the same or by another consumer, or

(3) Was installed prior to November 15, 1942, in a new building, and such equipment was specified in the construction contract, and the foundation under the main part of the structure in which the equipment is to be installed was completed prior to September 1, 1942.

No person shall install space-heating equipment designed to receive deliveries of manufactured gas from any utility if such deliveries are prohibited by this paragraph.

(e-1) Restrictions upon deliveries when conversion to less critical fuels has been ordered. If the Director General for Operations, after investigation, shall determine:

(1) That the gas-fired equipment owned or operated by any person can, without unreasonable expense or hardship to such person, be converted to the use of, or be replaced by equipment using, a less critical fuel of which a supply is available, and

(2) That such conversion or replacement will contribute to the alleviation of actual or prospective gas shortages, or to the maintenance of gas deliveries to war producers or essential civilian services, the Director General for Operations may upon sufficient notice to permit such conversion or replacement, prohibit further deliveries or acceptances of manufactured gas for the operation of such gas-fired equipment.

(f) Applications to Director General for Operations. (1) Any person who considers that any reduction in or prohibition of deliveries of manufactured gas made or proposed to be made pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) or (e) or any direction issued thereunder interferes or will interfere materially with war production or the operation of an essential civilian service, may apply for relief to the Director General for Operations who may grant such specific exemptions or take such other action as may be consistent with the purposes of this order. Such application shall state the nature of the war materials being manufactured or the nature of the service, the extent to which such production or service has been or may be curtailed because of reduced delivery of manufactured gas or inability to use gas for space heating, and the increase in deliveries of manufactured gas required for restoration of full production or service.

(2) Any utility which considers that the capacity of its gas manufacturing equipment and the supply of fuel oil, coal, coke or other fuel available for gas manufacturing are sufficient to take care of all existing and estimated future requirements of war industry and unrestricted civilian use, may apply for exemption of the system or any portion thereof from the provisions of this order or any direction issued hereunder to the Director General for Operations who may grant such exemptions or take such other action as may be consistent with the purposes of this order.

(3) Applications by all consumers for exemption from the space-heating restrictions of this order shall be made on Form PD-673. Applications by non-residential consumers for exemption from the restrictions on deliveries for non-space heating purposes shall be made on Form PD-672.

(g) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may appeal for relief to the Director General for Operations who may grant such specific exemptions or take such other action as may be consistent with the purposes of this order.

(h) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or any direction of the Director General for Operations issued hereunder, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from obtaining deliveries of manufactured gas or from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, other material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(i) Reports and information. (1) Each utility shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning deliveries of manufactured gas to consumers.

(2) Such records shall be subject to inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(3) All persons affected by this order shall execute, and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall, from time to time, request.

(j) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to Power Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref: L-174.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1300—PROCEDURE

[Procedural Regulation 7,[1] Amendment 1]

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Procedure for the adjustment of maximum prices in the Territories and possessions under § 1499.202 of Supplementary Regulation 13 to General Maximum Price Regulation.

Section 1300.502 is amended and § 1300.511 is added to read as set forth below:

§ 1300.502 Right to apply for adjustment. (a) Any seller who finds that the maximum price of a commodity established for him under the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation,[2] or under the provisions of any other maximum price regulation, or any order, is abnormally low:

(1) Because of increased cost of importation resulting from increased rail and ocean freight and increased war risk insurance; or

(2) Because of the high cost of a commodity received by the seller on or before August 1, 1942; and that this abnormality subjects him to substantial hardship, may apply for adjustment of that maximum price in the manner set forth below.

In establishing substantial hardship, the applicant shall produce evidence showing the loss suffered on the particular commodity as a result of the maximum prices established, and the effect of such loss on his overall operations.

(b) Any seller or group of sellers may apply for adjustment of a maximum price established for him by the General Maximum Price Regulation or any other maximum price regulation or any order when it appears:

(1) That there exists or threatens to exist in a particular locality a shortage in the supply of a commodity or service which aids directly in the war program or is essential to a standard of living consistent with the prosecution of the war; and

(2) That such local shortage will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the maximum prices of such seller and of like sellers for such commodity or service; and

(3) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a shortage, or a need for increase in prices, in another locality, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1300.511 Effective dates of amendments. (a) Amendment No. 1 (§ 1300.502) to Procedural Regulation No. 7 shall become effective February 19, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

PART 1306—IRON AND STEEL

[MPR 159,[1] Amendment 2]

FABRICATED CONCRETE REINFORCING BARS

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1306.375 is revoked and § 1306.363, paragraph (a) of § 1306.365, paragraph (a) of § 1306.367, § 1306.368, § 1306.369, subparagraphs (2) and (6) of paragraph § 1306.372 (a), and § 1306.374 are amended; a new § 1306.367a and a new paragraph (b) to § 1306.373a are added to read as set forth below:

§ 1306.363 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery and, where a petition for amendment has been made pursuant to § 1306.368 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 159, may offer or agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1306.365 Records and reports. (a) Every person making purchases from a fabricator and every fabricator making sales of fabricated concrete reinforcing bars in the course of trade or business on and after June 15, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, or for two years, whichever is less, complete and accurate records of each such purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer or the seller, either the shipping point or delivered price paid or received, and transportation charges or allowances, if any.

§ 1306.367 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 159 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension procedure, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1306.367a Licensing. The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 17,[3] licensing persons subject to Revised Price Schedules 46[4] and 49,[5] and Maximum Price Regulation No. 159 are applicable to every person selling fabricated concrete reinforcing bars for which maximum prices are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 159. That order provides in substance that a license is required of every person selling fabricated concrete reinforcing bars for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 159, that every person subject to this regulation is granted a license as a condition of selling fabricated concrete reinforcing bars hereunder, and that every such person may in the future be required to register with the Office of Price Administration at such time and in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe. Licensees violating any of the provisions of this regulation or of said license are subject to the license suspension proceedings provided in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1306.368 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this maximum price regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.*

§ 1306.369 Federal and State taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing, or use of fabricated concrete reinforcing bars, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such fabricated concrete reinforcing bars and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect on June 15, 1942. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price on June 15, 1942, the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 159. (2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 159.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after June 15, 1942. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit such interim invoicing as the parties may agree upon. inforcing bars is made to the fabricator outside of the limits of the switching district of a basing point, there may be added the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity of concrete reinforcing bars from the applicable basing point to the railroad siding nearest the plant of the fabricator. (ii) Where delivery of the concrete reinforcing bars is made to the fabricator within the limits of the switching district of a basing point, there may be added the applicable switching charge under Revised Price Schedule No. 6 for an identical quantity: Provided, That such switching charge may not exceed $0.025 per hundred pounds for a sale in carload quantities of twenty-five tons or more, or $0.10 per hundred pounds for a sale in less than carload quantities, except that for deliveries of 30 tons or more within the limits of the switching district of Chicago, Illinois such charge may not exceed $0.03 per hundred pounds; and that in no instance need the switching charge provided for in this subparagraph fall below $2.00 for any single sale.

(2) Outgoing freight. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, there may also be added the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity of fabricated concrete reinforcing bars from the plant of the fabricator to the point of delivery to the consumer: Provided, That where such delivery is made in whole or in part by truck, $0.10 per hundred pounds may also be added.

(3) Fabrication in transit. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, if the privilege of fabrication in transit at the plant of the fabricator is available between the point of origin of the concrete reinforcing bars and the point of delivery to the consumer, and yields a charge lower than the total charge calculated pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2) for the transportation of an identical quantity from the applicable basing point to the point of delivery to the consumer, the total transportation charge which may be added under paragraph (c) (1) and (c) (2) of this paragraph shall not exceed such lower charge.

(4) Michigan and Toledo. (i) No additions for transportation charges may be made on less than carload quantities for delivery within the switching limits of the City of Detroit, Michigan. (ii) No additions for transportation charges may be made on carload quantities for delivery within the switching limits of the City of Toledo, Ohio or the City of Detroit, Michigan. (iii) On less than carload quantities for delivery in the State of Michigan, other than the switching limits of the City of Detroit there may be added: (a) where the lowest applicable railroad charge at the carload rate from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to the point of delivery to the consumer is 34 cents or less per hundred pounds, 17 cents per hundred pounds plus the difference between the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to the point of delivery to the consumer and the lowest railroad charge at the carload rate; or (b) where the lowest applicable railroad charge at the carload rate from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to the point of delivery to the consumer is more than 34 cents per hundred pounds, the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity from the applicable basing point to the point of delivery to the consumer. (iv) On carload quantities for delivery in the State of Michigan other than the switching limits of the City of Detroit there may be added: (a) where the lowest applicable railroad charge at the carload rate from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to the point of delivery to the consumer is 34 cents or less per hundred pounds, 17 cents per hundred pounds; or (b) where the lowest applicable railroad charge at the carload rate from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to the point of delivery to the consumer is more than 34 cents per hundred pounds, the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity from the applicable basing point to the point of delivery to the consumer. In any case where the transportation charges in this subparagraph (4) are applicable and where delivery is made in whole or in part by truck, $0.10 per hundred pounds may also be added.

(5) Direct shipments. Where a shipment is made directly from the mill to the consumer, irrespective of whether the bars are fabricated or not, the maximum charge which may be added for transportation is the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity from the applicable basing point to the consumer: Provided, That where such delivery is made in whole or in part by truck, $0.10 per hundred pounds may also be added. This subparagraph (5) does not apply to sales for delivery within the State of Michigan and within the switching limits of the City of Toledo, Ohio.

(6) Segregation. In computing the rail freight charges pursuant to this paragraph, the specific concrete reinforcing bars or fabricated concrete reinforcing bars purchased and sold need not be segregated or otherwise identified by the fabricator: Provided, That during any year beginning January 1, 1943, should the difference between the total amounts invoiced by a fabricator for freight charges on sales from any plant, office or point of shipment and the total amounts for freight charges actually incurred by the fabricator at the same plant, office or point of shipment result in an excess or a deficit to the fabricator at such plant, office or point of shipment, such excess shall be dissipated or such deficit may be retrieved by the fabricator by adjustment of freight charges on outgoing shipments from said plant, office or point of shipment on sales during the first three months following such year or, if there are no sales or sales are insufficient during said three months, as soon as sufficient sales are made. In the event a fabricator intends to liquidate his business at any plant, office or point of shipment such excess shall be dissipated immediately on freight charges to be invoiced on subsequent deliveries. In computing rail freight charges for the purposes of this paragraph no dissipation is required of an excess occasioned for shipments to a purchaser in less than carload quantities where the concrete reinforcing bars were received at the plant of the fabricator in carload quantities and the fabricator subsequently invoiced his purchaser on a less than carload basis for the incoming shipment. Furthermore, in computing the amount of rail freight charges pursuant to this paragraph the fabricator shall adjust for amounts due from carriers under shipments on the basis of a fabrication-in-transit privilege.

MANUFACTURERS' AND WHOLESALERS' PRICES FOR SPECIFIED MEN'S AND BOYS' WORK AND SPORT SHIRTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish revised maximum prices for sales of specified work and sport shirts by manufacturers and wholesalers. The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 304 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1389.451 to 1389.460 issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1389.451 Scope of this regulation—(a) Kinds of shirts covered. This regulation applies to cotton flannel, cotton domet and cotton suede shirts for men and boys in boys' sizes 6 to 18, inclusive, and in men's sizes 13 to 19, inclusive. These shirts will be referred to as "specified work and sport shirts".

(b) Shirts which are excluded. Shirts of the following descriptions are not covered by this regulation:

(1) Used shirts.

(2) Shirts made for persons of abnormal size or with physical deformities, who cannot be fitted with standard models.

(c) Kinds of sales covered. This regulation applies to sales at source, and to sales at wholesale. It does not apply to sales at retail. These kinds of sales are defined as follows:

(1) A "sale at source" is a sale, otherwise than at retail, of a garment which the seller has fabricated or which has been fabricated for him by an agent or contractor.

(2) A "sale at wholesale" is a sale, otherwise than at retail, of a garment which the seller received in substantially the form in which he sells it.

(3) A "sale at retail" is a sale to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or commercial user.

§ 1389.452 How to find the maximum price—(a) Prices provided by Appendix B. The seller should look for the maximum price of any shirt in Appendix B (§ 1389.460). Prices for most shirts are stated in the tables in this appendix. In some cases, the maximum price is not stated in the table, but may be calculated by using some other provision of Appendix B. In a few cases, the price for a particular shirt or particular kind of sale cannot be found in Appendix B; this is true for example, of a shirt of substandard dimensions or construction which is put into process after January 24, 1943. In these cases, the seller must refer to paragraph (b) of this section. Standards of dimensions, construction and quality which must be met by specified work and sport shirts are provided in Appendix A (§ 1389.459).

(b) When a seller must apply for a price. In some cases a maximum price cannot be found through use of Appendix B. In such cases, no person may make any sale or delivery until a maximum price has been authorized by the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Anyone who seeks such an authorization must file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., an application describing the garment, explaining how it differs from garments which can be priced under the regulation, setting forth the cost of manufacture or purchase, and requesting a maximum price. The applicant shall supply any further relevant information requested by the Office of Price Administration. No maximum price will be authorized which is unduly high in relation to the prices of other shirts, considering the special utility (if any) of the garment for which a price is requested. The seller will be required to mark any shirt for which a price is authorized with a distinguishing label.

§ 1389.453 Labeling. No person shall make any delivery at source or at wholesale of specified work and sport shirts which were put into process on or after February 22, 1943, unless the shirt is labeled to show the following facts:

(a) The weight of the cloth. This shall be expressed by the market designation either in yards per pound or in ounces per yard, prorated to the basis of 36 inches in width.

(b) The shrinkage treatment, or lack of any, as follows:

(1) If the fabric is "shrunk", the word "pre-shrunk" or "shrunk", or other word of like effect. These terms must be accompanied by the qualifying statements required by the Trade Practice Rules for the Shrinkage of Woven Cotton Yard Goods,[1] issued by the Federal Trade Commission.

(2) If the fabric is not "shrunk", the words "allow for shrinkage", or "unshrunk".

(c) If the shirt contains defects of material or workmanship, the word "imperfect" or "second". This must be stamped on the neckband label.

A label may contain other information, such as lot number or size, if it does not obscure the required information. This information may be shown on separate labels, but all labels must be firmly attached and clearly visible.

Weight—3.00 yd./lb.
Allow for Shrinkage.

Lot 903.
Size 15½.
Wt., 7 oz./yd.
Sanforized—will not shrink over 1 percent.

§ 1389.454 Records and disclosure—(a) Current records. Every manufacturer shall keep and make available to the Office of Price Administration records of the kind he has customarily kept relating to the materials, trimmings and labor used in specified work and sport shirts. Every seller shall keep and make available to the Office of Price Administration records of the kind he has customarily kept relating to the prices at which he sells specified work and sport shirts, and the specifications of the shirts sold.

(b) Disclosure of specifications. Within ten days after receiving a written request, every seller must disclose in writing to any person who has bought specified work and sport shirts from him and has not yet resold them, all information which may be necessary for labeling and pricing these shirts.

(c) Disclosure of class of trade. Within ten days after receiving a written request, every person who buys or offers to buy specified work and sport shirts must inform the seller in writing of the class of purchaser to which the buyer belongs, and of the facts on which he bases his statement that he belongs to this class. Classes of purchasers are defined in paragraph (c) of Appendix B (§ 1389.460).

§ 1389.455 Relation to other regulations, and other special situations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] The General Maximum Price Regulation, including Amendment 49[3] to Supplementary Regulation 14[4] thereto, does not apply to any sale at source or at wholesale of specified work and sport shirts. However, the registration and licensing provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation (§§ 1499.15 and 1499.16) apply to every person who sells specified work and sport shirts at wholesale. Definitions in the General Maximum Price Regulation apply to words used in this regulation unless the context requires otherwise.

(b) Maximum Price Regulation 210[5]—Retail and Wholesale Prices for Fall and Winter Seasonal Commodities. Maximum Price Regulation 210 does not apply to any sale at wholesale of specified work and sport shirts, but it continues to apply to sales at retail of such shirts.

(c) War procurement agencies—Maximum Price Regulation 157.[6] This regulation does not apply to sales of shirts made in accordance with military specifications, when the sales are made to war procurement agencies as defined in Maximum Price Regulation 157. It does not apply to sales made by war procurement agencies of specified work and sport shirts, whether or not the shirts are made in accordance with military specifications.

(d) Export sales. This regulation does not apply to export sales of specified work and sport shirts, and the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[7] applies to such sales.

(e) Contractors' services. This regulation does not apply to the supply of contractors' services as defined in Maximum Price Regulation No. 172.[8]

(f) Geographical applicability. This regulation applies to sales in the 48 states and the District of Columbia.

§ 1389.456 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for an amendment of general applicability. Any such petition must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[9]

§ 1389.457 Prohibitions and enforcement—(a) Acts forbidden. On and after January 25, 1943, the following acts are forbidden, regardless of any contract or other obligation.

(1) Charging more than the maximum price. Every person is forbidden to sell or deliver any garment at a higher price than the maximum price fixed by this regulation. But no one is prohibited from charging a price below the maximum price.

(2) Buying or receiving for more than the maximum price. Every person is forbidden to buy or receive any garment in the course of trade or business for a higher price than the maximum price fixed by this regulation. But no person is prohibited from buying or receiving for a lower price.

(3) Combination sales. Every person is forbidden in the course of trade or business to make a sale of any garment which is conditioned directly or indirectly on the purchase of any other commodity or service.

(b) Price terms. All prices stated in the tables are subject to the minimum terms set forth in this paragraph. Any lower price or more favorable terms may be granted. But no seller may change these terms if the change would result under any circumstances in a higher price.

(1) Time and cash discounts. All prices are net sixty days, less 1 percent in ten days.

(2) Customer and quantity discounts. Customer and quantity discounts may be but are not required to be maintained.

(3) Shipping charges. All prices are f. o. b. place of shipment.

(c) Classes of trade. This regulation fixes different prices for different kinds of sales, and for sales to different classes of trade. In order to find what price may be charged, the parties must find to what class of purchaser the buyer belongs, and the kind of sale which is to be made. Classes of purchasers and kinds of sales at wholesale are defined in this paragraph. "Sale at source", "sale at wholesale" and "sale at retail" have already been defined in paragraph (c) of § 1389.451.

(1) "Class I purchaser" includes:

(i) Every purchaser who sells principally at wholesale.

(ii) Every purchaser who during 1941 obtained more than half his specified work and sport shirts from manufacturers at or below the prevailing wholesale price of these manufacturers. For example, a mail order house which in 1941 received 60% of its shirts from a manufacturer at less than the manufacturer's regular price to wholesalers, 30% from another manufacturer at more than the manufacturer's regular price to wholesalers and 10% from jobbers at the regular price to independent retailers, would be a "Class I purchaser." In comparing prices allowance is to be made for differences in specifications.

(iii) Every purchaser who during 1941 obtained more than one fourth of the total production of specified work and sport shirts of a manufacturer. For example, a chain of stores might have purchased its shirts from a manufacturer who did not customarily deal with wholesalers, so that subsection (ii) would not apply. Yet, if the chain bought more than one fourth of the manufacturer's production, it would be a "Class I purchaser".

(iv) Every person who manufactures any specified work and sport shirts. For example, a man who manufactures flannel shirts and supplements his line by suede shirts of other manufacturers is a "Class I purchaser" with respect to the shirt that he buys from others.

(2) "Class II purchaser" includes every purchaser who is not in Class I. But in the case of a transfer of business or stock in trade made after December 31, 1941, these rules apply:

(i) If the transferee did not deal in specified work and sport shirts during 1941, he belongs to the same class to which his transferor would belong.

(ii) If the transferee did deal in specified work shirts during 1941, and either the transferor or the transferee would belong to Class I had there been no transfer, the transferee belongs to Class I.

(3) A sale "from factory" is a sale at wholesale in which the goods are shipped directly to the purchaser from an establishment of the manufacturer.

(4) A sale "from stock" is a sale at wholesale in which the goods are shipped from an establisment of the seller at wholesale.

(5) "East and Central" designate sales from stock in which the seller's place of business is in a state lying east of New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming or Montana.

(6) "Mountain and Pacific" designate sales from stock in which the seller's place of business is in New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming or Montana, or further west.

(d) Shirts which are not standard. The prices in the tables apply to shirts which are of standard dimensions, construction and grade. This paragraph tells how other shirts are to be priced.

(1) Imperfects and seconds. To find the maximum price of a shirt graded as a "second" or "imperfect", the seller takes the maximum price of a corresponding perfect shirt, and deducts the percentage which the manufacturer of the shirt customarily deducted for the particular defect in 1941. The deduction shall always be at least 7½ percent.

(2) Undersized and substandard shirts. In the case of a shirt which is not of standard dimensions or construction, the seller must first find the date on which it was put into process (that is, when the factory started to cut the material for this particular shirt). If it was put into process before January 25, 1943, the maximum price is the same as it would be for a standard shirt. If it was put into process on or after that date, the maximum price must be applied for as provided in paragraph (b) of § 1389.452.

(e) Special kinds of sales. The prices in the tables apply to sales which advance the goods in the course of distribution. They do not apply to sales from one "Class I purchaser" to another "Class I purchaser", nor from one "Class II purchaser" to another "Class II purchaser." The maximum price for any sale of one of these kinds is the sum of the net cost actually paid by the seller (not exceeding the maximum price), plus the shipping charges actually paid by him.

(f) When taxes may be added to the price. The seller may charge or collect, in addition to the maximum price for any transaction, the amount of tax levied on account of that transaction by any existing or future Federal excise tax statute, or by any State or municipal sales, gross receipts, gross proceeds, or compensating use tax statute or ordinance, under which the tax is measured by gross proceeds or units of sale, in the following cases only:

(1) Where the statute or ordinance requires the seller to state the tax to the purchaser separately from the purchase price; or

(2) Where the statute or ordinance requires the tax to be separately paid by the purchaser with money, tokens or other means of tax payment; or

(3) Where the statute or ordinance permits the seller to state the tax to the purchaser separately from the purchase price, and the seller actually does so.

Issued this 19th day of January 1943.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 11,[1] Amendment 29]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1394.5402 the texts of paragraphs (b) and (e) are amended and new paragraphs (f), (g), and (h) are added thereto; and a new paragraph (cc) is added to § 1394.5902; as set forth below:

Miscellaneous Uses

§ 1394.5402 Rations for miscellaneous uses. * * *

(b) Application for a ration for a necessary purpose not otherwise specified in this Ration Order No. 11, shall be made to a Board on or after October 22, 1942.

(1) If the ration required is for any commercial, industrial or governmental purpose, application shall be made on Form OPA R–1102. The applicant shall also certify on the application whether or not the fuel oil required is for use exclusively in any operation or operations listed in Schedule "A" of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3 issued by the Petroleum Administration for War.

(2) If the ration is required for any domestic, institutional or agricultural purpose, application shall be made on Form OPA R–1103.

(e) After determining the allowable ration, the Board shall issue Class 3 coupon sheets containing coupons equal in gallonage value to the allowable ration (subject to the deduction made pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section, if applicable) less the amount of fuel oil on hand.

(f) Where the allowable ration of a commercial, industrial or governmental consumer for operations in the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia or Florida (east of the Apalachicola River), or the District of Columbia, is nine thousand (9,000) gallons or more, and if such consumer does not certify that the fuel oil, for which the ration is requested, is for use exclusively in an operation or operations listed on Schedule "A" of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3, issued by the Petroleum Administration for War, the Board shall deduct from the allowable ration, determined in accordance with paragraph (c), forty (40%) percent of the gallonage value thereof: Provided, That in no event shall such deduction reduce the allowable ration to less than nine thousand (9,000) gallons.

(g) Each commercial, industrial or governmental consumer whose current allowable ration is more than nine thousand (9,000) gallons of fuel oil for an operation or operations in the area mentioned in paragraph (f) of this section and was not adjusted as provided in said paragraph (f) shall, if the fuel oil is not for use exclusively in any operation or operations listed on Schedule "A" of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3, issued by Petroleum Administration for War, surrender (personally or by mail), on January 25, 26 or 27, 1943, to such Board or to such State, District or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration as shall be designated for such purpose by the Regional Administrator for the region in which the consumer's Board is located, all coupon sheets, other evidences, and delivery receipts evidencing the ration issued to him. The Board or Office to which such surrender is made shall adjust the consumer's current allowable ration in accordance with paragraph (f) of this section, and shall detach from the consumer's coupon sheets coupons equal in gallonage value to the amount by which the gallonage value of the coupons then attached to the coupon sheets exceeds such allowable ration as adjusted by the operation of paragraph (f) of this section. The Board or Office detaching such coupons shall enter under the Register of Deliveries on the coupon sheet the date, the number and value of the coupons detached, the number of the Board or the designation of the office and the name of the person making the entries. If a delivery receipt is surrendered, the deduction pursuant to paragraph (f) shall be entered on the stub, together with the date, the number of the Board or designation of the office and the name of the person making the entries.

(h) Upon certification by the Petroleum Administrator for War, pursuant to Petroleum Administrative Order No. 3, issued by Petroleum Administration for War, that the current ration issued to any consumer for a commercial, industrial or governmental purpose in the area mentioned in paragraph (f) of this section (whether or not such ration was adjusted pursuant to such paragraph (f)) be revoked or modified, such consumer shall, within three (3) days from the issuance of the certification, present his copy of the certification, together with the coupon sheets, other evidences or delivery receipts, evidencing his ration, to such Board or State, district or regional office of the Office of Price Administration as may be designated for such purpose by the Regional Administrator for the region in which the consumer's Board is located. Such Board or office will make such adjustment of the consumer's ration as may be required by the certification.

(1) If the certification of the Petroleum Administrator for War requires an increase in the ration of such consumer, such Board or office shall issue Class 3 coupon sheets containing coupons equal in gallonage value to the amount of the increase, and shall enter thereon as the period of validity of such coupon sheets the same period of validity as that of the current ration.

(2) If the certification of the Petroleum Administrator for War requires a reduction in the ration of such consumer, such Board or office shall detach from the coupon sheets coupons equal in gallonage value to the amount of the reduction. PART 1425—LUMBER DISTRIBUTION

DISTRIBUTION YARD SALES OF SOFTWOOD

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1425.1 the text of paragraph (a) is amended; in § 1425.12 subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) is amended, and subparagraph (a) (5) is added; in § 1425.14 subparagraph (4) of paragraph (a), the text after the table in paragraph (c), and paragraph (i), are amended; and new §§ 1425.15 and 1425.16 are added; all to read as set forth below:

§ 1425.1 Definition of distribution yard sale. (a) "Distribution yard sale" for purposes of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 215 means a sale out of distribution yard stock of 5,000 feet or more of softwood lumber to the following persons: (Exception: This 5,000 feet limitation shall not apply in the case of sales to other distribution yards mentioned in subparagraph (6) below, and to sales by "CPA contract yards" defined in § 1425.12 (a) (6) below. Such sales shall be regarded as distribution yard sales regardless of quantity.)

• • • • •

§ 1425.12 Definitions. (a) • • •

(2) "Softwood lumber" means any lumber or shingles subject to Maximum Price Regulations 19, 26, 94, 164, 219, 222, 253, and 290, or any revisions of these regulations that may be issued.

• • • • •

(5) "CPA contract yards" are distribution yards operating under "letter of intent" or other form of agreement with the Corps of Engineers, War Department, or any agency thereof (such as the so-called Central Producing Agency) whereby the yard maintains a stockpile of lumber at the instruction of such Corps or agency for distribution and sale pursuant to its direction or consent.

Prices and rules for sales by these yards differ in some respects from those for sales by other yards. They are fully set out in § 1425.16, Appendix C, on "Special prices and rules for sales by 'CPA contract yards'".

(4) 10 percent of the total of the applicable items set forth in (1), (2), and (3) above, except that in the case of sales to other distribution yards not more than 5 percent can be used, and in the case of sales by "CPA contract yards" the mark-ups provided in § 1425.16, Appendix C, shall apply.

The maximum prices set forth above shall include loading by and at the expense of the seller on railroad car, truck, or other means of transportation, but do not include transportation to the buyer.

The above additions are for 1,000 feet BM. The cross-cutting, ripping and resawing charges are per cut per 1,000 feet BM.

The ripping and resawing charges may be added and the price of the original size ripped or resawn may be used in figuring the f. o. b. mill maximum price only where:

(1) A standard size is remanufactured into a non-standard size, or

(2) The final size to which the original size is reduced by ripping or resawing is over 2" in thickness regardless of width, or over 12" in width in the thickness of 2", or regardless of width, if the thickness is 2" and the final length 24' or longer.

The total charge for ripping and resawing may not include an addition for more than a total of three rips or resaws or any combination of the two per piece.

For working quantities less than 2 000 feet BM the charges for working 2,000 feet BM may be used.

• • • • •

(i) In adding inbound transportation charges as provided in paragraph (a) (2) of this § 1425.14, each seller shall calculate incoming transportation charges from the basing point shown below to points of delivery in each state on the basis of carload rates applicable to each species of softwood lumber. For example, if a distribution yard located in Chicago, Illinois, buys short leaf yellow pine from a mill in Goldsboro, N. C., it applies the rate from the basing point to be used for the State of Illinois, in this instance, Hattiesburg, Miss., to the point of delivery, in this instance, Chicago. As indicated, this applies regardless of the actual point of origin of the shipment.

(1) Douglas fir and other West Coast lumber—MPR 26:

Portland, Oregon (except that in the State of Washington, use Seattle, Washington).

(2) Idaho white pine—MPR 94:

Spokane, Washington

(3) Ponderosa pine, sugar pine, and secondary species—MPR 94:

Klamath Falls, Oregon (except: in Texas, use Susanville, California; in Washington, for Ponderosa pine only, use Spokane, Washington).

(4) Red cedar shingles—MPR 164:

Seattle, Washington.

(5) Northeastern softwoods—MPR 219:

Rochester, New Hampshire.

(6) Northern softwoods—MPR 222:

Wausau, Wisconsin (except: for imported Western white spruce lumber, use Baudette, Minnesota, for lumber shipped from mills in Saskatchewan and Manitoba, and Spokane, Washington, for lumber shipped from mills in British Columbia and Alberta).

(7) Redwood—MPR 253:

Western Area: Eureka, California.

Eastern Area: Direct-mill maximum prices are not f. o. b. mill but are delivered on a 57¢ rate. Therefore, for inbound transportation add only the excess of the actual rate from Eureka, California to the seller's yard over the 57¢ rate. If the rate is less than 57¢, deduct the resulting difference in transportation charges from the Eastern area prices in MPR 253.

(8) Shortleaf southern pine—MPR 19:

Montgomery, Ala.: Alabama.

Alexandria, La.: Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Washington, Wyoming.

Macon, Ga.: Connecticut, Georgia, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont.

Goldsboro, N. C.: Delaware, District of Columbia, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia.

Orlando, Fla.: Florida.

Hattiesburg, Miss.: Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Mississippi, Wisconsin.

Sumter, S. C.: South Carolina.

(9) Longleaf Southern pine—MPR 19:

Alexandria, La.: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

Fort Myers, Fla.: Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Vermont, Virginia West Virginia.

(10) Sitka spruce—MPR 290:

Portland, Oregon (except that in the State of Washington, use Seattle, Washington)

If the distribution yard is located at the basing point, or within a radius of 10 miles of it, a rate of 10¢ per MBM may be used to figure inbound transportation charges.

§ 1425.15 Appendix B: Optional coverage for other sales. In the case of sales of softwood lumber in grades of No. 1 Common and lower, and also in the case of sales of shingles, where the sale is under 5,000 feet BM or to a buyer not in one of the classes listed in § 1425.1 (a), the seller may, at his option, elect to use as his maximum prices for all such sales a price determined under § 1425.14 (Appendix A) of this regulation, rather than under the General Maximum Price Regulation. Before sales may be made under this optional provision the seller must first notify the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., of his intention to make use of the option provided in this section, either with respect to sales of softwood lumber in grades of No. 1 Common and lower, or with respect to sales of shingles, or both. The notice may be sent by mail or telegraph and may be worded as follows:

LUMBER BRANCH
Office of Price Administration
Washington, D. C.

GENTLEMEN:

The undersigned elects to price distribution yard sales of softwood lumber in grades of No. 1 Common and lower, (or shingles, or both, as the case may be), under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 215, rather than under the General Maximum Price Regulation, in all cases where the undersigned's maximum prices established under the General Maximum Price Regulation would otherwise apply to such sales.

(Signature)

Once an election has been made by filing the notice provided above, the seller must price all sales of softwood lumber in grades of No. 1 Common and lower, or shingles, or both, as the case may be, at ceiling prices computed under this regulation, and may not use his former ceiling prices established under the General Maximum Price Regulation for any such sales.

§ 1425.16 Appendix C: Special prices and rules for sales by "CPA contract yards"—(a) General. The special prices listed below apply to all sales of lumber covered by this regulation made by "CPA contract yards".

(b) Special price. (1) On Southern pine and Douglas fir boards and dimension lumber (this covers items under 2" in thickness, regardless of width, or 12" or under in width in the thickness of 2", or regardless of width if the thickness is 2" and the final length under 24'), in the grades of No. 1 Common and lower, the percentage mark-up (item 4 in § 1425.14, Appendix A (a) (4)), shall be five percent. This rule applies whether or not the boards or dimension are produced by ripping or resawing, and applies to boards and dimension with special specifications in the Common grades such as dense, medium grain and stress.

(2) On all other items, the percentage mark-up shall be ten percent.

(c) Special rule on ripping and resawing charges in emergencies. (1) If an emergency arises whereby the Corps of Engineers (or any agency hereof such as the Central Procuring Agency), is unable to obtain needed board and dimensions for a particular job except through ripping and resawing of timber by a "CPA contract yard" such yard will be permitted to compute its maximum prices in accordance with the following special rules:

(i) The f. o. b. mill maximum price may be determined on the basis of the original size ripped or resawn.

(ii) The percentage mark-up provided in § 1425.16 (b) above may be based upon the original size ripped or resawn, i. e. 5 percent on board or dimension in grades of No. 1 Common and lower on Southern pine or Douglas fir, and 10 percent on timber and all other lumber. For example, if 2 x 12 is resawn to 1 x 12, the percentage mark-up may not exceed 5 percent. If 4 x 12 is resawn to 2 x 12, the percentage mark-up may not exceed 10 percent.

(iii) The additions for ripping and resawing provided in the table in § 1425.14 (c) may be added even though the final size is a standard size of board or dimension. These, however, shall be limited to a total charge for not more than three cuts, either rippings or resawings or any combination of the two. Note: This addition is made after the percentage mark-up has been added.

(2) A proper showing shall be made by the yard in such case which shall consist of certified proofs establishing that the board and dimension sold was actually derived by remanufacturing heavier lumber at the yard, a listing of the original sizes from which the board and dimension has been derived, and copies of invoices covering the transaction. These proofs must be submitted within 30 days after the transaction has been completed.

(d) Special rule on lumber in transit. A sale by a "CPA contract yard" may be considered a sale out of distribution yard stock even if the sale was made while the lumber was in transit to the yard. Of course, if the lumber is not actually put through the yard, as, for example, where lumber sold in transit is merely rerouted to the purchaser, or reloaded and delivered, the direct-mill regulation applies.

TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1499.202 is amended as set forth below:

§ 1499.202 Applications for adjustment of maximum prices by sellers in the territories and possessions. (a) Any seller who finds that the maximum price of a commodity established for him under the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, or under the provisions of any other maximum price regulation, or any order, is abnormally low:

(1) Because of increased cost of importation resulting from increased rail and ocean freight and increased war risk insurance; or

(2) Because of the high cost of a commodity received by the seller on or before August 1, 1942; and that this abnormality subjects him to substantial hardship, may apply for adjustment of that maximum price in the manner set forth below.

In establishing substantial hardship, the applicant shall produce evidence showing the loss suffered on the particular commodity as a result of the maximum prices established, and the effect of such loss on his overall operations.

(b) Any seller or group of sellers may apply for adjustment of a maximum price established for him by the General Maximum Price Regulation or any other maximum price regulation or any order when it appears:

(1) That there exists or threatens to exist in a particular locality a shortage in the supply of a commodity or service which aids directly in the war program or is essential to a standard of living consistent with the prosecution of the war; and

(2) That such local shortage will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the maximum prices of such seller and of like sellers for such commodity or service; and

(3) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a shortage, or a need for increase in prices, in another locality, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Office of the Secretary.

SALE OF SPRUCE AND DOUGLAS FIR ON CERTAIN LANDS

DECEMBER 21, 1942.

MY DEAR MR. PRESIDENT:

On September 29, I submitted to you two memoranda on the lumber situation generally and airplane spruce conditions in particular. Since that time, this Department has given consideration to the availability of and the need for cutting Sitka spruce on lands under our jurisdiction in western Washington.

The lands in question, known as the Queets Corridor and the Ocean Strip, were acquired with a view to ultimate incorporation in the Olympic National Park pursuant to Executive Order No. 6343 of October 18, 1933, under the National Industrial Recovery Act. They have not yet been given a national park status. I am advised that with your approval timber may be sold from such lands (Act of June 16, 1933, 48 Stat. 195, 202, Title II, sec. 203).

There is no doubt that there is an acute shortage of logs for the manufacture of airplane stock in the Grays Harbor and Puget Sound areas. A substantial amount of Sitka spruce that could be removed without serious impairment of scenic and recreational values, is available within the Queets Corridor area. This Department has been zealously devoted to the maintenance of primitive conditions in national park and monument areas, but the critical shortage of timber for airplane production for war purposes compels me to suggest a temporary deviation from that policy.

I accordingly request that you authorize me to sell, for war purposes, spruce and Douglas fir timber on the Queets Corridor and Ocean Strip lands in accordance with the principles of selective logging.

Sincerely yours,

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

§ 726.508 Instructions and forms. The Chief of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency of the United States Department of Agriculture shall cause to be prepared and issued such instructions and such forms as may be deemed necessary or expedient for carrying out this procedure.

§ 726.509 Applicability of procedure. This allotment procedure for 1943 shall govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields for fire-cured tobacco for use in connection with the 1943 Agricultural Conservation Program and in connection with farm marketing quotas for fire-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1943.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

This method of determining preliminary 1943 fire-cured tobacco acreage allotments will result in a preliminary 1943 acreage allotment equal to the 1942 acreage allotment for a farm except for those farms for which the normal acreage is adjusted under paragraph (b) of this section; therefore, for all other farms, the committee may establish the preliminary 1943 allotment at the same acreage as the 1942 acreage allotment plus any acreage by which the 1942 allotment was reduced because of violation of the 1941–42 Marketing Quota Regulations: Provided, however, No acreage allotted to such farm in 1942 from the State pools, except the acreage allotted to a farm the owner of which was dispossessed of another farm by the acquisition thereof by a Federal agency for national defense purposes, shall be used in determining the 1943 preliminary acreage allotment. This provision shall not be construed to prohibit determining any allotments for 1943 under the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 726.513.

(a) Determination of 1943 normal acreage. The 1943 normal acreage for an old farm shall be determined by applying the applicable diversion factor to the 1942 acreage allotment plus any acreage by which the 1942 allotment was reduced because of violation of the 1941–42 Marketing Quota Regulations: Provided, however, No acreage allotted to the farm in 1942 from the State pools, except the acreage allotted to a farm, the owner of which was dispossessed of another farm by the acquisition thereof by a Federal agency for national defense purposes, shall be used in determining the 1943 normal acreage.

3.[illegible] acres	2.9 acres or more	233

(b) Adjustment of 1943 normal acreage. The 1943 normal acreage for an old farm, determined as provided above, shall be adjusted so as to take into account any changes for 1943 in respect to the past acreage of fire-cured tobacco (harvested and diverted acreage in the five years 1938–42 as compared with the five years 1937–41) making due allowance for the effect of drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant-bed and other diseases; land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That in determining the 1942 harvested and diverted acreage of fire-cured tobacco, any amount by which the 1942 harvested acreage is less than the 1942 farm acreage allotment shall be considered as diverted acreage.

§ 726.512 Adjustment of preliminary 1943 acreage allotment. An acreage not in excess of one-half of one percent of the State acreage allotment for fire-cured tobacco shall be apportioned to each county in the State on the basis of the percentage the total 1942 fire-cured tobacco acreage allotment in each county is of the State acreage allotment for fire-cured tobacco, unless otherwise recommended by the State committee and approved by the Regional Director. Such acreage shall be used by the county committees as hereinafter provided in this section, if the committees find that such action will establish allotments which are fair and equitable taking into consideration the past acreage of fire-cured tobacco grown on the farm; land, labor and equipment available for the production of fire-cured tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the adaptability of the soil to the growing of fire-cured tobacco. The acreage available in each county may be used for establishing the 1943 fire-cured tobacco acreage allotments and for adjusting upward preliminary 1943 fire-cured tobacco acreage allotments in the following order and under the following conditions:

(a) The acreage by which 1943 preliminary allotments established under the provisions of § 726.511 hereof exceeds the 1942 acreage allotments for such farms shall be deducted from the acreage apportioned to the county as provided above.

(b) A preliminary 1943 fire-cured tobacco acreage allotment may be established for a farm which grew fire-cured tobacco in 1942 for which no fire-cured tobacco acreage allotment was established in such year. Any such allotment shall not exceed the larger of five-tenths of one acre or 10 percent of the 1942 harvested acreage of fire-cured tobacco.

(c) The preliminary 1943 fire-cured tobacco acreage allotment for any farm may be adjusted upward. Such adjustment shall not exceed the larger of 10 percent of the 1943 preliminary acreage allotment or one-half acre.

Any allotment established or adjusted as provided above shall be subject to the approval of the State committee.

§ 726.513 Reallocation of allotments released from farms removed from agricultural production. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the fire-cured tobacco allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land which is removed from agricultural production because of acquisition by a State or Federal agency for any purpose or by a person for use in connection with the national defense program shall be available to State committees for use in providing equitable allotments for farms on which tobacco was grown in one or more of the three years, 1940 through 1942 and which are operated in 1943 by persons who were producers of tobacco on land so removed from agricultural production. Insofar as possible, the allotments for farms operated by such persons shall be comparable to the allotments for other old farms in the same community which are similar with respect to land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco, taking into consideration the allotment for the land removed from agricultural production. The allotment so determined shall be subject to the approval of the State committee and shall not exceed the larger of (1) the 1943 allotment previously determined for such land, or (2) the allotment which was or would have been determined for the land removed from agricultural production; Provided, That in no event shall the allotment so determined exceed the larger of 20 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm, or three acres.

(b) The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land acquired on or since January 1, 1940 by any Federal agency for national defense purposes shall be placed in a State pool and shall be used in determining equitable allotments for farms owned or purchased by owners displaced because of acquisition of their farm by a Federal agency for national defense purposes. Upon application to the county committee, any owner so displaced shall be entitled to have an allotment for any one of the other farms owned or purchased by him equal to an allotment which would have been determined for such other farm, plus the allotment which would have been determined for the farm acquired by the Federal agency: Provided, That such allotment shall not exceed 20 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm. The provision of this subsection shall not be applicable if (1) there is any marketing quota penalty due with respect to the marketing of tobacco from the farm or by the owner of the farm at the time of its acquisition by the Federal agency, (2) any tobacco produced on such farm has not been accounted for as required by the Secretary, or (3) if the allotment next to be established for the farm acquired by the Federal agency would have been reduced because of false or improper identification of tobacco produced on or marketed from such farm.

§ 726.514 Reduction of acreage allotment for violation of the 1942–43 Marketing Quota Regulations. If tobacco was sold or was permitted to be sold on a marketing card for any farm which was produced on a different farm the acreage allotment established for each such farm for 1943 shall be reduced by the amount of tobacco so marketed: Provided, That such reduction shall not be made if the Secretary, through the county committee, determines that no person connected with such farm during the 1942–43 marketing year caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing. If proof of the disposition of any amount of tobacco produced on a farm is not furnished, as required by the Secretary, the acreage allotment shall be reduced by such amount of tobacco.

The amount of tobacco involved will be converted to an acreage basis by dividing such amount of tobacco by the actual yield for the farm during the year in which such tobacco was produced.

§ 726.515 Farms subdivided or combined by reconstitution. (a) If land operated as a single farm in 1942 or any previous year has subsequently been subdivided and will be operated in 1943 as two or more farms, the 1943 fire-cured tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland suitable for the production of fire-cured tobacco on each such tract in such year bore to the total number of acres of cropland suitable for the production of fire-cured tobacco on the entire farm in such year unless otherwise recomended by the county committee and approved by the State committee.

(b) If two or more farms operated separately in 1942 or any previous year have subsequently been combined and will be operated in 1943 as a single farm, the 1943 fire-cured tobacco allotment shall be the sum of the 1943 fire-cured tobacco allotments determined or which otherwise would have been determined for each of the farms composing the combination.

§ 726.516 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for any farm shall be the average of the yields obtained on the farm during the years 1937–41, adjusted by the county committee so as to more accurately reflect the normal yield on the farm represented by the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of fire-cured tobacco, by taking into consideration yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors. The weighted average of the normal yields for all farms in each county shall not exceed the yield established for the county in 1942 unless an adjustment for abnormal conditions is made by the Secretary upon recommendation of the State committee.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 726.517 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms. The fire-cured tobacco acreage allotment other than an allotment made under paragraph (b) of § 726.513 for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm taking into consideration each of the following factors:

(a) The past fire-cured tobacco experience of the farm operator;

(b) The acreage of cropland in the farm suitable for fire-cured tobacco production;

(c) The acreage capacity of barns which are located on the farm and which are in usable condition and available for the curing of fire-cured tobacco;

(d) The customary crop rotation practices;

(e) Adaptability of the soil to the growing of fire-cured tobacco.

Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall be subject to approval by the State committee and shall not exceed the smallest of (1) one-fifth of the total acreage of fire-cured tobacco grown by the farm operator during the five years 1938 through 1942, (2) 75 percent of the average fire-cured tobacco acreage allotment for old farms in the county, or (3) one acre.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a fire-cured tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless the following conditions have been met:

(a) The farm operator shall have had two years or more experience in growing fire-cured tobacco as a share-cropper, tenant, or as a farm operator during the past five years;

(b) The farm operator shall be living on the farm and largely dependent on this farm for his livelihood;

(c) The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator on which any tobacco is produced;

(d) There is a fire-cured tobacco curing barn in condition for use on the farm; and

(e) No kind of tobacco other than fire-cured tobacco will be grown on such farm in 1943.

The fire-cured tobacco acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new fire-cured tobacco farms.

The fire-cured tobacco acreage available for establishing allotments for new farms shall be one-tenth of one percent of the national allotment for fire-cured tobacco.

§ 726.518 Time for filing application. In order to obtain an allotment for a new fire-cured tobacco farm in 1943, the operator of the farm shall file an application for such allotment with the county committee prior to February 1, 1943.

§ 726.519 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is reasonable for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of fire-cured tobacco are similar.

(b) Any officer appointed under these regulations may be recommended for discharge at any time when information is revealed which, if known at the time of his appointment, would have made him ineligible for such appointment. (c) Recommendations for termination of appointment under (a) and (b) above will be forwarded to The Adjutant General with a full report of the circumstances, and will include affidavits of persons having knowledge of the facts and a statement by the officer concerned in explanation of the charges or a statement by him that he does not desire to offer any explanation. [Par. 29]

(b) The following will govern in regard to original appointments and assignment of officers to extended active duty:

(1) (i) The policy of the Secretary of War is to approve for appointment or for extended active duty individuals qualified for limited service assignments who have minor physical defects which would disqualify them under current physical standards but which will not interfere with the satisfactory performance of the duties contemplated: Provided, The defects are stationary in character and are not likely to be aggravated as a result of active military service.

(ii) In examining individuals for limited service great care will be exercised to elicit any history, symptoms, or objective evidence of constitutional disease, cardio-vascular degeneration, mental or nervous disorder, including epilepsy and psychoneuroses, peptic ulcer, and allergic conditions with emphasis on hay fever or asthma.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

[T.D. 5215]

INCOME FROM ESTATES UNDER GIFTS, BEQUESTS, ETC.

In order to conform Regulations 103 [Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.], relating to the income tax under the Internal Revenue Code, to section 111 (relating to income received from estates, etc., under gifts, bequests, etc.) of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), approved October 21, 1942, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 19.22 (a)–12, as amended by Treasury Decision 5194, approved December 8, 1942, is further amended by striking out the third sentence and by inserting in lieu thereof, the following sentences:

* * * An annuity charged upon devised land is taxable to the donee-annuitant for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, if payable only out of the rents or other income of the land, but is taxable to the donee-annuitant for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, to the extent it becomes payable out of the rents or other income of the land, whether or not it is a charge upon the income of the land. See section 22 (b) (3) and § 19.22 (b) (3)–1.) As to certain cases in which an annuity charged upon devised land is taxable in full to a spouse upon divorce or legal separation, see section 22 (k).

PAR. 2. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.22 (b) (3)–1, the following:

SEC. 111. INCOME RECEIVED FROM ESTATES, ETC., UNDER GIFTS, BEQUESTS, ETC. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Gift of income from property not excluded from gross income. Section 22 (b) (3) (relating to exclusion of gifts, etc., from gross income) is amended to read as follows:

(3) Gifts, bequests, devises, and inheritances. The value of property acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance. There shall not be excluded from gross income under this paragraph, the income from such property or, in case the gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance is of income from property, the amount of such income. For the purposes of this paragraph, if, under the terms of the gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, payment, crediting, or distribution thereof is to be made at intervals, to the extent that it is paid or credited or to be distributed out of income from property, it shall be considered a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance of income from property;

* * * * *

(c) Taxable years to which amendments applicable. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941; except that in the case of income paid, credited or to be distributed or amounts paid, credited or to be distributed by an estate or trust the amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to such income and such amounts paid, credited or to be distributed on or after the beginning of the first taxable year of the estate or trust, as the case may be, beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 3. Section 19.22 (b) (3)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5194, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 19.22 (b) (3)–1 Gifts and bequests. Property received as a gift, or received under a will or under statutes of descent and distribution, is not includible in gross income, although the income from such property is includible in gross income. If the gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance is of income from property, it is not to be excluded from gross income. An amount of principal paid under a marriage settlement is a gift. As to alimony or an allowance paid upon divorce or legal separation, see § 19.22 (k)–1.

Section 22 (b) (3), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, provides a special rule for the treatment of gifts, bequests, devises, or inheritances which by their terms are to be paid, credited, or to be distributed at intervals. To the extent any such gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance is paid, credited, or to be distributed out of income from property, it shall be considered a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance of income from property. This section is designed to provide the same treatment for amounts of income from property which income is paid, credited, or to be distributed under a gift or bequest, whether the gift or bequest is in terms of a right to payments at intervals (regardless of income) or is in terms of a right to income. To the extent the amounts in either case are paid, credited, or to be distributed at intervals out of income they are not to be excluded under section 22 (b) (3) from the taxpayer's gross income. As to the extent such amounts are paid, credited, or to be distributed out of income from property in cases in which the payment, crediting, or distribution thereof is to be made by an estate or trust, see section 162 and the regulations thereunder.

The operation of the last sentence of section 22 (b) (3), as added by the Revenue Act of 1942, may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. A, by his will, gave his wife an annuity of $50,000 to be paid in advance in quarterly payments. By another clause of his will, A bequeathed the residue of his property in trust with directions to the trustees to collect the income from the property and to pay the annuity of $50,000 out of such income (after payment of expenses), or out of corpus to the extent such income is insufficient. Under the provisions of section 22 (b) (3), the $50,000 will be included in the wife's income each year and, under the provisions of section 162 (b), will be deducted from the income of the trust to the extent of the income of the trust for its taxable year which is considered under section 162 (d) to be distributed in satisfaction of the annuity.

The last sentence of section 22 (b) (3) as added by the Revenue Act of 1942, however, applies only to such amounts as are to be paid or credited at intervals. Thus, a bequest of money or property (other than income) intended to be paid in a lump sum or at one time is not to be included in the legatee's gross income, even though the executor may for reasons of convenience or necessity arrange to pay such amount in installments or pay it out of funds traceable as the income of property. However, payments at intervals do not need to be at regular intervals to come within the rule stated in the last sentence of section 22 (b) (3), as added by the Revenue Act of 1942. Thus, in case of a direction in a testamentary trust to pay $5,000 a year to John for his life but to pay the $5,000 a year to Mary instead of John for any year in which Mary becomes 18, graduates from college, or marries, the $5,000 a year is income to John and Mary, respectively, in the years in which each is to receive it, to the extent it is paid or credited in such years out of income from the trust property.

Section 22 (b) (3), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, is not intended to state a new rule with respect to taxability of trust income between the nominal beneficiary and the creator of the trust where the latter would be taxable under section 22 (a), section 166, or section 167 upon the income of the trust, or with respect to the assignment of earnings or other income where the assignor remains taxable. The section applies only to those cases where the amounts paid, credited, or to be distributed at intervals out of income would be excluded from the beneficiary's or donee's income by reason of the provisions of section 22 (b) (3), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942.

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.162–1, the following:

(b) Deduction of income to be distributed currently. Section 162 (b) (relating to deduction of income to be distributed currently) is amended to read as follows:

(b) There shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the legatees, heirs, or beneficiaries, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatees, heirs, or beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. As used in this subsection, "income which is to be distributed currently" includes income for the taxable year of the estate or trust which, within the taxable year, becomes payable to the legatee, heir, or beneficiary. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under subsection (c) of this section in the same or any succeeding taxable year;

(c) Trust income included in income of beneficiary, etc. Section 162 (relating to net income of estates or trusts) is amended by striking out the period at the end of subsection (c) and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon and the following new subsection:

(d) Rules for application of subsections (b) and (c). For the purposes of subsections (b) and (c):

(1) Amounts distributable out of income or corpus. In cases where the amount paid, credited, or to be distributed can be paid, credited, or distributed out of other than income, the amount paid, credited, or to be distributed (except under a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance not to be paid, credited, or distributed at intervals) during the taxable year of the estate or trust shall be considered as income of the estate or trust which is paid, credited, or to be distributed if the aggregate of such amounts so paid, credited, or to be distributed does not exceed the distributable income of the estate or trust for its taxable year. If the aggregate of such amounts so paid, credited, or to be distributed during the taxable year of the estate or trust in such cases exceeds the distributable income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, the amount so paid, credited, or to be distributed to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary shall be considered income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is paid, credited, or to be distributed in an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of such distributable income as the amount so paid, credited, or to be distributed to the legatee, heir, or beneficiary bears to the aggregate of such amounts so paid, credited, or to be distributed to legatees, heirs, and beneficiaries for the taxable year of the estate or trust. For the purposes of this paragraph "distributable income" means either (A) the net income of the estate or trust computed with the deductions allowed under subsections (b) and (c) in cases to which this paragraph does not apply, or (B) the income of the estate or trust minus the deductions provided in subsections (b) and (c) in cases to which this paragraph does not apply, whichever is the greater. In computing such distributable income the deductions under subsections (b) and (c) shall be determined without the application of paragraph (2).

(2) Amounts distributable out of income of prior period. In cases, other than cases described in paragraph (1), if on a date more than 65 days after the beginning of the taxable year of the estate or trust, income of the estate or trust for any period becomes payable, the amount of such income shall be considered income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is paid, credited, or to be distributed to the extent of the income of the estate or trust for such period, or if such period is a period of more than 12 months, the last 12 months thereof.

(3) Distributions in first 65 days of taxable year.

(A) General rule. If within the first 65 days of any taxable year of the estate or trust, income of the estate or trust, for a period beginning before the beginning of the taxable year, becomes payable, such income, to the extent of the income of the estate or trust for the part of such period not falling within the taxable year or, if such part is longer than 12 months, the last 12 months thereof, shall be considered, paid, credited, or to be distributed on the last day of the preceding taxable year. This subparagraph shall not apply with respect to any amount with respect to which subparagraph (B) applies.

(B) Payable out of income or corpus. If within the first 65 days of any taxable year of the estate or trust, an amount which can be paid at intervals out of other than income becomes payable, there shall be considered as paid, credited, or to be distributed on the last day of the preceding taxable year the part of such amount which bears the same ratio to such amount as the part of the interval not falling within the taxable year bears to the period of the interval. If the part of the interval not falling within the taxable year is a period of more than 12 months, the interval shall be considered to begin on the date 12 months before the end of the taxable year.

(e) Taxable years to which amendments applicable. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941; except that in the case of income paid, credited or to be distributed or amounts paid, credited or to be distributed by an estate or trust the amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to such income and such amounts paid, credited or to be distributed on or after the beginning of the first taxable year of the estate or trust, as the case may be, beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 5. Section 19.162–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5194, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing (1), (2), and (3), following the colon in the second paragraph, to (a), (b), and (c), respectively, and by further changing (b) to read as follows:

(b) Any income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to a legatee, heir, or beneficiary, whether or not such income is actually distributed. For this purpose, it is provided in section 162 (b), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, that "income which is to be distributed currently" includes income of the estate or trust which, within the taxable year, becomes payable to the legatee, heir, or beneficiary.

(B) By striking from the paragraph following the matter in (c), "either paragraph (2) or (3) of this section" and by inserting in lieu thereof "either (b) or (c) of this section of the regulations".

(C) By changing the fourth and fifth paragraphs (not counting (a), (b), and (c) as paragraphs) to read as follows:

There is taxable to the estate or to the trust, unless it be taxable to the grantor of the trust (see §§ 19.166–1 and 19.167–1):

(1) All income thereof accumulated for the benefit of unborn or unascertained persons or persons with contingent interests,

(2) All income either accumulated or held for future distribution pursuant to the terms of the will or trust,

(3) All other income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is not to be distributed currently to legatees or other beneficiaries (see (b) of this section of the regulations),

(4) All income of the estate for its taxable year not properly paid or credited during such year to a legatee or heir, and

(5) All income either of the estate or of the trust for its taxable year which is not similarly paid or credited during that year to a legatee, heir, or beneficiary in case there was vested in the fiduciary a discretion either to distribute or to accumulate such income (see (c) of this section of the regulations).

In all such cases the tax is payable by the fiduciary, except where the income is taxable to the grantor of the trust or where, as provided in the next paragraph, it is deductible by the estate or trust (and is taxable to the legatee or beneficiary).

Income described in clauses (1), (2), (4), and (5) of the preceding paragraph may, in some cases, be deductible by the estate or trust under (b) of this section of the regulations. It is expressly provided in section 162 (b), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, that such income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which, within its taxable year, becomes payable to the legatee, heir, or beneficiary is deductible by the estate or trust. Thus, if income of a trust is to be accumulated until A, the beneficiary, reaches his twenty-first birthday, which is December 31, 1942, the income of the trust (assuming the income tax returns of the trust are made on the calendar year basis) for the calendar year 1942 is to be deducted by the trust under section 162 (b) in computing its net income for 1942 and is to be included in the income of A for his taxable year in which December 31, 1942, falls. In the case of a similar trust, where the twenty-first birthday of B, the beneficiary, was on July 1, 1942, and the income of the trust was to be accumulated until that date and then to be distributed to B at such time as the trustee in his discretion decides, if the trustee on December 31, 1942, decides to distribute the accumulated income to B, the income becomes payable to B on December 31, 1942, whether distributed to him or not. In such a case, the extent to which such amount is considered to be payable out of income of the trust for its taxable year is determined under section 162 (d) (2) and § 19.162–2 (b).

Any amount described in (b) and (c) of this section of the regulations as being deductible from the gross income of the estate or trust shall be included in computing the net income of the legatees, heirs, or beneficiaries, whether distributed to them or not. As to the amount of income of the estate or trust which is considered paid, credited, or to be distributed, and the time thereof, for the purposes of the deduction under (b) and (c) of this section of the regulations and the inclusion in income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary, see section 162 (d) and § 19.162–2.

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately following § 19.162–1, the following section:

§ 19.162–2 Allocation of estate and trust income to legatees and beneficiaries—(a) Allocation among annuitants. Section 162 (d) (1), as added by the Revenue Act of 1942, applies to all cases in which the executor or trustee can or must (by the terms of the trust instrument or will) pay the whole or any part of a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance out of other than income, except that no income is to be allocated under it to a legatee, heir, or beneficiary of a lump sum gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance. It applies in all cases of annuities where any deficiency in the amount to be paid can be made up by a payment out of corpus of the trust. It also applies in cases where amounts are to be paid or credited at intervals and the executor or trustee has discretion whether to pay or credit such amounts out of income or corpus, regardless of the source (income or corpus) to which the executor or trustee attributes such amount. If an annuity is paid, credited, or to be distributed tax-free, that is, under a provision whereby the executor or trustee will pay the income tax of the annuitant resulting from the receipt of the annuity, the payment of or for the tax by the executor or trustee will be income to the annuitant under the rules of section 162 (d) to the extent such payment is treated thereunder as out of income.

The method of allocating income of the estate or trust for its taxable year in cases to which section 162 (d) (1) applies is as follows: The aggregate of all amounts which can be paid, credited, or distributed out of other than income (except under a gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance not to be paid, credited, or to be distributed at intervals (is obtained. The aggregate of such amounts is considered to be paid, credited, or distributed in such cases out of income of the estate or trust for its taxable year if it does not exceed the distributable income of the estate or trust for its taxable year. If the aggregate of such amounts does exceed the distributable income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, the portion of such amount paid, credited, or to be distributed to a legatee or beneficiary is considered income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is paid, credited, or to be distributed in an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of all distributable income as the amount so paid, credited, or to be distributed to the legatee or beneficiary bears to the aggregate of such amounts so paid, credited, or to be distributed to such legatees or beneficiaries for the taxable year of the estate or trust. The proportion stated in the preceding sentence applies only to legatees or beneficiaries of amounts which can be paid, credited, or distributed out of other than income of the estate or trust and, in computing such proportion, the amount of any gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance not to be paid, credited, or distributed at intervals is not to be included.

Section 162 (d) (1) introduces a concept of distributable income. This is defined in that section as meaning (A) the net income of the estate or trust computed with the deductions allowed under subsections (b) and (c) of section 162 in the case of amounts paid, credited, or to be distributed to which section 162 (d) (1) does not apply, or (B) the income of the estate or trust minus the deductions provided in subsections (b) and (c) of section 162 in the case of amounts paid, credited, or to be distributed to which section 162 (d) (1) does not apply, whichever is greater. "Net income", as thus used, means the statutory net income of the trust under the Code before the application of section 162 (b) and (c) (but, as stated in the preceding sentence, such amount is to be reduced by the deductions allowed under subsections (b) and (c) of section 162 for amounts to which subsection (d) (2) applies). "Income", as thus used, must be determined in accordance with the following principles. First, such "income" means, in general, the amount which under the applicable law of estates and trusts is considered income available for distribution to the life tenant, legatee, or beneficiary, as the case may be. Second, there must be eliminated from the income of the estate or trust, determined in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument and State law, items of income which are no includible in income of an individual for Federal income tax purposes. Therefore the "income", referred to in clause (B) of section 162 (d) (1), may exceed net income and thus be treated as distributable income under section 162 (d) in cases where items which are deductible for Federal income tax purposes are, by the terms of the trust instrument or State law, not to be used to reduce income available for distribution but to be allocated to corpus. The application of section 162 (d) (1), in general, may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Pursuant to the terms of the will of A, a trust is established on January 1, 1942, to pay $5,000 a year to B in quarterly installments at the end of every three months, and upon the death of B to pay the corpus and any accumulated income to his estate. The returns of the trust and of B are made on the calendar year basis. The trust instrument provides that the amount payable to B is to be paid out of income (after payment of trustees' commissions) or out of corpus to the extent income is insufficient. The receipts and expenditures of the trust for 1942 are as follows:

Income from rents	3,000
Tax-exempt interest from State bonds	1,000
Gain from sale of capital asset held 10 months	1,000
Deductible trustees' commissions	200
Other deductible expenditures	1,300

In accordance with the terms of the trust instrument stock dividends are to be allocated to corpus, gain from sale of a capital asset held not more than one year is to be allocated to income, and trustees' commissions are to be charged to income. However, the other expenditures indicated above ($1,300) are of a nature which under the terms of the trust instrument are to be charged to corpus. The distributable income of the trust to be deducted by it for 1942 and included in the beneficiary's income for such year is $3,300, the greater of the statutory net income and the available trust income includible in gross income, determined as follows:

STATUTORY NET INCOME (PRIOR TO APPLICATION OF SECTION 162 (B) AND (C))

Gross income:
Stock dividend	$1,000
Rents	3,000
Long-term capital gain (50 percent taken into account, section 117 (b))	500
		$4,500
Deductions:
Trustees' commissions	$200
Other deductible expenses	1,300
		1,500

TRUST INCOME UNDER CLAUSE (B) OF SECTION 162 (D) (1)

Income:
Rents	$3,000
Interest from State bonds	1,000
Gain on sale of asset	1,000
		$5,000
Expenses allocated to income:
Trustees' commissions	$200
Eliminating items not includible in gross income:
Tax-exempt interest	1,000
Excluded gain on sale of asset	500
		$1,700
Income determined under section 162 (d) (1) (B)		3,300

"Net income" and "income" for the purpose of section 162 (d) (1) also do not include income of a prior taxable year, even though such income may be considered income of the estate or trust for the current taxable year under section 162 (d) (2). This rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Under the terms of a trust, established in 1925, the trustees are to accumulate the income thereof until A reaches his 21st birthday, and then are to pay A such accumulated income, and on each December 31 thereafter, are to pay B $5,000, out of income of the trust, if income is available, or, if not, out of corpus of the trust. A became 21 years of age on June 30, 1942. The returns of the trust and of A and B are made on the calendar year basis. Under section 162 (b), the income of the trust for that part of 1942 on and before June 30, 1942, is to be considered income of the trust for 1942 which is to be distributed currently to A. In computing the distributable income of the trust for 1942 which is to be considered distributed to B in payment of the $5,000 annuity, the amount of income for the first six months of 1942 which is considered to be currently distributable to A is to be deducted. Although under section 162 (d) (2) the amount of the income of the trust for the period July 1, 1941, through June 30, 1942, will be considered income of the trust for 1942 which is to be deducted by the trust and included in A's income for 1942 (see subsection (b) of this section), for the purposes of section 162 (d) (1) such amount is not to be deducted from the trust's income for 1942 in computing its distributable income considered to be distributed to B and no account is to be taken of the income of the trust for the period July 1, 1941, through December 31, 1941.

(b) Allocation among income beneficiaries. Section 162 (d) (2), as added by the Revenue Act of 1942, applies in cases where income of the estate or trust for any period becomes payable on a date more than 65 days after the beginning of its taxable year. It applies only where amounts paid, credited, or to be distributed must be paid solely out of income; and, in such cases, it applies whether such amounts are paid, credited, or to be distributed out of the income of the estate or trust for its current taxable year or out of the income for any period. Section 162 (d) (2) does not apply in any case to which section 162 (d) (1) applies. It includes a rule for allocating income of the estate or trust to the legatees or beneficiaries in cases in which the income of a prior period is paid, credited, or to be distributed to the legatees or beneficiaries during the taxable year of the estate or trust. The application of section 162 (d) (2) may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A trust, which makes its returns on the calendar year basis, is to distribute on each July 1 the income for the preceding 12-month period ending on the day before (June 30). For the purpose of the tax for 1941, the income of the trust from July 1, 1941, through December 31, 1941, is includible in the income of the trust for 1941 without any deduction for any distribution in 1941 or 1942. For the purpose of the tax for 1942, the income of the trust from July 1, 1941, through June 30, 1942, will be considered income for the taxable year 1942 which is to be distributed to the beneficiary (on July 1) in the taxable year 1942. Assuming the beneficiary makes his income tax returns on the calendar year basis, he will include such income in his income for 1942 and the trust will take a deduction for it in 1942. The same process will be repeated each year thereafter as long as the accounting periods and the distribution date remain the same. Thus if, in such a case, the trust receives $100 of income each month, for 1941 the trust will be taxed upon $600 of net income. For each of the taxable years ending December 31, 1942, and December 31, 1943, the trust will include $1,200 in its gross income and will receive a deduction in computing its tax for such years of the whole $1,200 which becomes payable each July 1 and which is included in the beneficiary's income for 1942 and 1943. Thus for 1942 and 1943 the trust will pay no income tax and, for each of such years, the beneficiary will include $1,200 in computing his net income.

Example (2). Under the terms of the will of X, who died in 1940, after payment of expenses and specific bequests, the residue of his estate, together with the income accumulated during the period of administration, is to be divided into two equal shares and one of such shares is to be paid over to his widow and the other is to be paid over to a testamentary trust for the benefit of his children. During the period of administration the estate makes its returns on the calendar year basis. The administration of the estate is terminated on June 30, 1942, at which date equal shares of the residue of the estate and of the accumulated income are transferred in accordance with the terms of the will to the widow and to a trust established as of such date. Under section 162 (d) (2) the widow and the trust will include in their income tax returns filed for their first taxable years ending on or after June 30, 1942, one-half of the income of the estate for the 12 months preceding June 30, 1942. The return of the estate for 1942 will show a deduction of the amount of its income for the 12 months preceding June 30, 1942, which became payable on such date to the widow and to the trust upon termination of the administration of the estate.

The rules also applies in the case of a distribution out of income for a period which does not include any part of the current taxable year. Thus, in the case of a trust established on January 1, 1941, which accumulates the income in the first year of the trust and each year thereafter (more than 65 days after the close of the prior taxable year) distributes the prior year's accumulation, the 1941 accumulated income to be distributed in 1942 will be considered income of the trust for 1942 which is to be distributed in 1942.

If the prior period, the income of which becomes payable in the taxable year, is a period of more than 12 months, then only the income of the last 12 months of such period is considered to be income which is to be distributed during the current taxable year. This rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Under the terms of a testamentary trust, established in 1920, the income of the trust is to be accumulated until B, the beneficiary, reaches his twenty-first birthday, which is June 30, 1942, and then is to be distributed along the corpus of the trust at such time as the trustee thereafter decides; the income of the trust after June 30, 1942, and until such time as the trustee decides to distribute the accumulated income and corpus to B is to be given to C. The returns of the trust are made on the calendar year basis. On December 31, 1942, the trustee decides to distribute to B, as of that date, the corpus and the income accumulated to June 30, 1942. Under section 162 (d) (2), the amount of accumulated income of the trust for the period July 1, 1941, through June 30, 1942, (the last 12 months of the period of accumulation) which becomes payable on December 31, 1942, is to be included in B's income. The amount of income of the trust for the period July 1, 1942, through December 31, 1942, is to be included in C's income. The trust will deduct such amounts under section 162 (b) in computing its taxable net income for 1942.

(c) Distributions in first 65 days of taxable year. Section 162 (d) (3), as added by the Revenue Act of 1942, is designed to apportion amounts paid, credited, or to be distributed within the first 65 days of the taxable year of the estate or trust to that part of such first 65 days and the preceding taxable year to which such amounts are attributable.

Section 162 (d) (3) (B) applies in cases described in section 162 (d) (1), that is, generally, in cases of annuities. If an annuity becomes payable in the first 65 days of the taxable year of the estate or trust, a proportionate part of the amount which thus becomes payable is considered payable on the last day of the preceding year. This proportionate part is that part of the amount which becomes payable within the first 65 days as the part of the interval not falling within the taxable year bears to the whole period of the interval. If, however, the part of the interval not falling within the taxable year (the year in which the amount becomes payable) is a period of more than 12 months the interval is considered to begin on a date 12 months before the end of the preceding taxable year. Thus, if $4,250 is to be paid every two years on March 1, the period of the interval ending March 1, 1943, is considered to begin 12 months preceding December 31, 1943, since the part of the interval not falling within the taxable year 1943 (March 2, 1941, through December 31, 1942) is more than 12 months. Accordingly, the interval is considered to be the period January 1, 1942, through March 1, 1943, or 425 days, and the part of the interval not falling within the taxable year is considered to be the calendar year 1942, or 365 days. Therefore, of the $4,250 which becomes payable on March 1, 1943, 365/425 of such amount, or $3,650, is considered to be an amount to be distributed on December 31, 1942. The provisions of section 162 (d) (1) determine the extent to which the amount distributed on March 1 and the amount considered to be distributed on December 31 are paid, credited, or to be distributed out of income of the estate or trust for its taxable year.

Section 162 (d) (3) (A) applies in the type of cases described in section 162 (d) (2) but only where income is paid, credited, or to be distributed within the first 65 days of the taxable year of the estate or trust. In such cases, if income of the estate or trust for a period beginning before the beginning of the taxable year becomes payable within the first 65 days of the taxable year, the income for the part of such period not falling within the taxable year is considered to be paid, credited, or distributed on the last day of the preceding taxable year. If the part of such period beginning before the beginning of the taxable year is more than 12 months, only the income of the last 12 months of such part is considered paid, credited, or to be distributed on the last day of the preceding taxable year. If the amount of income for any period paid, credited, or to be distributed to a legatee or beneficiary during the taxable year of the estate or trust is less than the total amount of income (not already paid, credited, or to be distributed to legatees or beneficiaries) for such period, such amount will be considered paid, credited, or to be distributed from the most recently accumulated income of the period. For example, a trust which makes its returns on the calendar year basis and which is to distribute the income of the trust, but not in excess of $5,000, to the beneficiary each February 28 received $500 of income each month during the period March 1, 1942, through February 28, 1943, or a total of $6,000. In such case, $1,000 of the $5,000 to be distributed to the beneficiary on February 28, 1943, will be considered to be distributed out of the income of the trust for 1943 (the income of the period January 1, 1943, through February 28, 1943) and $4,000 will be considered to have been distributed to the beneficiary on December 31, 1942, out of the income of the trust for 1942.

Section 162 (d) (3) applies only to amounts paid, credited, or to be distributed on or after the beginning of the first taxable year of the estate or trust beginning after December 31, 1941. The allocation of amounts paid, credited, or to be distributed within the first 65 days of the first taxable year in 1942 of the estate or trust to the last day of the prior taxable year is not intended to affect returns for periods ending before the beginning of such taxable year of the estate or trust. For example, where both trust and beneficiary are on a calendar year basis, their income tax returns for 1941 are not to reflect the portion of amounts allocable to 1941 under section 162 (d) (3). Their 1942 income tax returns also will not reflect any portion of amounts allocable to 1941 under section 162 (d) (3).

(d) Technical amendment. Section 164 (relating to different taxable years of estate or trust and beneficiary) is amended by striking out "beneficiary" and inserting in lieu thereof "legatee, heir, or beneficiary".

CAPITAL GAINS AND LOSSES; REAL PROPERTY, INVOLUNTARY CONVERSIONS, ETC.; HOLDING PERIOD FOR CERTAIN STOCKS

In order to conform Regulations 103 [Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.] to certain sections[1] of the Revenue Act of 1942 (Public Law 753, 77th Congress), approved October 21, 1942, such regulations are amended to read as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.112 (f)–1 the following:

(d) Recognition of loss on involuntary conversions. Section 112 (f) (relating to the nonrecognition of gain and loss on involuntary conversions) is amended by striking out "no gain or loss shall be recognized" and inserting in lieu thereof "no gain shall be recognized, but loss shall be recognized".

(e) Partial failure to replace property. The last sentence of section 112 (f) is amended to read as follows: "If any part of the money is not so expended, the gain, if any, shall be recognized to the extent of the money which is not so expended (regardless of whether such money is received in one or more taxable years and regardless of whether or not the money which is not so expended constitutes gain).

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 2. Section 19.112 (f)–1 is amended by inserting immediately after the heading the following paragraph:

Upon the involuntary conversion of property described in section 112 (f), no gain is recognized if the provisions of that section are complied with. If any part of the money received as a result of such an involuntary conversion is not expended in the manner provided in section 112 (f), the gain, if any, is recognized to the extent of the money which is not so expended. For example, a vessel purchased by A in 1939 for $100,000 is destroyed by an enemy submarine in 1942, and A receives in 1942 insurance in the amount of $100,000. This money is not expended in the manner provided in section 112 (f), but there is no gain since the insurance does not exceed the basis (disregarding, for the purposes of this example, the adjustment for depreciation). In 1947, A receives an award of $200,000 from the government on account of the destruction of the vessel. He expends this amount in the manner provided in section 112 (f). The gain in 1947 upon the receipt of this award is recognized to the extent of $100,000, the amount of the money received in 1942 which was not expended in the manner provided in section 112 (f). For taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, no loss is recognized as a result of an involuntary conversion described in section 112 (f). For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, the loss sustained as a result of an involuntary conversion described in section 112 (f) is recognized. The expenditure in the manner provided in section 112 (f) of money received upon an involuntary conversion is not necessary for the transaction to be considered completed for the purpose of determining such loss.

PAR. 3. The first sentence of § 19.112 (f)–2 is amended to read as follows:

In any case where the taxpayer elects to replace or restore the converted property but it is not practicable to do so immediately (for example, because of the taxpayer's inability to obtain priorities, or because of other wartime restrictions), he may obtain permission to establish a replacement fund in his accounts in which part or all of the compensation so received shall be held, without deduction for the payment of any mortgage.

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.117–1 the following:

SEC. 150. CAPITAL GAINS AND LOSSES. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Definitions—(1) Holding period, short- and long-term gains and losses. Section 117 (a) is amended by striking out "18 months" wherever occurring therein and inserting in lieu thereof "6 months".

(2) Net short-term gain. Section 117 (a) (6) is amended to read as follows:

(6) Net short-term capital gain. The term "net short-term capital gain" means the excess of short-term capital gains for the taxable year over the short-term capital losses for such year;

(b) Definitions of "net capital gain" and "net capital loss". Section 117 (a) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

(10) Net capital gains—(A) Corporations. In the case of a corporation, the term "net capital gain" means the excess of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the losses from such sales or exchanges; and

(B) Other taxpayers. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the term "net capital gain" means the excess of (i) the sum of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets, plus net income of the taxpayer or $1,000, whichever is smaller, over (ii) the losses from such sales or exchanges. For purposes of this subparagraph, net income shall be computed without regard to gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets.

(11) Net capital loss. The term "net capital loss" means the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum allowed under subsection (d). For the purpose of determining losses under this paragraph, amounts which are short-term capital losses under subsection (e) (1) shall be excluded.

(c) Rule on taxability, limitation on losses, and carry-over. Section 117 (b), (c), (d), and (e) are amended to read as follows:

(b) Percentage taken into account. In the case of a taxpayer, other than a corporation, only the following percentages of the gain or loss recognized upon the sale or exchange of a capital asset shall be taken into account in computing net capital gain, net capital loss, and net income:

100 per centum if the capital asset has been held for not more than 6 months;

50 per centum if the capital asset has been held for more than 6 months.

(c) Alternative taxes—(1) Corporations. If for any taxable year the net long-term capital gain of any corporation exceeds the net short-term capital loss, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 13, 14, 15, 204, 207 (a) (1) or (3), and 500, a tax determined as follows, if and only if such tax is less than the tax imposed by such sections:

A partial tax shall first be computed upon the net income reduced by the amount of such excess, at the rates and in the manner as if this subsection had not been enacted, and the total tax shall be the partial tax plus 25 per centum of such excess.

(2) Other taxpayers. If for any taxable year the net long-term capital gain of any taxpayer (other than a corporation) exceeds the net short-term capital loss, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12, a tax determined as follows, if and only if such tax is less than the tax imposed by such sections:

A partial tax shall first be computed upon the net income reduced by the amount of such excess, at the rates and in the manner as if this subsection had not been enacted, and the total tax shall be the partial tax plus 50 per centum of such excess.

(d) Limitation on capital losses—(1) Corporations. In the case of a corporation, losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent of gains from such sales or exchanges.

(2) Other taxpayers. In the case of a taxpayer, other than a corporation, losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges, plus the net income of the taxpayer of (sic) $1,000, whichever is smaller. For purposes of this paragraph, net income shall be computed without regard to gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets.

(e) Capital loss carry-over—(1) Method of computation. If for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the taxpayer has a net capital loss, the amount thereof shall be a short-term capital loss in each of the five succeeding taxable years to the extent that such amount exceeds the total of any net capital gains of any taxable years intervening between the taxable year in which the net capital loss arose and such succeeding taxable year. For purposes of this paragraph a net capital gain shall be computed without regard to such net capital loss or to any net capital losses arising in any such intervening taxable years.

(2) Rule for application of capital loss carryover from 1941. The amount of the net short-term capital loss of the last taxable year beginning in 1941 (computed without regard to amounts treated as short-term capital losses from the preceding taxable year), which is not in excess of the net income for such taxable year, shall, to the extent of the net short-term capital gain for the succeeding taxable year (computed without regard to this paragraph), be a short-term capital loss of such succeeding taxable year.

(d) Bond, etc., losses of banks. Section 117 is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(l) Bond, etc., losses of banks. For the purposes of this chapter, in the case of a bank, as defined in section 104, if the losses of the taxable year from sales or exchanges of bonds, debentures, notes, or certificates, or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any corporation (including one issued by a government or political subdivision thereof) with interest coupons or in registered form, exceed the gains of the taxable year from such sales or exchanges, no such sale or exchange shall be considered a sale or exchange of a capital asset.

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

SEC. 151. REAL PROPERTY; INVOLUNTARY CONVERSIONS; ETC. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

(a) Real property not treated as capital asset. Section 117 (a) (1) (relating to the definition of "capital assets") is amended by inserting immediately before the semicolon at the end thereof a comma and the following: "or real property used in the trade or business of the taxpayer".

(b) Gains and losses from involuntary conversion and from the sale or exchange of certain property used in the trade or business. Section 117 (relating to capital gains and losses) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(j) Gains and losses from involuntary conversion and from the sale or exchange of certain property used in the trade or business.

(1) Definition of property used in the trade or business. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "property used in the trade or business" means property used in the trade or business, of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 23 (l), held for more than 6 months, and real property used in the trade or business, held for more than 6 months, which is not (A) property of a kind which would properly be includible in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or (B) property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business.

(2) General rule. If, during the taxable year, the recognized gains upon sales or exchanges of property used in the trade or business, plus the recognized gains from the compulsory or involuntary conversion (as a result of destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation or the threat or imminence thereof) of property used in the trade or business and capital assets held for more than 6 months into other property or money, exceed the recognized losses from such sales, exchanges, and conversions, such gains and losses shall be considered as gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 6 months. If such gains do not exceed such losses, such gains and losses shall not be considered as gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets. For the purposes of this paragraph:

(A) In determining under this paragraph whether gains exceed losses, the gains and losses described therein shall be included only if and to the extent taken into account in computing net income, except that subsections (b) and (d) shall not apply.

(B) Losses upon the destruction, in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or requisition or condemnation of property used in the trade or business or capital assets held for more than 6 months shall be considered losses from a compulsory or involuntary conversion.

(c) Holding period of property acquired in exchange for property involuntarily converted.—(1) In general. Section 117 (h) (1) is amended by inserting after the period at the end thereof the following new sentence: "For the purposes of this paragraph, an involuntary conversion described in section 112 (f) shall be considered an exchange of the property converted for the property acquired."

(2) Taxable years to which applicable. The amendment made by paragraph (1) shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938.

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

SEC. 152. HOLDING PERIOD OF STOCK ACQUIRED THROUGH EXERCISE OF RIGHTS. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Section 117 (h) (relating to the holding period of capital assets) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(6) In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held stock or securities acquired from a corporation by the exercise of rights to acquire such stock or securities, there shall be included only the period beginning with the date upon which the right to acquire was exercised.

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 5. Section 19.117–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5086, approved October 10, 1941, is further amended as follows:

(A) By changing the second paragraph thereof to read as follows:

The exclusion from the term "capital assets" of property used in the trade or business of a taxpayer of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 23 (l) and, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, of real property used in the trade or business of a taxpayer is limited to such property used by the taxpayer in the trade or business at the time of the sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion. Property held for the production of income, but not used in a trade or business of the taxpayer, is not excluded from the term "capital assets" even though depreciation may have been allowed with respect to such property under section 23 (l) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, gains and losses from the sale or exchange of such property are not subject to the percentage provisions of section 117 (b) and losses from such transactions are not subject to the limitations on losses provided in section 117 (d), except that under section 117 (j) the gains and losses from the sale or exchange of such property held for more than 6 months may be treated as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets, and may thus be subject to such limitations. See § 19.117–7. For taxable years beginning before January 1, 1942, real property used in the trade or business of the taxpayer is not excluded from the term "capital assets" unless it is property of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 23 (l). For such taxable years, upon the sale or exchange of property used in the trade or business of the taxpayer which consists of land and the depreciable improvements upon the land, the limitations of section 117 (b), (c), and (d) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942 apply to the gain or loss allocable to the land but not to the gain or loss allocable to the depreciable improvements upon the land. However, gain or loss upon the sale or exchange of land held by a taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his business, as in the case of a dealer in real estate, is not subject to the limitations of section 117 (b), (c), and (d). The term "ordinary net income" as used in these regulations for the purposes of section 117 means net income exclusive of gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets.

(B) By striking out the third and fourth sentences of the sixth paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following two paragraphs:

For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, the phrase "short-term" applies to the category of gains and losses arising from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for 18 months or less; the phrase "long-term" to the category of gains and losses arising from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than 18 months. For any such taxable year, the fact that some part of a short-term capital loss may be finally disallowed because of the operation of paragraph (2) of section 117 (d), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1939, or section 117 (d), as amended by that Act, does not mean that such loss is not "taken into account in computing net income" within the meaning of that phrase as used in section 117 (a) (3).

For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the phrase "short-term" applies to the category of gains and losses arising from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for 6 months or less; the phrase "long-term" to the category of gains and losses arising from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than 6 months. For any such taxable year, the fact that some part of a loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset may be finally disallowed because of the operation of section 117 (d), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, does not mean that such loss is not "taken into account in computing net income" within the meaning of that phrase as used in section 117 (a) (3) and (5).

(C) By striking out the seventh paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following new paragraph:

In the definition of "net short-term capital gain" for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, as provided in section 117 (a) (6), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942, reference is made in clause (B) thereof, to the net short-term capital loss of the preceding taxable year to the extent brought forward to the taxable year under subsection (e), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942. For any such taxable year the amount so provided for is the net short-term capital loss carryover, which is treated in the taxable year in question as a short-term capital loss. In this computation, the carry-over enters into the computation of the net short-term capital gain only in clause (B). The amount thereof is not to be included under clause (A) of section 117 (a) (6). Thus, for the purposes of clause (A), the short-term capital losses for any such taxable year are computed without reference to, or including, the amount provided for in section 117 (e). For example, during the taxable year 1939 an individual has a short-term capital gain of $10,000 and a short-term capital loss in that year of $4,000. During the taxable year 1938 he sustained a net short-term capital loss of $2,500 which was not in excess of his net income for that year. His net short-term capital gain for the taxable year 1939 is computed as follows:

1939 short-term capital gain		$10,000
Less:
1939 short-term capital loss to be allowed under section 117 (a) (6) (A)	$4,000
Net short-term capital loss of preceding taxable year to extent brought forward under section 117 (e) and allowed under section 117 (a) (6) (B)	2,500
Net short-term capital gain for 1939		3,500

In the definition of "net short-term capital gain" for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, as provided in section 117 (a) (6), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, the amounts brought forward to the taxable year under subsection (e), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, are short-term capital losses for such taxable year.

(D) By striking out the eighth paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following new paragraph:

In the case of corporations for any taxable year beginning after December 31 1939, and before January 1, 1942, and in the case of individuals for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942, gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for not more than 18 months (described as short-term capital gains and short-term capital losses) shall be segregated from gains and losses arising from the sale or exchange of such assets held for more than 18 months (described as long-term capital gains and long-term capital losses). For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for not more than 6 months (described as short-term capital gains and short-term capital losses) shall be segregated from gains and losses arising from the sale or exchange of such assets held for more than 6 months (described as long-term capital gains and long-term capital losses). However, the percentage brackets of section 117 (b), both prior to and as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, have no application to corporations, corporate gains and losses being taken into account to the full extent, without regard to the length of time the capital assets are held (though because of the limitation in section 117 (d) such losses may not be deductible in full).

(E) By inserting immediately after the eighth paragraph the following two new paragraphs:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, section 117 (a) (10) defines "net capital gain". In the case of a corporation the term "net capital gain" means the excess of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the losses from such sales or exchanges, which losses include any amounts brought forward pursuant to section 117 (e), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation the term "net capital gain" means the excess of (1) the sum of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets, plus net income (computed without regard to gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets) of the taxpayer or $1,000, whichever is smaller, over (2) the losses from such sales or exchanges, which losses include amounts brought forward under section 117 (e), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942. For application of the term "net capital gain", in computing the capital loss carry-over under section 117 (e), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, see § 19.117–2 (d).

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, section 117 (a) (11) defines "net capital loss" to mean the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum allowed under section 117 (d). However, amounts which are short-term capital losses under section 117 (e) (1) are excluded in determining such "net capital loss".

(F) By inserting at the end of the last paragraph thereof the following sentence:

* * * See also section 117 (j) and § 19.117–7 for the determination of whether or not gains and losses from the involuntary conversion of capital assets and from the sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of certain property used in the trade or business shall be treated as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets.

PAR. 6. Section 19.117–2 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the first and second sentences of the second paragraph of paragraph (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following sentences:

* * * For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1939, and before January 1, 1942, there is, under section 117 (d), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1939, no distinction between corporations and taxpayers other than corporations insofar as limitations on capital losses are concerned. In the case of both classes of taxpayers for any such taxable year, losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 18 months shall be allowed as deductions, but losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for 18 months or less shall be allowed as deductions only to the extent of the gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for 18 months or less.

(B) By striking out the next to last sentence in paragraph (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new sentence:

* * * Foreign personal holding companies and personal holding companies are not entitled, in computing their Supplement P net income and subchapter A net income, respectively, to the benefits of section 117 (d), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942.

(C) By inserting immediately after the last paragraph of paragraph (b) the following new paragraph:

For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, paragraph (1) of section 117 (d), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, provides that, in the case of a corporation, losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed as deductions only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges, and paragraph (2) of such section provides that, in the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed as a deduction only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges, plus net income (computed without regard to such gains or losses) of the taxpayer or $1,000, whichever is smaller. Thus, where an individual taxpayer, having an ordinary net income of $5,000, has a net long-term capital loss of $4,000, of which $2,000 (50% of $4,000) is taken into account, the net loss of $2,000 is allowable only to the extent of $1,000, the remaining $1,000 being an unallowable deduction. If the taxpayer's ordinary net income, computed without capital gains and losses, had been $400 instead of $5,000, only $400 of the net loss of $2,000 would have been allowed, giving the taxpayer no taxable income and an unallowable capital loss of $1,600. (For disposition of the unallowable capital loss, see § 19.117–2 (d).) However, in the case of banks, as defined in section 104, the limitation under paragraph (1) of section 117 (d) is modified by section 117 (j) so that the excess of any losses of the taxable year from sales or exchanges of bonds, debentures, notes or certificates, or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any corporation (including one issued by a government or political subdivision thereof) with interest coupons or in registered form, over gains of the taxable year from such sales or exchanges may be deductible in full as an ordinary loss.

(D) By striking out the first sentence of paragraph (c) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new sentence:

A taxpayer sustaining, in any taxable year (beginning after December 31, 1937, and before January 1, 1942, in the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, or beginning after December 31, 1939, and before January 1, 1942, in the case of a corporation) a net short-term capital loss may, under section 117 (e), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1939, carry over such loss, in an amount not in excess of the net income for such year (the year in which the loss is sustained) to the next succeeding taxable year and treat it in such succeeding year as a short-term capital loss. • • •

(E) By striking out the next to last sentence in the first paragraph of paragraph (c) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new sentence:

• • • Foreign personal holding companies and personal holding companies are not entitled, in computing their Supplement P net income and subchapter A net income, respectively, to the benefits of section 117 (e), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942.

(F) By inserting immediately after paragraph (c) the following new paragraph:

(d) Net capital loss carry-over. Any taxpayer sustaining, in any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, a net capital loss may, under section 117 (e) (1), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, carry over such loss to each of the five succeeding taxable years and treat it in each such five succeeding taxable years as a short-term capital loss to the extent not allowed as a deduction against any net capital gains of any taxable years intervening between the taxable year in which the net capital loss was sustained and the taxable year to which carried. The carry-over is thus applied in each succeeding taxable year to offset any net capital gain in such succeeding taxable year. The amount of the net capital loss carry-over may not be included in computing a new net capital loss of a taxable year which can be carried forward to the next five succeeding taxable years.

The practical operation of the provisions of section 117 (e) (1) may be illustrated by the following example:

For the taxable years 1942 to 1946, inclusive, a taxpayer is assumed to have a net short-term capital loss, net short-term capital gain, net long-term capital loss, net long-term capital gain, and net income as follows:

Carry-over from prior years:
From 1942		($50,000)	($29,500)	($29,500)
From 1944				(19,500)	($13,000)
Net short-term loss (computed without regard to the carry-overs)	($30,000)	(5,000)	(10,000)
Net short-term gain (computed without regard to the carry-overs)				40,000
Net long-term loss	(20,500)		(10,000)	(5,000)
Net long-term gain		25,000
Net capital gain (computed without regard to the carry-overs)		20,500		30,000
Net income (computed without regard to capital gains or losses)	500	500	500	1,000
Net capital loss	(50,000)	None	(19,500)	None

NET CAPITAL LOSS OF 1942

The net capital loss is $50,000. This figure, computed in accordance with section 117 (b), is the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum of (1) gains from such sales or exchanges and (2) net income of $500. This amount may be carried forward in full to 1943. However, in 1943 there was a net capital gain of $20,500, as defined by section 117 (a) (10) (B) and limited by section 117 (e) (1), against which this net capital loss of $50,000 is allowed in part. The remaining portion—$29,500—may be carried forward to 1944 and 1945 since there was no net capital gain in 1944. In 1945 this $29,500 shall be allowed in full against net capital gain of $36,000, as defined by section 117 (a) (10) (B) and limited by section 117 (e) (1).

NET CAPITAL LOSS OF 1944

The net capital loss is $19,500. This figure, computed in accordance with section 117 (b), is the excess of the losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets over the sum of (1) gains from such sales or exchanges and (2) net income of $500. This amount may be carried forward in full to 1945. However, in 1945 there was a net capital gain of $6,500, as defined by section 117 (a) (10) (B) and limited by section 117 (e) (1), against which this net capital loss of $19,500 is allowed in part. The remaining portion—$13,000—may be carried forward to 1946.

PAR. 7. Section 19.117–3 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the first two paragraphs and inserting in lieu thereof the following two paragraphs:

For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, in the case of a net long-term capital gain of a taxpayer other than a corporation, section 117 (c) (1), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942, imposes an alternative tax in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12, if and only if such alternative tax is less than the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12. For any such taxable year this alternative tax is the sum of (1) a partial tax, computed at the rates provided by sections 11 and 12, on the net income of the taxpayer, excluding therefrom for this purpose the amount of such net long-term capital gain, plus (2) 30 percent of the net long-term capital gain.

For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, in the case of a net long-term capital loss of a taxpayer other than a corporation, an alternative tax is imposed in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12, if and only if such tax is greater than the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12. For any such taxable year this alternative tax is the excess of (1) a tax, at the rates provided by sections 11 and 12, on the net income of the taxpayer, but excluding from the computation of such net income, the amount of such net long-term capital loss over (2) 30 percent of the net long-term capital loss.

(B) By striking out of the first sentence of the third paragraph the words "this section" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "the above two paragraphs".

(C) By inserting immediately after the last paragraph the following three paragraphs:

For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, in case the net long-term capital gain of a taxpayer (other than a corporation) exceeds the net short-term capital loss, section 117 (c) (2) imposes an alternative tax in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12, if and only if such alternative tax is less than the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12. For any such taxable year this alternative tax is the sum of (1) a partial tax, computed at the rates provided by sections 11 and 12, on the net income of the taxpayer, excluding therefrom for this purpose the amount of such excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss, plus (2) 50 percent of such excess.

For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, in case the net long-term capital gain of any corporation exceeds the net short-term capital loss, section 117 (c) (1) imposes an alternative tax in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 13, 14, 15, 204, 207 (a) (1) or (3), and 500, if and only if such alternative tax is less than the tax imposed by such sections. For any such taxable year this alternative tax is the sum of (1) a partial tax computed at the rates provided by sections 13, 14, 15, 204, 207 (a) (1) or (3), and 500 on the net income of the taxpayer, excluding therefrom for this purpose the amount of such excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss, plus (2) 25 percent of such excess.

The following example will illustrate the practical operation of the provisions of this section, in the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, with respect to any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941:

Example. Suppose that A, an individual, has for the calendar year 1942, an ordinary net income of $100,000, none of which consists of interest on the obligations of the United States or its instrumentalities. He is entitled to a personal exemption of $1,200 and to no credit for dependents, and his earned net income is $3,000. He realizes in that year a gain of $100,000 on a capital asset held for 19 months and sustained a loss of $20,000 on a capital asset held for 5 months. Since the alternative tax is less than the tax otherwise computed under sections 11 and 12, the correct tax is the alternative tax, that is, $79,126. The tax is computed as follows:

TAX UNDER SECTIONS 11 AND 12

Ordinary net income		$100,000
Net long-term capital gain: (50 percent of $100,000)	$50,000
Net short-term capital loss: (100 percent of $20,000)	20,000
Excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss		30,000
Total net income		130,000
Less: Credit for personal exemption		1,200
Surtax net income		128,800
Less earned income credit (10 percent of $3,000)		300
Income subject to normal tax		128,500
Normal tax (6 percent of $128,500)		7,710
Surtax on $128,800		81,892
Total tax		89,602

ALTERNATIVE TAX UNDER SECTION 117 (c) (2)

Net income		$130,000.00
Less: Excess of the net long-term capital gain over the net short-term capital loss		30,000.00
Ordinary net income		100,000.00
Less credit for personal exemption		1,200.00
Surtax net income		98,800.00
Less earned income credit (10 percent of $3,000.00)		300.00
Income subject to normal tax		98,500.00
Normal tax (6 percent of $98,500.00)		5,910.00
Surtax on $98,800.00		58,216.00
Partial tax under sections 11 and 12 on $100,000		64,126.00
Plus 50 percent of $30,000.00		15,000.00
Total alternative tax		79,126.00

PAR. 8. Section 19.117–4 is amended as follows:

(A) By inserting at the end of the first paragraph thereof the following sentence:

• • • If property acquired as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion of other property of the taxpayer has under section 113 (a) (9) the same basis in whole or in part in the hands of the taxpayer as the property so converted, the period for which the property so converted was held by the taxpayer must be included in the period for which the property acquired was held by the taxpayer.

(B) By inserting immediately following the last paragraph a new paragraph to read as follows:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, the period for which the taxpayer has held stock or securities issued to him by a corporation pursuant to the exercise by him of rights to acquire such stock or securities from the corporation will, in every case and whether or not the receipt of taxable gain was recognized in connection with the distribution of the rights, begin with and include the day upon which the rights to acquire such stock or securities were exercised. A taxpayer will be deemed to have exercised rights received from a corporation to acquire stock or securities therein where there is an expression of assent to the terms of such rights made by the taxpayer in the manner requested or authorized by the corporation.

PAR. 9. Section 19.117–5, as amended by Treasury Decision 5057, approved July 2, 1941, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new paragraph:

(a) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942—(1) Short-term capital gains and losses. In the case of a husband and wife making a joint return, the limitation under paragraph (2) of section 117 (d), prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942, relating to the allowance of short-term capital losses, is to be computed with respect to the combined short-term capital gains and losses of the spouses.

If a husband and wife making a joint return for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, did not make a joint return for the preceding taxable year, the individual net short-term capital loss of each spouse for the preceding taxable year (in an amount not in excess of the individual net income of such spouse for such year) shall be treated as a short-term capital loss for the taxable year. If, however, a joint return was made for such preceding taxable year, a net short-term capital loss as shown by such joint return (in an amount not in excess of the aggregate net income for such year as shown by such return) shall be treated as a short-term capital loss for the taxable year. If a husband and wife making separate returns for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, made a joint return for the preceding taxable year, a net short-term capital loss shown by such joint return shall be allocated to the spouses on the basis of their individual net short-term capital losses for such preceding taxable year, and the net short-term capital loss allocated to each spouse (in an amount not in excess of the portion of the aggregate net income shown by such joint return attributable to such spouse) shall be treated as a short-term capital loss of such spouse for the taxable year.

(2) Long-term capital gains and losses. In the case of a husband and wife making a joint return, the long-term capital losses of the spouses are to be deducted from the aggregate gross income in computing the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12. The alternative taxes computed under section 117 (c) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942 are in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 11 and 12 and must be compared with the tax imposed by such sections to determine which tax is applicable. In computing the alternative taxes under section 117 (c) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1942 in the case of a joint return, the determination of the "net long-term capital gain" or the "net long-term capital loss" is to be made by combining the long-term capital gains and the long-term capital losses of the spouses.

(B) By striking out paragraph (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new paragraph:

(b) Taxable year beginning in 1942. If a husband and wife making a joint return for the first taxable year beginning in 1942, did not make a joint return for the preceding taxable year, the individual net short-term capital loss of each spouse for the preceding taxable year (in an amount not in excess of the individual net income of such spouse for such year) shall be totaled and such total shall be a short-term capital loss for such first taxable year beginning in 1942, to the extent of the excess of short-term capital gains over short-term capital losses for such year. If, however, a joint return was made for such preceding taxable year, a net short-term capital loss as shown by such joint return (in an amount not in excess of the aggregate net income for such year as shown by such return) shall be a short-term capital loss for the first taxable year beginning in 1942, to the extent of the excess of short-term capital gains over the short-term capital losses for such year. If a husband and wife making separate returns for the first taxable year beginning in 1942, made a joint return for the preceding taxable year, a net short-term capital loss shown by such joint return shall be allocated to the spouses on the basis of their individual net short-term capital losses for such preceding taxable year, and the net short-term capital loss allocated to each spouse (in an amount not in excess of the portion of the aggregate net income shown by such joint return attributable to such spouse) shall be treated as a short-term capital loss of such spouse for the first taxable year beginning in 1942 to the extent of the excess of short-term capital gains over short-term capital losses of such spouse for such year.

(C) By inserting immediately after paragraph (b) the following new paragraph:

(c) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942. In the case of a husband and wife making a joint return, the limitation under paragraph (2) of section 117 (d), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, relating to the allowance of losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets, is to be computed and the net capital loss determined with respect to the combined capital gains and losses of the spouses.

If a husband wife making a joint return for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, did not make a joint return for the preceding taxable years (not exceeding five taxable years and beginning after December 31, 1941), the individual net capital loss of each spouse for each of such preceding taxable years shall be a short-term capital loss for the taxable year to the extent provided by section 117 (e) (1), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942. If, however, a joint return was made for each of the preceding taxable years (not exceeding five taxable years and beginning after December 31 ,1941), a net capital loss as shown by each joint return shall be a short-term capital loss for the taxable year to the extent provided by section 117 (e) (1), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942. If a husband and wife making separate returns for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, made a joint return for each of the preceding taxable years (not exceeding five taxable years and beginning after December 31, 1941), a net capital loss as shown by each such joint return shall be allocated to the spouses on the basis of their individual net capital losses for each of such preceding taxable years, and the net capital loss allocated to each spouse shall be a short-term capital loss of such spouse for the taxable year, to the extent provided by section 117 (e) (1), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942.

The alternative taxes computed under section 117 (c) (2), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, are in lieu of taxes imposed by sections 11 and 12 and must be compared with the tax imposed by such sections to determine which tax is applicable. In computing the alternative taxes under section 117 (c) (2), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, in the case of a joint return, the determination of the excess of the net long-term capital gains over the net short-term capital losses is to be made by combining the long-term capital gains and losses and the short-term capital gains and losses of the spouses.

PAR. 10. Section 19.117–6 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following new sentence:

* * * Thus, for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, if a taxpayer made a short sale of shares of stock and covered the short sale by purchasing and delivering shares which he held for not more than 6 months, 100 percent of the recognized gain or loss would be taken into account under section 117 (b), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, even though he had on hand other shares of the same stock which he held for more than 6 months.

(B) By striking out the third sentence.

PAR. 11. There is inserted immediately after § 19.117–6 the following section:

§ 19.117–7 Gains and losses from involuntary conversions and from the sale or exchange of certain property used in the trade or business. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, section 117 (j) (as added by section 151 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1942) provides that the recognized gains and losses:

(a) From the sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of property used in the trade or business of the taxpayer at the time of the sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion, held for more than 6 months, which is (1) of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in section 23 (l), or (2) real property, and shall be treated as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than 6 months if the aggregate of such gains exceeds the aggregate of such losses. If the aggregate of such gains does not exceed the aggregate of such losses, such gains and losses shall not be treated as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets.

In determining whether such gains exceed such losses for the purposes of section 117 (j), losses upon the destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, requisition or condemnation of the property described in section 117 (j) are included whether or not there was a conversion of such property into money or other property. For example, if a capital asset held for more than 6 months, with an adjusted basis of $400, is stolen, and the loss from this theft is not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, the $400 loss is included in the computations under section 117 (j) to determine whether gains exceed losses. Furthermore, in making this computation, the gains and losses described in section 117 (j) are taken into account without regard to the percentage provisions of section 117 (b), that is, 100 percent of such gains and losses is taken into account. For example, if a taxpayer sustains a loss of $400 upon the sale under threat of condemnation of a capital asset, held for more than 6 months, such loss is taken into account for the purposes of section 117 (j) to the extent of $400, even though only $200 would be taken into account under section 117 (b) in computing net income. Similarly, the provisions of section 117 (d) limiting the deduction of capital losses are not applicable to exclude any losses from the computations under section 117 (j). With these exceptions as to sections 117 (b) and 117 (d), gains and losses are included in the computations under section 117 (j) only to the extent that they are taken into account in computing net income. Thus, losses which are not deductible items under section 24 or section 118 are not included in the computations under section 117 (j). Similarly, if a taxpayer reports on the installment basis under section 44 the gain on the sale of property described in section 117 (j), only the portion of the gain reported under section 44 in computing net income for the taxable year is included in the computations for such taxable year under section 117 (j). Any gains and losses which are not recognized under section 112 are not included in the computations under section 117 (j). Thus, if property is involuntarily converted into similar property, so that the gain on such conversion is not recognized under the provisions of section 112 (f), such gain is not included in the computations under section 117 (j).

If it is determined under the above computations that the gains exceed the losses, all of such gains and losses are treated as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than 6 months. All such gains and losses are then subject to the limitations of section 117 (b), (c), and (d), relating to the percentage taken into account, the alternative tax in the case of capital gains and losses, and the extent to which capital losses are allowed. If it is determined under the above computations that the gains do not exceed the losses, none of such gains and losses are treated as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets. Such gains and losses are then not subject to the percentage limitations of section 117 (b), and such losses are not subject to the limitations provided in section 117 (d). For example, if the taxpayer during the taxable year has losses of $1,000 on the sale of certain depreciable machinery used in his trade or business, held for more than 6 months, and a gain of $400 on the sale under threat of condemnation of a capital asset held for more than 6 months, such losses exceed such gain, and such losses and gain are not treated as losses and gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets. The gain on the sale of the capital asset would therefore be taken into account in full, instead of to the extent of 50 percent as provided in section 117 (b).

Section 117 (j) does not apply to gains and losses on the sale, exchange, or involuntary conversion of any property which would properly be includible in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or which is held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business. The involuntary conversion of property described in section 117 (j) is the conversion of such property into money or other property as a result of destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation or the threat or imminence thereof.

The following examples will illustrate the operation of the provisions of section 117 (j):

Example (1). A, an individual, makes his income tax return on the calendar year basis. A's recognized gains and losses for 1942 of the kind described in section 117 (j), computed without regard to the limitations in section 117 (b), are as follows:

	Gains	Losses
1 Gain on sale of machinery, used in the business and subject to an allowance for depreciation, held for more than 6 months	$4,000
2 Gains reported in 1942 (under section 44) on installment sale in 1941 of factory premises used in the business (including building and land, each held for more than 6 months)	$6,000
3 Gain reported in 1942 (under section 44) on installment sale in 1942 of land held for more than 6 months, used in the business as a storage lot for trucks	2,000
4 Gain on proceeds from requisition by Government of boat held for more than 6 months, used in the business and subject to an allowance for depreciation	500
5 Loss upon the destruction by fire of warehouse, held for more than 6 months and used in the business (excess of adjusted basis of warehouse over compensation by insurance, etc.)		$3,000
6 Loss upon theft of unregistered bearer bonds, held for more than 6 months		5,000
7 Loss in storm of pleasure yacht, purchased in 1940 for $1,800 and having a fair market value of $1,000 at the time of the storm		1,000
8 Total gains	12,500
9 Total losses		9,000
10 Excess of gains over losses	3,500

Since the aggregate of the respective recognized gains ($12,500) exceeds the aggregate of such losses ($9,000), such gains and losses are treated under section 117 (j) as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than 6 months. Therefore, under the provisions of section 117 (b), A will take into account only 50 percent of the amounts of items 1 to 7. Such items are treated the same as any other long-term gains and losses of A, and will cause the inclusion of $1,750 (50 percent of item 10) in computing his net long-term capital gain for the purposes of the alternative tax provided by section 117 (c) (2).

Example (2). A's yacht, acquired in 1935 for pleasure at a cost of $25,000, was requisitioned by the Government in 1942 for $15,000 its then fair market value. A sustained no deductible loss since he recovered the fair market value of the yacht, and no loss with respect to such requisition will be included in the computations under section 117 (j).

Example (3). If in example (1) the taxpayer were a corporation, then there would be taken into account 100 percent of the gains and losses in items 1 to 7, which are treated for all purposes as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than 6 months. The percentage provisions of section 117 (b) do not apply to corporations. These items will cause the inclusion of $3,500 (item 10) in computing the net long-term capital gain of the corporation for the purposes of the alternative tax provided by section 117 (c) (1).

Example (4). If in example (1) A also had a loss of $4,000 from the sale under threat of condemnation of a capital asset held for more than 6 months, then the gains ($12,500) would not exceed the losses ($9,000 + $4,000, or $13,000). Neither the loss on such sale of a capital asset nor any of the other items set forth in example (1) would then be treated as gains and losses from the sale or exchange of capital assets, but all of such items would be treated as ordinary gains and losses. Since all of such items are included in full in computing net income, the net effect of such items will be the inclusion in computing net income of a loss of $500 (the excess of the $13,000 losses over the $12,500 gains). This same result would be obtained if A were a corporation. If the loss on the sale of the capital asset under threat of condemnation were $3,500, the gains and losses would still be treated as ordinary gains and losses and not as capital gains and losses, since the gins ($12,500) would not exceed the losses ($9,000 + $3,500, or $12,500).

PAR. 12. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.122–1 the following:

(e) Net operating loss deduction. Section 122 (d) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) Gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be taken into account without regard to the provisions of section 117 (b). As so computed the amount deductible on account of such losses shall not exceed the amount includible on account of such gains.

* * * * *

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 13. Section 19.122–2 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out subparagraph (4) of the first paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(4) For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, the amount deductible on account of long-term capital losses shall not exceed the amount includible on account of long-term capital gains, and the amount deductible on account of short-term capital losses shall not exceed the amount includible on account of the short-term capital gains. For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount deductible on account of losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall not exceed the amount includible on account of gains from sales or exchanges of such assets.

(B) By striking out immediately preceding the example, the words "The application of this section may be illustrated by the following example:" and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

* * * The application of this section to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942 may be illustrated by the following example:

(C) By inserting at the end of the section the following:

The application of this section to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941 may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. For the year 1942 the X Corporation, which makes its income tax returns on the calendar year basis, has gross income as defined in section 22 of $400,000 and deductions allowed by section 23 of $600,000, exclusive of any net operating loss deduction. Included in gross income are long-term capital gains of $50,000 and short-term capital gains of $25,000. The corporation had long-term capital losses of $60,000 and short-term capital losses of $35,000, which are deductible to the extent of the capital gains, or $75,000. The X Corporation also deducted $75,000 for depletion on a percentage basis. If depletion had been computed without reference to percentage depletion, the amount of such deduction would have been $5,000. For 1942 the X Corporation also had $35,000 of wholly tax-exempt interest, and paid $15,000 in interest on indebtedness incurred to carry the obligations from which such tax-exempt interest was derived.

On the basis of these facts the X Corporation has a net operating loss for the year 1942 of $110,000, computed as follows:

(1) Deductions for 1942		$600,000
Less:
(2) Excess of percentage depletion over cost ($75,000 minus $5,000)		70,000
(3) Deductions adjusted as required by section 122 (d) (item (1) minus item (2))		530,000
(4) Gross income for 1942	$400,000
(5) Plus tax-exempt interest minus interest paid ($35,000 minus $15,000)	20,000
(6) Gross income adjusted as required by section 122 (d) (item (4) plus item (5))		420,000
(7) Net operating loss for 1942 (item (3) minus item (6))		110,000

PAR. 14. Section 19.122–3 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out subparagraphs (5), (6), and (7) of paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new subparagraphs:

(5) For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942, the amount deductible on account of business long-term and short-term capital losses shall not exceed the amount includible on account of the business long-term and short-term capital gains, respectively, plus an allocable portion of any non-business long-term and short-term capital gains, computed in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section; and for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount deductible on account of business capital losses shall not exceed the amount includible on account of business capital gains, plus a portion of any non-business capital gains, computed in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section;

(6) For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942, the amount deductible on account of non-business long-term and short-term capital losses shall not exceed the amount includible on account of non-business long-term and short-term capital gains, respectively; and for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the amount deductible on account of non-business capital losses shall not exceed the amount includible on account of non-business capital gains; and

(7) Ordinary non-business deductions (i. e., exclusive of capital losses) shall be allowed only to the extent of the amount of ordinary non-business gross income (i. e., exclusive of capital gains), plus (i) for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942, the excess, if any, of non-business long-term and short-term capital gains over non-business long-term and short-term capital losses, respectively, and (ii) for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, the excess, if any, of non-business capital gains over non-business capital losses.

(B) By striking out the heading of paragraph (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(b) Treatment of carry-overs—(1) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1943.

(C) By adding to paragraph (b) the following:

(2) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942. Because of the distinction between business and non-business capital gains and losses, a taxpayer who has a net capital loss carry-over from preceding taxable years, includible among the short-term capital losses for the current taxable year by virtue of section 117 (e), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1942, must determine how much of such net capital loss carry-over is a business capital loss and how much is a non-business capital loss. In order to make this determination, the taxpayer must first ascertain what proportion of the net capital losses for such preceding taxable years was attributable to an excess of business capital losses over business capital gains for such years, and what proportion was attributable to an excess of non-business capital losses over non-business capital gains. The same proportion of the net capital loss carry-over from any such preceding taxable years shall be treated as a business capital loss and a non-business capital loss, respectively.

The effect of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. A, an individual, has the following short-term gains and losses for the calendar year 1943: Business short-term capital gains of $1,000 and non-business short-term capital gains of $500, business short-term capital losses of $1,600 and non-business short-term capital losses of $600, business long-term capital gains of $1,000 and non-business long-term capital gains of $500, business long-term capital losses of $1,600 and non-business long-term capital losses of $600. A's net capital loss for the taxable year 1943 is $1,400, computed as follows:

Short-term capital losses ($1,600 plus $600)	$2,200
Long-term capital losses ($1,600 plus $600)	2,200
Total capital losses		$4,400
Short-term capital gains ($1,000 plus $500)	1,500
Long-term capital gains ($1,000 plus $500)	1,500
Total capital gains		3,000
Net capital loss for 1943		1,400

Since business capital losses exceeded business capital gains by $1,200 ($3,200 minus $2,000), $1,200 of the $1,400 net capital loss is attributable to such excess. Similarly, $200 is attributable to an excess of non-business capital losses over non-business capital gains. Assuming that the net capital loss carry-over to 1944 from 1943 is also $1,400, then the same amounts will be treated as business and non-business capital losses, respectively, i. e., $1,200 will be treated as a business capital loss and $200 as a non-business capital loss.

(D) Paragraph (c) is amended by inserting immediately after the heading and immediately preceding the first sentence, the following new subheading:

(1) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942.

(E) By inserting immediately following the last paragraph of paragraph (c), the following:

(2) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941. In the computation of a net operating loss a taxpayer other than a corporation must first use his non-business capital gains for the deduction of his non-business capital losses. (See § 19.122-3 (a) (6).) Any amounts not necessary for this purpose shall then be used for the deduction of any excess of ordinary non-business deductions over ordinary non-business gross income. (See § 19.122-3 (a) (7).) The remainders, computed by applying the excess ordinary non-business deductions against the excess capital gains, shall be treated as capital gains and may be used for the purpose of determining the deductibility of business capital losses under § 19.122-3 (a) (5).

Example. A, an individual, has a total non-business gross income of $20,500, computed as follows:

Ordinary gross income	$7,500
Long-term capital gains	6,000
Short-term capital gains	7,000
Total gross income	20,500

He also has total non-business deductions of $16,000, computed as follows:

Ordinary deductions	$9,000
Long-term capital losses	2,000
Short-term capital losses	5,000
Total deductions	16,000

In order to determine the portion of the non-business capital gains available for the deduction of business capital losses there must first be deducted the amounts of the non-business capital losses. It is then found that the excess capital gains amount to $6,000 ($13,000 minus $7,000). Since the ordinary non-business deductions exceed the ordinary non-business gross income by $1,500 ($9,000 minus $7,500), $1,500 of the $6,000 excess capital gains must be used to permit the allowance of such $1,500 under § 19.122-3 (a) (7). Therefore, $1,500 excess of ordinary deductions over ordinary gross income will be deducted from $6,000 of excess capital gains, leaving $4,500 to be added to the business capital gains for the purpose of determining the deductibility of any business capital loss.

(F) By striking out paragraph (d) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(d) Illustration of computation of net operating loss by a taxpayer other than a corporation. A, an individual who makes his income tax returns on a calendar year basis, has gross income of $483,000 and deductions (exclusive of a net operating loss deduction) of $600,000 for 1942. Included in gross income are business long-term capital gains (as defined in section 117 (a) (4)) of $25,000 (amount of actual gain $50,000) on assets held for more than 24 months, and non-business income of $10,000. Included among the deductions are a business long-term capital loss (as defined in section 117 (a) (5)) of $30,000 (amount of actual loss $60,000) on a capital asset held for 19 months, and deductions incurred in transactions not connected with a trade or business of $12,000. A has no other items of income or deductions to which section 122 (d) is applicable.

On the basis of these facts A has a net operating loss for 1942 of $110,000 computed as follows:

(1) Deductions for 1942, exclusive of capital losses ($600,000 minus $30,000)		$570,000
(2) Plus amount of actual capital loss ($60,000) to extent such amount does not exceed actual capital gains ($50,000)		50,000
(3) Sum of items (1) and (2)		620,000
(4) Less excess of non-business deductions over non-business income ($12,000 minus $10,000)		2,000
(5) Deductions adjusted as required by section 122 (d) (item (3) minus item (4))		618,000
(6) Gross income for 1942	$483,000
(7) Plus excess of long-term capital gains actually realized over amount previously taken into account ($50,000 minus $25,000)	25,000
(8) Gross income adjusted as required by section 122 (d) (item (6) plus item (7))		508,000
(9) Net operating loss for 1942 (item (5) minus item (8))		110,000

For treatment of depletion deductions and tax-free interest, see example in § 19.122-2. For treatment of net short-term capital loss carry-over, net capital loss carry-over, non-business capital gains and losses, and the portion of the non-business capital gains which may be used to permit the deduction of business capital losses, see examples in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

PAR. 15. Section 19.122-4, as amended by Treasury Decision 5086, is further amended by striking out the third sentence of the second paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

A taxpayer, other than a corporation, however, shall apply only the first four exceptions and limitations specified in § 19.122-3 (a) and, in lieu of the last three exceptions and limitations there specified, is required only (1) for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942 to restrict the amount of his deductions for long-term and short-term capital losses to the amount of his long-term and short-term capital gains, respectively, and (2) for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, to restrict the amount of his deduction for capital losses to the amount of his capital gains.

PAR. 16. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.169-1 the following:

* * * * *

(f) Capital gains and losses of common trust funds. (1) Income of participants in fund.

(A) Section 169 (c) (1) (A) is amended to read as follows:

(A) As part of its gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than 6 months, its proportionate share of the gains and losses of the common trust fund from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than 6 months.

(B) Section 169 (c) (1) (B) is amended to read as follows:

(B) As part of its gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 6 months, its proportionate share of the gains and losses of the common trust fund from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 6 months.

(2) Computation of common trust fund income. Section 169 (d) (1) and (2) are amended to read as follows:

(d) Computation of Common Trust Fund Income. The net income of the common trust fund shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as in the case of an individual, except that:

(1) There shall be segregated the gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets;

(2) After excluding all items of gain and loss from sales or exchanges of capital assets, there shall be computed:

(A) An ordinary net income which shall consist of the excess of the gross income over deductions; or

(B) An ordinary net loss which shall consist of the excess of the deductions over the gross income;

SEC. 101. TAXABLE YEARS TO WHICH AMENDMENTS APPLICABLE. (Revenue Act of 1942, Title I.)

Except as otherwise expressly provided, the amendments made by this title shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941.

PAR. 17. Section 19.169-2 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following two subparagraphs:

(1) For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, its proportionate share of the net short-term capital gain or loss of the common trust fund, computed as provided in § 19.169-3, as a part of its short-term capital gains or losses; and for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, its proportionate share of the gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than 6 months, computed as provided in § 19.169-3, as part of its gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than 6 months.

(2) For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, its proportionate share of the net long-term capital gain or loss of the common trust fund, computed as provided in § 19.169-3, as a part of its long-term capital gains or losses; and for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941, its proportionate share of the gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 6 months, computed as provided in § 19.169-3, as part of its gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 6 months.

(B) By striking out in paragraph (c) the first paragraph and the portion of the second paragraph preceding the example and inserting in lieu thereof the following two new paragraphs:

The proportionate share of each participant in the net short-term capital gain or loss of any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, the net long-term capital gain or loss of any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before December 31, 1941 from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than 6 months, gains and losses of any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 6 months, the ordinary net income or ordinary net loss, the partially exempt interest, and the tax withheld at the source shall be determined in accordance with the method of accounting adopted by the bank in accordance with the written plan under which the common trust fund is established and administered, provided such method clearly reflects the income of each participant.

The items of income and deductions are, therefore, to be allocated to the periods between valuation dates within the taxable year established by such plan in which they were realized or sustained, and the ordinary net income or ordinary net loss, the net short-term capital gain or loss of any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, the net long-term capital gain or loss of any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before December 31, 1941 from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than 6 months, gains and losses of any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than 6 months computed for each such period. The proportionate shares of the participants in such items are then to be determined. The provisions of this paragraph as applied to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938, and before January 1, 1942, may be illustrated by the following example:

(C) By inserting immediately preceding (d) the following:

The provisions of the second paragraph of this subsection as applied to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. The plan of a common trust fund provides for quarterly valuation dates and for the computation and the distribution of the income upon a quarterly basis, except that there shall be no distribution of capital gains. The participants are as follows: Trusts A, B, C, and D for the first quarter; Trusts A, B, C, and E for the second quarter; and Trusts A, B, F, and G for the third and fourth quarters, the participants having equal participating interests. As computed upon the quarterly basis, the ordinary net income, the short-term capital gain, and the long-term capital loss for the taxable year were as follows:

	First quarter	Second quarter	Third quarter	Fourth quarter	Total
Ordinary net income	$200	$300	$200	$400	$1,100
Short-term capital gain	200	100	200	100	600
Long-term capital loss	100	200	100	200	600

PARTICIPANTS' SHARES OF ORDINARY NET INCOME

Participant	First quarter	Second quarter	Third quarter	Fourth quarter	Total
A	$50	$75	$50	$100	$275
B	50	75	50	100	275
C	50	75	----	----	125
D	50	----	----	----	50
E	----	75	----	----	75
F	----	----	50	100	150
G	----	----	50	100	150
Total	200	300	200	400	1,100

PARTICIPANTS' SHARES OF SHORT-TERM CAPITAL GAIN

Participant	First quarter	Second quarter	Third quarter	Fourth quarter	Total
A	$50	$25	$50	$25	$150
B	50	25	50	25	150
C	50	25	----	----	75
D	50	----	----	----	50
E	----	25	----	----	25
F	----	----	50	25	75
G	----	----	50	25	75
Total	200	100	200	100	600

The participants' shares of the long-term capital loss are as follows:

PARTICIPANTS' SHARES OF LONG-TERM CAPITAL LOSS

Participant	First quarter	Second quarter	Third quarter	Fourth quarter	Total
A	$25	$50	$25	$50	$150
B	25	50	25	50	150
C	25	50	----	----	75
D	25	----	----	----	25
E	----	50	----	----	50
F	----	----	25	50	75
G	----	----	25	50	75
Total	100	200	100	200	600

If in the above example the common trust fund also had short-term capital losses and long-term capital gains, the treatment of such gains or losses would be similar to that accorded to the short-term capital gains and long-term capital losses in the above example.

PAR. 18. Section 19.169-3 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out subparagraphs (2) and (3) and inserting in lieu thereof the following two subparagraphs:

(2) For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1938 and before January 1, 1942, the short-term capital gains and losses of the common trust fund and its long-term capital gains and losses are required to be segregated and the computation made of the net short-term capital gain or loss and the net long-term gain or loss, as the case may be. There shall be excluded from any amount assessed or collected pursuant to this paragraph the amount of interest, penalty, additional amount, and addition to the tax, if any, in respect of the period disregarded under subsection (a) or (b). A similar rule shall be applied in the case of a member of the military or naval forces of the United States with respect to whom a period of time is disregarded under this section by reason of being outside the States of the Union and the District of Columbia.

Such due date is prescribed subject to the power of the Commissioner to extend the time for filing such return or paying such tax as in other cases.

(b) Effect of amendments upon periods fixed under laws other than Internal Revenue Code.—(1) Public law 490, seventy-seventh Congress. The amendments made by this section shall not be construed to shorten any period fixed under the provisions of section 13 or 14 of the Act approved March 7, 1942 (Public Law 490—77th Congress), within which any act may be done, except that any action or proceeding authorized under section 3804 (d) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as well as any other action or proceeding authorized by law in connection therewith, may be taken, begun, or prosecuted without regard to the period so fixed.

(2) Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940. (A) The amendments made by this section shall not be construed to shorten any period fixed under the provisions of section 513 of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 within which any act may be done, except that any action or proceeding authorized under section 3804 (d) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as well as any other action or proceeding authorized by law in connection therewith, may be taken, begun, or prosecuted without regard to the period so fixed.

(B) Article II of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

SEC. 207. Section 205 of this Act shall not apply with respect to any period of limitation prescribed by or under the internal revenue laws of the United States.

(c) Retroactive effect. The provisions of sections 3804 and 3805, as added by subsection (a) of this section, shall be effective as if they were enacted on December 7, 1941, except that the phrase "date of enactment of this section", when used in subsections (d) (3) and (e) (2) and (3) of section 3804 means the date of enactment of this Act. Any amount of interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition to the tax otherwise allowable as a refund or credit under the internal-revenue laws including sections 3805 and 3804, except subsection (d) (2)) may be refunded or credited without regard to section 3804 (d) (2). No interest shall be allowed or paid by the United States upon any amount refunded or credited by reason of this subsection.

§ 472.0 Scope of regulations. These regulations relate to the notice to be furnished to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., after the occurrence of one of the following enumerated events, in case a period of time is disregarded under section 3804 of the Internal Revenue Code and the date of termination of such period is dependent upon the time when a person:

(a) Returns to the Americas (that is, North, Central, and South America, the Hawaiian Islands, and the West Indies, but not Greenland), or

(b) Returns to the continental United States (that is, the States of the Union and the District of Columbia), or

(c) Leaves an area of enemy action or control, or

(d) Qualifies as an executor, administrator, or conservator of the estate of an individual with respect to whom a period of time is disregarded under section 3804. (Further regulations will be issued under section 3804, at a later date.)

§ 472.1 Notices to Commissioner under section 3804. If a period of time is disregarded under any provision of section 3804 of the Internal Revenue Code, the time within which certain acts may be performed by or on behalf of the Government may be extended indefinitely (subject to the limitations provided in section 3804 (c) (1) and (d) (3)) unless the notice provided for in section 3804 (e) (2) or (3) is given to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Example. An individual on August 1, 1942, sails from the port of New York, New York, for destinations in Europe and Africa, and on December 1, 1942, returns to such port. Thus, he is actually outside the Americas for a period of 122 days, or August 2, 1942, to December 1, 1942, inclusive (disregarding the date of departure and counting the date of return as an entire day, in accordance with the general rule for the computation of time). Under section 3804 (a), that period (being more than 90 days) plus an additional 90 days, or a total period of 212 days (August 2, 1942, to March 1, 1943, inclusive), is disregarded in determining whether any of the acts (such as paying income tax) specified in section 3804 (a) (1) (A), (B), (C), (D), (E), (F), or (K) is performed within the time prescribed therefor and in determining the amount of any credit or refund (including interest). For purposes of determining whether the acts (such as assessing and collecting any tax) specified in section 3804 (a) (1) (G), (H), (I), or (J) are timely performed, the period to be disregarded under section 3804 (a) with respect to the individual likewise begins on August 2, 1942; but for such purposes such period does not, by reason of section 3804 (e) (2), terminate until the expiration of the 90th day after the date on which notice of return to the Americas, furnished by the individual, is received by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.

No particular form is prescribed for giving the notices provided for herein. The notice shall be filed, in duplicate, with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., and it shall be stated therein that the notice is filed pursuant to section 3804 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Each such notice shall be signed and dated by the person filing it, and shall contain the following information:

(a) Name and present address of the taxpayer.

(b) Name and present address of the person furnishing the information, if not furnished by the taxpayer.

(c) Kind and amount of tax or taxes which are believed to be involved (for example, income, estate, or gift tax).

(d) Address of each collector of internal revenue with whom returns of the tax or taxes involved have been or are intended to be filed.

(e) Each taxable year or period believed to be involved.

(f) For the period, if any, during which the individual was a member of the military or naval forces of the United States, (1) if outside the continental United States on December 7, 1941, the last date prior to December 7, 1941, on which the individual left the continental United States (that is, the area comprised of the States of the Union and the District of Columbia); (2) each date after December 6, 1941, on which the individual left the continental United States; and (3) each date after December 6, 1941, on which the individual returned to the continental United States.

(g) For the period, if any, during which the individual was not a member of the military or naval forces of the United States, (1) if outside the Americas on December 7, 1941, the last date prior to December 7, 1941, on which the individual left the Americas (that is, North, Central, and South America, the Hawaiian Islands, and the West Indies, but not Greenland) and the name of the port of departure; (2) each date after December 6, 1941, on which the individual left the Americas, and the name of each port of departure; and (3) each date after December 6, 1941, on which the individual returned to the Americas, and the name of each port of entry.

(h) In the case of a person who has qualified as an executor, administrator, or conservator of the estate of an individual with respect to whom a period of time is disregarded under section 3804, the date on which, and the name and address of the court in which, such person qualified as such, together with the information called for in paragraphs (a) to (g), inclusive.

In case a person, having the intent of giving notice pursuant to the provisions of section 3804, furnishes the notice prior to the receipt by such person of advice as to the requirements of these regulations (whether before or after the promulgation thereof), such notice will be considered as satisfying such provisions as of the date of actual receipt thereof in Washington, D. C., by the Commissioner, if the information called for in these regulations is furnished within a reasonable time after the receipt of such advice, or if there has been substantial compliance with these regulations. A notice furnished to a collector of internal revenue will not be considered as satisfying such provisions unless and until actually received by the Commissioner.

The notice provided for herein, together with a full disclosure of all pertinent circumstances, should be furnished in any case in which no period of time is disregarded under the terms of section 3804 (a), but in which it is believed by the taxpayer (including taxpayers other than individuals) that timely performance of any act specified in such section is impossible or impracticable:

(i) By reason of any individual (whether or not the taxpayer) being outside the Americas, or

(ii) By reason of any locality being an area of enemy action or control, or

(iii) By reason of any individual (whether or not the taxpayer) in the military or naval forces of the United States being outside the continental United States.

In order that periods of time within which acts may be performed, and interest or penalty, if any, may be properly computed, notice should be furnished to the Commissioner in every case in which the termination of a period disregarded under section 3804 is dependent upon the time when an individual returns to the Americas or to the continental United States, or upon the time when an individual leaves an area of enemy action or control, or upon the time when an executor, administrator, or conservator qualifies as such. Thus, the notice should be furnished in those cases in which the event fixing the date of termination of the period to be disregarded, occurred on or before October 21, 1942, the date of enactment of the Revenue Act of 1942, although in such cases failure to furnish the notice does not under the provisions of section 3804 (e) (2) or (3) extend the period within which the Government may perform the acts, such as assessing and collecting tax, which are specified in section 3804 (a) (1) (G), (H), (I), or (J).

With the exception noted in the last preceding sentence, the consequence of failure to furnish the information herein called for is the extension in favor of the Government of the time within which the acts specified in section 3804 (a) (1) (G), (H), (I), and (J) may be performed. Such failure cannot operate to extend the time within which other acts specified in section 3804 may be performed. While no time is prescribed for furnishing the information, it is to the advantage of the taxpayer that the information be furnished as promptly as possible for each period disregarded under section 3804. In case more than one period of time is disregarded under such section, information as to dates of departure and return previously furnished to the Commissioner under these regulations need not be included in subsequent notices to the Commissioner thereunder.

[General Preference Order M-54 as Amended Jan. 21, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of molasses for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1031.1 General Preference Order M-54 — (a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Molasses" means any molasses, sirup, sugar solution, or any form of fermentative sugar including hydrol (derived from sugar cane, sugar beets or corn) other than direct-consumption sugar (as defined in General Preference Order No. M-55 As Amended January 24, 1942) or sugar intended for and used for manufacture into direct-consumption sugar. Blackstrap molasses is any final molasses produced in the manufacture of sugar from sugar cane or from the refining of raw sugar and includes all beet molasses produced in the manufacture of sugar from sugar beets. (2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of molasses and includes any person who has molasses produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(3) "Importer" means any person who transports molasses in any manner into the continental United States. Release from the bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs shall be deemed a transportation.

(7) "Broker" means any person who buys and sells molasses on a fee basis as agent either for the buyer or the seller or both.

Purchasers shall determine a calendar quarterly supply with respect to each use specified in the applicable subparagraph above. Quantity shall in all cases be computed on a blackstrap molasses basis.

(17) "30 day supply" means a quantity of molasses not in excess of one-twelfth of the quantity used by a purchaser listed above during the twelve month period ended June 30, 1941. (g) Restrictions on export. No molasses shall be exported by any person except upon express authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(h) Intra-company transactions. The prohibitions or restrictions contained in this order with respect to deliveries shall, in the absence of a contrary direction, apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise owned or controlled by the same person.

Producers, importers and primary distributors of molasses—Form PD-458.

(k) Notification of customers. Producers, distributors and importers shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this order, but the failure to give such notice shall not excuse any person from the obligation of complying with the terms of this order.

(l) Violations or false statements. Any person who violates this order or who wilfully falsifies any records which he is required to keep by the terms of this order, or by the Director General for Operations, or otherwise wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations or to the War Production Board may be deprived of priorities assistance or may be prohibited by the Director General for Operations from obtaining further deliveries of materials subject to allocation. The Director General for Operations may also take any other action deemed appropriate, including the making of a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80).

(m) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of molasses conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, Reference: M-54, attention Chemicals Division, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(n) Exemptions. None of the restrictions, prohibitions or requirements contained in this order shall apply to the delivery, acceptance of delivery or use of molasses outside of the continental United States.

[Conservation Order M-103, as Amended Jan. 21, 1943]

1. Part 1162 (formerly "Dyestuffs") is hereby amended to read "Dyestuffs and Organic Pigments."

2. Section 1162.1 Conservation Order M-103 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1162.1 Conservation Order M-103—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of all the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Dyestuffs and organic pigments" means any coloring matter with the exception of coloring matter the chemical constituents whereof are entirely inorganic in nature, and shall not include inorganic pigments which may be extended or otherwise processed with resinates, dispersing agents, or other substantially colorless organic material.

(2) "Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments" means the anthraquinone vat dyes appearing on List A attached hereto.

(3) "Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments" means all anthraquinone vat dyes other than those appearing on List A, and shall also include Fast Red A. L. Salt, which shall be considered an anthraquinone vat dye of single strength.

(4) "Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments" means all anthraquinone dyes other than anthraquinone vat dyes.

(5) "Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments" means all dyestuffs and organic pigments which:

(i) Are not Class A, Class B or Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments, and

(ii) Are not derived from vegetable or animal sources, and

(iii) Are not synthesized or produced in whole or in part from benzene, aniline, toluene, phthalic anhydride, phenols, cresols, xylonols, or derivatives of any of the foregoing.

(6) "1943 dollar value" means the dollar value computed from the domestic consumers contract sales price as of January 1, 1943.

(7) "Continental United States" means the 48 states, the District of Columbia and the Territory of Alaska.

(c) Restrictions on sale, purchase and use—(1) Class A. Except in the case of sales and deliveries for export within the limitations prescribed in paragraph (d), and except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall sell, deliver, accept delivery of, or use any Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments.

(2) Class B. Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, deliver to any other person or persons for use in the continental United States or Canada an amount of Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of 15% of the amount of Class A and Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered by such person to all other persons in the year 1941 for such use.

Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter accept delivery of, for use in the continental United States or Canada, an amount of Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of 15% of the amount of Class A and Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered to such person from all sources in the year 1941 for such use.

For the purposes of this subparagraph, amounts of Class A and Class B dyestuffs and organic pigments shall be calculated in pounds of equivalent single strength anthraquinone vat dyes and shall be raised, but only to the extent necessary, to equal 25 pounds or a multiple thereof.

(3) Class C. Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, deliver to any other person or persons for use in the continental United States or Canada a total 1943 dollar value of Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of 15% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered by such person to all other persons in the year 1941 for such use.

Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, accept delivery of, for use in the continental United States or Canada, a total 1943 dollar value of Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of $100, or 15% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered to such person from all sources in the year 1941, for such use, whichever is higher.

(4) Class D. Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, deliver to any other person or persons for use in the continental United States or Canada a total 1943 dollar value of Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of 15% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered by such person to all other persons in the year 1941 for such use.

Except as provided in paragraph (f), no person shall, in any calendar quarter, accept delivery of, for use in the continental United States or Canada, a total 1943 dollar value of Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments in excess of $100, or 15% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class D dyestuffs and organic pigments delivered to such person from all sources in the year 1941 for such use, whichever is higher.

In determining the 1943 dollar value of dry and wet dispersions of organic pigments for the purposes of this subparagraph, only the organic pigment content of such dispersions shall be considered and the value of such content shall be based on the 1943 dollar value of a comparable dry pigment.

(5) Use by producer of own dyestuffs. For the purposes of subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph amounts of dyestuffs and organic pigments of his own production which are, or have been, used by any person in any calendar quarter, or in the year 1941, shall be considered as having been delivered to such person in the calendar quarter, or the year 1941, as the case may be.

(d) Restrictions on export—(1) General restrictions. No producer shall sell for export from the continental United States to any country other than Canada any dyestuffs and organic pigments produced by him except that any producer may sell for such export upon orders accompanied by individual export licenses issued by the Board of Economic Warfare, the applications for which show thereon the corresponding current domestic sales price of the dyestuffs and organic pigments to be exported, or upon orders covered by general export licenses, a total amount of dyestuffs and organic pigments in each calendar quarter, the total 1943 dollar value of which is not in excess of:

(i) ¾% of the total 1943 dollar value of dyestuffs and organic pigments sold by him in the year 1941, plus

(ii) 17% of the total 1943 dollar value of dyestuffs and organic pigments sold for export in the year 1941 to all countries other than Canada.

(2) Further restrictions on Class A, B, and C dyestuffs. The amount of Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments produced by him which a producer may sell for export in any calendar quarter within the limits prescribed in subparagraph (1) shall not exceed ¾% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class A dyestuffs and organic pigments sold by him in the year 1941; and the total amount of Class A, Class B and Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments produced by him which a producer may sell for export in any calendar quarter shall not exceed 2% of the total 1943 dollar value of Class A, Class B, and Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments sold by him in the year 1941.

(3) Carry-over of unused portion of export quota. Any amounts of dyestuffs and organic pigments of any class which a producer may sell for export in the first calendar quarter of 1943, or any subsequent calendar quarter, within the provisions of subparagraphs (1) and (2), and which are not sold for export within such quarter may be carried over to the following quarter or quarters and operate to increase the corresponding quota for such class for such subsequent quarter or quarters to that extent. For the purposes of this subparagraph, all dyestuffs and organic pigments other than Class A, Class B and Class C dyestuffs and organic pigments shall be considered one class.

(e) Treatment of mixtures of dyestuffs. In the case of physical mixtures of dyestuffs and organic pigments of different classes, as defined in paragraph (b), containing a component or components of one class to the extent of at least 90% of the 1943 dollar value of such mixture, such mixtures shall be considered for the purposes of this order as belonging in entirety to the class to which the said component or components belong. In the case of all other physical mixtures of dyestuffs and organic pigments, the classes of components shall be considered separately.

(f) General exceptions. The prohibitions and restrictions of paragraphs (c) and (d) shall not apply to:

(1) Sales and deliveries of dyestuffs and organic pigments to the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the War Shipping Administration, the Defense Plant Corporation, the Government Printing Office or the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, or to the Government of Canada, or to any agency of the United States Government for delivery to any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), or

PART 3053—CONVEYING MACHINERY AND MECHANICAL POWER TRANSMISSION EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials, and in the engineering and other facilities, used in the manufacture of conveying machinery and mechanical power transmission equipment, for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3053.1 General Limitation Order L-193—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Conveying machinery" means any machinery (and any important component part thereof) used for the mechanical handling of materials; except (i) belting, (ii) farm machinery, (iii) machinery or parts used on board ship in the operation of any vessel owned or operated by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, or used in the operating of aircraft, tanks, ordnance, or similar combat equipment, (iv) power and hand lift trucks, (v) cranes, hoists and platform elevators, (vi) construction mixers, pavers, graders, drag lines and power shovels, and similar construction machinery, (vii) cars and car dumpers, (viii) steel mill tables, (ix) sintering conveyors, (x) metal pig conveyors, and (xi) underground mining machinery.

(3) "Mechanical power transmission equipment" means equipment (and any important component part thereof) of the following kinds (except equipment or parts used in the operation of any vessel owned or operated by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, or used in the operation of aircraft, tanks, ordnance or similar combat equipment):

(i) Open and enclosed gearing for transmitting more than ¼ horsepower; except marine propulsion gears, gears manufactured by a person for incorporation into other machinery also produced by him, gears built into turbines, and gears used on household, manually powered, automotive, or farm machinery;

(ii) Mechanical drives and parts thereof for transmitting more than ¼ horsepower; except belting, drives manufactured by a person for incorporation into other machinery also produced by him, and drives used on household, manually powered, automotive, or farm machinery.

(4) "Order" includes any arrangement for the delivery of conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, whether by purchase and sale, lease, rental or otherwise.

(5) "Engineering services" means services of an engineering nature rendered for a customer or prospective customer in connection with an order or prospective order for the planning, designing, manufacture, delivery, installation, extension, or rearrangement of conveying machinery or in connection with any bid or estimate or prospective bid or estimate for such an order; but does not include preliminary conferences, discussions, or advice, or the making of line drawings for preliminary purposes, prior to the formulation of a bid or estimate.

(6) "Bid or estimate" means a definitive bid or estimate for the planning, designing, manufacture, delivery, installation, extension, or rearrangement of conveying machinery, but does not include preliminary estimates not intended to form a basis for a firm order.

(7) "Manufacture" means fabrication or shop assembly of conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, or any component part thereof; but does not include the making of engineering drawings, blue prints, designs, estimates, or surveys.

(8) "Restricted order" means any order for new conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment or parts, in the amount of $5,000 or more (not including amounts applicable to foundations or erection labor); and any order which is part of a planned group of orders for new conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment aggregating $5,000 or more in amount (not including amounts applicable to foundations or erection labor) for items, units or parts of conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment having related operational functions.

(9) "Anti-friction bearings" means all types of ball, needle and roller bearings.

(b) Restrictions on acceptance and placing of orders. (1) On and after October 7, 1942 no person shall place or tender, and no person shall accept, any restricted order, unless the order has been authorized by the Director General for Operations as provided in paragraph (d) below.

(2) On and after October 7, 1942 no person shall render engineering services, or make any bid or estimate, for any restricted order, and no person shall order or request any such engineering services or invite any such bid or estimate; except with respect to an order theretofore authorized by the Director General for Operations, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) below.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to any order for machinery or equipment for the direct use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration (as defined in paragraph (c) (3)) or to any engineering services or bid or estimate in connection therewith.

The provisions of paragraph (b) (2) above shall not apply to any engineering services in connection with any restricted order accepted by the manufacturer prior to October 7, 1942, or to any engineering services in connection with any bid or estimate which was in the process of formulation on that date.

(c) Restrictions on manufacture and delivery. (1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (c) (3) hereof, on and after October 7, 1942 no person shall commence or continue the manufacture of any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment or parts therefor, in fulfillment of any restricted order, and no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any such machinery or equipment or parts therefor, in fulfillment of any restricted order; unless the order shall have been authorized by the Director General for Operations, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) below. No person shall maintain an inventory of parts for conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (c) (3) hereof, on and after October 7 1942 no person shall manufacture or deliver, and no person shall knowingly accept the delivery of, any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, or parts therefor, unless such machinery or equipment or parts are manufactured in accordance with the restrictions on the use of materials prescribed in Schedule A hereto: Provided, however, That parts fabricated or processed, prior to October 7, 1942 to the point where other use is impracticable, may be used in fulfillment of any order at any time.

(3) The limitations and restrictions of paragraph (c) shall not apply:

(i) To the manufacture or delivery of any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment in the process of manufacture on October 7, 1942 in fulfillment of any order accepted by the manufacturer prior to August 1, 1942.

(ii) For ninety days following October 7, 1942, to the manufacture or delivery of any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment in the process of manufacture on October 7, 1942 in fulfillment of any order accepted by the manufacturer on or after August 1, 1942 but prior to October 7, 1942.

(iii) For ninety days following October 7, 1942 to the manufacture or delivery in fulfillment of any order for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, to the extent that any applicable specifications of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, require construction, design, or materials not in accordance with the provisions of this order. As used herein, the terms "Army", "Navy", "Maritime Commission" or "War Shipping Administration" shall not include any privately operated plant or shipyard financed by or controlled by any of those organizations, or operated on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis. For the purposes of this paragraph (c) an order for machinery or equipment shall be deemed to have been in the process of manufacture on October 7, 1942 only if fabrication or assembly of a component part, in fulfillment of such order and not for inventory or stock, was begun prior to October 7, 1942.

(d) Procedure for obtaining authorization of Director General for Operations. (1) The authorization of the Director General for Operations for orders accepted on or after October 7, 1942, required by the provisions of paragraph (b), may be applied for by the purchaser by filing an application on Form PD-681 with the Director General for Operations.

(2) The authorization for orders accepted prior to October 7, 1942 by the manufacturer, required by the provisions of paragraph (c) (1), may be applied for by the manufacturer. Such application shall be made by letter in duplicate filed with the Director General for Operations and shall contain a list of restricted orders of such manufacturer then on hand, together with the name of the purchaser, the date of each order and value thereof, a description of the equipment or machinery, the specified delivery date, the percentage of completion of the order on October 7, 1942, the Production Code symbols, the preference rating and preference rating certificate or general preference rating order number applicable to each order.

(3) The authorization of the Director General for Operations shall apply not only to the order by the original purchaser for the machinery or equipment covered by the above mentioned Form PD-681 or the application under subparagraph (2)

above, but also to any orders for conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment placed by such purchaser's suppliers in fulfillment of the authorized order. The original purchaser shall either (i) transmit a reproduction of the authorization of the Director General for Operations to his supplier of the authorized order or (ii) furnish him with the following certification (on the order or in an attached document):

I hereby certify that the within (or attached) order has been authorized by the Director General for Operations under the provisions of paragraph (d) of General Limitation Order L-193, by authorization No. , dated , covering the within described machinery or equipment.

---------- Company

By ----------
(authorized official)

The purchaser's supplier shall furnish a similar certification on or in connection with any restricted order which he places in fulfillment of the purchaser's authorized order.

Any such certification shall be signed by a duly authorized official of the purchaser or supplier making the certification and shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board, as well as to the person to whom addressed, of the facts certified therein.

(e) Production schedules. On or before November 15, 1942, and on or before the 15th day of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file, in triplicate, a report on Form PD-682 showing such production and delivery schedules for restricted orders and such other information as shall be required by said form. The Director General for Operations may at any time change such schedule of deliveries or production or direct the adoption of any other schedule; allocate any order listed on the schedule to any other manufacturer; or direct the delivery of any conveying machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment listed on the schedule to any other person, at the price and terms previously established with such variation as may be justified under the circumstances.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Manufacturers' responsibility with respect to orders less than $5000. Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, an order in an amount less than $5000 which is a restricted order (as defined in paragraph (a) (8)) because it is part of a planned group of orders aggregating $5000 or more, shall be deemed to be unrestricted with respect to the manufacturer (but not the purchaser), unless the manufacturer has reason to believe that such order is a restricted order.

(2) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production, and sales. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the Director General for Operations shall from time to time request.

(3) Other limitation orders. Nothing in this order shall be construed to permit any person to sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer, or any manufacturer to purchase, receive delivery of or otherwise acquire any raw materials, semi-processed parts, or finished products in contravention of the terms of any L or M order, or amendments or supplements thereto, or other regulation of the War Production Board effective at the date of any such sale, delivery, or other transfer. Where the limitations imposed by any other L or M order are applicable to the subject matter of this order, the most restrictive limitation shall apply, unless otherwise specifically provided herein.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(5) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Director General for Operations setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(6) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L-193.

NOTE: Schedule A amended in its entirety Jan. 21, 1943.

(a) As used in this schedule, (1) "alloy steel" and "alloy iron" mean alloy steel and alloy iron as defined in Order M-21-a, as amended and supplemented from time to time; and (2) "line shafting" means any shaft driving two or more machines or any single length or rigidly coupled lengths of shafting supported by three or more bearings.

(b) Conveying machinery. The materials listed below are restricted or prohibited in the construction of conveying machinery, as prescribed below; except as the Director General for Operations may waive compliance with any such restriction or prohibition, upon application by the manufacturer or purchaser by letter or other communication, setting forth pertinent facts disclosing the necessity for such waiver.

(1) Bins, bunkers, hoppers and tanks (when used as part of conveying machinery or equipment). No metal shall be used in bins, hoppers, tanks, or bunkers having a capacity of more than 400 cubic feet, level filled, except in clips, gussets, bolts, nuts, screws, lag screws, hinges, tension rods, reinforcing bars or mesh, washers, and hopper bottoms of less than 400 cubic feet capacity. No steel plate of a thickness in excess of ¼ inch shall be used in bins, tanks, or hoppers with a capacity of less than 400 cubic feet level filled. No liner plates of steel or rubber shall be used in steel bins, steel tanks or steel hoppers. Steel liners for wood bins or wood bunkers shall not exceed No. 10 U. S. gage in thickness.

(2) Conveyors and elevators. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used for parts of chains (other than chains for the transmission of power); except for (i) pins and bushings in steel conveyor chains or cast sprocket chains, or (ii) chains used in the heat zone of heat treating and metallurgical furnaces, to the extent permitted under Order M-21-g. No bushings other than carbon steel or gray iron shall be inserted in bores of conveyor chain rollers.

(3) Conveyor and elevator sprockets. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in chain sprocket wheels, except for sprockets to be used in the heat zone of heat treating and metallurgical furnaces, to the extent permitted under Order M-21-g.

(4) Conveyor structures. (i) No steel, except in clips, bearing brackets, gussets, bolts, nuts, screws, lag screws, hinges, tension rods, reinforcing bars, mesh, and washers, shall be used in the following structural parts:

(A) Supports for fixed conveyor frames except supports for gravity, live roll and package conveyors when the height of the support does not exceed 36 inches.

(B) Fixed bulk material belt conveyor frames (including stringers).

(C) Conveyor galleries.

(D) Belt conveyor decking.

(E) Walkways, toe boards, handrails, stairways, and platforms.

(F) Guards or housing used only for protection.

(G) Bucket elevator casings; except corner angle iron for self-supporting casings and boot lining and loading legs. Such corner angle iron for self-supporting casings and boot lining and loading legs shall not exceed ¼ inch in thickness.

(H) Troughs or trough covers for fixed flight, drag, scraper or screw conveyors, except where liquids or semi-liquids are being conveyed, or where the trough is a structural member of the supporting framework, and except for materials or parts used for repairs to such troughs or trough covers. The above mentioned exception for repairs shall not be construed to permit the replacement of non-metallic parts with metal parts, the use of steel to a greater extent or with a greater thickness than used in the part being repaired or replaced, or the use of alloy steels for the replacement of carbon steel materials.

(ii) Trough linings for fixed conveyors shall not exceed No. 10 U. S. gage in thickness.

(iii) Steel for chutes and spouts shall not exceed 3/16 inch in thickness.

(iv) No steel or rubber liner plates shall be used in steel chutes or steel spouts.

(v) Steel linings for wood chutes or wood spouts shall not exceed No. 10 U. S. gage in thickness.

(vi) No copper bearing sheets or plates shall be used.

(vii) Steel troughing belt carriers and steel return belt idler rolls shall not exceed 5 inches nominal diameter on idlers up to 42 inches; and shall not exceed 6 inches on idlers 42 inches and over; provided that this limitation shall not apply to parts used for repair or replacement purposes.

(c) Mechanical power transmission equipment. The materials listed below are restricted or prohibited in the construction of mechanical power transmission equipment as prescribed below; except as the Director General for Operations may waive compliance with any such restriction or prohibition, upon application by the manufacturer or purchaser by letter or other communication, setting forth pertinent facts disclosing the necessity for such waiver.

(1) Anti-friction bearings. (i) Anti-friction bearings shall not be used in hangers, pillow blocks, loose pulleys, and clutch pulleys for line shafting except for the following purposes, as certified by the purchaser:

(A) The reduction or elimination of fire hazards resulting from the combustible nature of the material being processed.

(B) Reduction or elimination of waste due to spoilage.

(C) Reduction of starting or running loads where the use of anti-friction bearings will correct an overload pertaining to the primary source of power.

(D) The repair or replacement of bearings for line shafting, provided, however, that no anti-friction bearings shall be used for repair or replacement purposes for line shafting not previously equipped with such bearings.

The above mentioned certification by the purchaser shall be included in or shall accompany the purchase order, shall be signed by a duly authorized official of the purchaser, and shall be in the following form:

"The undersigned hereby certifies that the anti-friction bearings covered by order ------ (here give ---------- order number or other pertinent description) are for the following purposes as permitted by the provisions of Item (c) (1) of List A to Order L-193:

(here fill in the purposes for which the ---------- bearings will be used)

---------- Company

By ----------"

Such certification shall be deemed a representation to the War Production Board as well as to the supplier to whom the order is tendered.

(ii) No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in bearing housings.

(2) Bearings. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in base, cap or liner castings for sleeve bearings; or in bearing hangers, base plates, floor stands, or wall brackets for line shafting.

(3) Chains. (i) No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in cast sprocket chains.

(ii) No alloy steel shall be used in semi-finished or finished roller chain, bushed drive chain, or silent chain except in those parts thereof which the manufacturer made of alloy steel prior to January 21, 1943.

(4) No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in chain sprocket wheels.

(5) Shafting appliances. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in the construction of shafting appliances in rigid couplings, collars or pulleys and sheaves.

(6) Gears. No alloy steel or alloy iron shall be used in cast teeth or molded teeth gears and pinions or in gear housings.

(d) Rust proofing. No metallic plating or coating shall be used in the rust proofing of conveyor machinery or mechanical power transmission equipment, except that galvanizing may be used to prevent contamination of food or in the case of anchor bolts set in concrete and subject to corrosive chemical action.

PART 3153—MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND OPERATING SUPPLIES FOR LOGGERS AND PRODUCERS

[Interpretation 1 of Preference Rating Order P-138]

The following official interpretation is hereby issued by the Director General for Operations with respect to § 3153.1, Preference Rating Order P-138:

Paragraph (a) (1) of Preference Rating Order P-138 defines a "logger" as "any person actually engaged in the production of logs of any species." "Production of logs" as used here includes all steps necessary to deliver logs to sawmills, pulp mills or other dealers in or users of logs, but does not include transportation by common carrier. Thus persons building logging roads or contract-hauling logs are "loggers" within the Order, and, as to their activities in that regard, are entitled to the benefits of the Order.

General Provisions With Respect to Issuance of Rations and Tire Inspection Records

§ 1394.8004 Notation on ration books, applications and coupons. • • •

(e) Each person to whom bulk coupons have heretofore been or are hereafter issued shall, unless his name and address have been written on the coupons pursuant to paragraph (c) of § 1394.8006, clearly write, stamp or print his name and address in ink on the reverse side of each coupon issued to him, before accepting a transfer of gasoline in exchange for such coupon.

§ 1394.8006 Authorization of bulk purchase. • • •

(c) At the time of issuance of any 100-gallon bulk coupons (Form OPA R-553A) the person issuing such coupons, or the applicant or his agent in the presence of the person issuing the coupons shall write, stamp or print in ink on the back of each such coupon the name and address of the applicant and the date upon which such ration shall expire: Provided, That in any case where the coupons issued to an applicant are too numerous to reasonably require the notations to be made in the presence of the issuing officer, only the expiration date shall be endorsed upon the coupons at the time of issuance.

Renewal of Rations and Issuance of Further Rations

§ 1394.8051 Renewal of rations • • •

(b) If there have been no substantial changes since the date of the original application in the applicant's gasoline needs, or in the nature, amount and conditions of use of the motor vehicle for which the original ration was issued, and if such original application accurately calculated the applicant's requirements, application for a renewal thereof (except in the case of a basic, special or Transport ration, or a renewal prior to February 15, 1943 of a Non-highway ration issued in the form of bulk coupons) may be made by executing the renewal certificate on such original application. The applicant shall in such case note on such renewal certificate any changes in the nature or amount of his use since the date of the original application. An applicant may renew a Transport ration by filling in the pertinent information on the face of the form for the period for which the ration is required and executing the renewal certificate: Provided, That if the certificate of war necessity, if any, effective at the time of the original ration, has been revoked or modified in any manner the applicant shall execute a new application.

• • • • •

Expiration, Revocation and Redetermination of Rations

§ 1394.8102 Expiration of rations. • • •

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, all bulk coupons issued on Form OPA R-553 or Form OPA R-554 (bulk coupons which do not bear the printed word "Gasoline" on their face) shall expire at midnight January 21, 1943.

§ 1394.8112 Exchange of bulk coupons issued as a part of Form OPA R-553 or Form OPA R-554. (a) Every consumer who has in his possession or control any bulk coupons issued on Form OPA R-553 or Form OPA R-554 (bulk coupons which do not bear the printed word "Gasoline" on their face) shall surrender such coupons to the Board having jurisdiction to renew or reissue such ration. The Board shall issue to a consumer in exchange for such coupons new bulk coupons printed as part of Form OPA R-553A or Form OPA R-554A expiring upon the same date as the coupons surrendered and having a gallonage value to be determined as follows:

(1) In exchange for bulk coupons which were issued as a Transport ration the Board shall issue coupons equal in gallonage value to the coupons so surrendered.

(2) In exchange for bulk coupons issued as a Basic, Supplemental, Official, or Fleet ration, or a Temporary Transport ration, or a ration pursuant to the provisions of § 1394.1309 of Ration Order No. 5A or § 1394.7757 or § 1394.7758 of Ration Order No. 5C, the Board may, if the ration has recently been reviewed, issue coupons equal in gallonage value to the coupons so surrendered, but otherwise the Board shall review the application on the basis of which such ration was issued, and issue coupons having a gallonage value sufficient only to provide for the established mileage or gallonage needs of the consumer until the expiration date of the ration issued.

(3) In exchange for bulk coupons issued as Non-highway rations the Board shall review the application on the basis of which such ration was issued, and issue coupons having a gallonage value sufficient only to provide for the minimum necessary requirements of the consumer until the expiration date of the ration issued.

(3) On and after January 22, 1943, transfer may be made only in exchange for bulk coupons which bear the word "Gasoline" imprinted thereon and which are issued on Form OPA R-553A or Form OPA R-554A. No dealer may transfer gasoline in exchange for 100-gallon bulk coupons, and no dealer shall have any such coupons in his possession (except coupons issued to him by a Board as a ration), unless such dealer regularly engages in bulk sales of gasoline in units of one hundred (100) or more gallons.

(d) On and after January 27, 1943, no dealer or distributor shall transfer or offer to transfer gasoline to any other dealer or distributor in exchange for any bulk coupon or deposit any bulk coupon for credit in a Ration Bank account unless such bulk coupon bears the word "Gasoline" imprinted thereon and was issued on Form OPA R-553A or Form OPA R-554A.

§ 1394.8215 Transfer and surrender of expired coupons. • • •

(d) On and after January 27, 1943, but not later than January 30, 1943, each dealer who has in his possession or control bulk coupons issued on Form OPA R-553 or Form OPA R-554 (bulk coupons which do not bear the printed word "Gasoline" on their face) shall surrender such coupons to the Board having jurisdiction over the area in which his place of business is located. The Board shall issue to such dealer in exchange for such coupons inventory coupons equal in gallonage value to the coupons so surrendered.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

SUGAR RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (a) of § 1407.265 is amended and a new §1407.265a is added as set forth below:

Sugar Ration Bank Accounts

§ 1407.265 Persons required or authorized to open Sugar Ration Bank Accounts. (a) Every registering unit registered with a Listed Board and having a component establishment or establishments within the introductory area shall open one or more sugar ration bank accounts to serve all such establishments: Provided, That a registering unit which is composed of industrial or institutional establishments, or both, may not open an account and shall, on or before January 26, 1943, close any account already opened; and a registering unit which is composed of only one retail establishment whose gross sales of all meats, groceries, fruits, vegetables and similar products totalled less than $5,000 during December, 1942, is not required to open an account and may close an account already opened. A registering unit (other than an industrial or institutional user) may open one or more accounts to serve such of its component establishments within the introductory area as it selects if it is not registered with a Listed Board.

§ 1407.265a How accounts are closed. (a) The account of a registering unit which has a balance in its account shall be closed in the following manner: the registering unit shall issue to a Listed Board a voucher payable to the Board in an amount equal to the balance on hand in the account to be closed, less the total amount of all vouchers outstanding. The Board shall, in exchange for the voucher issued to it, give the person who issued the voucher a sugar purchase certificate in an amount equal to the face amount of the voucher. The Board shall then write the word "closing" on the reverse side of the voucher, shall endorse it and shall send it to the drawee Bank. After issuing such a voucher to a Board, a depositor may neither make a deposit in, nor draw a voucher on, the discontinued account, and must return to the Bank all of his unused vouchers. The drawee Bank will debit the voucher received from the Board to the account on which it is drawn and will close the account if no balance remains after the voucher has been debited. If a balance remains, the Bank will debit to such account only vouchers which bear the same date as, or an earlier date than, the voucher received from the Board, and will close the account whenever no balance remains. If a balance remains in the account twenty (20) days after the Bank has received the voucher from the Board, the Bank shall close the account and notify the depositor, in writing, of the unused credit. The depositor may secure a Certificate in the amount of the unused credit from a Listed Board in exchange for the written notification from the Bank. The Board shall return the notification to the Bank which wrote it.

(b) A registering unit which is authorized or required under the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1407.265 to close an account, and which has no balance on deposit in the account, may close it by returning all unused vouchers to the Bank and requesting the Bank, in writing, to close the account.

Effective Date

(kk) Amendment No. 36 (§§ 1407.265 (a) and 1407.265a) shall become effective January 20, 1943.

PART 1426—WOOD PRESERVATION AND PRIMARY FOREST PRODUCTS

[Revised MPR 218,[2] Amendment 2]

EASTERN WOODEN MINE MATERIALS AND INDUSTRIAL BLOCKING

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Sections 1426.53 (c) and 1426.57 are amended to read as set forth below:

(c) Short mine material (mixed oak and hardwoods 3' and under):

	Per M'BM
Cribbing blocks, all sizes up to and including 6" x 7"	$32.00
Post caps, all sizes up to and including 6" x 7"	32.00
	Each
Wedges—⅛" x 1" x 5"—12"	$0.018
¼" x 1" x 5"—12"	.018
¼" x 1¼" x 5"—12"	.021
¼" x 2" x 5"—12"	.028
¼" x 3" x 5"—18"	.041

§ 1426.57 Grades, specifications, and extras not specifically priced. All grades and specifications of ties, switch ties, cross bars, cribbing blocks, post caps, wedges, car lumber, or pit posts, used in mines, or of industrial blocking are subject to this regulation, whether they are specifically priced or not.

The maximum price for grades, specifications, and extras not specifically priced is a price which bears the October 1941 relation to the price of the appropriate "yardstick" grade. The yardstick for mine materials, except pit posts and wedges, is 3" x 5" mine tie, for industrial blocking is 4" x 4" industrial blocking, for pit posts is an 8' round post, 5" top diameter, and for wedges is a ¼" x 1" x 5"—12" wedge. The seller should find the difference between the price received for the grade being priced and the yardstick grade in October 1941, or the first month before that in which he had sales of both grades. This difference is then added to or subtracted from the maximum price for the yardstick grade. The result is the seller's maximum price. This price, with a complete description of the grade and the way the price was computed, must be reported to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The price may be ordered reduced, if it is found excessive. But if the price is not disapproved within 30 days of the receipt of the report, it is approved. If the seller cannot figure a maximum price under this paragraph, or if he wants to make an addition for a working, specification, service, or other extra which is not specifically provided for, he should write to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., giving a complete description of the thing to be priced, and his requested price, and any facts supporting the request. The Office of Price Administration will then by letter give him either a specific maximum price or instructions on how to compute it.

A seller using this pricing paragraph can go ahead with delivery of the material and collection of the price he has computed or requested. But he must tell the buyer that the price is subject to revision within the thirty-day period, and, if the price is ordered reduced, must refund any excess over the final approved price.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 229 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

AUTHORIZATION TO MANUFACTURERS OF CERTAIN PLASTICS PARTS

Maximum Prices Authorized under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Order No. 229.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register,* and pursuant to and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.1465 Authorization to manufacturers of certain plastic parts—(a) In general. Specific authorization is hereby given to any manufacturer of any plastics parts as defined in paragraph (d), for which the maximum price cannot be established under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation to determine the maximum price to any purchaser for any such plastics part in accordance with the following subparagraphs:

(1) The manufacturer shall use the price-determining method which was in use on March 31, 1942, applying the overhead rate, machine hour rates, if any or other bases of computation which were in use on that date. If the manufacturer had no price-determining method in use on March 31, 1942, he shall use a price-determining method established in accordance with paragraph (b).

(2) (i) To the extent that the price-determining method in effect on March 31, 1942, or established pursuant to paragraph (b) includes or is based on direct labor costs, the manufacturer shall use labor rates in effect on March 31, 1942 in the manufacturer's plant for each classification of labor. If the manufacturer did not employ a particular classification of labor in his plant on March 31, 1942, he shall apply the rate prevailing on that date for each such classification in the locality in which the manufacturing is to be performed. If labor of such classification was not employed on March 31, 1942, in such locality, the manufacturer shall apply the rate prevailing on that date for the nearest skill in the nearest comparable locality, as accurately as he is able to determine the same by reasonably diligent inquiry.

(ii) The cost of the amount of overtime (estimated and/or averaged, if necessary) required to be used in excess of that provided for in the overhead or machine-hour rate may be added to the cost of labor: Provided, That in no event shall any markup, overhead or profit be applied to that part of the labor cost which is in excess of the straight-time cost. For example: Assume that a manufacturer's price determining method provides for the recovery of overhead costs by the application of an overhead rate of 80% to direct labor costs and that such overhead rate makes no provision for overtime labor. Assume further that the manufacturer's plant is operating on a schedule such that one-fifth of the hours worked are overtime hours for which "time-and-a-half" rates are paid. One thousand clock hours are estimated to be required to complete a given order at the straight time rate of $1 an hour. As one-fifth of the hours worked will be overtime, one-half of the straight-time rate for 200 hours, or $100, may be added to the price. However, the direct labor cost to be used for the application of the 80% overhead rate and for the calculation of profit will be the straight-time cost for 1000 hours, that is $1000. No overhead rate or profit factor may be applied to the $100 overtime cost.

(3) To the extent that the price-determining method in effect on March 31, 1942 or established pursuant to paragraph (b) includes or is based on prices paid for materials, subcontracted molding, fabricating or processing services, or perishable tools, dies, molds, pattern or workholding devices, the manufacturer shall use actual prices paid not in excess of the applicable maximum price as established by this order or by any other order or maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

The term "material", includes raw materials and materials or products which have been processed or fabricated to any degree, including parts and subassemblies.

(4) To the extent that the price-determining method in effect on March 31, 1942 or established pursuant to paragraph (b) includes freight rates paid, the manufacturer shall use freight rates in effect on March 31, 1942 for outbound shipments for the mode of transportation actually used and for inbound shipments for the mode of transportation actually used and from the actual point of origin.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration

(5) The manufacturer shall apply all applicable discounts or other allowances in use on March 31, 1942, and may apply all applicable extra charges in use on that date.

(b) Establishment of price-determining method where none was in use on March 31, 1942. Every manufacturer of plastics parts who had no price-determining method for plastics parts in use on March 31, 1942, shall establish a price-determining method which is reasonable in the light of the operations being or to be performed. Immediately upon the determination of such a price-determining method the manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing (i) a detailed description of the proposed price-determining method, and (ii) a representative sample of prices determined in accordance with the proposed pricing method showing in detail how they were computed. Prices determined in accordance with the method so filed may be quoted and charged until and unless the method is disapproved by the Office of Price Administration. If the Office of Price Administration disapproves the method within thirty days after receipt of the report, a revised method shall be filed in accordance with this paragraph. In such disapproval, the Office of Price Administration may by order require that refunds be made on all sales executed at the prices determined in accordance with the disapproved method.

(c) Report of price determining method in use on March 31, 1942. Within thirty days after the effective date of this order every manufacturer of plastics parts as defined in paragraph (d) having a price-determining method in use on March 31, 1942 shall file a detailed description of such method with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. (d) Recomputation of maximum prices under price-determining formula: report of higher price. To the extent that the application of the price-determining method as provided for in paragraph (a) or (b) involves an estimate of the clock hours of each classification of labor or of the quantities of materials required for the order, the manufacturer shall make such estimate on the basis of previous production experience. This means that the maximum price applicable to a particular sale of an item may, because of previous production experience, be higher or lower than the maximum price applicable to a prior sale of the same item. If the sales price of any plastics part, for which the maximum price is computed under the provisions of this order, is at any time increased above the price charged on the previous sale, the manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within ten days after entering into a contract of sale, containing the following information: (1) a description of the plastics part and its intended use; (2) the price on the last sale prior to the price increase, the date of such sale, and the name of the purchaser; (3) the number of units of the same plastics part previously produced; (4) the new price and the date of quoting or entering into a contract for the new price; and (5) an explanation of the reasons for the increase, including a comparison of the cost estimates on the previous sale with the production experience on which the new price is based.

(e) Definition. As used in this Order No. 229, "Plastics parts" mean all plastics products produced by molding, extruding, laminating, casting, machining, grinding, forming, and other fabricating methods, and subassemblies consisting of assembled plastics parts, and not including the following: plastics sheets, rods, and tubes (prior to fabrication); extruded shapes (continuous length prior to fabrication); vulcanized fiber sheets, rods and tubes (prior to fabrication); preforms, powders, granules, liquids, and scrap material; ethyl cellulose, regenerated cellulose, and cellulose acetate, under .002" thickness; fabricated pieces for use in window envelopes under .010" thickness; impregnated and coated fabrics, paper, leather; plasticplywood; cellophane products (regenerated cellulose); synthetic fibers; synthetic rubber (compositions containing Neoprene, Buna S, Buna N, Thiokol, or Butyl synthetic rubber types); electrical transcription and direct cutting records; motion picture, photographic and X-ray film; protective or decorative coatings; safety glass; completed consumer articles; or any plastics parts for which a maximum price is established by any other order or maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(f) This Order No. 229 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

APPLICATIONS FOR INSURANCE

§ 10.3470 Claims alleging insurance contract where there is no application for insurance on file. In those cases where claim is made alleging that a person made valid application for National Service Life Insurance and that the insurance is subject to reinstatement or a waiver of payment of premiums is in order, or that the insurance matured by reason of the death of the insured at a time when the insurance was in force and that there was a valid designation of beneficiary, and where there is no application for insurance on file, the claimant will be required to submit all available evidence concerning the alleged application for insurance in such manner and on such forms as may be deemed necessary. If the fraction is one-half cent or larger, the wholesaler may increase his maximum price per dozen to the next higher cent.

Net cost for a wholesaler as mentioned in this paragraph shall be his invoice price for the first delivery of a listed "Sardik" brand dehydrated food item delivered in a customary quantity for this type of item by the customary mode of transportation to his customary receiving point, less all discounts allowed him, except discount for prompt payment. If the fraction is one-half cent or larger, the retailer may increase his maximum price per package to the next higher cent.

Net cost for a retailer as mentioned in this paragraph shall be his invoice price for the first delivery of a listed "Sardik" brand dehydrated food item delivered to his customary receiving point in a customary quantity of this type of item by a customary mode of transportation and from a customary source of supply, less all discounts allowed him except the discount for prompt payment. No charge or cost for unloading or local trucking shall ever be included.

(d) No seller, except a seller at retail, shall change his customary discounts, allowances and price differentials applying to comparable items of dehydrated foods in making sales of listed "Sardik" dehydrated food items, unless such change in these customary discounts, allowances and price differentials results in lower selling prices.

(e) On and after January 22, 1943, Sardik Food Products Corporation shall supply written notification to each wholesaler before or at the time of the first delivery of each "Sardik" brand dehydrated food item to such wholesaler, and for a period of three months thereafter shall include with each shipping unit of the listed "Sardik" dehydrated food items, a written notification to retailers. PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS, RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS, PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

PRINTING AND PRINTED PAPER COMMODITIES

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1347.452 is amended and a new § 1347.477 (Appendix C) is added to read as set forth below:

§ 1347.452 Maximum prices for commodities and services: general provisions. Each seller of any commodity or service subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 must determine his maximum price by applying the first one of the methods set forth in sequence in §§ 1347.452 through 1347.456, which fits the commodity or service being priced. A few exceptions to this pricing procedure are set forth in Appendix C (§ 1347.477) and take precedence over all other pricing provisions of this regulation.

As the first pricing method under this regulation, each seller must, if possible, take as his maximum price the "highest price which he charged during March, 1942" as defined in § 1347.472, paragraph (a) (6) of this regulation.

(a) For the same commodity or service; or

(b) If no charge was made for the same commodity or service, for the "similar commodity or service" most nearly like it.

§ 1347.477 Appendix C: Exceptions to pricing provisions of §§ 1347.452 through 1347.456—(a) Sales by school stores. (1) Maximum prices for sales of any of the items listed in Appendix A (§ 1347.475) by school stores which during March 1942 dealt in the same or similar articles shall be the cost of acquisition plus the highest percentage mark-up charged by the school store during March 1942, on the same or a similar article. Prices may be rounded to the nearest whole cent; ½¢ may be taken as 1¢.

(2) Definitions. For the purpose of this paragraph (a) of § 1347.477 only, the following definition shall be used:

(i) "Same article" means an article identical in all respects with another article, except that it may contain a different number of sheets.

(ii) "Similar article" means a similar commodity as defined in § 1347.472 (a) (22) except that it may contain a different number of sheets.

(iii) "School store" means any store operated by an elementary or secondary school or by a board of education for the benefit of elementary or secondary school students and not for profit directly or indirectly.

(c) Amendment No. 3 (§§ 1347.452 and 1347.477) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, shall become effective January 21, 1943.

The title, preamble, and §§ 1351.1201 to 1351.1215, inclusive, are renumbered and amended to read as set forth below:

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 270—Dry Edible Beans, Sales Except at Wholesale and Retail.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 to revise the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 270, and to establish specific prices for sales of dry edible beans by country shippers and certain other types of sellers other than sellers at wholesale and retail.

The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of dry edible beans prevailing between October 1, 1941 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable. So far as advised and consulted with representa- practicable the Price Administrator has tive members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to producers of dry edible beans a price equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of section 3 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and by Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 270 is hereby issued.

(d) If any person sells dry edible beans at a place other than the original country shipping point without performing the primary jobber's functions of unloading cars or trucks, warehousing and selling from such warehouse in less than carlots or trucklots, such person's maximum price shall be the maximum price established in paragraph (a) hereof, f. o. b. country shipping point, plus the actual cost of transportation, at lowest available common or contract carrier rates, from the country shipping point to the place where delivery is to be made, multiplied by 1.015.

(f) If a country shipper employs a broker as his agent for the sale of dry edible beans, such broker's commission shall be paid by the country shipper out of the maximum price provided for such shipper in paragraph (a) or (d) hereof, and shall not be added to such shipper's maximum price.

(1) The applicable maximum price under paragraph (a); plus

(2) The actual cost of transportation, at lowest available common or contract carrier rates, from the selling country shipper's shipping point to the purchasing country shipper's warehouse, elevator or other receiving station; plus

(3) The applicable packaging differential established under paragraph (b); multiplied by

(4) 1.025.

(h) No country shipper or any other person covered by this regulation shall change any customary discount, allowance or other price differential unless such change shall result in a lower net selling price.

§ 1351.1204 Maximum prices which primary jobbers may charge for dry edible beans. Any primary jobber (that is, one who purchases dry edible beans, receives shipment of them into a warehouse or other receiving station and distributes them from such warehouse or receiving station in less than carlots or trucklots for resale customarily by wholesalers) shall calculate his maximum price for any grade of any kind of dry edible beans as follows:

(1) The primary jobber shall first determine his "net cost" per cwt., or other customary unit of sale. "Net cost" means the amount the primary jobber paid, delivered at his customary receiving point less all discounts allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment. However, no charge or cost of local unloading or local trucking shall be included. "Net cost" shall be based on the primary jobber's most recent purchase, since May 11, 1942, of a customary quantity from a customary supplier and received by a customary mode of transportation.

(2) The primary jobber shall then multiply his "net cost" by 1.025. The resulting figure shall be the primary jobber's maximum price per cwt., or other customary unit of sale, and shall not be changed.

§ 1351.1205 Federal and State grade labeling of dry edible beans. (a) Every country shipper shall clearly state on each 100-pound container of dry edible beans or shall attach a tag to each 100-pound container of dry edible beans clearly stating the kind of dry edible beans contained in the bag and the "United States grade." If the country shipper is selling dry edible beans in a State which requires a "State grade" to be shown upon the container, he may place the appropriate "State grade" on the container or tag, in addition to the "United States grade." No grades other than those herein provided for shall be placed upon the container.

(b) When used in this paragraph "United States grade" means the standards and grades of dry edible beans set forth in the "United States Standards for Beans" issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. "State grade" means standards and grades promulgated by any State or agency thereof under authority of an act of the State legislature permitting the establishment of such standards and grades.

(c) On and after March 1, 1943, if a country shipper makes sales of dry edible beans in containers of less than 100 pounds, he shall state the "United States grade" of each kind of dry edible beans sold on the package in legible printing or writing and shall also state the grade being sold on the invoice or other written evidence of the sale.

(d) Nothing in this regulation shall be construed as permitting the shipment in intrastate commerce of any grades of dry edible beans which are prohibited, by the laws of any State, from being so shipped.

§ 1351.1206 Use of basing point in calculation of maximum delivered price. (a) Nothing in this regulation shall be construed as prohibiting the use of an established basing point system in calculating maximum delivered prices.

(b) If a country shipper sells any kinds of dry edible beans on a basing point rate, he shall sell all dry edible beans on such basing point rate. The maximum delivered price to the purchaser, for any sale on a basing point rate shall not exceed the f. o. b. country shipping point price set forth in paragraph (a) of § 1351.1203, plus the actual cost of transportation, at lowest available common or contract carrier rates, from the basing point, to the purchaser's customary receiving point.

§ 1351.1207 Exempt sales. This regulation shall not apply to these transactions:

(a) Sales and deliveries of dry edible beans by a farmer to a country shipper. However, this regulation shall apply to sales and deliveries of dry edible beans by a farmer, a farmers' cooperative or by a country shipper selling beans grown by such seller to an ultimate consumer if during the preceding month such seller's sales to ultimate consumers of all dry edible beans produced by him exceeded $75.00.

§ 1351.1209 Export sales. The maximum prices at which a person may export dry edible beans shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

Any country shipper who claims that he will be substantially injured by showing this statement to another person may file it with the appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration. This information will not be shown to anyone else unless withholding it will be contrary to the purposes of this regulation.

(b) Every country shipper selling dry edible beans shall keep for examination by the Office of Price Administration, as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, records of the some kind as he has customarily kept relating to the prices which he charged after November 8, 1942.

CORN MEAL, CORN FLOUR, CORN GRITS, HOMINY, HOMINY GRITS, BREWERS GRITS AND OTHER PRODUCTS MADE BY A DRY CORN MILLING PROCESS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales by processors of corn products produced by a dry corn milling process by a maximum price regulation establishing dollars and cents maximum prices.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 305 are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 305 is hereby issued.

§ 1351.1751 Applicability of Maximum Price Regulation No. 305. The provisons of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 305 supersede the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280[2] with respect to sales and deliveries by processors and jobbers of corn products as defined in this regulation.

§ 1351.1752 Prohibition against sales of corn products above maximum prices. On and after January 26, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation no person shall sell or deliver corn products and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive such corn products at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 305; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing: Provided, That the provisions of this regulation shall not apply to sales or deliveries of such corn products to a buyer if prior to January 26, 1943, such corn products had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such buyer.

No transportation or local hauling charge beyond such receiving point shall be added to the maximum price except as permitted in § 1351.1757 below.

(b) In view of the previous paragraph Supplementary Order No. 31,[1] entitled, Tax on Transportation of Property Imposed by Revenue Act of 1942, shall not apply to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 305.

§ 1351.1757 Maximum delivered price for less-than-carload shipments except to a consumer. The maximum delivered price for yellow or white corn products in a sale of less-than-carload lots by a processor to any person, except to a consumer, shall be the same as the maximum delivered price established for carload lots in the previous section plus 5 cents per hundred pounds. The distance along the shortest and most direct motor vehicle highway route shall be used in calculating the distance from the railroad siding to the point designated by the buyer as his receiving point.

§ 1351.1758 Maximum delivered price for less-than-carload lots to a consumer. The maximum delivered price for yellow or white corn products in a sale of less-than-carload lots by a processor to a consumer shall be the same as the maximum delivered price established for less-than-carload lots in the previous paragraph plus a markup of 25 cents per hundred pounds.

In the case of a farmer who grows his own corn, "cost" means the selling price of corn in the farmer's usual market. Chapter XIII—Petroleum Administration for War

[Petroleum Directive 63]

PART 1555—PIPELINE OPERATIONS

UTILIZATION OF WAR EMERGENCY PIPELINE

The diversion for war and other essential purposes, together with loss through enemy action, of tankers normally engaged in the transportation of petroleum from United States Gulf Coast ports to Atlantic ports has made necessary the construction of the 24-inch War Emergency Pipeline system from the vicinity of Longview, Texas, to Norris City, Illinois, thence northeasterly to the vicinity of Philadelphia and Bayonne. The following operating directive is deemed necessary to maintain that pipe line system at maximum operating capacity for the prosecution of the war and most effective utilization of petroleum:

§ 1555.1 Petroleum Directive 63—(a) Utilization of the War Emergency Pipeline. (1) The War Emergency Pipeline system shall be utilized exclusively for the purpose of relieving shortages of crude petroleum and petroleum products in District One.

(2) East Texas crude oil is designated as the kind of petroleum with which the segment of the line from Longview, Texas, to Norris City, Illinois, shall initially be filled.

(3) Number Two heating oil and sweet crude oil of a type required by District One refineries for the maximum manufacture of those war products deemed by the Administrator to be most essential, are designated as the kinds of petroleum to be utilized for working stocks and transported through the War Emergency Pipeline system.

(4) As soon as practicable, all Number Two heating oil available for delivery to the Longview terminus by connecting pipe lines shall be transported to that point for transmission eastward through the War Emergency Pipeline system. The remaining capacity of the system shall be utilized for the transportation of sweet crude oil of the type described above. When and as the necessities of the war require, or extensions or additions to the pipeline system facilities permit, other or additional kinds of petroleum may be designated for transportation pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(b) Preparation and filing of reports, forecasts and plans. (1) War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., shall prepare and file with the Director of Transportation, Petroleum Administration for War, weekly condensed reports of operations of the pipeline system including, but not necessarily restricted to, the daily average throughput of heating oil and crude oil during the preceding week; the quantities of both commodities: in storage at each of the termini of the line; in transit to and from the Longview terminus; and received from and delivered to connecting pipelines and other carriers or receivers. Such additional data and reports relating to deliveries to, receipts from, and operations of War Emergency Pipelines system shall be furnished promptly by War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., or others engaged in the industry upon request therefor by the Petroleum Administration for War.

(2) On or before the tenth day of each calendar month, War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., shall prepare and file with the Petroleum Administrator:

(i) A forecast of the throughput capacity of the line and a forecast of the terminal storage and daily delivery capacities to tank cars, barges, or other connecting pipelines at each of the easterly termini of the line, for each of the three following months; and

(ii) A suggested plan of physical operation of the pipeline system for each of the three following months.

(c) Preparation and issuance of operating schedules. (1) On or before the twentieth day of each calendar month sultation with the Director of Petroleum Administration for War, after consultation with the Director of Petroleum Supply, Petroleum Administration for War, shall issue schedules hereunder, based upon the principles hereinafter set forth, designating finally for the following calendar month, and tentatively for the second and third following months:

(i) By whom and in what quantities crude oil and heating oil shall be delivered to Longview and sold to War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., as Agent for Defense Supplies Corporation;

(ii) By whom and in what quantities the crude oil and heating oil to be delivered at the easterly termini of the pipeline system during each such month shall be purchased and received; and

(iii) The refineries and terminals in District One to which such crude oil and heating oil shall be supplied.

(2) To the extent practical, schedules issued hereunder shall be based upon the following general principles:

(i) Priority shall be accorded District Three sources of suitable crude oil and heating oil which may be made available with minimum disruption of essential refining operations and which may be transported most expeditiously by pipeline to the Longview terminus.

(ii) Priority shall be accorded District One purchasers of crude oil at the easterly termini of the pipeline system who require the same for the manufacture of those war products deemed by the Administrator to be most essential. Such purchasers will be required to offer to sell an equivalent quantity to War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., as Agent for Defense Supplies Corporation, at Longview, if the same reasonably may be made available by them, their subsidiaries, or affiliates consistently with the intent and purpose of this Directive.

(iii) Priority of designation for purchase of heating oil at the easterly termini of the pipeline system shall be accorded original suppliers in District One (as defined in Petroleum Directive 59, as amended (7 F.R. 10621) or as the same hereafter may be amended) whose railroad terminal facilities will best expedite movement of tank car trains operating between the easterly termini of the pipeline system and terminals in District One.

(d) Adjustments and corrections of inequities. Deliveries of crude and heating oil to purchasers designated by schedules issued hereunder shall be taken into account in the administration of Petroleum Directive 59, and amendments or supplements thereto. Adjustments required to prevent inequities which otherwise might result from compliance herewith shall be made in the manner prescribed and in accordance with the principles set forth in said Petroleum Directive 59.

(e) Administration. (1) The Director of Transportation shall advise and consult with the Director of Petroleum Supply and shall from time to time direct affirmative action by those engaged in the industry to provide for the storage and to facilitate the efficient transportation and delivery of crude oil and heating oil to, through and from the War Emergency Pipeline System.

(2) War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., any committees, appointed or approved by the Office of Petroleum Coordinator, or Petroleum Administration for War, and any other persons engaged in the industry may confer, accumulate and submit information, data and suggestions to the Petroleum Administrator respecting schedules or directions to be issued hereunder.

(3) The Director of Petroleum Supply and the Director of Transportation shall coordinate the activities of those engaged in the industry affected by this Directive and administer schedules and directions issued hereunder.

(4) No petroleum or petroleum products shall be transported through the facilities of the War Emergency Pipeline System except in pursuance of this Directive or amendments and supplements thereto.

(f) Appeals. An appeal may be taken to the Petroleum Administrator by any party feeling itself aggrieved by any designation, schedule or direction issued hereunder, but pending disposition of such appeal, such designation or order shall be complied with.

(E.O. 9276, 7 F.R. 10091)

R. K. DAVIES,
Deputy Petroleum Administrator for War.

GENERAL

§ 726.556 Definitions. As used in this procedure and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them, unless the context or subject-matter otherwise requires. (a) "Dark Air-cured Allotment Procedure for 1943" means this Tobacco 703 (Dark Air-cured).

(b) "County committee" means the group of persons elected within any county to assist in the administration of the Agricultural Conservation Programs in such county.

(c) "New farm" means a farm on which dark air-cured tobacco was not produced in any of the five years 1938 to 1942, but on which dark air-cured tobacco will be produced in 1943.

(d) "Old farm" means a farm on which dark air-cured tobacco was produced in one or more of the five years 1938 to 1942, and on which dark air-cured tobacco will be produced in 1943.

(e) "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(f) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity and wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State or any agency thereof.

(g) "State committee" means the group of persons designated within any State to assist in the administration of the Agricultural Conservation Programs in such State.

(h) "Tobacco" means dark air-cured tobacco as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture as types 35 and 36.

§ 726.557 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions. (a) All percentages shall be calculated to the nearest whole percent. Fractions of more than fifty-hundredths of one percent shall be rounded upward, and fractions of fifty-hundredths of one percent or less shall be dropped. For example, 87.51 percent would become 88 percent and 87.50 percent would become 87 percent.

(b) All acreages except the preliminary farm acreage allotment and the final farm acreage allotment for 1943 shall be calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of an acre. The preliminary and final 1943 farm acreage allotment shall be calculated to the nearest one-tenth of an acre and fractions of fifty-one thousandths of an acre or more shall be rounded upward and fractions of fifty-thousandths of an acre or less shall be dropped. For example, 1.051 would become 1.1 and 1.050 would become 1.0.

§ 726.558 Instructions and forms. The Chief of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency of the United States Department of Agriculture shall cause to be prepared and issued such instructions and such forms as may be deemed necessary or expedient for carrying out this procedure.

§ 726.559 Applicability of procedure. This allotment procedure for 1943 shall govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields for dark air-cured tobacco for use in connection with the 1943 Agricultural Conservation Program and in connection with farm marketing quotas for dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1943.

This method of determining preliminary 1943 dark air-cured tobacco acreage allottments will result in a preliminary 1943 acreage allotment equal to the 1942 acreage allotment for a farm except for those farms for which the normal acreage is adjusted under paragraph (b) of this section; therefore, for all other farms, the committee may establish the preliminary 1943 allotment at the same acreage as the 1942 acreage allotment plus any acreage by which the 1942 allotment was reduced because of violation of the 1941–42 Marketing Quota Regulations: Provided, however, No acreage allotted to such farm in 1942 from the State pools, except the acreage allotted to a farm the owner of which was dispossessed of another farm by the acquisition thereof by a Federal agency for national defense purposes, shall be used in determining the 1943 preliminary acreage allotment. This provision shall not be construed to prohibit determining any allotments for 1943 under the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 726.563.

(a) Determination of 1943 normal acreage. The 1943 normal acreage for an old farm shall be determined by applying the applicable diversion factor to the 1942 acreage allotment plus any acreage by which the 1942 allotment was reduced because of violation of the 1941–42 Marketing Quota Regulations: Provided, however, No acreage allotted to the farm in 1942 from the State pools, except the acreage allotted to a farm, the owner of which was dispossessed of another farm by the acquisition thereof by a Federal agency for national defense purposes, shall be used in determining the 1943 normal acreage.

1940 acreage allotment	1942 acreage allotment	Diversion factor (percent of allotment)
3.5 acres or less	2.6 acres or less	191
3.6 acres	2.7 acres	196
3.7 acres	2.8 acres	211
3.8 acres	2.8 acres	225
3.9 acres	2.9 acres or more	233

(b) Adjustment of 1943 normal acreage. The 1943 normal acreage for an old farm, determined as provided above, shall be adjusted so as to take into account any changes for 1943 in respect to the past acreage of dark air-cured tobacco (harvested and diverted acreage in the five years 1938–42 as compared with the five years 1937–41) making due allowance for the effect of drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant-bed and other diseases; land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That in determining the 1942 harvested and diverted acreage of dark air-cured tobacco, any amount by which the 1942 harvested acreage is less than the 1942 farm acreage allotment shall be considered as diverted acreage.

§ 726.562 Adjustment of preliminary 1943 acreage allotment. An acreage not in excess of one-half of one percent of the State acreage allotment for dark air-cured tobacco shall be apportioned to each county in the State on the basis of the percentage the total 1942 dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotment in each county is of the State acreage allotment for dark air-cured tobacco, unless otherwise recommended by the State committee and approved by the Regional Director. Such acreage shall be used by the county committees as hereinafter provided in this section, if the committees find that such action will establish allotments which are fair and equitable taking into consideration the past acreage of dark air-cured tobacco grown on the farm; land, labor and equipment available for the production of dark air-cured tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the adaptability of the soil to the growing of dark air-cured tobacco. The acreage available in each county may be used for establishing 1943 dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotments and for adjusting upward preliminary 1943 dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotments in the following order and under the following conditions:

(c) The preliminary 1943 dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotment for any farm may be adjusted upward. Such adjustment shall not exceed the larger of 10 percent of the 1943 preliminary acreage allotment or one-half acre. Any allotment established or adjusted as provided above shall be subject to the approval of the State committee.

§ 726.563 Reallocation of allotments released from farms removed from agricultural production. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the dark air-cured tobacco allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land which is removed from agricultural production because of acquisition by a State or Federal agency for any purpose or by a person for use in connection with the national defense program shall be available to State committees for use in providing equitable allotments for farms on which tobacco was grown in one or more of the three years, 1940 through 1942 and which are operated in 1943 by persons who were producers of tobacco on land so removed from agricultural production. Insofar as possible, the allotments for farms operated by such persons shall be comparable to the allotments for other old farms in the same community which are similar with respect to land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco, taking into consideration the allotment for the land removed from agricultural production. The allotment so determined shall be subject to the approval of the State committee and shall not exceed the larger of (1) the 1943 allotment previously determined for such land, or (2) the allotment which was or would have been determined for the land removed from agricultural production: Provided, That in no event shall the allotment so determined exceed the larger of 20 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm, or three acres.

(b) The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land acquired on or since January 1, 1940 by any Federal agency for national defense purposes shall be placed in a State pool and shall be used in determining equitable allotments for farms owned or purchased by owners displaced because of acquisition of their farm by a Federal agency for national defense purposes. Upon application to the county committee, any owner so displaced shall be entitled to have an allotment for any one of the other farms owned or purchased by him equal to an allotment which would have been determined for such other farm, plus the allotment which would have been determined for the farm acquired by the Federal agency: Provided, That such allotment shall not exceed 20 percent of the acreage of cropland in the farm. The provision of this subsection shall not be applicable if (1) there is any marketing quota penalty due with respect to the marketing of tobacco from the farm or by the owner of the farm at the time of its acquisition by the Federal agency, (2) any tobacco produced on such farm has not been accounted for as required by the Secretary, or (3) if the allotment next to be established for the farm acquired by the Federal agency would have been reduced because of false or improper identification of tobacco produced on or marketed from such farm.

§ 726.564 Reduction of acreage allotment for violation of the 1942–43 Marketing Quota Regulations. If tobacco was sold or was permitted to be sold on a marketing card for any farm which was produced on a different farm the acreage allotment established for each such farm for 1943 shall be reduced by the amount of tobacco so marketed: Provided, That such reduction shall not be made if the Secretary, through the county committee, determines that no person connected with such farm during the 1942–43 marketing year caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing. If proof of the disposition of any amount of tobacco produced on a farm is not furnished, as required by the Secretary, the acreage allotment shall be reduced by such amount of tobacco.

The amount of tobacco involved will be converted to an acreage basis by dividing such amount of tobacco by the actual yield for the farm during the year in which such tobacco was produced.

§ 726.565 Farms subdivided or combined by reconstitution. (a) If land operated as a single farm in 1942 or any previous year has subsequently been subdivided and will be operated in 1943 as two or more farms, the 1943 dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotment determined or which otherwise would have been determined for the entire farm shall be apportioned among the tracts in the same proportion as the acreage of cropland suitable for the production of dark air-cured tobacco on each such tract in such year bore to the total number of acres of cropland suitable for the production of dark air-cured tobacco on the entire farm in such year unless otherwise recommended by the county committee and approved by the State committee.

(b) If two or more farms operated separately in 1942 or any previous year have subsequently been combined and will be operated in 1943 as a single farm, the 1943 dark air-cured tobacco allotment shall be the sum of the 1943 dark air-cured tobacco allotments determined or which otherwise would have been determined for each of the farms composing the combination.

§ 726.566 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for any farm shall be the average of the yields obtained on the farm during the years 1937–41, adjusted by the county committee so as to more accurately reflect the normal yield on the farm represented by the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of dark air-cured tobacco, by taking into consideration yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors. The weighted average of the normal yields for all farms in each county shall not exceed the yield established for the county in 1942 unless an adjustment for abnormal conditions is made by the Secretary upon recommendation of the State committee.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 726.567 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms. The dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotment other than an allotment made under paragraph (b) of § 726.563 for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm taking into consideration each of the following factors:

(a) The past dark air-cured tobacco experience of the farm operator;

(b) The acreage of cropland in the farm suitable for dark air-cured tobacco production;

(c) The acreage capacity of barns which are located on the farm and which are in usable condition and available for the curing of dark air-cured tobacco;

(d) The customary crop rotation practices;

(e) Adaptability of the soil to the growing of dark air-cured tobacco.

Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall be subject to approval by the State committee and shall not exceed the smallest of (1) one fifth of the total acreage of dark air-cured tobacco grown by the farm operator during the five years 1938 through 1942, (2) 75 percent of the average dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotment for old farms in the county, or (3) one acre.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless the following conditions have been met:

(a) The farm operator shall have had two years or more experience in growing dark air-cured tobacco as a share-cropper, tenant, or as a farm operator during the past five years;

(b) The farm operator shall be living on the farm and largely dependent on this farm for his livelihood;

(c) The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator on which any tobacco is produced;

(d) There is a dark air-cured tobacco curing barn in condition for use on the farm; and

(e) No kind of tobacco other than dark air-cured tobacco will be grown on such farm in 1943.

The dark air-cured tobacco acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new dark air-cured tobacco farms.

The dark air-cured tobacco acreage available for establishing allotments for new farms shall be one-tenth of one percent of the national allotment for dark air-cured tobacco.

§ 726.568 Time for filing application. In order to obtain an allotment for a new dark air-cured tobacco farm in 1943, the operator of the farm shall file an application for such allotment with the county committee prior to February 1, 1943.

§ 726.569 Determination of normal yields. The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is reasonable for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of dark air-cured tobacco are similar.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 21st day of January 1943. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CLAUDE R. WICKARD,
Secretary of Agriculture.

AUTHORITY: 912.1 to 912.14, inclusive, issued under 48 Stat. 31, 670, 675, 49 Stat. 750, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.

§ 912.1 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings. Pursuant to the act and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR 900.1–900.17; 6 F.R. 6570, 7 F.R. 3350), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is hereby found that:

(1) The aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order as amended and as hereby amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices set forth in the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the aforesaid tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers of at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, as amended, which is marketed within the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area; and it is further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement, as amended, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interest of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum on the questions of the approval of this order, as amended, and who, during the determined representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in said Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area.

§ 912.2 Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that, from and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Dubuque, Iowa, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order, as amended.

§ 912.5 Classification of milk—(a) Basis of classification. All milk or cream purchased or received by a handler or caused to be delivered by a cooperative association to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area shall be reported by the handler and shall be classified by the market administrator in the classes set forth in (b) of this section: Provided, That (1) any milk moving as fluid milk from any handler's plant to a plant of a nonhandler who distributes fluid milk shall be classified as Class I milk and any cream moving as fluid cream to a plant of such nonhandler shall be classified as Class II milk; (2) any milk or cream moving from a handler's plant to a plant of a nonhandler who does not distribute fluid milk or cream shall be classified as Class III milk, subject to verification by the market administrator; and (3) any milk moving as fluid milk from any handler's plant to a plant of another handler shall be classified as Class I milk, and any cream moving as fluid cream from any handler's plant to a plant of another handler shall be classified as Class I milk: Provided, That if the selling handler, except for milk and cream moving to the plant of a producer-handler or to the plant of a handler who is also a producer, on or before the 5th day after the end of the delivery period during which such milk or cream was moved, furnishes to the market administrator a statement which is signed by the buyer and the seller that such milk or cream was utilized in a lower classification, such milk or cream shall be classified accordingly, subject to verification by the market administrator.

(b) Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in (a) of this section, the classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk disposed of as milk except such milk as is classified as Class II milk and as Class III milk pursuant to (2) and (3) of this paragraph and all unaccounted for milk in excess of 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers converted to 3.5 percent milk equivalent.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk disposed of as cream, for consumption as cream including any cream product in fluid form which contains 6 percent or more but less than 18 percent butterfat, flavored milk, creamed buttermilk, and creamed cottage cheese.

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk accounted for as used to produce butter, cheese other than creamed cottage cheese, evaporated milk, condensed milk, powdered whole milk, ice cream mix, and ice cream and all unaccounted for milk not in excess of 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers converted to 3.5 percent milk equivalent.

(c) Responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk. In establishing the classification of milk as required in (b) of this section, the burden rests upon the handler who receives milk from producers to account for the milk and to prove to the market administrator that such milk should not be classified as Class I milk.

(d) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute, in the case of each handler, the amount of milk in each class, as defined in (b) of this section, as follows:

(1) Determine the total pounds of milk received from (i) producers, (ii) handler's own farm production, (iii) other handlers, (iv) other sources, and (v) add together the resulting amounts.

(2) Determine the total pounds of butterfat received as follows: (i) multiply the weight of the milk received from producers by its average butterfat test; (ii) multiply the weight of the milk received from handler's own farm production by its average butterfat test; (iii) multiply the weight of the milk received from other handlers by its average butterfat test; (iv) multiply the weight of the milk received from other sources by its average butterfat test; and (v) add together the resulting amounts.

(3) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class I as follows: (i) convert to pounds the total quantity of milk disposed of in the form of milk on the basis of 2.15 pounds per quart; (ii) multiply the result by the average butterfat test of such milk; and (iii) if the quantity of butterfat so computed when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk and Class III milk, computed pursuant to (4) (ii) and (5) (iv) of this paragraph, is less than the total pounds of butterfat received, computed in accordance with (2) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the difference shall be divided by 3.5 percent and added to the quantity of milk determined pursuant to (i) of this subparagraph.

(4) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class II as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test; (ii) add together the resulting amounts; and (iii) divide the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph by 3.5 percent.

(5) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class III as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class III milk by its average butterfat test; (ii) add together the resulting amounts; (iii) subtract the total pounds of butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk, compued pursuant to (3) (ii) and (4) (ii) of this paragraph, and the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (ii) of this subparagraph, from the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (2) of this paragraph, which resulting quantity shall be allowed as plant shrinkage for the purposes of this paragraph (but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers by the handler); (iv) add the result obtained in (iii) of this subparagraph (but not to exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers by the handler) and the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph; and (v) divide the result obtained in (iv) of this subparagraph by 3.5 percent.

(6) Determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows: (i) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from other handlers and used in such class; (ii) subtract from the remaining pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from sources other than producers and handlers and used in such class; (iii) subtract pro rata from the remaining pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from the handler's own farm production; and (iv) except as set forth in (e) of this section, the result shall be known as the "net pooled milk" in each class.

(e) Reconciliation of utilization of milk by classes with receipts of milk from producers. In the event of a difference between the total quantity of milk utilized in the various classes as computed pursuant to (d) of this section and the quantity of milk received from producers, except for excess milk or milk equivalent of butterfat pursuant to § 912.8 (d), such difference shall be reconciled as follows:

(1) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to (d) of this section, is less than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall increase the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler, which result shall be known as the "net pooled milk" in Class III.

(2) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to (d) of this section, is greater than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall decrease the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler and the receipts of milk from producers, which result shall be known as the "net pooled milk" in Class II.

§ 912.6 Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Each handler shall pay, at the time and in the manner set forth in § 912.10, not less than the prices set forth in this paragraph per hundredweight of milk received during each delivery period at such handler's plant or caused by such handler to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, on the basis of milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content:

(1) For Class I milk—the price shall be the price determined and announced pursuant to (5) of this paragraph, plus 70 cents per hundredweight.

(2) For Class I milk disposed of under a program approved by the Secretary for the sale or disposition of milk to low-income consumers, including persons on relief—the price shall be the price determined and announced pursuant to (5) of this paragraph, plus 23 cents per hundredweight.

(3) For Class II milk—the price shall be the price determined and announced, pursuant to (5) of this paragraph, plus 25 cents per hundredweight.

(4) For Class III milk—the price shall be the result of the following computation by the market administrator: multiply by 2.4 the average weekly prevailing price per pound of the cheese known as "Twins" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange, Plymouth, Wisconsin (or in the absence of such prices, the prices of such "Twins" at Chicago, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture), and multiply such result by 3.5.

(5) Computation of foundation price for Class I and Class II milk—the market administrator shall determine and announce the average of the basic or field prices per hundredweight, ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the period beginning with the 16th day of the previous month and ending with the 15th day of the then current month at the plants listed in this subparagraph: Provided, That if the price so determined is less than the price computed by the market administrator in accordance with the following formula, such formula price shall be announced: multiply by 0.4 the average weekly prevailing price per pound of the cheese known as "Twins" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange, at Plymouth, Wisconsin (or in the absence of such prices, the prevailing prices for such "Twins" at Chicago, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture), add the average wholesale price per pound of 92-score butter at Chicago for said delivery period as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, and multiply such result by 3.9.

§ 912.7 Reports of handlers—(a) Periodic reports. On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period each handler, with respect to milk or milk products which were during such delivery period (1) received from producers, (2) received from handlers, (3) received from such handler's own production, (4) received from any other source, or (5) caused to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area, shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and form prescribed by him, as follows:

(i) The receipts at each plant from producers who are not handlers;

(ii) The receipts at each plant from any other handler, including any handler who is also a producer;

(iii) The receipts at each plant from such handler's own production;

(iv) The receipts at each plant from any other source;

(v) The respective quantities of milk and milk products disposed of or on hand; and

(vi) The respective butterfat content of each of the above.

(b) Reports as to producers. Each handler shall report to the market administrator as follows:

(1) Within 10 days after the market administrator's request, with respect to any producer and with respect to a period of time designated by the market administrator, (i) the name and address,

(ii) the total pounds of milk received, (iii) the average butterfat test of milk received, and (iv) the number of days upon which milk was received; and

(2) Within 5 days after first receiving milk from any producer, (i) the name and address of such producer, (ii) the date upon which such milk was first received, and (iii) the plant at which the milk of such producer was received.

(c) Reports of payments to producers. On or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer pay roll for such delivery period which shall show for each producer (1) the net amount of such producer's payment with the prices, deductions, and charges involved, and (2) the total delivery of milk with the average butterfat test thereof.

(d) Reports of producer-handlers and handlers whose sole sources of supply are receipts from other handlers. Producer-handlers and handlers whose sole sources of supply are receipts from other handlers shall report to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(e) Verification of reports and payments. The market administrator shall verify all reports and payments of each handler by audit of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose disposition of milk such handler claims classification. Each handler shall keep adequate records of receipts and utilization of milk and shall, during the usual hours of business, make available to the market administrator or his representative such records and facilities as will enable the market administrator to:

(1) Verify the receipts and disposition of all milk required to be reported pursuant to this section and, in case of errors or omissions, ascertain the correct figures;

(2) Weigh, sample, and test for butterfat content the milk received from producers and any product of milk upon which classification depends; and

(3) Verify the payments to producers prescribed in § 912.10.

§ 912.8 Application of provisions—(a) Producer-handlers. (1) §§ 912.6, 912.9, 912.10, 912.11, and 912.12 shall not apply to the handling of milk by handlers (i) whose sole sources of supply are receipts from other handlers or (ii) who are producer-handlers pursuant to § 912.3 (a) (6), as verified by the market administrator in the manner provided in (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Handlers shall furnish to the market administrator for his verification, subject to review by the Secretary, evidence of their qualifications as producer-handlers pursuant to § 912.3 (a) (6), as of the effective date of the provisions hereof, and they shall furnish evidence of subsequent changes made in the manner of producing or distributing their milk that affects their qualification as producer-handlers; such verification by the market administrator shall be made within 15 days of the date of receipt of the evidence and shall be effective retroactively to the effective date of the provisions hereof in cases verified within 45 days of such effective date and shall be effective retroactively to the first day of the delivery period during which verification is made in subsequent cases.

(b) Milk received by a handler from another handler who is also a producer or a producer-handler. If any handler has purchased or received milk or cream from another handler who is also a producer or a producer-handler, such milk or cream shall be considered as Class III milk. If such receiving handler disposes of such milk or cream for other than Class III purposes, the market administrator in computing the net pool obligation of such handler pursuant to § 912.9 (a) shall add an amount equal to the difference between (1) the value of such milk or cream in accordance with its actual utilization by such handler and (2) the value at the Class III price.

(c) Payment for milk received by a handler from sources determined as other than producers or other handlers. If any handler has purchased or received milk or butterfat from sources determined as other than producers or other handlers, such milk or milk equivalent of such butterfat shall be considered as Class III milk. If such receiving handler disposes of such milk or butterfat for other than Class III purposes, the market administrator in computing the net pool obligation of such handler pursuant to § 912.9 (a) shall add an amount equal to the difference between (1) the value of such milk or milk equivalent of such butterfat in accordance with its actual utilization by such handler and (2) the value at the Class III price. This provision shall not apply to such milk or butterfat if such handler can prove to the market administrator that such milk or butterfat was used for purposes which did not violate any regulations issued by the health authorities in the marketing area.

(d) Payment for excess milk or butterfat. If a handler, after subtracting receipts from his own farm production, receipts from other handlers, and receipts from sources determined as other than producers or other handlers, has disposed of milk or butterfat in excess of the milk or butterfat which, on the basis of his reports, has been credited to his producers as having been delivered by them, the market administrator in computing the net pool obligation of such handler pursuant to § 912.9 (a) shall add an amount equal to the value of such milk or milk equivalent of such butterfat in accordance with its actual utilization by the handler.

§ 912.9 Determination of uniform prices to producers—(a) Net pool obligation of handlers. Subject to the provisions of § 912.8, the net pool obligation of each handler for milk received from producers during each delivery period shall be a sum of money computed for such delivery period by the market administrator as follows: multiply the "net pooled milk" in each class, computed pursuant to § 912.5, by the class price pursuant to § 912.6, and add together the resulting values.

(b) Computation and announcement of the uniform price. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price per hundredweight of milk as follows:

(1) Combine into one total the net pool obligations of all handlers, computed pursuant to (a) of this section, who made the reports pursuant to § 912.7 (a) for such delivery period and who made the payments to the market administrator pursuant to § 912.10 (d);

(2) Subtract the total amount to be paid pursuant to § 912.10 (a) (2) (ii) and (iii);

(3) Add the amount of cash balance in the producer-settlement fund less the amount due handlers pursuant to § 912.10 (f);

(4) Divide the result obtained in (3) of this paragraph by the total hundredweight of milk of graded producers, other than that represented by the amount subtracted in (2) of this paragraph;

(5) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight of milk for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments or delinquencies in payments by handlers, which result shall be known as the uniform price for such delivery period for milk of graded producers containing 3.5 percent butterfat; and

(6) On or before the 10th day after the end of such delivery period notify all handlers and make public announcement of these computations, of the uniform price per hundredweight of milk of the Class I, Class II, and Class III prices, and of the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 912.10 (b).

§ 912.10 Payments for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. Each handler shall make payment, subject to the butterfat differential set forth in (b) of this section, for milk purchased or received from producers by such handler during each delivery period, as follows:

(1) To producers, for milk which was caused to be delivered to such handler from such producers by and for the account of a cooperative association, on or before the 12th day after the end of the delivery period during which such milk was purchased or received, through such cooperative association of a total amount equal to but not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers.

(2) To producers for milk which was not caused to be delivered to such handler from such producers by and for the account of a cooperative association, on or before the 15th day after the end of the delivery period during which such milk was purchased or received, (i) to graded producers, except as set forth in (ii) of this subparagraph, at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight computed pursuant to § 912.9 (b); (ii) to graded producers from whom milk was not regularly purchased or received by a handler or who did not distribute milk in the marketing area during a period of 30 days prior to the effective date hereof, for all the milk received from such producers during a period beginning with the date of the first regular receipt of milk from such producers and continuing through the first 2 full calendar months following the date of such first receipt of milk, at the price per hundredweight computed for Class III milk pursuant to § 912.6 (a) (4); and (iii) to producers other than graded producers at the price per hundredweight computed for Class III milk pursuant to § 912.6 (a) (4).

(b) Butterfat differential. If the milk of any producer, received by a handler or caused by a cooperative association to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area during the delivery period, has an average butterfat content other than 3.5 percent, such handler shall add to the prices for such producer, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk above 3.5 percent, not less than, or shall deduct from the prices for such producer, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk below 3.5 percent, not more than, an amount which is one thirty-fifth of the price per hundredweight for Class III milk.

(c) Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund, known as "the producer-settlement fund," into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to (d) and (f) of this section and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to (e) and (f) of this section.

(d) Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator, for payment to graded producers through the producer-settlement fund, the amount by which the net pool obligation of such handler including the payments required to be made pursuant to § 912.8 is greater than the sum required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to (a) (1) and (2) of this section.

(e) Payments out of producer-settlement fund. (1) On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler for payment to graded producers the amount by which the sum required to be paid producers by such handler pursuant to (a) (1) and (2) of this section is greater than the net pool obligation of such handler including the payments required to be made pursuant to § 912.8.

(2) If the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available. No handler who, on the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, has not received the balance of such reduced payment from the market administrator, shall be deemed to be in violation of (a) of this section if he reduces his payments to graded producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment from the producer-settlement fund.

(f) Adjustment of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors in payments to the producer-settlement fund made pursuant to (d) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 5 days of such billing make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler pursuant to (e) of this section, the market administrator shall, within 5 days, make such payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer discloses payment to such producer of an amount which is less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making payment to producers next following such disclosure.

§ 912.11 Expense of administration—(a) Payment by handlers. As his prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler who received milk from producers, with respect to all milk received, including such handler's own production, and each cooperative association with respect to all milk which it caused to be delivered to a plant from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area during the delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period, an amount not to exceed 4 cents per hundredweight, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary.

(b) Suits by the market administrator. The market administrator, with the approval of the Secretary, may maintain a suit in his own name against any handler for the collection of such handler's prorata share of expenses set forth in this section.

§ 912.12 Marketing services. In making payments to graded producers pursuant to § 912.10 (a) (2) each handler shall, with respect to all milk received at such handler's plant during such delivery period from each such graded producer, deduct 5 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amounts as the market administrator shall determine to be sufficient and shall, on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period, pay such deductions to the market administrator. Such money shall be expended by the market administrator only in providing for market information to such producers and for verification of weights, samples, and tests of milk received by such handler. The market administrator may contract with a cooperative association or cooperative associations for the furnishing of the whole or any part of such services.

§ 912.13 Effective time, suspension, or termination of order, as amended—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, whenever he finds that this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, obstructs, or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order, as amended, shall terminate in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall liquidate, if so directed by the Secretary, the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 912.14 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

Issued at Washington, D. C. this 19th day of January 1943, to be effective on and after the 1st day of February 1943. Witness my hand and the official seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[Order 91–C]

PART 13—RULES GOVERNING COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

REQUIREMENTS FOR OPERATORS OF BROADCAST STATIONS

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of January 1943,

The Commission, having under consideration its Orders No. 91, 91–A, and 91–B[1] and the request of the Board of War Communications that the Commission consider further relaxation of its rules and regulations governing the requirements for operators of broadcast stations; and,

It appearing that the demand of the military services for radiotelegraph and radiotelephone operators has increased as a result of the war and that such demand has decreased the number of operators qualified for operation of broadcast stations resulting in a shortage of such operators;

It is ordered, That until further order of the Commission, notwithstanding the provisions of § 13.61 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations Governing Commercial Radio Operators, a broadcast station of any class, which by reason of actual inability to secure the services of an operator or operators of a higher class could not otherwise be operated, may be operated by holders of any class commercial operator license;

Provided, however, That all classes of commercial operator licenses shall be valid for the operation of broadcast stations upon the condition that one or more first-class radiotelephone operators are employed who shall be responsible at all times for the technical operation of the station and shall make all adjustments of the transmitter equipment other than minor adjustments which normally are needed in the daily operation of a station;

Provided, further, That a broadcast station may be operated by a holder of a restricted radiotelephone operator permit only in the event such permit has been endorsed by the Commission to show the operator's proficiency in radiotelephone theory as ascertained through examination.

Provided, further, That a broadcast station having a licensed power of 1000 watts or less may be operated by a holder of a restricted radiotelephone operator permit which has been endorsed by the Commission to show the operator's proficiency in the operation of the particular station concerned, as ascertained by certification of the first class radiotelephone operator in charge of the station, on condition that in a technical emergency such operator shall not attempt to make any adjustment, but shall immediately shut down the station.

Provided, further, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to relieve a station licensee of responsibility for the operation of the station in exact accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Commission; and,

Provided, further, That § 13.61 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations Governing Commercial Radio Operators shall remain in full force and effect except as modified by this order.

This order supersedes Orders 91, 91–A and 91–B.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. D-24]

WILLIAM C. ATWATER & CO., INC.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of William C. Atwater & Co., Inc., a New York corporation for permission to receive sales agents' commissions on coal sold to William C. Atwater & Co., Incorporated, a Massachusetts corporation.

William C. Atwater & Co., Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of New York, with its principal offices in New York City, New York, acting as sales agent for certain code member producers, filed its petition on November 28, 1942, praying:

1. That the Division determine that the ownership, legal and beneficial, by certain stockholders in the petitioner and in William C. Atwater & Co., Incorporated, a Massachusetts corporation, has been, in each case, of long standing and was, and is at the present time, bona fide; that such ownership was not established, and is not now maintained, to secure any indirect price reduction, and such ownership as aforesaid is not within the prohibition of paragraphs 11 and 12 of section 4 Part II (i) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, or any other paragraph or regulation thereunder, and

2. That petitioner be granted permission to accept and retain sales agents' commissions on all coal sold by it to William C. Atwater & Co., Incorporated, a Massachusetts corporation.

It is, therefore, ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on March 3, 1943, at 10 a. m. in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such petitioner and to any other person who may have an interest in such proceeding. Any person desiring to be heard at such hearing shall file a notice to that effect with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before February 27, 1943, setting forth therein the nature of his interest and a concise statement of the matter or matters which he intends to present.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of interveners, or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

Dated: January 20, 1943.

H. N. HARTWELL AND SON, INC.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION, ETC.

In the matter of H. N. Hartwell and Son, Inc., a registered distributor, Registration No. 4055, Respondent.

Order granting application filed pursuant to § 301.132 of the rules of practice and procedure before the Division cancelling hearing and terminating matter without prejudice.

The above-entitled proceeding having been instituted by the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") on its own motion, pursuant to § 304.14 of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, by a Notice of and Order for Hearing dated October 22, 1941, as amended, and duly served on the said H. N. Hartwell and Sons, Inc., a registered distributor, Registration No. 4055 (hereinafter referred to as Hartwell), to determine whether said Hartwell has violated the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code"), and orders, rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and its Distributor's Agreement (the "Agreement") dated November 13, 1939, as more fully set forth in said Notice of and Order for Hearing; and

The said proceeding having been scheduled for hearing on December 8, 1941, pursuant to said Notice of and Order for Hearing, and having been postponed by an order of the Acting Director issued December 4, 1941, to a time and place to be thereafter designated; and

An application based upon admissions for the disposition of the above-entitled matter without formal hearing (the "application"), pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division, having been duly filed on December 29, 1941, by said Hartwell with the Division; and

Notice of the filing of said application, dated February 17, 1942, having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 18, 1942, pursuant to said § 301.132; and

Said notice of filing having provided that interested parties desiring to do so might, within 15 days from the date of said notice, file recommendations or requests for informal conferences with respect to said application, and it appearing that no such recommendations or requests have been filed with the Division within said 15 day period; and

It appearing from said application that the said Hartwell admits the sale on behalf of the Forks Coal Mining Company, a code member, during the period from October 1, 1940 to March 28, 1941, inclusive, of 1,792.21 net tons of coal produced at the said code member's Hughes No. 11, Mine, Mine Index No. 219, located in District No. 1, as set forth in the said Notice of and Order for Hearing, as amended, and, in addition, the sale of 1,475.09 net tons of coal produced at the aforesaid mine, or a total of 3,267.30 net tons of such coal; and

It further appearing from said application that said Hartwell agrees to the incorporation of said additional tonnage in the Notice of and Order for Hearing, as amended, in the above-entitled proceeding; and

It further appearing from said application that said Hartwell admits accepting and retaining a compensation of 25 cents per net ton on the sales of the aforesaid coal, and represents that it believed that it was acting in the capacity of a sales agent for the aforesaid code member as a result of correspondence with the said code member; and

It further appearing from said application that said Hartwell agrees to refund to the said Forks Coal Mining Company $424.75, which is the difference between the total discounts accepted and retained by said Hartwell on sales of the aforesaid coal and the maximum allowable discounts, prescribed by Order of the Director dated June 19, 1940, entered in General Docket No. 12, to which said Hartwell would have been entitled to receive had it acted as a registered distributor in said transactions and consents to an entry of an order suspending its registration as a registered distributor for a period of one day; and

Said Hartwell having on December 31, 1942, filed with the Division a supplementary statement, supported by documentary proof, representing that the said amount of $424.75 has now been refunded by it to said Forks Coal Mining Company, and having requested upon the basis thereof and the extenuating circumstances set forth in its said application that this proceeding be terminated;

Now, therefore, pursuant to authority vested in the Division by section 4 II (h) of the Act and upon said application of said Hartwell filed with the Division pursuant to § 301.132 of the rules of practice and procedure, for disposition without formal hearing of the charges as set forth in the Notice of and Order for Hearing, as amended, and said supplementary statement, and upon evidence in the possession of the Division; it is hereby found that:

(a) The said Hartwell is a corporation organized and existing by virtue of the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, with its principal place of business located at Boston, Massachusetts, and is engaged in the business of purchasing and reselling bituminous coal.

(b) Said Hartwell filed with the Division its application for registration as a registered distributor, dated November 13, 1939, and a certificate of registration No. 4055, dated March 29, 1940, was issued pursuant to said application, and since then the company has been engaged in the business of purchasing and selling bituminous coal as a registered distributor.

(c) The said Hartwell, during the period October 1, 1940 to March 28, 1941, inclusive, violated section 4 II (h) of the Act and Paragraph (a) of the Agreement and the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors established by the Order of the Director dated June 19, 1940, entered in General Docket No. 12, by receiving, accepting and retaining a compensation of 25 cents per net ton on the sale of approximately 3,267.30 net tons of coal, on behalf of said Forks Coal Mining Company, which compensation was 13 cents per net ton in excess of the maximum allowable discounts prescribed by said Order dated June 19, 1940, which said Hartwell would have been entitled to receive had it acted as a registered distributor in said transactions, so that the total amount in excess of the maximum discounts allowable on the sale of said coal was $424.75.

(d) Said Hartwell has refunded to the said Forks Coal Mining Company the total amount of $424.75, which is the total amount in excess of the maximum discounts allowable on the sale of said coal described in paragraph (c) above.

Now, therefore, upon the basis of the foregoing findings,

It is ordered, That the said application for disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing be and the same hereby is granted; and

It is further ordered, That the hearing scheduled in this matter be and the same hereby is cancelled; and

It is further ordered, That the above-entitled matter be and the same hereby is terminated without prejudice.

[Docket No. B-159]

FRANK B. MORRISON

ORDER REVOKING CODE MEMBERSHIP

A complaint was duly filed November 28, 1941, by District Board 8 pursuant to section 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, against Frank B. Morrison, a code member producer, operating Morrison Mine, designated as Mine Index No. 1066, located in Carter County, Kentucky, in District 8, wherein it was alleged that code member had wilfully violated the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code and the rules and regulations thereunder, particularly Rule 6 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations. The complaint prayed that the Division revoke and cancel code membership or, in its discretion, direct code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Code and regulations thereunder.

The complaint alleged that code member sold to E. M. Hammonds, between January 6, 1941, and February 7, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 86.075 tons of high volatile run of mine coal (Size Group 6) at $2 per net ton f. o. b. mine and thereafter allowed a cash rebate of 30 cents per net ton for each ton of coal sold.

Pursuant to an order of the Acting Director dated January 15, 1942, and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on February 24, 1942, before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Catlettsburg, Kentucky, at which time all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard.

District Board 8 and code member appeared, and at the conclusion of the hearing all interested parties waived the preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner. The record of the proceeding was thereupon submitted to me for my consideration and I have made Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and rendered an Opinion which are filed herewith.

Now therefore it is ordered, That the code membership of Frank B. Morrison, code member producer operating Morrison Mine, Mine Index No. 1066, located in Carter County, Kentucky, in District 8, be, and the same hereby is, revoked and cancelled.

It is further ordered, That prior to reinstatement of code membership, the said Frank B. Morrison shall pay to the United States a tax, as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act, in the amount of $67.14.

Dated January 21, 1943.

M. Hammonds, between January 8, 1941 and August 22, 1941, both dates inclusive, approximately 555,495 tons of high volatile run-of-mine coal (Size Group 6) at $2 per net tons f. o. b. mine and thereafter allowing a cash rebate of 30 cents per net ton for each ton of coal so sold. The complaint prayed that the Division revoke and cancel code membership of William Haney or, in its discretion, direct code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Code and regulations thereunder.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND DESIGNATING OFFICER TO TAKE TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 20th day of January, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of Proceeding under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to determine whether the registration of Acme Mining Company Assessable Common Stock, 10¢ par value should be suspended or withdrawn.

I

It appearing to the Commission:

That Acme Mining Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California, is the issuer of Assessable Common Stock, 10¢ Par Value; and that said Acme Mining Company registered such security on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing with the exchange and with the Commission on or about January 24, 1940, an application on Form 8-A, pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule X-12B-1, as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, registration pursuant to such application having become effective on March 7, 1940, and remaining in effect to and including the date hereof; and it further appearing to the Commission:

That Rule X-13A-1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That rule X-13A-2 promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 10-K as the annual report form to be used for the annual reports of all corporations except those for which another form is specified, and that no other form was or is specified for the said Acme Mining Company; and

That said Rule X-13A-1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the Instruction Book Applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 10-K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X-13A-1 the annual report must be filed within such period, unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specific date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

II

The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that:

The said Acme Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A-1 and X-13A-2 promulgated thereunder, in that (1) it has failed to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 1941, within the time prescribed for filing said report, and (2) it has failed to file such annual report at any later date; and

III

SUSPENSION OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and the provisions of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, it is hereby determined that the provisions of such order which classify "new producers" and provide for paying such "new producers" the Class III price for milk are provisions which obstruct and do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to producers of milk under such marketing order.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the following provisions of the said order are hereby suspended, effective as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., January 1, 1943:

1. In § 965.3 (a) (4) the following proviso:

* * * Provided, That if such producer did not regularly sell milk on his own distribution routes or through other persons during a period of 30 days next preceding the effective date hereof for consumption in the marketing area, but begins the regular delivery of milk to a handler, he shall be known as a "new producer" for a period beginning with the date of his first regular delivery of milk and continuing until the end of 2 full calendar months of regular delivery following the first day of the next succeeding calendar month, after which he shall be known as a producer.

2. In § 965.9 (a) the following:

* * * and $0.50 per hundredweight of milk to each new producer.

3. In § 965.10 (a) (2) the following:

Multiply the hundredweight of milk received from each new producer by the price for Class III milk: Provided, That if such milk was of a weighted average butterfat content other than 4.0 percent, there shall be added or subtracted for each one-tenth of 1 percent of variance in butterfat content above or below 4 percent, an amount equal to 1/40 of such price for Class III milk.

4. The words "or new producers", "from new producers", "and new producers", and all other references to "new producers".

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Notice correcting error in reproductions of supplement to order in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1.

It appears that the reproductions of a schedule designated as Supplement T, § 321.24 (General prices), attached to and made a part of an order entered in the above-entitled matter on October 17, 1942, 7 F. R. 8922, erroneously show the coals produced by Zacherl Coal Co. at the Zeitler #15 Mine, Mine Index No. 3739, as being mined from the "A" Seam in Subdistrict 1 of District No. 1, whereas the original of said Supplement T shows said coals as being mined from the "A'" Seam in said subdistrict and district.

Notice is hereby given that "A'" is the proper seam designation rather than the designation "A" in said reproductions.

[General Conservation Order M-241 as Amended Jan. 23, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply, for defense, for private account and for export, of various materials and facilities required in the manufacture and distribution of paper and paperboard; and the following order is deemed necessary in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3096.1 General Conservation Order M-241—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Produce" includes all operations connected with the production of paper and paperboard, including operations in the finishing room and packaging, but does not include processes or operations applied to paper and paperboard after the primary papermaking, such as printing, waxing, gumming, coating, bag manufacture, cup manufacture and envelope manufacture, box and container manufacture, and the fabrication of paper into paper articles.

(3) "Mill" means a congregation of pulp preparation and roll and sheet finishing equipment, paper machines and subsidiary facilities located and operated together as a single producing unit for the production of paper and paperboard.

(4) "Base period" means the six month period from October 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942.

(5) "Paper merchant" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying and reselling paper and/or paperboard.

(c) Restrictions on production of paper and paperboard. (1) Unless specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations pursuant to subparagraph (5) of this paragraph (c), no person or persons shall produce paper or paperboard in any mill which has not produced paper or paperboard since August 1, 1942.

(2) Each manufacturer of paper and/or paperboard shall for each mill operated by him determine quarterly a production quota, calculated as follows:

(i) Determine, separately for each class of paper and paperboard on List A, the quantity thereof produced at such mill during the period from October 1, 1941 through March 31, 1942;

(ii) Subtract from the result for each class the quantity produced at such mill during such period of each of the grades of paper or paperboard on List B falling within such class;

(iii) Multiply the remainder for each class by percentage figure set opposite the particular class on List A;

(iv) Add together the several tonnages obtained by (iii), and divide by two.

The quantities shall be measured, to the nearest ton, in tonnage delivered from the paper machine. The method and basis for determining such tonnage shall be that method and basis followed at the particular mill in the past, or any other practicable method and basis, provided the same method and basis are used to determine both current production and production during the base period. If any machine unit of any mill was shut down during the base period for as much as 72 consecutive hours, excluding vacations and holidays, there may be added to (i) for such mill for the class of paper or paperboard principally produced on such machine unit, whatever quantity thereof could have been produced on such machine unit during the down time at the average rate of operation during the preceding month.

The Director General may from time to time by amendment change the classification and/or percentages on List A or change List B, specifying a particular date for the change to take effect. Quotas for production after any such date shall be calculated according to Lists A and B as amended, until further amended. If the effective date of any such amendment is other than the first day of a calendar quarter, the quota for the quarter within which such date falls shall be recalculated by adding together (i) the proportion of the old quota which equals the proportion of the quarter preceding such date and (ii) the proportion of the new quota which equals the proportion of the quarter following such date, including such date.

(3) No person or persons shall during the first calendar quarter of 1943 or any calendar quarter thereafter produce at any mill any quantity of paper and/or paperboard in excess of the quota for such mill for such quarter determined according to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (c), except:

(i) To the extent and upon the conditions stated in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph (c); or

(ii) To the extent specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations pursuant to paragraph (5) (c) of this order, subject to any conditions imposed by the Director General for Operations in such authorization: and, Provided, That,

(i) Within such quota there may be produced at any mill any quantities of any one or several kinds of paper and/or paperboard, provided that the aggregate during any quarter does not exceed such mill's quota for that quarter; and

(ii) Regardless of and over and beyond any such quota, any person may produce at any mill, unless restricted by paragraph (c) (1) or by paragraph (e), any quantity of any kind of paper on List B.

(4) If one person owns only one mill, and such mill is equipped with only one machine unit for the manufacture of paper and/or paperboard, such person may, unless restricted by paragraph (c) (1) or by paragraph (e), produce at such mill during any calendar week any quantity of paper and/or paperboard required to occupy such machine 120 hours during such week: Provided, That such person shall in no other week during the same calendar quarter operate such mill in excess of 120 hours.

(5) If any person owns more than one mill, and can show that by combining or exchanging the several quotas of such mills, or parts thereof, significant quantities of critical materials will be saved, transportation reduced, labor released in areas where needed, or other materials or facilities required in the national defense conserved, he may submit to the Director General for Operations, in writing, a plan for such combination or exchange, stating the quantity and kinds of paper and/or paperboard produced at each mill involved during each month of the year from October 1, 1941 through September 30, 1942, the quantity and kinds of paper expected to be produced at each such mill during each quarter under such plan, how long he proposes to operate under such plan, his reasons for desiring to adopt such plan, and the respects wherein he conceives that such plan will accomplish the purposes mentioned. The Director General for Operations may thereupon approve, modify, or disapprove such plan or may impose upon the execution of any such plan whatever conditions he may deem appropriate to this order. Upon receipt from the Director General for Operations of approval in writing of such a plan the proponent may produce at the mills designated in such plan the quantities and kinds of paper and/or paperboard provided for in such plan, subject to any modifications or conditions imposed by the Director General for Operations in his approval. No person shall undertake or attempt to carry into effect any such plan unless and until he receives such approval.

(d) Reserve production. Each manufacturer of paper and/or paperboard shall reserve in the production schedule of each of his mills for the month of January, 1943, and for each calendar month thereafter, time and supplies sufficient to produce and deliver within such month, at the order of the Director General for Operations, 2% of such mill's quota for the current calendar quarter. In general this should amount to approximately 6% of each month's production. The Director General for Operations may on or before the 15th of any month, by telegram or letter, direct any manufacturer to employ such reserve to produce any kind of paper and/or paperboard usually produced at such mill, and any quantity thereof, not to exceed in the aggregate for any one month 2% of such mill's quota for the current quarter, and sell and deliver the same within the month to any person named by the Director General for Operations. The manufacturer may refuse so to produce and deliver only for the reasons specified for the refusal of rated orders in § 944.2 (b) of Priorities Regulation No. 1. If the manufacturer does not on or before the 15th of any month receive from the Director General for Operations directions as to the disposition of such reserve (or has received directions as to the disposition of a part but not of the remainder) he may employ the same (or such remainder) as he may desire, consistent with the other provisions of this order.

(e) Restrictions on inventory. Unless specifically authorized by the Director General, by telegram or letter, or excepted by paragraph (e) (5):

(1) No person shall knowingly deliver, and no person shall accept delivery of any quantity of newsprint, if the inventory of newsprint in the hands of the person accepting delivery is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than seventy five days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of consuming newsprint for the preceding quarter or his average rate of consuming newsprint as projected for the then current quarter;

(2) No person shall knowingly deliver to any person except a paper merchant and no person except a paper merchant shall accept delivery of, any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if the inventory of such grade in the hands of the person accepting delivery is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads greater than sixty days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of consuming such grade of paper or paperboard for the preceding quarter or his average rate of consuming such grade of paper or paperboard as projected for the then current quarter;

(3) No person shall knowingly deliver to a paper merchant, and no paper merchant shall accept delivery of, any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if the inventory of such grade in the hands of such paper merchant is, or will by virtue of such acceptance become, either (i) in excess of two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than ninety days' supply, on the basis of either his average rate of distributing such grade of paper or paperboard for the preceding quarter or his average rate of distributing such grade of paper or paperboard as projected for the then current quarter;

(4) No person shall produce at any mill any quantity of any grade of paper or paperboard other than newsprint, if his inventory of such grade at such mill is, or will by virtue of such production become, in excess of (i) two carloads or (ii), if in excess of two carloads, greater than sixty days' supply, on the basis of either the average rate of shipment of such grade from such mill for the preceding quarter or the average rate of shipment of such grade from such mill as projected for the then current quarter.

(5) The term "grade of paper or paperboard" refers to the classification on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Form WPB-514, as revised November 7, 1942, each caption (except those which are further broken down by following captions) representing a separate grade. If a person's gross inventory of a grade is in excess of two carloads or sixty days' supply, as above, but his inventory of a particular item within that grade is less than thirty days' supply (or, in the case of a paper merchant, less than sixty days' supply), he may accept delivery of or produce, and others may deliver to him, any quantity of such item as may be required to provide him with thirty days' supply (or in the case of a paper merchant sixty days' supply). The restrictions of this paragraph (e) apply equally to paper and paperboard of foreign and domestic origin, and apply to intra company deliveries as defined in § 944.12 of Priorities Regulation No. 1. They do not, however, apply to those papers commonly reported on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Form WPB-514, as revised November 7, 1942, under the captions "Photographic and other sensitized" (07611) and "Cigarette" (08512), or to any paper or paperboard after it is printed or converted beyond waxing or coating, or to inventories held by or for any agency or government referred to in § 944.1 (b) (1) and (2) of Priorities Regulation No. 1, or by or for the United States Government Printing Office.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(2) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(3) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(6) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to, War Production Board, Pulp and Paper Division, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-241.

LIST A

Column 1 lists general classes of paper and paperboard by names common in the trade. Each class includes all the grades of paper or paperboard reported on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Forms OPM-514 (for the last quarter of 1941) and WPB-514 (for the first quarter of 1942) by the code numbers, respectively as indicated, set out under the name. In the calculation of a mill's quota there should first be determined the whole quantity of each class produced at the mill during the base period, then subtracted from the result for each class the quantity produced at the mill during the base period of any kind of paper or paperboard on List B falling within such class, then the remainder multiplied by the percentage in column 2, and the several results added and the total divided by two. LIST B

Column 1 lists the grades of paper and paperboard which may in general be manufactured without restriction. (See (c) (3) of Order M-241, as amended). The general class within which each falls, according to the classification on List A, is indicated in Column 2. In the calculation of a mill's quota, the amount produced during the base period of each kind of paper and paperboard listed in column 1 is to be subtracted from the total quantity of the corresponding class in column 2 produced during the base period. (See (c) (2) (ii) of Order M-241, as amended). The kinds of paper and paperboard listed in column 1 are further identified by the numbers in parentheses following each, being the code numbers for each on United States Department of Commerce (Census) Forms OPM-514 (for the last quarter of 1941) and WPB-514 (for the first quarter of 1942), respectively as indicated.

PART 3176—VALVES AND VALVE PARTS

[Limitation Order L–252]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage of steel, copper, and other critical materials used in the manufacture of valves and valve parts, for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3176.1 Limitation Order L–252—(a) Definitions. Wherever used in this order:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures valves and valve parts.

(2) "Valves" means gate, globe, angle, cross, lift check, angle check, or swing check valves (including variations of those types, such as the valves generally referred to as quick opening, blow off, hose end, Y-type and hydraulic), except drilling through and flow line valves for oil production service. This definition does not include valves of the types generally referred to as "specialties".

(3) "Valve parts" means parts for valves as defined above.

(4) "Put into process" means to process, machine, or fabricate or in any other manner alter any material by physical or chemical means.

(b) Limitations. Except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, no producer shall after May 1, 1943, put into process or cause to be put into process, any material to be incorporated into valves or valve parts, except for the manufacture of valves and valve parts which conform to the specifications contained in the Appendix attached to and a part of this order, or for the manufacture of:

(1) Valves

(i) The bodies or bonnets of which were cast before May 1, 1943;

(ii) Ordered for use as part of the equipment of aircraft or watercraft other than pleasure craft; or

(iii) For the conduction of liquid or gas having chemical or physical properties which render the use of valves described in the Appendix dangerous or impractical; and

(2) Valve parts for repair of valves which are completed on May 1, 1943, or which are produced thereafter in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) of this order.

(c) Restricted deliveries. Except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations:

(1) No producer shall sell or make delivery of any valves or valve parts manufactured in violation of the terms of this order, and

(2) No person shall knowingly purchase or accept delivery of any valve or valve part produced in violation of this order.

(d) Order superseded. The provisions of this order supersede the provisions of Schedule No. 1 of Limitation Order L–42.

(e) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of all applicable priorities regulations.

(f) Records. Each producer shall retain in his files for a period of two years records showing his inventory and production of all valves, including those for the manufacture of which material was put into process subsequent to May 1, 1943. These records shall be kept readily available and open to inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(h) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Shipbuilding Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–252.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

APPENDIX

Specifications for Valves and Valve Parts

The following specifications govern the manufacture of valves and valve parts. These specifications do not purport to contain any recommendations regarding the most efficient or safe use of any valve or valve parts covered herein.

Certain of the terms used in this appendix (including the terms valves and valve parts) are defined in the body of this order, L–252. In addition, certain exceptions are made, and certain obligations imposed upon producers and others. You should, therefore, be thoroughly familiar with the body of the order before reading this appendix.

PART 1

Iron Gate, Globe, Angle, Cross, and Check Valves and Valve Parts

1. Standard size schedule: Iron valves. (a) Valves shall be manufactured only in the pressure classes listed in Table 1 and in the particular sizes, specified in Table 2, which are comprehended within the size range specified in Table 1 for the particular pressure class

.....	800	2 to 6	3 to 12	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....	3 to 12	.....

[1] The primary pressure classification designates a class of valves and does not necessarily mean that all sizes in a given class carry the primary pressure classification. American Standards Association standards and manufacturers' practice frequently reduce the pressure ratings as size increases, and may not always rate valves for both steam and water.

[2] In sizes 3" and smaller the 150# and 300# primary pressure classification valves are included as substitutes for brass valves. Flanged valves may be rated in accordance with the American Flange Standard used.

NOTE: Other valve end connections in common use on the date of issuance of this order, including among others, the types known as Victaulic, Dresser, and Universal, may be manufactured, but only in accordance with the specifications listed in Table 1. For the purposes of this order, "common use" means use by at least ten companies.

(b) Detail of permitted sizes (see 1 (a) above):

[Conservation Order M–9–c as Amended Jan. 20, 1943 [1]]

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of copper for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 933.4 Conservation Order M–9–c—(a) Restrictions on manufacture of items appearing on Combined List and on List A–2. (1) No manufacturer of any item on the Combined List attached, or of parts (including repair parts [2]) for any such item, may, if such item or parts contain copper products or copper base alloy products, continue their manufacture on or after December 26, 1942 by means of processing, assembling or finishing.

(2) No manufacturer of any item on List A–2 attached, or of parts (including repair parts [2]) for any such item, may, if such item or parts contain copper products or copper base alloy products, continue their manufacture by means of processing, assembling or finishing on or after the governing date set forth opposite such item in Column 2 of List A–2.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture of articles not appearing on Combined List and List A–2 out of inventory on hand on February 28, 1942 and June 30, 1942. (1) During the period from December 25, 1942 to and including January 15, 1943, a manufacturer of any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from those lists, or of parts (including repair parts [2]) for such an article, may not continue the manufacture thereof by means of processing, assembling or finishing.

(i) Unless all copper products or copper base alloy products contained in such articles or parts were acquired by the manufacturer after February 28, 1942; or

(ii) Unless such articles or parts are being manufactured, processed, assembled or finished to fill a purchase order, existing or prospective,[3] bearing a preference rating of A–1–k or higher; and no such article or part so manufactured shall be delivered except to fill such an order; or

(iii) Unless the manufacturer has been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, pursuant to an application made on Form PD–426, or otherwise, to manufacture, process, assemble or finish the article or parts in question with the copper products or copper base alloy products being used.

(2) After January 15, 1943, a manufacturer of any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from those lists, or of parts (including repair parts [2]) for such an article, may not continue the manufacture thereof by means of processing, assembling or finishing.

(i) Unless all copper products or copper base alloy products contained in such articles or parts were acquired by the manufacturer after June 30, 1942; or

(ii) Unless such articles or parts are being manufactured, processed, assembled or finished to fill a purchase order, existing or prospective,[3] bearing a preference rating of AA–4 or higher; and no such article or part so manufactured shall be delivered except to fill such an order; or

(iii) Unless the manufacturer has been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, pursuant to an application on Form PD–426, or otherwise, to manufacture, process, assemble or finish the article or parts in question with the copper products or copper base alloy products being used.

The provisions of this paragraph (b) shall not apply to a manufacturer assembling a completed fractional horsepower electric motor into machinery of any kind omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from those lists; or to the manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing of any machinery omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from those lists, or of parts (including repair parts) for such machinery, if the only copper products or copper base alloy products used which were in the inventory of the manufacturer on or before February 28, 1942 (with respect to manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing during the period from December 25, 1942 to and including January 15, 1943) or on or before June 30, 1942 (with respect to manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing after January 15, 1943) are bushings, bearings, nuts, bolts, screws, washers and wire weighing in the aggregate less than 5% of the total weight of the article or part.

(c) Applicability of order to certain Governmental agencies. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall not apply to the use of copper products or copper base alloy products in the manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing of any item or article on the "Military Exemption List", or part therefor, which is being produced for purchase by, or for the account of, or for use by, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or the Coast Guard, where the use of copper products or copper base alloy products to the extent employed is required by the specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or the Coast Guard applicable to the contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(d) General restrictions on manufacture. (1) No manufacturer may continue the manufacture of any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from such lists, or of parts (including repair parts) for such an article, if such article or parts are to contain copper products or copper base alloy products where the use of any less scarce material is practicable; and no manufacturer may continue the manufacture of any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from such lists, or of parts (including repair parts) for such an article, if they are to contain more copper products or copper base alloy products than is necessary for the article's proper operation or a higher type or grade of copper or copper base alloy than is necessary for the article's proper operation.

(2) (i) The use of copper products or copper base alloy products for plating any item on the Combined List or List A–2 or for plating any parts (including repair parts) of such an item, is prohibited unless such plating is expressly stated to be permissible on said lists.

(ii) The use of copper products or copper base alloy products for plating any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from such lists and the plating of parts (including repair parts) for such an article, is permitted provided:

(a) That such plating is not for decorative purposes or part of a decoration or as an undercoating for lead or silver plating, and

(b) That the use of, or the normal wear on such article or parts, would make impracticable any other form of coating.

(e) General restrictions on deliveries. The disposition of frozen and excessive inventories containing certain copper products or copper base alloy products shall be subject to the applicable provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13 (§ 944.34) as amended from time to time.

Nothing contained in this paragraph (f) (1) of this amended order shall affect the prohibition against the manufacture of powder containing copper products or copper base alloy products contained in parargaph (a) and the Combined List of this amended order.

(2) No person shall deliver, install or cut any copper or copper base alloy insect screening (i) unless such screening is to be delivered to, installed for or cut on the order of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast Guard, any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), or Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Corporation or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (except Defense Plant Corporation) or any person acting as agent of any such corporation (except Defense Plant Corporation), or (ii) unless such delivery, installation or cutting shall be with the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations. Applications for specific authorizations shall be made by letter addressed to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–9–c. The foregoing shall not apply to used or second hand insect screening or to insect screening in rolls of less than 25 feet in length. Nothing contained in this paragraph (f) (2) affects the prohibitions on the manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of insect screening and screens with copper products or copper base alloy products contained in paragraph (a) and the Combined List of this order.

(g) Restrictions on deliveries to manufacturers. No person shall hereafter deliver copper products or copper base alloy products to any manufacturer, directly or indirectly, if he knows or has reason to believe that such products are to be used in violation of the terms of this order.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulation. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of paragraphs (a), (d) or (f) (1) of this order shall be made by filing Form PD–167 Revised with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–9–c. Relief granted pursuant to an appeal under this order shall remain in effect despite any amendment to this order, unless the grant of relief is specifically revoked or modified by the Director General for Operations.

(3) Communications. Any reports required to be filed under this order and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–9–c.

(4) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply irrespective of whether such items, articles or parts whose manufacture is governed hereby are being manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date of this order. Insofar as any other order of the War Production Board or of the Office of Production Management may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the manufacture of items, articles or parts or the sale and delivery of such items, articles or parts, the limitation of such other order shall be observed.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Installation. The restrictions of this order shall not apply to the installation of any item or article, or part (including a repair part) therefor, for the ultimate consumer on his premises when any manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing of such an item, article or part is incidental to such installation and is done on such premises. The foregoing does not in any way affect, revoke or modify the provisions of Supplementary Conservation Order M–9–c–4 which prohibits the installation of certain types of copper and copper base alloy pipe, tube, fittings and building material under certain circumstances or of any other order restricting installation.

(7) Repair. The restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (d) (1) hereof) shall not apply to the manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of repair parts to make a specific repair of a used article or to a person repairing a used article, on or off the premises of the owner, if the manufacturer of the parts or the person making the repair does not use copper products or copper base alloy products weighing in the aggregate more than two pounds and any manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing done by him is for the purpose of making a specific repair; nor shall the restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (d) (1) hereof) apply to the manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of repair parts to make a specific repair of a used article or to a person repairing a used article, on or off the premises of the owner, if the manufacturer of the parts or the person making the repair does not use copper products or copper base alloy products weighing in the aggregate more than one pound in excess of the copper or copper base alloy scrap derived from the article being repaired, and all such scrap is delivered to a scrap dealer or to any other person to whom such delivery may be made under the provisions of Supplementary Order M–9–b and provided any manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing done by him is for the purpose of making a specific repair.

(8) Copper products or copper base alloy products not controlled by order. On and after the respective dates set forth in this subparagraph, the provisions of this order shall not apply to the manufacture of the following items or

(1) During the fourth calendar quarter of 1942, a producer of replacement parts for passenger automobiles and light trucks may manufacture replacement parts according to either of the following schedules:

(i) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts at his dollar cost value not to exceed seventy percent (70%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the fourth calendar quarter of 1941: Provided, That such production does not result in the producer's total inventory of finished parts (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) exceeding at any time during the third month in the fourth calendar quarter, in dollar cost value, four times the producer's average monthly sales valued at cost during the preceding calendar quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

(ii) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts not to exceed fifty percent (50%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the fourth calendar quarter of 1941; provided such production does not increase his inventory of finished parts in total cost value (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) at the end of the fourth quarter, above his inventory of finished parts in total cost value at the beginning of the quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

(2) During the first calendar quarter of 1943, a producer of replacement parts for passenger automobiles and light trucks may manufacture replacement parts according to either of the following schedules:

(ii) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts not to exceed fifty percent (50%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the average calendar quarter of 1941; provided such production does not increase his inventory of finished parts in total cost value (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) at the end of the first quarter of 1943, above his inventory of finished parts in total cost value at the beginning of the quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

in dollar cost value, four times the producer's average monthly sales valued at cost during the preceding calendar quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

(ii) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts not to exceed seventy-five percent (75%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the fourth calendar quarter of 1941, provided such production does not increase his inventory of finished parts in total cost value (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) at the end of the fourth quarter above his inventory of finished parts at the beginning of the quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

(2) During the first calendar quarter of 1943, a producer of replacement parts for medium and/or heavy motor trucks, truck-tractors, truck-trailers, passenger carriers, and off-the-highway motor vehicles may manufacture replacement parts according to either of the following schedules:

(i) Such producer may manufacture replacement parts at his dollar cost value not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five percent (125%) of the total dollar cost value of the replacement parts of his own manufacture sold by him during the average calendar quarter of 1941: Provided, That such production does not result in the producer's total inventory of finished parts (either produced by him or purchased by him from others) exceeding at any time during the third month in the first quarter of 1943, in dollar cost value, four times the producer's average monthly sales valued at cost during the preceding calendar quarter. In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

In determining dollar cost value of sales, sales to the Army, Navy and other persons enumerated in paragraph (g) below shall not be included.

(g) Exceptions to applicability of this order. The terms and restrictions of this order, except paragraph (b) (2), shall not apply, except as provided for in paragraph (s) below, to any replacement parts sold to or produced under contracts or orders for delivery to or for the account of:

(1) The Army or Navy of the United States or the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development;

(2) The government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom, including its Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates, and Yugoslavia;

(3) Any agency of the United States Government, for delivery to, or for the account of, the government of any country listed above, or any other country, including those in the Western Hemisphere, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(h) Return of replacement parts. Replacement parts returned to a producer by a distributor are not to be scheduled in the producer's inventory during the quarter in which the parts are received, but shall be included in the producer's inventory in the succeeding calendar quarter.

(i) Restrictions on sales to consumers. (1) On and after July 15, 1942, no producer or distributor shall sell or deliver any replacement part to a consumer unless the consumer delivers to the producer or distributor concurrently with the purchase a used part (excepting in the case of cab assemblies and parts consumed in use, lost or stolen) of similar kind and size for each new replacement part delivered to the consumer. No new replacement part shall be sold or delivered to a consumer to replace a part which the producer or distributor can recondition by use of available reconditioning facilities.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (i) (1) above, a producer or distributor may sell and deliver any replacement part to a consumer without receiving a used part in exchange therefor, Provided, That:

(i) The producer or distributor does not install such part in the consumer's vehicle; and

(ii) The consumer signs and delivers to the producer or distributor concurrently with each purchase order (or on the written confirmation thereof if such order is placed by telephone or telegram) a certificate in the following form:

CONSUMER'S CERTIFICATE

I hereby certify that: (a) The replacement parts specified on this order are essential for repair of vehicle(s) I now own or operate; (b) these parts will be used only for replacement of parts that, to the best of my knowledge, cannot be reconditioned by use of available facilities; and (c) I will, within thirty days after receiving the new part(s), dispose of through scrap channels a used part(s) (excepting in the case of cab assemblies and parts consumed in use, lost or stolen) of similar kind and size for each new replacement part delivered to me.

(Signed) _____

(Address) _____

The foregoing certificate must be retained by the producer or distributor making the sale to the consumer as part of his records.

The provisions of this paragraph (i) shall not apply to any Federal or Territorial department, bureau or agency, or to a State or political subdivision thereof, which is forbidden by law from making such disposal of replacement parts.

(j) Restrictions on distributors' inventories. (1) On and after August 15, 1942, no distributor, whose principal place of business is located in the Eastern or Central War Time Zone, shall order more than a thirty-day supply of replacement parts, and no such distributor shall accept delivery of replacement parts which, in combination with his existing inventory of replacement parts measured in total dollar cost value, shall exceed a sixty-day supply. Sixty-day supply means a supply in dollar cost value equal to two-thirds of the distributor's total sales, at his cost of such parts, sold by him in the preceding quarterly period.

(2) No distributor, whose principal place of business is located in any other war time zone, shall order more than a forty-five day supply of replacement parts, and no such distributor shall accept delivery of replacement parts which,

in combination with his existing inventory of replacement parts, measured in total dollar cost value, shall exceed a ninety-day supply. Ninety-day supply means a supply in dollar cost value at distributor's cost equal to the distributor's total sales, at his cost of such parts, sold by him in the preceding quarterly period.

(3) Irrespective of the restrictions in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, a distributor may accept delivery of specific items of replacement parts when his stock of all items in the aggregate exceeds, or will by virtue of such acceptance exceed, his maximum permissible inventory as specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, but only to the extent necessary to bring such distributor's inventory of those specific items up to a total dollar value equal to the sales of such items shipped from such inventories during the preceding month.

(4) No distributor may keep in his inventory, in his possession or under his control, for a period of more than thirty days, any used, traded-in, imperfect or condemned replacement parts which cannot be reconditioned, but must dispose of the same through the customary disposal or scrap channels.

(5) Replacement parts consigned to a distributor are not to be considered as part of the distributor's inventory.

(k) Emergency orders for replacement parts. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (j) above, a distributor may order and accept delivery of any replacement part which he does not have in stock when required for repair of a designated vehicle which cannot be operated without such part. In such emergency, to secure a replacement part under this paragraph (k), a distributor must file with his order to the producer for said part a certificate in the following form:

Certificate for Emergency Order

I hereby certify that the replacement part specified in the attached order is essential for the repair of the following vehicle, which cannot now be operated without such part:
Make: _____ Engine Number: _____
(signed) _____

A copy of each such certificate must be retained by the distributor issuing such certificate as a part of his records. A producer or other distributor to whom any such emergency order is submitted must give such order precedence in shipment over other orders not of an emergency nature.

(l) Certificate by distributor required. Whenever a distributor places an order for replacement parts, each order must be accompanied by a certificate in the following form:

Certificate of Compliance With Order L–158

In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(q) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth pertinent facts and the reasons such person considers that he is entitled to relief. In order to facilitate conversion to complete war production appeals may be made to increase or to transfer to other producers quotas established in paragraphs (e) and (f) above. PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[MPR 306]

CERTAIN PACKED FOOD PRODUCTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, that maximum prices be established for the sale of certain packed food products by processors.

The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and will promote production and distribution of certain packed food products for which maximum prices are established herein.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 306 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1341.551 to 1341.583, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1341.551 Scope, purpose and general information. (a) "Item covered by this regulation" means an item for which a maximum price is established by this regulation, or by any amendment or appendix hereto.

(b) Provisions contained in a particular appendix shall not apply to items covered by any other appendix, unless so provided.

(c) A provision contained in a particular appendix shall apply to the items covered by that appendix, even though it may be contrary to or inconsistent with another provision of this regulation.

(d) Every provision contained in this regulation, but not in any appendix, shall apply to items covered by any appendix to this regulation, to the extent that it is not contrary to or inconsistent with any provision in such appendix.

(e) "Processor" means the canner, manufacturer or packer, as the case may be, of any item covered by this regulation.

(f) The "effective date" of this regulation as to any item covered by this regulation shall be the effective date of this regulation or the effective date of any amendment adding such item to the items covered by this regulation, as the case may be, unless otherwise specified.

(g) The provisions of this regulation shall apply to items packed during the year 1943. If the major portion of any item was packed in 1943, the item shall be considered to be packed during the year 1943. Any canned citrus juices packed after November 1, 1942, shall be deemed to be packed during the year 1943.

(h) "Packed" means processed and enclosed in any container, whether or not hermetically sealed.

(i) In every case in which areas or regions are designated and maximum prices are established for any items on an area or regional basis, the maximum price for any item in such area or region shall apply to all of such item packed in such region or area.

(j) The purpose of this regulation is to establish maximum prices for items now designated or to be added from time to time. Maximum prices are established which take into consideration such factors as grades, sizes, regions, and container types. Additional factors may be specified for some items. Each factor specified shall be used in determining the maximum price. For example, if grades and regions are specified, the processor shall use the maximum price designated for the grade in question for the region in which he produces the item.

(k) "Packed fruits" includes any specified fruit or mixture of fruits and the juice or any mixture of juices of specified fruits, when processed and enclosed in containers, whether or not hermetically sealed.

(l) "Packed vegetables" includes any specified vegetable or mixture of vegetables and the juice or any mixture of juices of specified vegetables, when processed and enclosed in containers, whether or not hermetically sealed.

§ 1341.553 Items covered by this regulation and the maximum prices therefor. (a) The packed fruits covered by this regulation are as listed below and the maximum prices for each, f. o. b. processor's plant, shall be the prices set forth in the respective section and appendix listed for each.

Item	Section	Appendix
(1) Grapefruit juice	1341.583	A

§ 1341.555 Prohibition against dealing in items covered by this regulation above maximum prices. (a) On and after the effective date of this regulation, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no processor shall sell or deliver any item covered by this regulation at a price higher than the maximum price established herein; no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any item covered by this regulation from a processor at a price higher than the maximum prices established herein; and no processor or other person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1341.557 Maximum prices for commodities covered by this regulation in container types and sizes for which no specific maximum prices are named. (a) The maximum price, f. o. b. factory, for a commodity covered by this regulation packed in any container type or size for which no maximum price is established herein, shall be computed by the processor, as follows:

(1) Select the base price. The processor shall first select the same commodity in a container type and size for which a maximum price has been established by this regulation, even though he does not pack the commodity in that container type or size. The selected container type must be the most similar type to the one being priced. The size selected must be the nearest size to the one being priced and must be not more than 50% larger than the one being priced, or, if there is no such size, not more than 50% smaller than the one being priced. The maximum price established by this regulation for the commodity in the container type and size so selected is the processor's "base price."

(2) Deduct the container cost. The processor shall then deduct the direct cost of the container for the selected type and size, from such base price. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the processor's factory, of the container, cap, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include cost of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(3) Adjust for the difference in contents. The figure obtained by deducting the direct cost of the container shall then be adjusted by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the selected container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the container being priced.

(4) Add the new container cost. Next, the processor shall add to that adjusted figure the direct cost of the container of the type and size being priced. The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price for the commodity in the container type and size being priced.

§ 1341.559 Label and labor allowances. (a) Label allowances shall be made by processors in the following circumstances and in the following amounts:

(1) When the processor sells any item covered by this regulation, unlabeled in containers no greater in content than a No. 10 can, the processor shall reduce the maximum price established under this regulation by at least the sum of $1.50 per thousand, for the number of labels used.

(2) When any item covered by this regulation is sold unlabeled in containers not greater in content than a No. 10 can, the processor shall make a labor allowance by reducing the maximum price at least the sum of one cent per case of such containers, in addition to the allowance provided in paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(3) When the processor sells any item covered by this regulation in containers no greater in content than a No. 10 can, labeled with labels supplied to him by the purchaser, the processor shall reduce the maximum price established under this regulation by at least the sum of $1.50 per thousand for the number of labels used.

§ 1341.561 Maximum delivered prices by zone or area. (a) Any processor who sold or delivered any item covered by this regulation, packed by him during the calendar year 1941, on an established uniform delivered price basis by zone or area, may establish a maximum delivered price for a zone or area by adding to the maximum price, f. o. b. factory, established pursuant to this regulation, for the same size, grade and container type, the freight charge he added to his f. o. b. factory price during the calendar year 1941 in the same zone or area, plus 9% of that freight charge.

(b) If the processor sells any item covered by this regulation in a container type or size not previously sold by him on a delivered price basis, by zone or area, he may establish a maximum delivered price by zone or area as follows:

(1) He shall first select the most similar container type and size in which he previously sold the same product on a delivered basis by zone or area.

(2) He shall add an adjusted freight charge to the maximum price, f. o. b. factory, established pursuant to this regulation for the item being priced. The adjusted freight charge to be used shall be the freight charge as computed under paragraph (a) of this section for the selected container type and size, adjusted in the exact proportion to the difference in shipping weight. If for any reason, the product in the container type and size being priced will move under a different freight tariff classification, the processor shall figure his adjusted freight charges (by the same means of transportation to the same zone or area) on the basis of the new shipping weight, by adding or subtracting, as the case may be, the difference between the charge under the freight classification for the new container type and size and the charge under the freight classification for the selected container type and size. Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of the freight charge.

§ 1341.563 Specific authorization of maximum prices. (a) If the processor is unable to establish a maximum price pursuant to this regulation for any item covered by this regulation, his maximum price shall be a price authorized by the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Such authorization may be obtained on application to the Office of Price Administration. Such application shall set forth:

(1) A description of the item for which a maximum price is requested, including its grade, size, container type and any other relevant factors;

(2) A statement of the facts which differentiate the item for which such authorized price is requested from the most similar item for which he has established a maximum price pursuant to this regulation; and

(3) A statement of the reasons why he has been unable to establish a maximum price for such item pursuant to the provisions of this regulation.

§ 1341.565 Grades and labels. (a) The term "grade" when used in this regulation, means the grade as established and defined by the United States Department of Agriculture.[1]

(b) On and after the effective date of this regulation, labels shall be affixed to all items covered by this regulation before they are delivered to a purchaser, except that:

(1) A processor without affixing such labels, may make shipment or other delivery which is, in accordance with the practice of the trade, to be labeled in substantial quantity at an establishment other than that where originally processed or packed.

(c) Any person who purchases any item covered by this regulation from a processor, unlabeled, shall affix a label to such item before delivering it to any retail store, institutional, industrial or commercial user, ultimate consumer or any other person.

(d) The grade of the product shall be stated on each label which is affixed to any item covered by this regulation, unless the label was so affixed before the date this regulation takes effect.

(e) The grade of the item shall be shown by use of the United States Department of Agriculture grade designation by letter or descriptive term. For example, the grade of an item which conforms to the specifications for U. S. Grade A may be designated as "Grade A" or may be designated by the descriptive term "Fancy." The letters "U. S." shall not be used in connection with the grade designation unless the item has been packed under the continuous inspection of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(f) The descriptive language on the label of any item covered by this regulation shall not contain any word which is used by the United States Department of Agriculture to designate a grade, unless the item meets the grade specifications for the word so used. For example, an item which is standard in grade, shall not state that it is made of ripe, choice product.

(g) The label on every item covered by this regulation shall bear the statement of grade in type at least as large as the declaration of net contents shown on the label; except that

(1) Every item covered by this regulation, whether or not sold in interstate commerce, which fails to meet the standard of quality prescribed for such product by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or any regulation enacted thereunder, shall bear the general statement of substandard quality required by, or any alternative statement permitted by, that Act or any regulation enacted thereunder, in the manner therein provided.

[1] Copies may be obtained on request from the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

(h) In any one case in which standards or definitions are established by the United States Department of Agriculture or under authority of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act for sirup or for the packing medium for any item covered by this regulation, the label on such item shall show the sirup or packing medium in type at least as large as the declaration of net contents and the sirup or packing medium shall be described by the same description as that used in the applicable standard or definition.

(i) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to restrict or limit any of the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or any regulation enacted thereunder.

(j) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any products sold to the United States or any agency thereof.

§ 1341.567 Evasion. The maximum prices set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to items covered by this regulation, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1341.569 Records. (a) A processor who makes sales of any items covered by this regulation, after the effective date hereof, for which specific prices have been established by this regulation, shall make and shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, all records of the same kind as he customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for such items after the effective date of this regulation.

(b) A processor who makes sales of any items covered by this regulation, after the effective date hereof, for which maximum prices are to be computed by the processor in the manner directed by this regulation, shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, all his existing records which were the basis of computing such maximum prices and shall show the method used in such computations, in addition to the records required to be made and preserved by paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 1341.571 Enforcement. Person violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1341.575 Applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall apply to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia, except as otherwise provided for any item covered by this regulation.

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of any of the foregoing.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1341.578 Sales for export. The maximum price at which a person may export items covered by this regulation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1341.579 Applicability of other maximum price regulations. (a) The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of any other maximum price regulation insofar as they apply to processors of any item covered by this regulation.

§ 1341.581 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 306 (§§ 1341.551 to 1341.583, inclusive) shall become effective on January 28, 1943.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

ADJUSTED AND FIXED MARK-UP REGULATION FOR SALES OF CERTAIN FOOD PRODUCTS AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment No. 9 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 238 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

The table in Appendix A, § 1351.618, is amended so that the date opposite the food product "vegetables, canned" under the column entitled "Last date for determining new maximum prices under this regulation," shall read "March 10, 1943" instead of "January 31, 1943" and under the column entitled "Last date for filing new maximum prices with local war price and rationing board" shall read "March 20, 1943," instead of "February 10, 1943."

The table in Appendix B, § 1351.619, is amended so that the column entitled "Last date for filing new maximum prices with local war price and rationing board" is eliminated, and so that the dates opposite the food products "fruit, dried", "dry edible beans" and "lard" under the column entitled "Last date for determining new maximum prices under this regulation" shall read "March 10, 1943" instead of "January 31, 1943" as it now reads for "fruit, dried" and "dry edible beans," and instead of December 31, 1942, as it now reads for "lard."

Section 1351.608b is revoked, a new section § 1351.601a is added, §§ 1351.604, 1351.605, 1351.606 and 1351.611 are amended, § 1351.603 (1) and (2) are redesignated § 1351.603 (a) and (b) respectively and paragraph (b) is amended; all to read as set forth below:

A "retail route seller" is a person who customarily makes sales at retail from a truck or wagon operated by a driver-salesman over a regular route.

(b) The resulting amount shall be the retailer's maximum price for the particular item, but before making any sales at this new price he must write the price in ink on the invoice used in figuring it or on a copy of Form No. 338:1. All invoices used for calculating prices must be segregated or identified and preserved to be presented upon demand. For items in Appendix B the retailer is not required to record on or file Form No. 338:1 in Appendix C of this regulation but may record his prices on such form rather than his invoice.

§ 1351.604 How a retailer may recalculate a new maximum price if his "net cost" increases before the final date for calculating a maximum price. If, after calculating any maximum price a retailer, before the final date set opposite the name of the food product in Appendix A or B for the calculation of a maximum price, purchases a customary quantity of the same item from a customary supplier at a higher "net cost" than he used in calculating his maximum price, he may calculate a new maximum price on the basis of his new "net cost." Before making any sales at this new price, he must make out the proper record or report. The facts recorded or reported for the first new maximum price must not be changed, and the retailer should note on the form that a new maximum price has been calculated.

§ 1351.605 Maximum prices set under this regulation cannot be changed. A maximum price for any item of a food product calculated by a retailer under § 1351.602 or § 1351.603 of this regulation and properly reported or recorded shall be his maximum price for that item from that time forward. However, where a retailer recalculates his maximum price under § 1351.604 of this regulation, such recalculated price shall be his maximum price for that item from and after the date that the recalculated price is recorded.

§ 1351.606 Final dates for calculating and filing maximum prices— (a) Recording of maximum prices. A retailer must calculate and record all new maximum prices for any item of a food product on or before the date set opposite the name of that food product in Appendix A or B.

(b) Filing of maximum prices. Within ten days after the final date for the calculation of a maximum price for a food product listed in Appendix A of this regulation, a retailer must report all his new maximum prices to the War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration which has charge of the area in which his outlet is located on Form No. 338:1 (or a copy thereof) as set forth in Appendix C of this regulation. This form shall be signed and subscribed and sworn to before a notary or other proper official.

§ 1351.611 Records. (a) On the same day as a retailer calculates any new maximum price under this regulation and makes out his report or records his price upon the invoice he shall record on his base-period record, required in § 1499.11 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, any new maximum price. The record of the old maximum price shall not be destroyed. * * *

(b) In addition to the records required in § 1499.11 of the General Maximum Price Regulation or any other applicable price regulation, every retailer shall keep a copy of all Forms No. 338.1 which are filed in accordance with § 1351.606 (b) hereof or on which he has recorded information in accordance with § 1351.603 (2) of this regulation, and all invoices or other records showing how he calculated any maximum price under this regulation, which records shall be kept and made available for examination by the Office of Price Administration wherever the commodities are sold for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(i) Amendment No. 9 (§§ 1351.618, 1351.619, 1351.601a, 1351.603, 1351.604, 1351.605, 1351.606, 1351.608b, 1351.611 (a) and 1351.611 (b)) shall become effective on January 22, 1943.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

WEST COAST LOGS

The title, preamble, and §§ 1381.151 to 1381.160 of Maximum Price Regulation 161[1] are amended to read as set forth herein.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of west coast logs, as herein defined, which differ in certain respects, from those established by Maximum Price Regulation 161. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of west coast logs prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been prepared, issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 161 is hereby issued.

1381.164 Effective date.

§ 1381.151 Sale of west coast logs at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after January 22, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver west coast logs, and no person shall buy or receive west coast logs in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation; and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may be charged and paid.

§ 1381.152 What logs are covered. This regulation covers under the name of "west coast logs", all logs produced in those parts of Oregon, Washington, and Canada, west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains, of the following species: Douglas fir (Pseudotsuga taxifolia), western hemlock (Tsuga merstensiana, Tsuga heterophylla), Sitka spruce (Picea sitchensis), western white fir (Abies grandis, Abies amabilis, Abies magnifica, Abies lasiocarpa), noble fir (Abies nobilis), and western red cedar (Thuya plicata).

§ 1381.153 Explanation of maximum price tables—(a) Prices are delivered to towable waters. (1) Except in the Southern Oregon-Tillamook District, the full maximum prices in the Price Table may be charged and paid only when the logs are delivered to towable waters, dumped, boomed, rafted, and prepared for towing at the seller's expense.

If any of these services are not performed at the seller's expense, its cost must be deducted from the maximum prices. "Towable waters" means any year-round towable waters along the coast of Oregon, Puget Sound, Willapa Bay, Grays Harbor, Columbia River, and Willamette River. The Willamette River shall be considered towable from its mouth to a point one mile south of Albany, Oregon.

(2) In the Southern Oregon-Tillamook District, the logs may be delivered in that District either (i) in towable waters in the manner described in the preceding paragraph, (ii) loaded on common carrier rail cars, or (iii) to a mill, dumped in the mill pond.

(b) Deduction for non-delivery to towable waters. If the buyer does not take delivery in towable waters, delivery may be made to common carrier railhead or at the buyer's mill, and the maximum price shall be determined as follows:

(1) From the maximum prices in the tables in the next section subtract the costs, including transportation, booming and rafting charges, which would have been incurred if the logs had moved to the towable waters of the particular district.

(2) Then add the actual cost of delivering to the destination specified by the buyer, including cost of loading on rail cars or dumping in mill pond.

For example: Assume that the buyer takes delivery at a railhead, and that it would have cost $2.00 to transport the logs to towable waters and $0.75 for booming and rafting. Assume the actual cost of delivering the logs to the railhead to be $1.00 for trucking and $1.00 for loading on cars. The ceiling price would then be $38.50 less $2.75, plus, $2.00, or $37.75. The intent of this provision is that the log seller should get the same spartree realization no matter where he delivers the logs in a particular district. If he finds that within the district it is more profitable to sell to one buyer than another, he has wrongly applied this section.

(c) Scaling expense. The entire cost of scaling and grading is included in the maximum prices. Therefore, this cost may not be added to the maximum prices.

(d) Credit practices and cash discounts. Changing credit practices from what they were in October, 1941, is specifically prohibited. This includes decreasing credit periods, or making greater charges for extension of credit.

If the sale is on cash terms, the maximum price must be reduced by the same amount which would have been allowed for similar cash terms on October 1, 1941. For example, if the maximum price without cash discount is $30.00, and if this seller's cash discount on October 1, 1941, was 1%, the maximum price now for sales on similar cash terms is $29.70.

(e) Explanation of districts. (1) Puget Sound district means the part of Washington west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains, except Grays Harbor, Pacific, Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark and Skamania Counties.

(2) Willapa Bay-Grays Harbor district means the counties of Grays Harbor and Pacific, in Washington.

(3) Columbia River district means the counties of Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark and Skamania in Washington, and all of Oregon west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains and North of the northern boundary of Lane County, except Lincoln and Tillamook Counties.

(4) Southern Oregon-Tillamook district means Lincoln and Tillamook Counties, Oregon and that part of Oregon west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains and south of the northern boundary of Lane County.

(f) Sale into other districts. When logs are sold out of one district for delivery in another district, the maximum prices and the grades are those of the district in which the buyer takes delivery of the logs.

§ 1381.154 Tables of maximum prices for west coast logs. The maximum delivered prices per 1,000 ft. log scale for west coast logs shall be as follows:

§ 1381.155 Long and short lengths—(a) Special long lengths. For logs cut to special lengths over 41 feet (other than the "Douglas fir special logs" listed in the price table) for a mill which has an order for poles or piling, long timbers or lumber, or for any other specific purpose actually requiring long logs, that mill may make application to the state office of the Office of Price Administration at Portland, Oregon, for authority to pay additions over the prices established in this revised regulation, for the number of logs required to fill the particular order. The state office at Portland, Oregon, may grant or deny such applications by letter or telegram.

(b) Short lengths. For blocks in lengths of less than 12 feet, deduct $5.00 per 1,000 ft. log scale from the prices in the price tables in § 1381.154 above:

§ 1381.156 The "overtime addition." The following additions may be made by any seller to the maximum price of any west coast logs produced by any company whose entire logging operation is operated the following number of hours per week in actual production:

Hours of operation:	Addition per M ft. l. s.
48 to 53 hours	$1.00
54 to 59 hours	1.50
60 hours or more	2.00

This addition is subject to all of the following conditions and provisions:

(a) Application. Any person intending to claim the overtime addition must first file a statement with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., that the company regularly maintains the required number of hours in all its logging operations. On and after the effective date of the order granting the right to make the addition, the person may add the amount authorized to the maximum prices otherwise established by the Regulation. The addition may be made only so long as the required number of hours is worked, unless specific exceptions have been granted under paragraph (f) below. The right to make the addition may be terminated at any time either for failure to maintain the required number of hours or failure to observe any other provision of this regulation. For example, the right may be withdrawn at any time from any company or person which permits false grading and scaling to be practiced or fails to submit reports. The right shall terminate from the effective date specified in the order.

(b) Report. Not later than the 15th of every month in which the overtime addition is claimed, the company must file a statement with the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing the following:

(1) A statement that the required hours prevailed during the preceding month;

(2) The company's production figures by log scale, by species, for the month;

(3) The amount of logs sold during the month on which the overtime addition was claimed, by species, both log scale and total value.

(4) The amount of logs, log scale, by species, used in the seller's own mill.

(c) Monthly average. The requirement relating to weekly hours of production will be considered satisfied if at the end of each monthly period the average weekly hours are equal or above the required number of hours; that is, if the total number of hours for the month divided by the number of weeks or fractions thereof results in a figure equal to or above the required number of weekly hours.

(d) Operation requirement. Only the hours devoted to actual log production may be counted for purposes of this section. Actual log production does not include such operations as maintenance and repair work, road building, and similar operations incidental to logging. Every camp and logging side operated by that company must maintain the required number of hours.

(e) Invoices. The overtime addition must be shown as a separate charge on all invoices, and labeled "overtime addition." The invoice must further show the name and address of the company producing the logs. Copies of these invoices shall be preserved by the company and shall, if required, be submitted to the Office of Price Administration.

(f) Exceptions from requirement. The Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., may by letter or telegram grant exceptions from the strict requirements of this section on the "overtime addition" when a company which has previously had its name published as an overtime company, and which is in good faith attempting to operate on a regular overtime basis, finds that in a particular month it is impossible for particular sides or its entire operation to meet the requirements, due to weather conditions or other circumstances beyond its control. The request for such an exception must show not that regular overtime operation would have been inconvenient or costly by peacetime standards, but that it was impossible in the light of the standards of operation demanded by wartime conditions and in the light of the critical lumber requirements of the military services.

§ 1381.157 Resale under allocation. In the case of resale by mills or other users of west coast logs pursuant to the direction of the War Production Board (or any other Government Agency) requiring the allocation or requisitioning of the logs, the maximum price shall be the sum of the following:

(a) Maximum delivered price to the first buyer as established by this regulation.

(b) Actual cost of transportation which has been incurred from the point at which delivered price was computed; sorting, booming, rafting, scaling, reloading, and such other direct costs incurred by the first buyer as are necessary to the proper preparation of the logs for resale; and

(c) Any overtime addition actually paid by the first buyer to a seller who has been permitted to charge the overtime addition.

The resulting maximum price is f. o. b. the reseller's mill or plant, and the second buyer shall bear the cost of transporting the logs to his own plant.

The additions apply only when the resale takes place in the course of a going business, and when the reseller expects to buy other logs to replace those resold. If, however, this is not the case, as where a stock of logs is sold by a mill going out of business, the transaction is not subject to this regulation but to Maximum Price Regulation 204, Idle or Frozen Material Sold Under Priorities Regulation No. 13.[3]

§ 1381.158 Grading and scaling. (a) On and after February 22, 1943, no one may sell or buy west coast logs unless the logs have been graded and scaled in accordance with the following rules.

(1) All west coast logs must be graded and scaled either by (i) graders and scalers who have been approved by the Office of Price Administration, or (ii) by one of the following established grading and scaling bureaus:

Puget Sound Log Scaling and Grading Bureau.

Columbia River Log Scaling and Grading Bureau.

Tillamook County Log Scaling and Grading Bureau.

Grays Harbor Log Scaling and Grading Bureau.

(2) Graders and scalers who are approved by the Office of Price Administration must use the grading and scaling rules of the above named four bureaus, except that hemlock and noble fir aircraft grades are specifically defined as follows:

"Aircraft grade" western hemlock or noble fir log, means a log of those species which is selected from a suitable for peeling, No. 1 or No. 2 grade, and which:

(i) Is not less than 26 inches top diameter and not less than 12 feet long if hemlock, or 16 feet feet long if noble fir;

(ii) Is of straight grain so that the majority of the clear lumber can be produced with a slope of grain not greater than 1 in 15;

(iii) Is free of deep back seams or other serious defects within the clear portion of the log;

(iv) Has reasonably uniform annual rings, not fewer than 8 to the inch within the clear portion of the log;

(v) Is of a character which will produce at least 50 percent No. 2 clear and better, or B and better clear lumber.

(b) Any person desiring to be approved as a scaler and grader by the

[3] 7 F.R. 6479, 7366, 8948.

Office of Price Administration shall file application with the Portland, Oregon, office of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) The above named scaling and grading bureaus shall not change the rules which they had in effect on the effective date of this revised regulation, without first obtaining the specific approval of the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration.

(d) "Log scale" means the merchantable lumber content of a log calculated according to the Revised Scribner Decimal C Log Rule or the Spaulding Log Rule. When waste or defect is found in any log, a deduction in scale shall be made by the scaler which, in his judgment, will sufficiently eliminate the waste. If no waste or defect is found, the log shall be scaled at its full diameter inside the bark, and at its full length with necessary trim. All deductions shall be made in inches in diameter, and feet in length.

§ 1381.159 Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which obtains the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright overceiling price. This applies to the use of commissions, services, grading and scaling manipulations, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings and the like.

(b) Adjustable pricing. A price may not be made adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the logs has been completed, but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

§ 1381.160 Records—(a) All sellers and buyers. All sellers of west coast logs must keep all scaling certificates or statements, and invoices which will show a complete description of the logs sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of sale, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the seller's name and address. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought 100,000 ft., log scale, or more, of west coast logs. They must be kept for two years, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Graders and scalers. All original scale records shall show gross and net measurements in diameter and length, and shall designate the type of defect by appropriate symbols. All graders and scalers must keep these original records for two years. This requirement shall not apply to the following types of logs of the species indicated:

Douglas fir: Pee wee sawmill logs.
Western red cedar logs.
Western white fir: No. 2, No. 3 and camp run (ungraded) logs.
Noble fir, No. 2, No. 3, and camp run (ungraded) logs.
Western hemlock: No. 2, No. 3 and camp run (ungraded) logs.
Sitka spruce, No. 3 and camp run (ungraded) logs.

§ 1381.161 Petitions for amendment and adjustment—(a) Government contracts. (1) Any person who has made or intends to make a Government contract and who thinks that a maximum price in this regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of any west coast logs which are essential to the war program and which are or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6* issued by the Office of Price Administration.

As soon as the application is filed, contracts, deliveries, and payment may be made at the requested price subject to refund if the requested price is disapproved or lowered. The seller must tell the buyer that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

(2) The term "Government contracts" is used here to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the Government, or any governmental agency, of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States". It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1381.162 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 161 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 161 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, are urged to communicate with the nearest District, State, or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1381.163 Definition. The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group, their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of their political subdivisions; or any agency of any of the foregoing.

§ 1381.164 Effective date. (a) This Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 161 (§§ 1381.151 to 1381.164, inclusive) shall become effective January 22, 1943.

(b) If logs have been received before January 22, 1943, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the buyer, that shipment is not subject to this revised regulation. It remains subject to the earlier version of this regulation which was in effect at the time the logs were turned over to the carrier.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 94 to Supp. Reg. 14 * to GMPR *]

CALIFORNIA GRAPE WINE AND SPIRITS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subparagraph (40) of paragraph (a) of § 1499.72 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services, and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services, and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter set forth.

* * * * *

(40) California grape wine and California grape spirits—(i) Vintners' maximum prices for California grape wine—(a) Base maximum price; wine in carload lots. On and after November 1, 1942 every vintner's base maximum price for California grape wine in bulk in carload lots shall be as follows:

	Cents per gallon naked f.o.b winery (cents)
Dessert wine	39
Table wine	21½

Provided, That if the maximum price established for any vintner under § 1499.2 for dessert wine or for table wine in bulk in carload lots is higher than the base maximum price set forth above, such vintner's base maximum price for such dessert or table wine shall be the maximum price established therefor under § 1499.2. Vintners' customary price differentials charged in March 1942 for bulk California grape wine in barrels or other containers larger than 4½ gallons capacity but less than a carload lot may be charged for the same container size after November 1, 1942.

(b) Permitted increase. On and after November 1, 1942, any vintner may add to the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2 or to his base maximum prices for California grape wine established under (a), a permitted increase per gallon for dessert wine and for table wine computed as hereinafter prescribed. To compute his permitted increase per gallon, each vintner shall:

(1) Figure the weighted average price per ton paid by him during the 1941 season for grapes to be crushed into California grape wine.

(2) Figure the weighted average price per ton paid or contracted to be paid by him in good faith during the 1942 season up to and including October 27, 1942 for grapes to be crushed into California grape wine.

(3) Subtract the price computed under (1) from the price computed under (2). The result of the subtraction, or $8.30, whichever is the lower, shall be the vintner's allowable grape cost increase. In the case of a growers' cooperative operating a winery, and in the case of a vintner who grows more than 50% of the grapes crushed and to be crushed by him, the allowable grape cost increase shall be $8.30.

(4) Figure the number of tons of grapes acquired or contracted to be acquired by him in good faith during the 1942 season up to and including October 27, 1942, for crushing into wine, and make a bona fide estimate of the number of additional tons of grapes he will acquire during the remainder of the 1942 season for crushing into wine. The number of tons of grapes acquired or contracted to be acquired by him in good faith and the estimated number of additional tons of grapes to be acquired shall be added together, and the total shall be the vintner's estimated 1942 grape tonnage.

(5) Divide his estimated 1942 grape tonnage computed under (4) into two parts corresponding to the portions of his estimated 1942 grape tonnage to be crushed into dessert wine and into table wine.

(6) Multiply his allowable grape cost increase figured under (3) by his estimated 1942 grape tonnage for dessert wine and for table wine figured under (5).

(7) Determine his total estimated 1942 crush by figuring his estimated 1942 grape tonnage as converted into wine on the basis of 80 gallons of dessert wine produced from each ton of grapes to be crushed for that purpose, and 160 gallons of table wine produced from each ton of grapes to be crushed for that purpose. The resulting figures will be the vintner's estimated 1942 crush of dessert wine and his estimated 1942 crush of table wine respectively.

(8) Multiply his estimated 1942 crush of dessert wine by 1.7 cents. Multiply his estimated 1942 crush of table wine by 0.85 cent.

(9) Add the dollar amount computed under (6) for dessert wine to the dollar amount computed under (8) for dessert wine. Add the dollar amount computed under (6) for table wine to the dollar amount computed under (8) for table wine. The totals are respectively the vintner's total dollar allowance for dessert wine and his total dollar allowance for table wine.

(10) Figure in gallons his total inventory of dessert wine and of table wine respectively as of October 27, 1942 (including any portion of his 1942 crush then on hand) and add thereto his estimated 1942 crush of dessert wine and of table wine respectively computed under (7). The sum of his total inventory of dessert wine and his estimated 1942 crush of dessert wine shall be his total gallonage of dessert wine. The sum of his total inventory of table wine and his estimated 1942 crush of table wine shall be his total gallonage of table wine.

(11) Divide his total dollar allowance for dessert wine computed under (9) by his total gallonage of dessert wine computed under (10). Divide his total dollar allowance for table wine computed under (9) by his total gallonage of table wine computed under (10). The resulting figures are the vintner's permitted increases per gallon for dessert wine and for table wine respectively: Provided, That in the case of concentrates and condensed grape must, the permitted increase per gallon shall be increased in proportion to the ratio of concentration: And provided further, That a vintner's permitted increase per gallon for California light sweet wine shall not exceed 90% of his permitted increase for dessert wine.

(c) Taxes; permitted increase. Any vintner may, at any time, add to the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2 or to his base maximum prices for California grape wine the amount of any new tax, or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof, imposed upon the vintner after March 31, 1942 by any statute of the United States, or by any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof:

Provided, That such amount has actually been paid or has accrued and will be payable by the vintner to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor with respect to the particular kind and quantity of California grape wine in question.

(ii) Bottlers' maximum prices for California grape wine—(a) Base maximum prices. On and after November 1, 1942, every bottler's base maximum prices for California grape wine shall be the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2.

(b) Permitted increase. On and after November 1, 1942, any bottler may add to the base maximum prices established for him under (a) a permitted increase for any brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine computed as hereinafter set forth. To compute his permitted increase, each bottler shall:

(2) Figure his weighted average cost per gallon on his first purchase of the same type and quality of California grape wine at a price adjusted by the vintner under (i) hereof. Cost per gallon shall be figured on a naked f. o. b. winery basis in the same containers used in the computation under (1).

(3) Subtract the costs computed under (1) from the corresponding costs computed under (2). The results of the subtractions shall be the bottler's initial permitted increase per gallon for each type and quality of California grape wine.

(4) Figure his weighted average cost per gallon for the quantity of each type and quality of California grape wine purchased by him during every calendar month after his first purchase at prices adjusted by the vintner under (i) hereof, or during his customary fiscal month ending nearest the end of such calendar months. Cost per gallon shall be figured on a naked f. o. b. winery basis in the same containers as those used in the computation under (1).

(5) Subtract the costs computed under (1) for March 1942, from the corresponding costs computed for each calendar or fiscal month under (4). The results of the subtraction shall be the bottler's permitted increase per gallon for each brand, type, and quality of California grape wine sold by him in the next calendar or fiscal month.

(6) Determine his permitted increase per container, case or other unit of sale for each brand, type and quality of California grape wine by converting his permitted increase per gallon computed under (3) or (5) into the permitted increase applicable to such container, case or other unit of sale according to the number of gallons or fractional gallons of each brand, type and quality of California grape wine therein.

(7) No bottler may increase his previous month's permitted increase per gallon for any brand, type, or quality of California grape wine unless

(i) His permitted increase per gallon therefor, computed under (5) for a subsequent calendar or fiscal month, exceeds his previous month's permitted increase per gallon therefor by two or more cents per gallon; and

(ii) The quantity of the particular brand, type or quality of California grape wine upon which his permitted increase per gallon is computed under (5) is at least equal to the monthly average of his purchases of such California grape wine during the preceding twelve calendar or fiscal months.

(8) No bottler shall be required to decrease his previous month's permitted increase per gallon for any brand, type, or quality of California grape wine unless

(i) His permitted increase per gallon therefor, computed under (5) for a subsequent calendar or fiscal month, is less than his previous month's permitted increase per gallon therefor by two or more cents per gallon: Provided, That no bottler shall be required to reduce his maximum price for a particular brand, type or quality of California grape wine below his base maximum price therefor established under (a) plus any increase in such base maximum price permitted under (c).

(c) Taxes; permitted increase. (1) Any bottler may, at any time, add to his base maximum prices for California grape wine the amount of any new tax, or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof imposed upon the bottler after March 31, 1942, by any statute of the United States or any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof: Provided, That such amount has actually been paid or has accrued and will be payable by the bottler to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor with respect to the particular kind and quantity of California grape wine in question. After any bottler has adjusted his maximum prices to include a permitted increase under (ii) (b), the provisions of this inferior subdivision shall no longer apply to the amount of the Federal floor stocks tax imposed in connection with the increase in Federal Excise Tax effective November 1, 1942.

(2) The bottler shall convert the permitted increase with respect to taxes into a permitted increase per container, case, or other unit of sale on the basis of the number of gallons or fractional gallon of each brand, type and quality of the California grape wine contained in the container, case, or other unit of sale in question.

(d) Notification. Commencing with his first sale and monthly thereafter, in the event of an adjustment of his maximum prices, as provided in (b) and (c), each bottler shall

(1) Figure the permitted increases under (b) and (c) for each brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine sold without adjusting fractional parts of a cent. If the total of such permitted increases includes the fractional part of a cent, the total shall be adjusted to the nearest higher full cent if the fraction is ½ cent or more, or to the nearest lower full cent, if the fraction is less than ½ cent.

(2) Notify purchasers in wirting as follows:

(i) If the purchaser is a wholesaler the bottler shall notify him, at or before the first delivery of each brand, type, and quality of California grape wine to such wholesaler, of the total permitted increase per container, case or unit of sale figured under (ii) (d) (1) for each such brand, type, and quality of California grape wine.

(ii) If the purchaser is a retailer the bottler shall confirm any sales or deliveries of California grape wine made to the retailer after November 1, 1942 and prior to November 9, 1942 by a written statement as follows, and shall supply the retailer, commencing November 9, 1942, on or before the bottler's first subsequent delivery of California grape wine, with a written statement as follows:

The Office of Price Administration has authorized us to increase our March 1942 maximum prices for California grape wine to reflect increases in the Federal Excise Tax effective in November 1942 and vintners' permitted increases. Your new Office of Price Administration ceiling price for each type of California grape wine listed in Tables Nos. I, II, III, IV, V, VI, and VII is your March 1942 ceiling price plus the "permitted increase" for each container size. These "permitted increases" to your ceiling prices include all Federal Excise Taxes effective on November 1, 1942. You may add no more. The Office of Price Administration requires you to keep this notice for examination.

(iii) Notice given by a bottler to a retailer prior to January 28, 1943, in accordance with Amendment 54[7] to Supplementary Regulation 14, shall be deemed compliance with the provisions of (ii) (d) (2) (ii) with respect to the kinds of California grape wine listed in Tables VI and VII. Every bottler shall, however, give each retailer notice as provided in (ii) (d) (2) (ii) with respect to each kind of California grape wine listed in Tables I, II, III, IV, and V, at or before his first delivery thereof to such retailers after January 27, 1943.

(e) No bottler is required to give a notice to any purchaser of any brand, type, quality or container size of California grape wine after one notice to such purchaser of the bottler's maximum price for such brand, type, quality, and container size as increased under (ii) (b) and/or (ii) (c): Provided, That if such bottler's maximum price for any brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine is subsequently adjusted upward or downward under (ii) (b) or (ii) (c), a similar notice covering such adjustment shall be given by the bottler to each purchaser other than a retailer.

(iii) Wholesalers' maximum prices for California grape wine—(a) Base maximum price. On and after November 1, 1942 every wholesaler's base maximum prices for California grape wine shall be the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2.

(b) Permitted increase; wines in bulk. On and after November 1, 1942 any wholesaler may add to the base maximum prices established for him under (a) for any type and quality of California grape wine in bulk a permitted increase computed as hereinafter set forth. To compute his permitted increase each wholesaler shall:

(1) Figure his weighted average cost per gallon for the quantity of each type and quality of California grape wine in bulk sold by him during March 1942 or during his customary fiscal month ending nearest March 31, 1942. Cost per gallon shall be figured on a naked f. o. b. winery basis.

(2) Figure his weighted average cost per gallon of his first purchase of the same type and quality of California grape wine in bulk at a price adjusted by the vintner under (i) hereof. Such average cost shall be figured on a naked f. o. b. winery basis in the same containers used as in the computation under (1).

(3) Subtract the costs computed under (1) from the corresponding costs computed under (2). The results of the subtractions shall be the wholesaler's initial permitted increase per gallon for the quantity of each type and quality of California grape wine in bulk.

(4) Figure his weighted average cost per gallon for the quantity of each type and quality of California grape wine in bulk purchased by him during every calendar month after his first purchase at prices adjusted by the vintner under (i) hereof, or during his customary fiscal month ending nearest the end of such calendar month. Cost per gallon shall be figured on a naked f. o. b. winery basis in the same containers as used in the computation under (1).

(5) Subtract the costs computed under (1) from the corresponding costs computed for each calendar or fiscal month under (4). The results of the subtraction shall be the wholesaler's permitted increase per gallon for each brand, type and quality of California grape wine in bulk sold by him in the following calendar or fiscal month.

(c) Permitted increase; wines other than bulk. On and after November 1, 1942 upon receipt of notification given by a bottler pursuant to (ii) (d) (2) (i), any wholesaler may add to the base maximum price established for him under (iii) (a) for any brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine, the permitted increase stated in said notice and applicable to the brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine in question. Upon receipt of a subsequent notice from the bottler, raising or lowering the permitted increase applicable to any brand, type, quality or container size of California grape wine, the wholesaler may adjust his permitted increase upward and shall adjust his permitted increase downward in accordance with said notice. Such adjustments in the wholesaler's permitted increase shall not apply to his inventory at the date of receipt of the notice.

(d) Taxes; permitted increase. Any wholesaler may at any time add to his base maximum prices for California grape wine the amount of any new tax or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof, imposed upon the wholesaler after March 31, 1942 by any statute of the United States or any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof: Provided, That such amount has actually been paid or has accrued and will be payable by the wholesaler to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor with respect to the particular kind and quantity of California grape wine in question. The wholesaler shall add the permitted increase for taxes to his maximum prices for the particular quantity of the brand, type, quality and container size on the basis of the number of gallons or fractional gallon of California grape wine in the particular container, case or unit of sale.

(1) Figure the total permitted increases under (iii) (b) or (iii) (c) and (iii) (d) for each brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine without adjusting fractional parts of a cent. If the total of such permitted increases includes the fractional part of a cent the total shall be adjusted to the nearest higher full cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more or to the nearest lower full cent if the fraction is less than one-half cent.

(2) Confirm any sales or deliveries of any brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine made to any purchaser after November 1, 1942 and before November 9, 1942 by a written statement and supply the purchaser, commencing November 9, 1942, on or before the wholesaler's first subsequent delivery of any California grape wine to such purchaser, with a written statement in the manner and form provided in (ii) (d) (2) (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) as if such wholesaler were a bottler.

(3) No wholesaler is required to give a notice to any purchaser of any brand, type, quality or container size of California grape wine after one notice to such purchaser of the wholesaler's maximum price for such brand, type, quality or container size as increased under (iii) (b) and/or (iii) (c) and (d): Provided, That if such wholesaler's maximum price for any brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine is subsequently adjusted upward or downward under (iii) (b) and/or (iii) (c) and (d), a similar notice covering such adjustment shall be given by the wholesaler to each purchaser other than a retailer.

(f) Wholesalers' maximum prices for concentrates and condensed grape must shall be computed according to the ratio of concentration and in the same manner as herein provided for their maximum prices of California grape wine.

(iv) Packers' maximum prices for California grape wine—(a) Base maximum prices. On and after November 1, 1942 every packer's base maximum prices for California grape wine shall be the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2.

(b) Permitted increase—(1) Sales of bulk wine in original container or car. On and after November 1, 1942 any packer may add to the base maximum price established for him under (a) a permitted increase for any kind and quality of California grape wine sold by him in the container or car in which it was received. Such permitted increase shall be computed in accordance with the provisions under (iii) (b) and (iii) (d) as if such packer were a wholesaler.

(2) Sales of wine repacked. On and after November 1, 1942, any packer may add to the base maximum price established for him under (a) a permitted increase for any brand, type and quality of California grape wine sold by him otherwise than in the container or car in which it was received. Such permitted increase shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of (ii) (b) and (ii) (c) as if such packer were a bottler.

(c) Taxes; permitted increase. Any packer may at any time add to his base maximum prices for California grape wine the amount of any new tax or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof, imposed upon the packer after March 31, 1942 by any statute of the United States or any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof: Provided, That such amount has actually been paid, or has accrued and will be payable by the packer to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor with respect to the particular kind and quantity of California grape wine in question. The packer shall add the permitted increase for taxes to his maximum prices for the particular quantity of the brand, type, quality and container size on the basis of the number of gallons or fractional gallons of California grape wine in the particular container, case or unit of sale.

(d) Notification. When a packer sells any quantity of any brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine at a price in excess of the base maximum price established for him under (iv) (a) he shall:

(1) Figure the total permitted increase under (iv) (b) and/or (iv) (c) for each brand, type and quality of California grape wine in the particular container, case or unit of sale. If the resulting total includes the fractional part of a cent that total shall be adjusted to the nearest higher full cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more or to the nearest lower full cent if the fraction is less than one-half cent.

(2) Notify purchasers in writing as if the packer were a bottler, as follows:

(i) If the purchaser is a wholesaler, the packer shall notify him in the manner and form provided in (ii) (d) (2((i),

(ii) If the purchaser is a retailer, the packer shall notify him in the manner and form provided in (ii) (d) (2) (ii) and (iii).

(iii) Each packer shall give subsequent notices to purchasers in the manner and form, and under the circumstances provided in (ii) (d) (2) (iv).

(e) Packers' maximum prices for concentrates and condensed grape must shall be computed according to the ratio of concentration and in the same manner as herein provided for their maximum prices for California grape wine.

(v) Retailers' maximum prices for California grape wine. (a) On and after November 1, 1942 any retailer may add to the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2 for any brand, type, quality and container size of California grape wine a permitted increase per bottle as follows:

Permitted increases in container sizes larger than one gallon shall be proportionate to the permitted increase for one gallon.

(b) Taxes; permitted increase. Any retailer may at any time add to his base maximum prices for California grape wine established under (v) (a) the amount of any new tax or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof imposed upon him after March 31, 1942 by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof: Provided, That such amount has actually been paid or has accrued and will be payable by the retailer to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor with respect to the particular kind and quantity of California grape wine in question. If the permitted increase for new or existing taxes computed on the quantity of California grape wine in the particular container, case or unit of sale results in a figure including the fractional part of a cent, the retailer shall adjust his maximum price to the nearest higher full cent if the fraction is one-half cent or over, or to the nearest lower full cent if the fraction is under one-half cent. The provisions of this inferior subdivision (b) shall not apply to the increases in the Federal Excise Tax which became effective November 1, 1942 as allowance for such tax increases is included in the increase of retail prices provided in Table VIII.

(vi) Distillers' maximum prices for California grape spirits—(a) Base maximum prices On and after November 1, 1942 every distiller's base maximum prices for California grape spirits shall be the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2.

(b) Permitted increase. On and after November 1, 1942 any distiller may add to his base maximum prices for California grape spirits a permitted increase per proof gallon computed as hereinafter set forth. To compute his permitted increase each distiller shall:

(2) Figure the weighted average price per ton paid or contracted to be paid by him in good faith during the 1942 season up to and including October 27, 1942 for grapes to be crushed into California grape spirits.

(3) Subtract the price computed under (1) from the price computed under (2). The result of this subtraction or $8.30, whichever is lower, shall be the distiller's allowable grape cost increase. In the case of a growers' cooperative operating a winery and in the case of a distiller who grows more than 50 percent of the grapes crushed and to be crushed by him, the allowable grape cost increase shall be $8.30.

(4) Figure the number of tons of grapes acquired or contracted to be acquired by him in good faith during the 1942 season up to and including October 27, 1942 for crushing into grape spirits and make a bona fide estimate of the number of additional tons of grapes he will acquire during the remainder of the 1942 season for crushing into grape spirits. The number of tons of grapes acquired or contracted to be acquired by him in good faith and the estimated number of additional tons of grapes to be acquired shall be added together and the total shall be the distiller's estimated 1942 grape tonnage.

(6) Determine his estimated 1942 crush by figuring his estimated 1942 grape tonnage as converted into grape spirits on the basis of 40 proof gallons of grape spirits produced from each ton of grapes to be crushed for that purpose.

(7) Multiply the number of proof gallons figured under (6) by 1½ cents per proof gallon.

(8) Add the dollar amount computed under (5) to the dollar amount computed under (7). The result will be the distiller's total dollar allowance for California grape spirits.

(9) Divide his total dollar allowance computed under (8) by his estimated 1942 crush computed under (6). The result will be the distiller's permitted increase per proof gallon.

(c) Taxes; permitted increase. Any distiller may at any time add to his base maximum prices for California grape spirits the amount of any new tax or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof imposed upon the distiller after March 31, 1942 by any statute of the United States or by any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof: Provided, That such amount has actually been paid or has accrued and will be payable by the distiller to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor with respect to the particular kind and quantity of California grape spirits in question.

(1) Figure the total permitted increase per proof gallon under (b) and (c) for each type, quality and container size of California grape spirits sold. No adjustments of fractional parts of a cent shall be made in figuring a distiller's permitted increase hereunder.

(2) Notify the purchaser at or before the first delivery of each type, quality and container size of California grape spirits to such purchaser, of the total permitted increase per container figured under (vi) (d) (1) for each such type, quality and container size.

(3) No distiller is required to give a notice to any purchaser of any type, quality or container size of California grape spirits after one notice to such purchaser of the distiller's maximum price for such type, quality and container size as increased under (vi) (b) and/or (vi) (c): Provided, That if such distiller's maximum price for any type, quality and container size of California grape spirits is subsequently adjusted under (vi) (c) a similar notice covering such adjustment shall be given by the distiller to such purchaser.

(vii) Wholesalers' maximum prices for California grape spirits—(a) Base maximum prices. On and after November 1, 1942 every wholesaler's base maximum prices for California grape spirits shall be the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2.

(b) Permitted increase. On and after November 1, 1942 upon receipt of notification given by a distiller pursuant to (vi) (d) (2), any wholesaler may add to the base maximum price established for him under (vii) (a) for any brand, type, quality and container size of California grape spirits the permitted increase stated in said notice and applicable to the type, quality and container size of California grape spirits in question. Upon receipt of a subsequent notice from the distiller adjusting the permitted increase applicable to any brand, type, quality or container size of California grape spirits, the wholesaler may adjust his permitted increase in accordance with said notice. Such adjustments in the wholesaler's permitted increase shall not apply to his inventory at the date of receipt of the notice.

(c) Taxes; permitted increase. Any wholesaler may at any time add to his base maximum prices for California grape spirits the amount of any new tax or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof, imposed upon the wholesaler after March 31, 1942 by any statute of the United States or any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof: Provided, That such amount has actually been paid or has accrued and will be payable by the wholesaler to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor with respect to the particular kind and quantity of California grape spirits in question. The wholesaler shall add the permitted increase for taxes to his maximum prices for the particular quantity of the type, quality and container size on the basis of the number of proof gallons of California grape spirits in the particular container or unit of sale.

(1) Figure the total permitted increases under (vii) (b) and (vii) (c) for each type, quality and container size of California grape spirits. If the total of these permitted increases includes the fractional part of a cent the total shall be adjusted to the nearest higher full cent if the fraction is ½ cent or more, or to the nearest lower full cent if the fraction is less than ½ cent.

(2) Confirm any sales or deliveries of any type, quality and container size of California grape spirits made to any purchaser after November 1, 1942 and before November 9, 1942 by a written statement and supply the purchaser commencing November 9, 1942 on or before the wholesaler's first subsequent delivery of any California grape spirits to such purchaser, with a written statement specifying the amount of the wholesaler's permitted increases for the particular type, quality and container size of California grape spirits sold.

(3) No wholesaler is required to give notice to any purchaser of any type, quality or container size of California grape spirits after one notice to such purchaser of the wholesaler's maximum price for such type, quality and container size as increased under (vii) (b) and/or (vii) (c): Provided, That if such wholesaler's maximum price for any type, quality and container size of California grape spirits is subsequently adjusted under (vii) (c), a similar notice covering such adjustment shall be given by the wholesaler to each purchaser.

(viii) Records and reports. (a) Each vintner of California grape wine and each distiller of California grape spirits shall preserve for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect all his existing records relating to

ROCKWOOD AND CO.

Maximum prices authorized under § 1499.18 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation—Order No. 176—Docket No. GF3-2770.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1077 Adjustment of maximum prices through increase in price and decrease in weight of "Pecan Feast" manufactured and sold by Rockwood and Company. (a) Rockwood and Company, Washington, Park and Waverly Avenues, Brooklyn, New York, is hereby authorized to reduce the size of its pecan nut bar known as "Pecan Feast" packed 24 to a box, from 1¼ ounces to 1⅛ ounces net per bar. Rockwood and Company is further authorized to increase the price of such 1⅛ ounce "Pecan Feast" bar to 67 cents per box of 24 bars delivered and sell said candy at this price. Authorization to reduce the size of "Pecan Feast" is given on the specific condition that in reducing the size of this bar Rockwood and Company shall not change or alter its formula for such bar in any manner.

(b) The adjustment is granted to Rockwood and Company on condition that purchasers from it shall in no event charge more for the present 1⅛ ounce bar of "Pecan Feast" at retail than their maximum prices for the 1¼ ounce bar of "Pecan Feast" as determined pursuant to the General Maximum Price Regulation or as adjusted pursuant to section 18 of said regulation.

(c) All wholesalers and retailers who purchase "Pecan Feast" for resale are hereby permitted to sell said bar in its new weight of 1⅛ ounces at a price not in excess of the maximum price which they established for the 1¼ ounces of "Pecan Feast" pursuant to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(d) All sellers are required to continue the same discounts, allowances and price differentials as they offered in March, 1942: Provided however, That sellers may change discounts, allowances and price differentials only if such changes result in prices lower than the maximum price fixed herein.

(e) Rockwood and Company shall mail or cause to be mailed to all persons who purchase "Pecan Feast" from it for resale, a notice reading as follows:

The Office of Price Administration has permitted us to raise our maximum price of our "Pecan Feast" bar from 64 cents per box of 24 bars to 67 cents per box of 24 bars delivered. We have further been authorized to reduce the weight of this bar from 1¼ ounces to 1⅛ ounces. This reduction in weight and increase in price represent only that part of the cost increases which we were unable to absorb and permission to increase our price was granted with the understanding that the increase in price would not cause an increase in wholesale and retail prices. The Office of Price Administration has not permitted you or any other seller to raise maximum prices of sales for said 1⅛ ounce bar of "Pecan Feast." It does however authorize you and all other sellers to charge for the new 1⅛ ounce bar a price which is not in excess of the maximum price you established for the 1¼ ounce bar pursuant to the General Maximum Price Regulation. In order that we may continue to provide you with "Pecan Feast" bars it will be necessary for you to accept this reduction in margin.

(f) Rockwood and Company shall attach to or place in each smallest box or other packing unit of "Pecan Feast," a notice reading as follows:

The weight of our "Pecan Feast" bar has been reduced to 1⅛ ounces. The Office of Price Administration has authorized all retailers to sell this 1⅛ ounce bar of "Pecan Feast" for a price not in excess of the maximum price established by each retailer for the 1¼ ounce bar of "Pecan Feast" pursuant to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(g) All prayers of the Applicant not granted herein are denied.

(h) This Order No. 176 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(i) This Order No 176 (§ 1499.1077) is hereby incorporated as a Section of Supplementary Regulation No. 14 which contains modifications of maximum prices established by § 1499.2.

(j) This Order No. 176 (§ 1499.1077) shall become effective January 23, 1943.

PART 1305—ADMINISTRATION

RATION BANKING; DEPOSITORS

Preamble. Billions of ration stamps and coupons are turned in to retailers annually by consumers of sugar, coffee and gasoline. Retailers must transfer the stamps, or their equivalent, to wholesalers in order to replenish their stocks; wholesalers must repeat this process. Obviously some system of exchanging stamps and coupons for ration evidences of larger denominations is essential, to avoid counting, transporting and storing tremendous bulks of paper at each trade level.

At present, approximately 5,500 local boards, largely composed of volunteer personnel, are performing this function. This means that the boards must count the stamps turned in, issue certificates against them, store the stamps and keep records of the transactions. Experience has demonstrated that these boards are not staffed or equipped to handle this mechanical, time-consuming task and that it interferes with the performance of their more important administrative duties. The addition of new rationing programs, with new stamps, coupons and other ration evidences, will make their load unmanageable.

The ration banking plan has been devised to relieve the boards of this burden. The commercial banks of the country have the necessary bookkeeping machinery and facilities, and are well equipped to handle the job. The plan has been tested in the Albany area of New York State, where it worked successfully. It is now being instituted on a nationwide basis.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator by Public Laws 421, 507, and 729, 77th Cong., by Executive Order No. 9125, issued by the President on April 7, 1942: It is hereby ordered, That:

SUBPART A—HOW RATION BANKING OPERATES

§ 1305.431 Only authorized persons become depositors. Various ration orders of the Office of Price Administrations, such as the sugar and gasoline orders, require certain persons, (and authorize others) to have ration bank accounts. These persons alone may become depositors, and may open only the accounts specifically authorized by the various ration orders.

§ 1305.432 Each person is a depositor as to each of his accounts. Each person who opens one or more accounts is a separate depositor as to each of his accounts. Thus, a person who has a sugar account and a coffee account is both a sugar depositor and a coffee depositor. If one person has two establishments and opens a separate sugar account for each, he is a sugar depositor as to each account.

§ 1304.433 Depositor deposits evidences and uses checks. A ration bank account is used in much the same way as an ordinary dollar checking account. A depositor will deposit in his account stamps, coupons, certificates and other evidences, including checks, which he receives. He will then write and issue his own checks, drawn on the credits in his account. In the case of a dollar checking account, a depositor may either deposit his money and issue dollar checks to pay his bills, or he may transfer the money itself. A ration banking depositor has no such choice. He may surrender or transfer evidences received by him only to his bank for deposit. To other persons he may only issue a check drawn on his account. A person who is required to open an account but does not do so may not transfer or surrender evidences to any person for any purpose. No person may accept evidences which he knows or has reason to believe are transferred or surrendered in violation of this section.

§ 1305.434 Checks issued only by depositors for authorized purposes. Only a depositor may issue a check. No person other than a depositor may issue a document purporting to be a check, and a check or a document purporting to be a check may not be accepted from any person who the recipient knows or has reason to believe is not a depositor. A check may be issued by and accepted from a depositor only for the purposes permitted and with the effect prescribed by the ration order authorizing the account.

§ 1305.435 How ration banking is administered. The operation of each ration bank account is governed by three separate orders: (a) The ration order, such as gasoline or sugar, authorizing certain persons to become depositors and prescribing, for the particular program, the evidences valid for deposit and the circumstances under which a check may be used; (b) General Ration Order No. 3, prescribing the duties and governing the operation of banks participating in ration banking; and (c) this order, containing the uniform rules to which all depositors under all ration orders must conform. Ration banking is administered by banks and by other agencies and personnel designated by the Office of Price Administration. These banks act as agencies of (and under the direction and supervision of) the Office of Price Administration, and are responsible only to the Office of Price Administration.

SUBPART B OPENING A RATION BANK ACCOUNT

§ 1305.441 Account opened where dollar account kept. The first ration bank account of any person must be opened at a bank where he has a dollar checking account. If he opens separate accounts for separate establishments, under one rationing program, the account for any establishment must be opened at a bank at which he has a dollar checking account for that establishment. If he has no such dollar checking account, the account may be opened at any bank. Subsequent accounts of the same person, or for the same establishment, under a different rationing program, must be opened at the bank carrying the first account.

§ 1305.442 Separate account required for each rationing program. A person may not open one account for more than one rationing program, but must open a separate account for each. For example, he may not open one account for both coffee and sugar, but must open a coffee account and a sugar account.

§ 1305.443 Not more than one account per establishment for one program permitted. No person may open for any one establishment, more than one account for a single rationing program. For example, a person may not open two sugar accounts for one establishment.

§ 1305.444 Signature cards and other papers required. A person opens his first account in any bank by completing, signing and delivering to the bank signature cards supplied by the bank. He may open any additional account at that bank by requesting the bank to enter the additional account on the original signature cards. If the bank requests new signature cards, however, he must complete and deliver them. He shall also submit, if the bank requests them, references, other proofs of identity and documents showing his authority to execute the signature cards and to engage in business. If, after an account is opened, new persons are authorized to sign checks drawn on that account, new signature cards must be completed and delivered, and such new documents as the bank requests must be submitted.

SUBPART C—MAKING DEPOSITS

§ 1305.451 Evidences not deposited within valid periods are invalid. Evidences which are in the possession of a depositor when he opens his account, or are thereafter accepted by him, and which are not deposited in his account within the valid periods prescribed for their deposit by the ration order authorizing that account, are invalid.

§ 1305.452 Evidences deposited only in account for establishment receiving them. Evidences received by or for an establishment of a depositor may be deposited only in the account carried for that establishment.

§ 1305.453 Deposit slips used. All evidences presented for deposit must be in the form prescribed by the ration order authorizing the account, and accompanied by a deposit slip filled out in duplicate, in the form prescribed by the Office of Price Administration, indicating each item deposited by type and amount and, in the case of a ration check, by transit number. Upon making a deposit, the depositor will obtain a copy of the deposit slip initialed or stamped by the bank. Deposits will be accepted subject to count and verification by the bank.

§ 1305.454 Errors in deposit slips corrected. If a depositor receives from his bank a notice of an error in a deposit slip, he must correct his duplicate copy. He must bring any objection to the attention of the bank within ten (10) days after receipt of the notice.

SUBPART D—ISSUING CHECKS

§ 1305.461 Checks and stubs filled out. Each check and its stub must be completely filled out before the check may be issued. Both check and stub must contain the name of the person to whom the check is to be issued, the date on which it is drawn and the amount of credits to be transferred. The check must bear the depositor's authorized signature or signatures. Checks may not be filled out or signed in pencil.

§ 1305.462 Post-dated checks prohibited. No person may issue or accept a check bearing a date later than the date of issue.

§ 1305.463 Overdrafts prohibited. No check may be drawn on an account for an amount larger than the balance in the account, less the amount of outstanding checks drawn on that account.

§ 1305.464 Altered checks prohibited. No check containing an erasure or alteration may be issued or accepted.

§ 1305.465 Certified checks issued to the Office of Price Administration. A depositor who issues a check to a board or to the Office of Price Administration or to a regional, State or district office thereof, shall make the check payable to the Office of Price Administration, and shall have it certified or confirmed by his bank before issuing it.

§ 1305.466 Check issued only to person to whose account it is payable. A check may be issued only to and accepted only by the person to whose account it is made payable.

SUBPART E—USING ISSUED CHECKS

§ 1305.471 Checks generally not transferable: Exceptions. The rule is that a check may not be transferred by or accepted from a person to whom it has been issued. The three exceptions to the rule are:

(a) A depositor to whom a check is properly issued must endorse it and transfer it to his bank for deposit in his account. It may not be deposited in an account of any other depositor. His bank will forward the check to the bank carrying the account on which it is drawn, where it will be charged to that account.

(b) A person to whom a check is issued and who neither is nor is required to be a depositor must endorse the check and transfer it to a board. He will receive in exchange other evidences having the same value as the check. However, in instances where the ration order authorizing the account on which the check is drawn so provides, such a person must endorse and surrender the check to a board or to the appropriate office of the Office of Price Administration without receiving other evidences in exchange for the check. The board or office receiving a check from such a person must endorse it and return it to the bank carrying the account on which it is drawn, where it will be charged to that account.

(c) An altered, mutilated or partially destroyed check may not be deposited or transferred to a board or to the Office of Price Administration. A person who holds such a check must return it to the depositor on whose account it is drawn and request a valid check.

§ 1305.472 Lost check reported. A person who loses or unintentionally destroys a check issued to him shall notify in writing the depositor on whose account the check is drawn of the circumstances of the loss or destruction and request a new check.

§ 1305.473 Depositor replaces altered and lost checks and reports lost checks to bank. A depositor to whom an altered, mutilated or partially destroyed check is returned, or who receives notification of the loss or destruction of a check, must issue a new check to the person to whom the original was issued. He must enter on the stub of the original check the fact that it has been lost, altered, mutilated, partially or completely destroyed, and on the stub of the new check the fact that it replaces the original check. Each depositor shall immediately send his bank a written description of any checks drawn on his account and lost before deposit, together with a statement of the circumstances of the loss and a description of the check issued to replace the lost check.

SUBPART F—OTHER RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF DEPOSITORS

§ 1305.481 Depositor reports errors in statements. Each depositor is entitled to receive from his bank at least quarterly a statement of his account and all cancelled checks which were charged against his account during the period covered by the statement, except certified checks and those statements and checks which the bank is required to forward to the Office of Price Administration. He must bring any objection to a statement to the attention of the bank within ten (10) days after the statement has been made available to him.

§ 1305.482 Depositor examines account. A depositor may examine the bank records of his account during the regular business hours of the bank. He must bring any objection to such records to the attention of the bank within ten (10) days after the examination.

§ 1305.483 Disputes over balances referred to the Office of Price Administration. A depositor who has brought to the attention of his bank a timely objection to the bank's records of his balance or his account may, within twenty (20) days after making the objection, write a letter stating the facts to the district office of the Office of Price Administration. The District Manager shall then decide the dispute. An appeal from the decision of the District Manager may be made in the manner provided by Procedural Regulation No. 9 (Uniform Appeals Procedure) for appeals from the action of a State Director. Further appeals may be made as provided in that regulation. If the objection of the depositor is not sustained, the bank's records shall be final.

§ 1305.484 Accounts subject to control of the Office of Price Administration. The Office of Price Administration may require the opening, closing, debiting, crediting or other disposal of any account, whether or not the depositor has requested such action.

§ 1305.485 Depositor gets permission to transfer or close accounts. A person may not transfer an account from a bank (even though he has transferred or closed his dollar account), close an account or change the name in which an account is carried, until he has received authorization to do so from the district office. A depositor may request the authorization by stating, in a letter to the district office, the reasons for the request. Authority shall be given in a proper case. Notification of any such authorization will be given by the district office to the bank which carries the account.

§ 1305.486 Depositor who ceases to use account notifies district office. A depositor who closes or sells any establishment for which an account is carried, or who ceases to deal in a rationed commodity, or who for any reason ceases to use an account, shall immediately write a letter to the district office, stating all the facts.

§ 1305.487 Accounts not subject to legal process. An account is not subject to attachment, garnishment, levy, execution, injunction or similar legal process, except on written authorization from the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1305.488 Depositor keeps records. A depositor must keep for at least two years all duplicate copies of deposit slips, notices of errors in deposit slips, statements of account made available to him, cancelled checks returned to him, all stubs from which checks have been detached, returned or unissued checks, and unused and spoiled check forms. He must keep a record of the disposition of each check form detached from its stub, whether or not it is filled out or issued. All records are subject to inspection, removal or other disposition only by the Department of Justice, the Office of Price Administration or any other persons designated by the Office of Price Administration.
